Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to Chatswood Catholic Parish

Whether you are a long-time parishioner, visiting for the first time, or returning after some time away, we are glad you are here. Our parish is a community of faith, prayer, and service, seeking to bring the Light of Christ into everyday life.

This bulletin is here to help you stay connected with what is happening in our parish, and to discover opportunities to grow in faith, serve others, and journey together as one community.

A message from Fr David.

Dear Friends,

Last Saturday evening we were treated to a great family night as we watching the film, "David". We had over 150 people with us and it was noted by quite a number of catechists who volunteered on the night that they were so glad to have the opportunity to meet the parents and families of their students! This opportunity is quite rare therefore very special. We are also so deeply grateful to all the volunteers who cooked home-made food to share on the night and all those who assisted in myriad ways, especially Dee, our Parish Engagement Officer, to make the evening as wonderful as it was.

Also, a special thank you to all those who were able to contribute to recent CatholicCare Broken Bay, Homelessness Appeal in early August. Our parish raised $2,856, and our Diocese as a whole, $77,000 for this important cause.

We enter now the first stage for the renovation of our church, a project that will take us through to the end of November 2027. The first step is the removal of hazardous material which is mostly under the church but also in the ceilings of some entrances and in the lino tiles in the sacristy and under some of the carpet. Our church and parish office will be closed from Monday 28 September to Friday 9 October for this work.

Our parish office will be temporarily located to St Pauls Meeting Room on the corner of Archer and Kirk Streets during this period. However, we are grateful for your patience with requests during this time.

We will not publish a bulletin for the weekend of 3&4 October.

Please note that there will be no weekday Mass or devotion in the church between Monday 28 September and Saturday 10 October.

On the weekend of Saturday 3 October/Sunday 4 October Sunday Mass will be offered at the ordinary times – Saturday 5.30pm, Sunday 7.30am, 9.00am, 10.30am, 12 noon (Filipino) and 5.30pm – in Harrington Hall. Space, however, is limited as we have but 200 chairs available to us in the hall. Our celebrations will all be very simple without music.

Please note that next weekend the Hall will need to be accessed from Ferguson Lane and through the Pius College playground. The carpark in Pius College Playground and our Kirk St Carpark will be opened. However, if we park in Kirk St we will need to access Pius playground from the laneway at the top of Krik St. The area behind the church will be fenced off.

When we re-open the church on 10 October much of the green carpet will have been removed. However, the question of new flooring has not been determined, and what we see on 10 October will be only temporary in nature. We are hopeful that the church will not need to be closed of a weekend again through the project, even though sections of the church will from time to time

A very significant project is about to commence! I am confident that the outcome will be truly beautiful and enable our church to be extraordinary for the second century of its life. Do keep it all in our prayer!

We acknowledge the Cammeraygal People of the Eora Nation, custodians of the land on which our parish stands and we commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of national reconciliation.

As a Parish of Catholic Faith we are committed to ensuring always a community of safety and care for all, especially for children, and those who are vulnerable.

Very Rev Dr David Ranson PP VG
Parish Priest, Our Lady of Dolours Church

Bushwalk and Liturgy

Last Saturday 19 September, around 25 people joined the parish bush walk and liturgy for the Season of Creation. It was beautiful weather for a walk that took them through a variety of urban environments before reaching beautiful Blue Gum Reserve Park.

This is a precious piece of God's creation, the critically endangered Blue Gum ecological community that forms a essential corridor for birds and micro-bats between Fullers Park and Lane Cove National Park. Its vegetation and tree hollows give protection to vulnerable native fauna like the striped marsh frog, the long-finned eel and the long-nosed bandicoot.

After a challenging walk along Blue Gum Creek, the walkers arrived at the liturgy site to find tables of refreshments set out for them.

Anselam introduced with a reflection of his own on our responsibility as stewards of the Earth that God has created.

Heartfelt thanks to all who spent this time together with God among the trees and wildlife and especially to those who led it, including Fr Anselm, Ditas and Anthony and huge thanks to Noella and Carolyn for their big effort in providing and setting up the morning tea.

