A message from Fr David.

Dear Friends,

Welcome back! It feels like such a homecoming being able to re-open our church and to return to something more usual. An enormous word of gratitude to our parish staff who have worked so hard over the last couple of weeks to ensure the life of our community could run as smoothly as it has. Thank you, too, to our Welcomers and others who ensured that our Masses last weekend in Harrington Hall were celebrated as well as they were. I am pleased to share that the intended project of the last couple of weeks was successfully completed. This now ensures that the body of work for the church's renovation can unfold. We did not need to remove all the green carpet in the end. Where it has been removed, the floor will look bare until we determine the best floor covering. However, this will be one of the last considerations after all the other work has been completed.

There are a number of options related to our church's renovation for our consideration as part of our DA submission to Council towards the end of October: colour scheme, lighting options, foyer re-design, northern entrance extension. Stuart Cunningham from Project Strategies Australia will be with us at 3.00pm on Saturday 17 October 2026 in Harrington Hall to present these options to us. All are welcome to come along. It will be important to gauge our sense of things before decisions need to be made.

We were sorry to learn of the death last week of Dolour Meagher, wife of the late Terry Meagher. Many in the parish will know Dolour as she served in multiple ministries - Catechist, Reader at Sat Vigil Mass, Communion Minister - for many years. Dolour will be farewelled from our church on Tuesday 13 October at 10.30am. Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon her.

This coming week all our clergy will be away. Fr Anselam is on annual leave prior to his departure from us on Tuesday 21 October, and Fr Hien and me need to travel to Vietnam to represent our Diocese at the opening and blessing of the new shrine of Our Lady of Nui Cui in the Diocese of Xuan Loc. We leave Monday morning and return next Friday morning. Given this, we will need to have an adapted schedule of Masses this coming week. There will be one daily Mass celebrated at 12.30pm each day Monday - Friday. Adoration will still be celebrated on Thursday 15 October at 7.00pm.

We have several special occasions before us. On this Sunday at our 10.30am Mass we are joined by Jen Curry from Diamond Women, a ministry helping women with a difficult and/or unwanted pregnancy. On Saturday 5.30pm Mass on 17 October we have a special diocesan Mass for Vocations being celebrated in our church. Our 10.30am Mass on Sunday 18 October will be our farewell Mass for Fr Anselam, followed by Morning Tea at which we will also have our annual Blessing of Animals to conclude our Season of Creation.

Finally, though I will say more about it next weekend, due to the remarkable giftedness and generosity of Brendan Tertini, our Parish Annual Report is now available! It can be found at <https://docsend.com/v/dbnpb/annual-report-25-26>. This is a tremendous showcase of our parish vibrancy. Hard copies will be available in the coming week.

We acknowledge the Cammeraygal People of the Eora Nation, custodians of the land on which our parish stands and we commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of national reconciliation.

As a Parish of Catholic Faith we are committed to ensuring always a community of safety and care for all, especially for children, and those who are vulnerable.

Parish Priest, Our Lady of Dolours Church

Church Closed for Hazardous Material Removal

Our church and parish office has been closed for hazardous chemical removal from 28 September to 9 October. Consequently, weekday masses were cancelled. A special thank you to all who helped clear the church, Dei & Jiggs Pagunuran, Kats and Marvin Tabalon, who stayed for quite a long while the evening before the works started, and countless others who pitched in after the 5:30pm mass!

On the weekend of 3 and 4 October, Saturday vigil and Sunday masses were held in Harrington Hall. We thank our Welcoming Teams for assisting and directing parishioners to find the hall, all the readers, altar servers, wardens and volunteers who helped to make the gatherings possible. Close to 1000 attendees came to mass over the two days.

Parish Book Club

Our Book Club is currently studying The Reed of God by Caryl Houselander, a spiritual classic that invites readers to encounter Mary as fully human and intimately relatable. Caryl Houselander portrays her not as a distant figure but as a reed--a musical instrument hollow and open, through which God's song could be played. With this powerful image, Houselander reveals how Mary gave her whole being to God's plan and shows how we, too, can become instruments of divine love.

Next meeting: Wednesday 4 November 2026 7:30pm in Magnificat Room.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isa 25:6-10

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

*The Lord will prepare a feast and will wipe away
the tears from every cheek.*

On this mountain,
the Lord of hosts will prepare for all people
a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines, of food rich and juicy, of fine strained wines.

On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations,
he will destroy Death for ever.

The Lord will wipe away
the tears from every cheek;
he will take away his people's shame
everywhere on earth,

for the Lord has said so.

That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation;
the Lord is the one in whom we hoped.

