Reflection on the Gospel this Sunday

This passage in the Gospel of John tells of the time shortly before Jesus is arrested. Jesus is instructing his disciples to pay close attention to the Holy Spirit that he will send, which will be the Spirit of truth. Jesus, knowing he is going to die, tells his disciples, "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now" (16:12). Jesus knows, however, that he will not be able to reveal everything in the short time he has left with the disciples, nor will they comprehend everything. Therefore, Jesus promises to send the Spirit as a source of ongoing revelation: "When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth" (16:13).

Jesus clarifies that the Spirit will speak on behalf of God the Father and himself: "For [the Spirit] will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears" (16:13). Jesus assures the disciples that the Spirit will be with them always as a source of God's revelation: "[The Spirit] will take what is mine and declare it to you" (16:14). What the Spirit makes known, in essence, is the will of Jesus. Jesus then tells his disciples that what the Spirit declares is not only his will but also the will of the Father, because the two are one and the same: "All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that [the Spirit] will take what is mine and declare it to you" (16:15). John makes it clear that the Spirit given by Jesus will guide the disciples to the very heart of all truth, which is God. This is true in a dynamic way for the disciples and the early Church and it is also true for the Church today. The Spirit of truth continues to make known the will of God: "[The Spirit] will declare to you the things that are to come" (16:13).

From Fr David

Dear friends,

We were greatly shocked last weekend to learn of the sudden death of Michael Lee. Michael suffered a fall, sustaining an injury to which he succumbed on Saturday 4 June. Michael and Amelia, his wife who works in our parish office, have been involved in so many different ways in the life of our parish community. We will greatly miss Michael who has been a constant presence in our parish family. We extend to Amelia, Joyce and Oswald our deepest sympathy. Michael was farewelled from our parish church on Friday 10 June. A very special thank you to all those who could be there to offer their support to Michael's family at this sad time.

Also during the week we had the sad occurrence of the death of Deacon Kevin Hale's mother, Marion Pyne. Marion has been in ill health for some time. She passed away peacefully just short of her 100th birthday on 7 June. Eternal rest be granted unto her.

From Fr David cont'd

This coming week all our clergy of the Diocese will be at the annual clergy conference. The conference commences on Monday evening and goes through until Thursday evening. It will be at Mercure Kooindah Waters near Wyong. Please keep us in your prayer. We are being joined this year by Archbishop Michael Byrnes from Guam who will lead us through our daily reflections, and the Apostolic Nuncio, Archbishop Charles Balvo will join us for our final dinner on Thursday. It is always a wonderful opportunity to share our priestly fraternity and to be nourished in spirit, mind and body.

A very special thank you to the priest of the Prelature of the Holy Cross who will celebrate our parish Masses during the week and to Bishop David who will also provide assistance. Fr Ed Barry will celebrate the 9am Masses on Tuesday 14 June 9am; and Fr Matt Bloomer will celebrate the 9am Masses on Wednesday 15 and 16 June. Bishop David will celebrate the 12.30pm Masses on Tuesday and Wednesday, and Deacon Kevin will lead a Liturgy of the Word with Communion at 12.30pm on Thursday 17 June,

Don't forget the special opportunity to join Bishop David online on Sunday evening. Over these weeks, Bishop David is presenting a series of talks on the great Feastdays we are celebrating. Last week's seminar can be accessed at <https://youtu.be/3pdpkbhJBhs>

THE CATHOLIC WEEKLY

Remember to pick up The Catholic Weekly as it has your local and international news, views, and opinion. There is a top line-up of columnists' and contributors such as Dr Philippa Martyr, Anna Krohn, George Weigel, Monica Doumit and Fr John Flader – to name just a few! The Catholic Weekly really is more relevant than ever, and keeps you informed and in touch with the Catholic world.... pick up your copy each week from the church foyer for just $2!