#HOMELESSNESS WORKSHOP DEFERRED

Unfortunately due to illness, the Homelessness Workshop that was also to be part of the Season of Creation has had to be cancelled for this Sunday 27 September. A new date for this very significant retreat experience will be announced as soon as possible.

Family Movie Night!

The liturgy was held beneath the canopy of gums and turpentines, sitting on rocks, logs or the ground, which Fr

Over 150 attendees from our parish and public school Catholic community enjoyed our Family Movie Night on Saturday 19 September in Harrington Hall watching the animation 'David.' The story of a young Israelite shepherd predestined to become the King of Israel.

Special thanks to Susanah, Yolanda and Elizabeth for the homemade delights and all our volunteer servers for a wonderful night!

Celebration of the Feast of Our Lady of Dolours

Thank you to all who have participated in our parish celebration of the Feast of Our Lady Of Sorrows. The Novena via Zoom was well supported by many parishioners.

The 12:30 pm Mass on the 15th of September was well attended and the choir sung beautifully. Our parish celebration was held on the 20th of September at the 10:30am Mass followed by morning tea, some sweet and savoury treats plus a feast day cake.

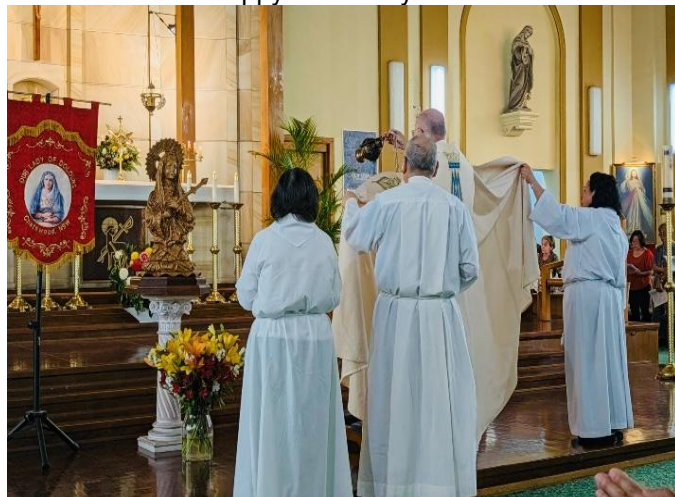

A prayerful and spiritually uplifting Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration, prayers of intercession, and quiet reflection was a fitting culmination to the celebration of our parish feast in honour of Our Lady of Dolours. Fr David's Keynote Address resonated deeply when he said "Mary stands beside the crosses of our lives. She accompanies us, teaches us that sometimes, the deepest expression of love is simply 'To remain'." He said "the Eucharist is the enduring sacrament of love that remains.

In Eucharistic Adoration, we look upon Christ and we allow Christ to look upon us. We bring our hopes to him, our uncertainty about the future to him, and then remain."

Let us continue to pray to Our Lady of Dolours for the Grace "to teach us to stand... beneath every cross, Love remains, Mary remains, Christ remains."

Thank you to all those who made this celebration a memorable one. Happy Feast Day!

Renovation Talk

On the afternoon of Saturday 19 September, 43 parishioners attended the Church Renovation Q&A session in Harrington Hall.