We exult and we rejoice
that he has saved us;

for the hand of the Lord rests on this mountain.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 22. R. v. 6

R. I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

1. The Lord is my shepherd; / there is nothing I shall want. / Fresh and green are the pastures / where he gives me repose. / Near restful waters he leads me, / to revive my drooping spirit. R.

2. He guides me along the right path; / he is true to his name. / If I should walk in the valley of darkness / no evil would I fear. /
You are there with your crook and your staff; / with these you give me comfort. R.

3. You have prepared a banquet for me / in the sight of my foes. / My head you have anointed with oil; / my cup is overflowing. R.

4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me / all the days of my life. / In the Lord's own house shall I dwell / for ever and ever. R.

SECOND READING

Phil 4:12-14, 19-20

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

I am able to do all things in him who strengthens me.

I know how to be poor and I know how to be rich too. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere:
full stomach or empty stomach, poverty or plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can. Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

cf. Eph 1:17, 18

Alleluia, alleluia! / May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ / enlighten the eyes of our heart, / that we might see how great is the hope / to which we are called. / Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mt 22:1-14

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

Whomsoever you find invite to the wedding.

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited"
he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding.” But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He despatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants. “The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding.” So these servants went out on to the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

When the king came in to look at the guests he noticed one man who was not wearing a wedding garment, and said to him, “How did you get in here, my friend, without a wedding garment?” And the man was silent. Then the king said to the attendants, “Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.” For many are called, but few are chosen.’

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Shorter form, Mt 22: 1-10

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH APOSTLES' CREED

Or the Nicene Creed may be said.

I believe in God, / the Father almighty, / Creator of heaven and earth, / and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, / who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, / born of the Virgin Mary, / suffered under Pontius Pilate, / was crucified, died and was buried; / he descended into hell; / on the third day he rose again from the dead; / he ascended into heaven, / and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; / from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. / I believe in the Holy Spirit, / the holy catholic Church, / the communion of saints, / the forgiveness of sins, / the resurrection of the body, / and life everlasting. BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

COME TO THE WEDDING!

For the third Sunday, Jesus addresses religious leaders. Again, as last Sunday, it concerns their refusal to accept God's invitation to join the feast of the Kingdom. Jesus describes the Kingdom as a wedding feast hosted by a king for his son. Those invited fail to turn up for this sumptuous feast. 'Come to the wedding' is the invitation, but, according to Matthew's story, they are 'not interested'. They have different distractions and interests. Joining the king's feast is not on their agenda. The invitation is in fact such an annoyance or distraction that the invitees maltreat and even kill the messengers. The king responds punishing them. Clearly, the king's response is not meant to represent God. It would be unfortunate to make this identification and reinforce the image of a punishing God!

The point of the story is about the attitude of those invited to join the heavenly banquet, an image of the eucharistic celebration, and those who will eventually join the feast. These guests are identified in the Gospel's last verses: people from the 'roads', symbolic of all people on the path of life and the synodal journey. Everyone, 'bad and good alike', fill the wedding hall. The Eucharist is not a reward for the perfect but sustenance for the weak – for us. As Pope Francis writes, 'The Eucharist, although it is the fullness of sacramental life, is not a prize for the perfect but a powerful medicine and nourishment for the weak.' (The Joy of the Gospel, n 47).

Couples for Christ Program

The Christian Life Program (CLP) is a journey of discovering or renewing our relationship with Jesus, strengthening family life, and learning to live out our Christian faith through community and service.

On Sunday, 20 September 2026, the group joyfully concluded their CLP with three couples from the parish graduating from the program:

Adam Steinhoff & Maggie Wan
Joshua Wong & Joyce Chen
DJ Castillo & Alyssa Joyce Castillo

Over the eight weeks from 2 August to 20 September, our graduates committed their time to listening to talks, engaging in discussions, learning more about God, rediscovering their Christian life, strengthening family values, and discovering how they can be of service to others.

Adam & Maggie shared:

"Eight weeks is not easy to commit to, but we said yes to it. After attending the sessions, we found ourselves thinking about what was said during the talks, and we were actually looking forward to the next one."

Joshua & Joyce shared:

"We are so thankful to you, CFCA, because this is the first time that my wife and I have been able to sit down together and listen to the Word of God. Our faith has been transformed; everyone is so inspiring."

DJ & Alyssa shared:

"Since coming to Australia, we never had a community. Now, we are so blessed—not only because we experienced the CLP and met new friends, but our marriage life is better now."

As Couples for Christ Australia, we will continue to help one another grow in maturity as men and women of God and fulfil our primary vocation by raising families under the Lordship of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit.