NEW PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES

New Planned Giving envelopes for 2022/2023 are available for pick up in the Church foyer. The boxes of envelopes are in alphabetical order. Please note that your Planned Giving Envelope no. might be different from last year. Thank you for collecting them this way as it saves a considerable amount on postage costs for the parish.

PIETY STORE

Just a reminder from the Piety Store. We are still accepting postage stamps (used). They have been a very welcome, extra source of income for the Sisters of St Joseph in Peru over the years. In the years before Covid they often made more than $10,000 just from the sales of our used stamps! There will be a box for them inside the Piety Store.

Thank you very much.

First Communion 2022

This week, the children preparing for First Communion have been exploring the Last Supper story in detail and how this links with the celebration of the Eucharist.

We have focussed particularly on the power of the Holy Spirit and the Words of Institution, which transform the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ.

During our Vigil, 9am and 10:30am Masses' this week, the children will be called forward to gather closely around the altar during the Eucharistic Prayer.

The children will receive their First Holy Communion at the 9:00am and 10:30am Masses on the weekends of 19 and 26 June.

Please keep the children and their families in your prayers during this time of preparation.

If you have any queries about the children's sacraments program, please contact Angela or Mona at: chatswood.sacraments@bbcatholic.org.au

The Piety Stall has a range of First Communion gifts and greeting cards in stock. Below are just a few. Please come and have a browse.

Thank you Our Lady of Dolours Primary School

JRS 2022 FOOD DRIVE

Thank You!

Our Lady of Dolours Primary School families made a very generous donation to the annual JRS Parish Food Drive. Thank you to Ms Camilla Brown for organising the appeal and special thanks to the OLD families. Ms Sarah Baynie and Mrs Sarah Onishe also organised a Donate a Donut appeal that raised $300.00

Thank you to Nigel Wilkens-Smith who delivered the food donations to JRS at Parramatta. Special thanks to Year Six students who helped Noelle and Nigel Wilkens-Smith load the car. Again, thank you to Richard Larkins who delivered the food donations from the parish earlier in the same week. JRS very much appreciated the generous response of food donations and also the financial donations from Our Lady of Dolours school families and parishioners.

Will you be a part of St Vincent de Paul?

Over the last few weeks we have been highlighting the St Vincent De Paul Society and its 110 years of ministry in Chatswood.

We thank those who carried out this work and pray that all who have died are resting in peace.

We have been reminded of the extent of works carried out by the Society at large in helping the disadvantaged eg providing shelter for those escaping violence and vaccination of the homeless in Sydney. In a recent 12 month period Chatswood Conference alone provided assistance of more than $10,000

Obviously there is a great need for funds to carry out these works which are deserving of our support.

The Society is dependent on a steady supply of donations of reusable and sellable clothing and goods to its stores such as the one in Victoria Ave Chatswood. So always please keep this in mind when such situations occur.

Winter Appeal

The Society is heavily dependent on its statewide Winter and Summer Appeals. The Society is grateful for your past generosity. In April 22, the Chatswood Conference attended to 11 requests for help and provided more than $2000 of assistance plus furniture and clothing. This expenditure alone was nearly the same as that generated in the last Summer Appeal .

The Winter Appeal is on next weekend 18/19 June and your generosity is again requested. There will be envelopes around the Church

Seeking New Members

We have seen that the local Conference , if it is to continue , is in need of new members. We have seen what being a member involves and it is not difficult but involves a commitment to helping the poor as needed.

There will be a formal request for new members on 2/3 July and we hope that those who may be interested will think about their response over the next couple of weeks. We pray there will be a positive response so that there will be many more anniversaries.

The following is a comment from one of the Chatswood Conference to the question -Why did you join?

"I joined Vinnies soon after retiring in 2003 so that I could volunteer at the Mathew Talbot Hostel. As it turned out, to work at the hostel, one doesn't have to be a Vinnies member!

Nevertheless, I kept my membership of the Chatswood Conference going, as there was a constant flow of needy people requiring assistance. The Conference number was very small and the dedication of people like Pat Broderick(dec) and Joan Antarakis was amazing."