Fr Tan Talk

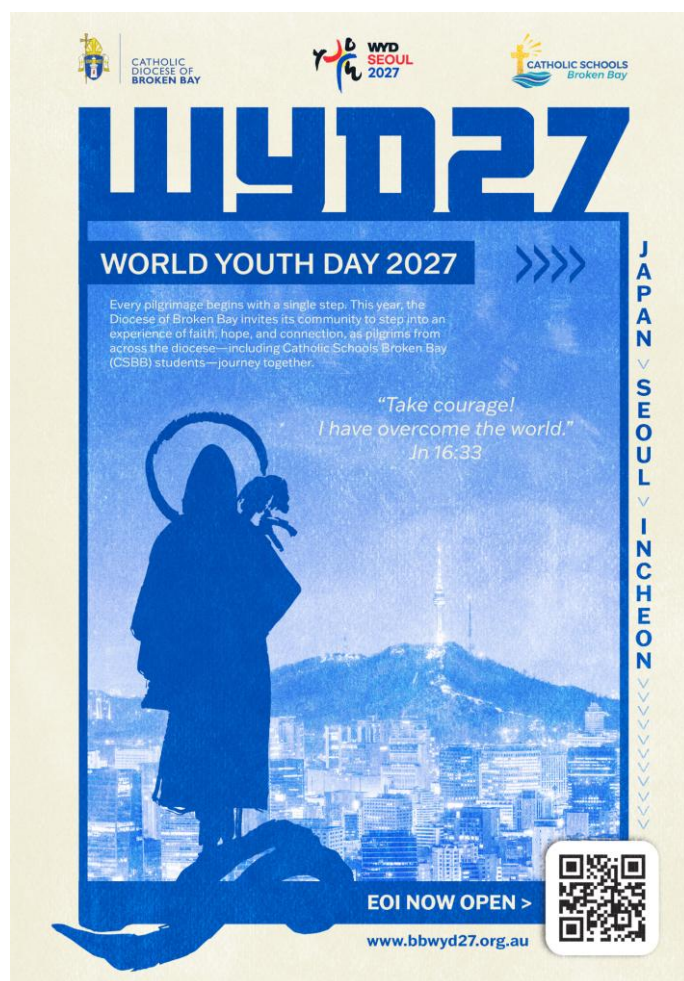

Fr Tan came and visited our young adults at Capstone, presenting a fascinating talk on angels, Satan and temptations on Sunday 20 September.

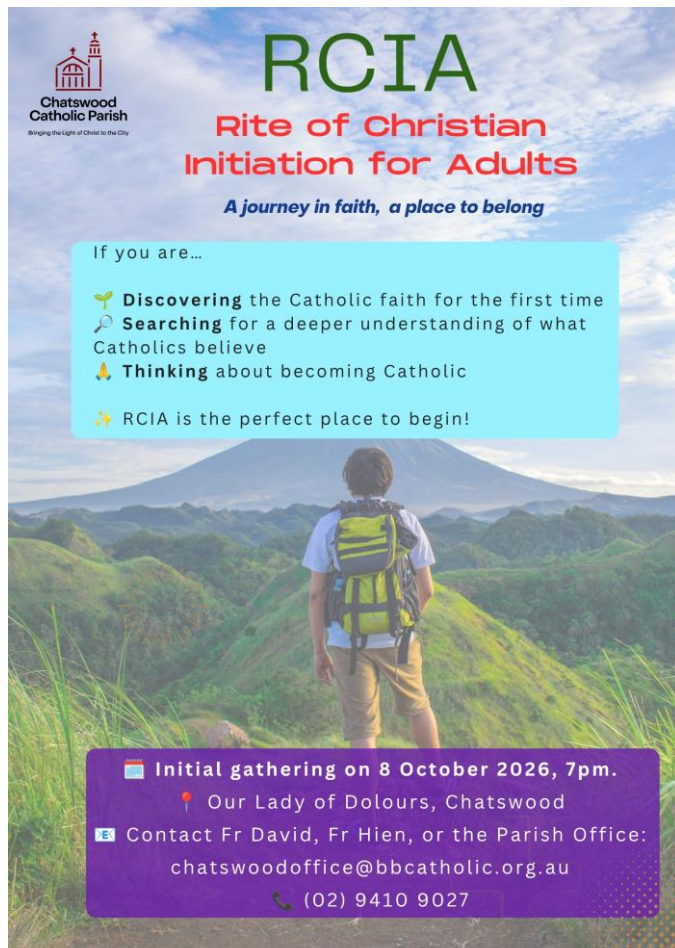

Last Sunday 20 September, a few of our young people attending the World Youth Day launch event - Seoulfest! This event was full of Korean food and drink, K-pop dancing and drumming, and was the first introduction to WYD which is taking place next August.

If you're 16-35 years old and interested in attending World Youth Day with Our Lady of Dolours parish, August 2027 in South Korea, express interest by filling out this form at the QR code as well as the QR code in the WYD27 flyer:

Growing Together in Faith

Our parish offers many opportunities to deepen faith, prayer, and understanding of God's presence in our lives. Whether through pilgrimage, learning, shared reflection, or quiet prayer, these gatherings invite us to continue growing as disciples of Christ together.