🙏 We would like to sincerely thank Fr David Ranson and the entire Our Lady of Dolours Parish community for their generous support and hospitality throughout the program.

If you would like to be part of our community or learn more about our upcoming programs, please email cfca.nsw@gmail.com or visit www.cfcaustralia.org.

May we continue to grow together in faith, family, and service. God bless!

Bro. Jasper Rocha CLP Team Leader

Praise And Worship

If you've never been to a Praise & Worship night, here's the honest version: it's not a concert, and it's not a classroom. It starts with food and people (the part where you find your friends, meet a few new ones, and stop feeling like the new kid).

Then the band plays, and something in the room shifts. You don't have to know the songs. You don't have to sing loudly, or at all. You can stand at the back with your arms crossed for the first three songs, and plenty of people do.

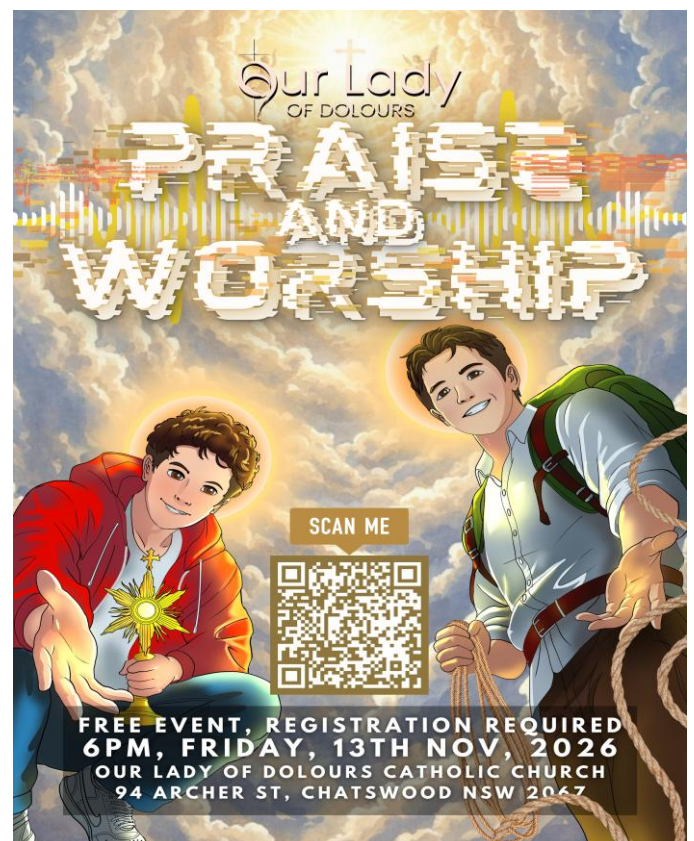

Somewhere in the middle there's a talk, and time for Reconciliation if you want it. Then comes Adoration, and the room goes quiet in a way that's hard to find anywhere else these days. Afterwards the band comes back with everything they've got, and by then the arms are uncrossed.

On Friday, 13 November at 6pm in Chatswood, that talk will come from Tomasz Juszczak, a Polish-Australian evangelist and founder of <https://www.donumministries.com/> Donum Ministries, and he'll be speaking on holiness and the saints. We're still close to All Saints' Day, and it felt like the right moment to look at the people the Church holds up as heroes and notice how ordinary most of them started out.

Sainthood isn't reserved for statues and stained glass, it's the actual invitation on the table for every young person in this room, and it's nothing to be afraid of. So come. Come exactly as you are, with whatever kind of week you've had, and bring someone who'd never walk in on their own.

Register through the link below, we'd love to know you're coming. 🔗 Register via QR Code.

Serving Our Community.

Our faith is lived not only in prayer, but in service. These opportunities invite us to support those in need, contribute to parish life, and put our faith into action through generosity, compassion, and care.

St Vincent de Paul Society September Report

In September OLD Vinnies received calls from two families where the parents have given up careers to look after a seriously ill child full time. One, under a lot of stress, we have helped previously. We helped again with their problems paying for necessary pharmaceuticals. The other was new to us. We provided food relief and information on locally available resources. Such cases are thankfully rare but particularly poignant.

An unemployed couple with child needed help with stabilising themselves after cash flow problems.

Another two requests were for help with energy bills whilst another needed help with removal expenses. A single parent refugee family, struggling with health problems we assisted with medical/pharmaceutical expenses.

We received 8 calls and expended/committed nearly $2000.

We need more active members and if you are interested in this Ministry please contact

Additional Parish Notices & News

Diamond Women

Our parish welcomes Diamond Women this weekend. Far too frequently abortion is recommended to women faced with a difficult or unwanted pregnancy. This is even though it pits a woman against her very own baby resulting in the death of her baby and disregard for the dignity and maternal nature of women.