Listening with the Ear of the Heart

A 3-week Introduction to Contemplative Listening at the Edge

Facilitated by Elizabeth Lee

"Listening is the oldest and perhaps the most powerful tool of healing. It is often through the quality of our listening and not the wisdom of our words that we are able to effect the most profound changes in the people around us". Rachel Naomi Remen.

Loneliness, disconnection, isolation are common experiences for all of us. And we can do something about this. Elizabeth Lee has a passion for fostering human connection through deep listening and for being a listening presence. This program will explore how we can all cultivate human connection one conversation at a time, by sitting and talking with another. Liz will conduct three sessions to develop our intentional empathic listening skills.

Chronic loneliness and disconnection lead to heart disease and early death, increases in depression and anxiety, social polarization, and increases in impulsive and violent behaviour. We are all touched directly and indirectly by the effects of loneliness. This is particularly the case for those on the edges of our families, communities and nation.

While these sessions are designed for supporting vulnerable people – a person living with homelessness, a struggling teenager, a friend with mental ill-health, a parent with dementia – they will of benefit for anyone who wishes to acquire skills in deep listening.

Week 1: Starting with the Why: listening to foster human connection and well-being

Week 2: Being Fully Present: present to self, present to the other

Week 3: Well-being for All: navigating difficult encounters

9:30-12 noon Saturday 11, 18 and 25 June
Magnificat Room Our Lady of Dolours Chatswood

Elizabeth is a Spiritual Director, Pastoral Supervisor, Retreat Facilitator with a passion for fostering human connection through deep listening and for being a listening presence among the fringes.

Helping People. Changing Lives.

SUBMISSION TO THE NSW UPPER HOUSE
STANDING COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL ISSUES
Inquiry into homelessness amongst older people aged over 55
in New South Wales

Jo Karaolis, Committee Chair Community Action

We are a parish committee seeking to be the face and voice of Jesus in Chatswood and its environs. As such we are daily confronted by the increase in the number of rough sleepers on the streets and in stairwells and doorways of shopping centres. We recognise that homelessness is a complex matter with an array of causes including mental health problems and addiction. Our own conversations with people on our streets have identified some for whom homelessness is a choice and others who have case workers seeking to find them a place. We have met a woman and child newly homeless after fleeing a DV situation and in our own group we have a member who relied on family to provide her a bed and when this was no longer available, had a long and worrying search before she was able to find an affordable place to rent. Another member of the group was forced from her home with her two daughters after a particularly violent attack by her husband. She hoped to stay in the northern suburbs so that her daughters would not have to leave the school where they had friends. 'It was bad enough losing their father and their home, without them also losing their school and their friends'. But she could not find affordable rental accommodation and was forced to uproot the girls and herself at the worst time of their lives.

These personal contacts with homelessness led our group to campaign with others for Ku-ring-gai Council to do its share of the heavy lifting required by all levels of government to address homelessness in NSW. We discovered that Ku-ring-gai Council, perhaps alone in NSW, did not have an Affordable Housing policy and that the Council had instructed Council Staff not to consider preparing one. The then Mayor, Jennifer Anderson, used a statement by the Minister for Planning, Rob Stokes that Councils were not legally obliged to follow the State Government's housing plans, to re-write the NSW planning guidelines with regard to mid-density housing that was designed to help provide affordable housing and rent.

Members of our group met with past Ku-ring-gai Mayors to ask them about the lack of an affordable housing and rental policy and each indicated that Ku-ring-gai residents, in their view, saw affordable housing as detrimental to their house values and amenity and that they agreed with them. We also met with members of the FOKE organisation and the Support Lindfield association who worked politically to oppose any supporter of 'high density' housing including any advocate of affordable housing and rental. We found it difficult to have an audience for a nuanced conversation that referenced international examples of affordable and social housing that blend comfortably in high-value residential areas. It was made clear in these conversations that the fundamental objection was not just the appearance of social and affordable housing but the assumed low-social status of intended occupants. We also held an extended meeting with the local State member and former Minister for Housing, Alister Henskens, who told us that we would never get Ku-ring-gai residents to support affordable housing because NIMBY attitudes would prevail. He also suggested that it was ill-considered on our part to think that Ku-ring-gai should be required to provide its contribution to social and affordable housing and suggested focusing on Hornsby and areas further out.