The poster for RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) features a background image of a person with a backpack hiking up a grassy hill towards a mountain. The text is overlaid on this image. At the top left is the Chatswood Catholic Parish logo. The main title 'RCIA' is in large green letters, followed by 'Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults' in red. Below that is the tagline 'A journey in faith, a place to belong'. A light blue box contains a list of reasons why someone might want to join RCIA. At the bottom, a purple box provides details about the initial gathering and contact information.

Parish Book Club

Come along and journey with us, nourished by readings which deepen our faith and spirituality. Our Book Club is currently studying The Reed of God by Caryll Houselander, a spiritual classic that invites readers to encounter Mary as fully human and intimately relatable. Caryll Houselander portrays her not as a distant figure but as a reed—a musical instrument hollow and open, through which God's song could be played. With this powerful image, Houselander reveals how Mary gave her whole being to God's plan and shows how we, too, can become instruments of divine love. This book was HALLOW'S PRAY25 ADVENT BOOK CHALLENGE PICK!

OUR SUNDAY CELEBRATION

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / A

27 SEPTEMBER 2026

PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY. We cannot spend all of our lives blaming others for what has happened to us. At a certain stage we must accept responsibility for our own lives and deeds. Sometimes we need to admit, 'I have done wrong. I am sorry. God, help me to do right in future.' Change is always possible. If we have the desire, God will guide us in the right path.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON Dan 3:31, 29, 30, 43, 42

All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

GREETING

P. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

R. Amen.

P. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

R. And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

P. Brethren (brothers and sisters), let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

All: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking the breast) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

R. Amen.

V. Lord, have mercy.

R. Lord, have mercy.

V. Christ, have mercy.

R. Christ, have mercy.

V. Lord, have mercy.

R. Lord, have mercy.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, / and on earth peace to people of good will. / We praise you, / we bless you, / we adore you, / we glorify you, / we give you thanks for your great glory, / Lord God, heavenly King, / O God, almighty Father. / Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, / Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, / you take away the sins of the world, / have mercy on us; / you take away the sins of the world, / receive our prayer; / you are seated at the right hand of the Father, / have mercy on us. / For you alone are the Holy One, / you alone are the Lord, / you alone are the Most High, / Jesus Christ, / with the Holy Spirit, / in the glory of God the Father. / Amen.

COLLECT

P. O God, who manifest your almighty power above all by pardoning and showing mercy, bestow, we pray, your grace abundantly upon us and make those hastening to attain your promises heirs to the treasures of heaven.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

R. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Ezek 18:25-28

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel

The sinner who decides to turn against sinfulness deserves to live.

The word of the Lord was addressed to me as follows: 'You object, "What the Lord does is unjust." Listen, you House of Israel: is what I do unjust? Is it not what you do that is unjust? When the upright man renounces his integrity to commit sin and dies because of this, he dies because of the evil that he himself has committed. When the sinner renounces sin to become law-abiding and honest, he deserves to live. He has chosen to renounce all his previous sins; he shall certainly live; he shall not die.'

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

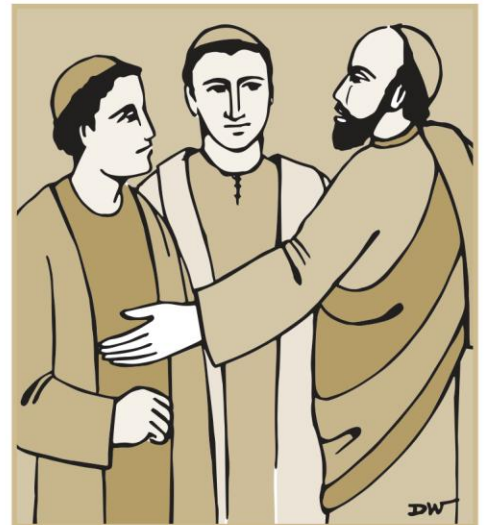

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 24:4-9. R. v. 6

R. Remember your mercies, O Lord.

1. Lord, make me know your ways. / Lord, teach me your paths. / Make me walk in your truth, and teach me: / for you are God my saviour. R.

2. Remember your mercy, Lord, / and the love you have shown from of old. / Do not remember the sins of my youth. / In your love remember me, / because of your goodness, O Lord. R.