This weekend we welcome a speaker from Diamond Women who will address parishioners towards the end of the 10.30 am Mass. Diamond Women provides real practical assistance to women facing the challenges involved in carrying a baby to term and providing for it following birth. As such, it provides a real alternative to abortion consistent with our Catholic faith.

Information leaflets will be available in the main foyer of the church and parishioners will have the opportunity to find out more about this wonderful apostolate. Donations which are tax deductible will be gratefully accepted by Diamond Women to help them provide the assistance to those women in need. This is a real opportunity to provide help to women in need and protect the life of the unborn.

For more information about Diamond Women, please visit <https://diamondwomen.com.au>, email info@diamondwomen.com.au or ring 1300 851 592.

Sr Clare Caeli (Previously Cailin Geraghty)

Novice with the Dominican Sisters of St Cecilia

Many of our Parishioners will fondly recall Cailin Geraghty, a young lady who, until recent years, was involved in so many ministries in our Parish, particularly youth ministry.

Cailin left the Parish last year to join the Dominican Sisters of St Cecilia, whose Motherhouse is located in Nashville, Tennessee, USA.

Cailin joined the order on the Feast of the Assumption during the Jubilee year, on 15th August 2025, and she has now completed her postulant year. Postulancy is the first year of an 8-year journey of formation to become a fully professed religious Sister within the Order.

On 8th August 2026, the feast day of St Dominic in the USA, Cailin was called forth to the canonical novitiate of the Order by her Prioress General, Mother Anna Grace, and she received the Holy Habit of St Dominic and her religious name, along with 17 other new novice sisters.

Sr Cailin receives her religious habit from Mother Anna Grace 8th August 2026

So hereafter, Cailin will be known as :

SISTER CLARE CAELI, a name that means "LIGHT of HEAVEN".

The religious name is selected for each new novice by the Superior of the Order, yet it so beautifully reflects Sr Clare Caeli's deep devotion to Saint Clare of Assisi and Sr Clare Crockett (whose case of canonisation has begun).

The name 'Clare' means 'Light' and 'Caeli' is a Latin word which means 'Heaven', So what a beautiful name Sr Clare Caeli has been blessed to receive – 'Light of Heaven'.

The canonical novitiate year is a cloistered year in the convent as the novices deeply discern their call to live their vows of poverty, chastity and obedience.

Nonetheless, the novices continue with their tertiary studies. Sr Clare Caeli is currently undertaking a double Master's Degree in Theology and Education at Aquinas College in Tennessee. The Dominicans are a teaching order so, following her formation, Sr Clare Caeli will ultimately serve as a teacher.

The Dominican Sisters of St Cecilia have Sisters teaching at all levels of education from pre-school, primary school, high school, tertiary level, and in lay education. Whilst Sr Clare Caeli's formation will all be at the Motherhouse in Tennessee; when she is fully professed, she could be missioned anywhere in the world.

Sr Clare Caeli and her fellow Canonical Novices newly adorned in their religious habits line up in front of the tabernacle at the St Cecilia Chapel in the Motherhouse in Nashville Tennessee

Sr Clare Caeli had a home visit in May 2026, and many of you who saw her during her visit, would have witnessed first-hand how joy-filled she is, having answered her call to the vocation of religious life.

Her next visit back to Australia will be in four years.

Her family will hopefully visit her in the USA in August 2028, to witness Sr Clare Caeli's first profession of vows, God willing.

Please keep Sr Clare Caeli in your prayers as she continues her formation. Please also pray for an increase in vocations to religious life and the Priesthood.

How Blessed is the congregation to welcome 17 new novices.

Please Remember in Our Prayers.

Serra International Vocations Ministry

Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Pymble

Guest Speaker
Fr Joey Frez

Looking for Catholic Vocations

Born in the Philippines, Fr Joey Frez first sensed a call to the priesthood as a young boy. Although financial circumstances prevented him from entering the seminary, God continued to lead him on an extraordinary journey.

After emigrating to the United States and working as a computer programmer, he entered Mount Angel Seminary in Oregon, served as a deacon at St Cecilia Catholic Church, Beaverton, and was ordained to the priesthood on 29 May 2010 for the Diocese of Salt Lake City.

In 2019, Fr Joey moved to Australia and joined the Diocese of Broken Bay, serving in Epping, Carlingford, Holy Name Parish Wahroonga, and Our Lady of Dolours, Chatswood.

In January 2025, he was appointed Diocesan Director for Vocations for the Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay.