We are making this submission to the Upper House Inquiry to underline the need for change to public perceptions of those who experience homelessness, especially the aged and more particularly, women over 55. Public negative attitudes, especially in entitled areas like the northern suburbs of Sydney must be reversed. This is an area with plenty of space, house lots that can be readily developed into affordable housing, a population with the education to understand the factors causing people, women especially, to become homeless. There are also churches with surplus land whose congregations are keen to develop them into rental accommodation affordable by the homeless. Leadership and support are required to tap into these resources.

We submit that an alliance between the NSW government and social organisations, churches and NFP's with a role in housing can provide both the moral and logistical leadership that can quieten the NIMBY response, provide environmentally positive housing solutions and tap into the property resources currently locked up on the north shore. Such an initiative is essential to help address the growing problem of homelessness especially among women over 55 who lose their homes due to sickness, unemployment, domestic violence and/or increasing rental prices and interest charges on mortgages.

"Walk with Christ"

is an event organised by the Archdiocese of Sydney annually to mark the feast of Corpus Christi. In the last two years it was cancelled due to Covid19 but prior to that between 7000 - 10,000 people participated in the procession.

"The Walk with Christ annual Eucharistic Procession through the streets of Sydney exists to make a joyful public proclamation and act of worship towards the person of Jesus Christ (as King), and to invoke His blessing upon the city. The presence of Eucharist in this joyful liturgical act invokes the benevolent spiritual blessings of Christ onto the city and all who live there. The blessing is derived from He who has been "anointed to proclaim the good news to the poor ...to proclaim freedom for prisoners and sight to the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour." It is in this way that the Walk with Christ is part of the spiritual and civic life of the city and Catholic Archdiocese of Sydney".

To effectively live out our evangelising mission today in our parishes and communities requires a reorientation towards a missionary mindset where we focus on taking the Good News outwards from our parishes through both word and action. This six session Diocesan Course will lay a foundation for such a missionary mindset, by equipping participants with effective knowledge and skills to be fruitful in this mission.

This course is suitable for Clergy; Parish Pastoral Council members; Parish leaders; Pastoral Associates; Parish Staff; Ministry leaders and teams; and interested parishioners. You may wish to register as a Parish hub, where parishioners can gather in person at the parish and join the Tuesday Zoom sessions as a group

Requests for Mass Intentions

It is a privilege for one of our priests to be able to offer Mass for a special intention, especially at the time someone has died or on the occasion of their anniversary. We welcome such requests. It is important to note, however, that a priest can only receive one intention per Mass. Therefore, it may not be possible to have a Mass offered on a specific day and at a particular time, given that the priest may already have allocated an intention for the Mass. Do be assured that if a Mass cannot be offered on a specific occasion it will be offered by a priest at the first available opportunity. Notwithstanding, if you would like a Mass for a specific purpose at a particular time, please contact a priest directly to seek to arrange this. All emails are on the back page of this bulletin.

Altar Flower Signup 2022

If you would like to reserve a date for Altar flowers, please contact Nicole in the Parish Office on 9410 9020 or nicole.gorman@bbcatholic.org.au. Altar flower arrangements can be in memory of a loved one, or in honor of a special occasion; birthdays, anniversaries, baptisms, marriages, etc.. The suggested donation for flower memorials is $100. Volunteers will then beautifully and simply arrange the flowers for Sunday.

Please submit your donation at least one week prior to the date you would like to dedicate the flowers. This will give the parish office time to ensure your dedication is in the weekly bulletin.