3. The Lord is good and upright. / He shows the path to those who stray, / he guides the humble in the right path / he teaches his way to the poor. R.

SECOND READING

Phil 2:1-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus.

If our life in Christ means anything to you, if love can persuade at all, or the Spirit that we have in common, or any tenderness and sympathy, then be united in your convictions and united in your love, with a common purpose and a common mind. That is the one thing which would make me completely happy. There must be no competition among you, no conceit; but everybody is to be self-effacing. Always consider the other person to be better than yourself, so that nobody thinks of his own interests first but everybody thinks of other people's interests instead. In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus:

His state was divine,
yet he did not cling to his equality with God
but emptied himself
to assume the condition of a slave,
and became as men are;
and being as all men are,
he was humbler yet,
even to accepting death,
death on a cross.
But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names
so that all beings
in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld,
should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim
Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn 10:27

Alleluia, alleluia! / My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord; / I know them, and they follow me. / Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mt 21:28-32

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

He went out moved by regret. The tax collectors and prostitutes will precede you into the kingdom of God.

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He went and said to the first, "My boy, you go and work in the vineyard today." He answered, "I will not go", but afterwards thought better of it and went. The man then went and said the same thing to the second who answered, "Certainly, sir", but did not go. Which of the two did the father's will?' 'The first' they said. Jesus said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, tax collectors and prostitutes are making their way into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you, a pattern of true righteousness, but you did not believe him, and yet the tax collectors and prostitutes did. Even after seeing that, you refused to think better of it and believe in him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH APOSTLES' CREED

Or the Nicene Creed may be said.

I believe in God, / the Father almighty, / Creator of heaven and earth, / and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, / who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, / born of the Virgin Mary, / suffered under Pontius Pilate, / was crucified, died and was buried; / he descended into hell; / on the third day he rose again from the dead; / he ascended into heaven, / and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; / from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. / I believe in the Holy Spirit, / the holy catholic Church, / the communion of saints, / the forgiveness of sins, / the resurrection of the body, / and life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

After the priest raises the paten with the bread and prays, and then the chalice, we respond to each prayer:

R. Blessed be God for ever.

P. Pray, brethren (brothers and sisters), that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

R. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

P. Grant us, O merciful God, that this our offering may find acceptance with you and that through it the wellspring of all blessing may be laid open before us. Through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

P. Lift up your hearts.

R. We lift them up to the Lord.

P. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R. It is right and just.

PREFACE I-VIII OF THE SUNDAYS IN ORDINARY TIME

After the Preface, we sing or say:

All: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

THE MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

P. The mystery of faith.

All: Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

COMMUNION RITE

P. At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven ...

P. Deliver us, Lord, we pray...

All: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

P. Lord Jesus Christ, who said...

R. Amen.

P. The peace of the Lord be with you always.

R. And with your spirit.

P. Let us offer each other the sign of peace.

All exchange a sign of peace

LAMB OF GOD

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

P. Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

R. Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

cf. Ps 118:49-50

Remember your word to your servant, O Lord, by which you have given me hope.

This is my comfort when I am brought low.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

P. May this heavenly mystery, O Lord, restore us in mind and body, that we may be coheirs in glory with Christ, to whose suffering we are united whenever we proclaim his Death. Who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

R. Amen

THE CONCLUDING RITES

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

P. May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, ✠ and the Holy Spirit.

R. Amen.

P. Go forth, the Mass is ended.

R. Thanks be to God.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

CHANGE OF ATTITUDE

Remaining in the agricultural world from last Sunday and the hiring practice of a landowner, we are now inside the landowner's family and its two sons. The landowner requests both sons to go to work in the vineyard. Such a request would have been unnecessary, given that there would have been hired labourers in the vineyard – information learnt from last Sunday's Gospel.

A deeper intent lies behind the owner's request: Are the sons' committed to the family's enterprise? Perhaps, too, this reflects what is occurring with the Gospel household, the inner relationship and ethical practice of its members. The main issue concerns integrity of word and openness of heart. The first son is asked to work in the vineyard but refuses the request. Later, he thinks about it, changes his mind and goes. The second promises to go the vineyard but doesn't. There is no further comment about the request or change of heart. Jesus asks the religious leaders, 'Which of the two did the father's will?' They respond, 'The first.' This son, at first resistant, changes his mind and responds to the father's request.

The parable is obviously directed to Jesus' audience and religious leaders, to recognise their need to change attitudes that exclude certain types of people. Surprisingly, those judged as social reprobates, the 'tax collectors and prostitutes', are given preferential acceptance into God's Kingdom. The parable overturns conventional expectations in Matthew's day and in ours!

Praise And Worship

If you've never been to a Praise & Worship night, here's the honest version: it's not a concert, and it's not a classroom. It starts with food and people (the part where you find your friends, meet a few new ones, and stop feeling like the new kid).

Then the band plays, and something in the room shifts. You don't have to know the songs. You don't have to sing loudly, or at all. You can stand at the back with your arms crossed for the first three songs, and plenty of people do.

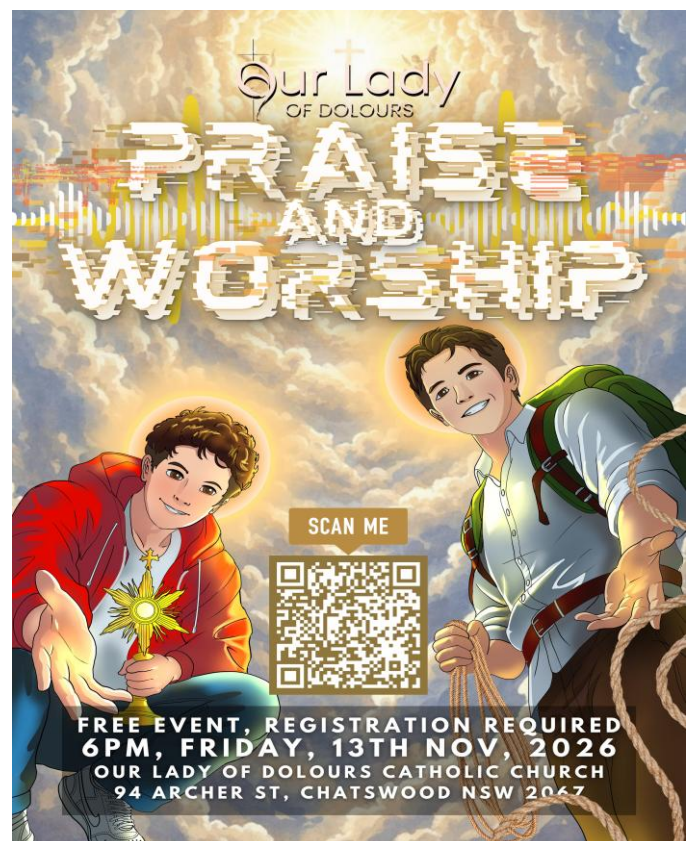

Somewhere in the middle there's a talk, and time for Reconciliation if you want it. Then comes Adoration, and the room goes quiet in a way that's hard to find anywhere else these days. Afterwards the band comes back with everything they've got, and by then the arms are uncrossed.

On Friday, 13 November at 6pm in Chatswood, that talk will come from Tomasz Juszczak, a Polish-Australian evangelist and founder of <https://www.donumministries.com/> Donum Ministries, and he'll be speaking on holiness and the saints. We're still close to All Saints' Day, and it felt like the right moment to look at the people the Church holds up as heroes and notice how ordinary most of them started out.

Sainthood isn't reserved for statues and stained glass, it's the actual invitation on the table for every young person in this room, and it's nothing to be afraid of. So come. Come exactly as you are, with whatever kind of week you've had, and bring someone who'd never walk in on their own.

Register through the link below, we'd love to know you're coming. 🔗 Register via QR Code.

VOLUNTEERS Call Out!

Looking for volunteers for youth Praise and Worship Night on Friday, 13th of November. If you are over the age of 18, with a working with children's check, and open to helping make this a wonderful night for the young people in our community and beyond, reach out to Sienna at Sienna.Klarica@bbcatholic.org.au

With your generosity we are currently supporting these 11 students to study nursing, pharmacy, teaching, finance management, accounting and information technology. The annual support for a nursing student is $830 over 4 years.

Could you be one of many parishioners to give a small amount to Bring Hope. Share Love. Build Futures

Every contribution, no matter the size, can make a real difference.

The students face financial hardships and are at risk of not completing their studies but they are hopeful and thankful with your support, they will complete their studies.

Serving Our Community.

Our faith is lived not only in prayer, but in service. These opportunities invite us to support those in need, contribute to parish life, and put our faith into action through generosity, compassion, and care.

St Vincent de Paul Society August Report

OLD Vinnies received requests for help from 12 of our neighbours. Three of these were previously not known to us. One was from a single mum with personal problems waiting for public housing in barely affordable rental accommodation suitable for her daughter who also has problems including severe allergies; we helped with food and clothing. Another was from a recently off the streets couple needing support to set up in a boarding house with shared facilities. The other was from a young man with an excess of bills who needed food. Of the other requests, one was from one of our special families whom we are supporting longer term in the hope they can get back on their feet; in this case following job loss and need for retraining for the bread winner compounded with post-natal effects in the wife following their second child. We also made a significant second instalment to erase the arrears of an elderly couple to avoid eviction from their long-term rental. Assistance for the others included food, clothing, medical costs, furniture and support letters to other agencies. Over $4500 was expended

About Aid to the Church in Need (ACN)

Aid to the Church in Need is the only international Catholic charity dedicated to the service of suffering Christians wherever they are persecuted, oppressed or in pastoral need.

Founded in 1947, ACN is a pontifical foundation and provides vital aid for pastoral projects, religious education, and emergency relief in areas affected by conflict and poverty.

For many years we have partnered with parishes to share news of our work in bulletins to let parishioners know about these projects. ACN operates solely on benefactor donations, with no funding from Church or State. Learn more on our website: www.aidtochurch.org

Last Saturday Devotion to Our Lady of Dolours

All parishioners are warmly invited to join us for the Last Saturday Devotion to Our Lady of Dolours.

Let us come together in prayer and reflection to honour Our Lady of Sorrows, meditating on her sorrows and entrusting our families, our parish community, and all those in need of prayer to her loving maternal intercession.

The next gathering for Last Saturday Devotion to Our Lady will be on 31 October at 9:30am
Following the 9:00am Mass

Everyone is welcome.

Daily Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, we praise You for Your goodness and thank You for Your gifts. Help us respond to and live out our mission in the Church. Assist all Your people to know their vocation in life and help them to prepare for it. Call many to be priests, deacons and consecrated men and women for Your greater glory, and for the service of Your people. Give those whom You call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithfully. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (EOI): Senior Research & Writing Consultant: Minor Basilica Application Project

Catholic Parish of Chatswood: Diocese of Broken Bay

The Opportunity

The Catholic Parish of Chatswood invites Expressions of Interest from suitably qualified independent contractors, consultants or specialist writers to lead the research, writing and coordination of the Minor Basilica application.

This is a project-based engagement requiring an experienced professional who can combine historical research, exceptional writing ability and strong project management skills to produce a submission of the highest quality.

The successful contractor will work collaboratively with the Parish Priest and a parish project team while maintaining responsibility for the day-to-day planning and delivery of the project.

Engagement Arrangements

The Parish intends to engage a suitably qualified individual, business or consultancy under a commercial services agreement to deliver the project outcomes described in this Expression of Interest. This procurement process is not an offer of employment and is not intended to create an employment relationship.

The Parish anticipates requiring services equivalent to approximately 50 hours per month over the life of the project. This estimate is provided for planning purposes only and does not constitute a guarantee of work or a minimum commitment.

The project is expected to be completed over approximately 12 to 18 months, although the timeframe may vary depending on project requirements, agreed deliverables and the progress of the work. Where additional work beyond the agreed scope or anticipated level of services is required, it will be subject to prior written approval by the Parish Priest or their delegate.

Selection Process

Expressions of Interest will be assessed on demonstrated capability, relevant experience, writing quality, project methodology, value for money and overall suitability for this unique project.

Shortlisted applicants will be invited to participate in an interview and as part of the selection process submit a proposed methodology and fee structure that demonstrates how they would deliver project outcomes.
