YEAR C THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 10-11-19

2 Maccabees 7:1-2.9-14

2 Thessalonians 2:16-3:5

Luke 20:27-38

Dear sisters and brothers,

This Sunday marks three years since the Holy Father's Year of Mercy, Jubilee for Prisoners (Sunday 6 November 2016).

Now for the fourth consecutive year, we are encouraged to reach out around this time to prisoners, their families, prison chaplains, victims of crime and those working in the prison system as the Church in Australia marks Prison Sunday on 10 November 2019.

I particularly wish to acknowledge Catholic Prison Chaplains for the important and often difficult work they undertake. Prison Chaplaincy is becoming increasingly vital as the population of Australia's corrections system expands, conservatively costing the country $16 billion annually. According to the Australian Bureau of Statistics, at the end of March 2019, there were 43,320 people in prison across Australia representing a 30% increase in 5 years or 71% in the last decade.

We are particularly fortunate to have a wonderful group of parishioners who regularly visit those incarcerated in prisons and other detention centres. In particular, I want to thank Margaret Wiseman for co-ordinating this ministry and her other work as a prison chaplain along with people such as Fr Peter Carroll MSC. Our prayers are with you all!

Secondly, as our "Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible" programme draws to a close, I would like to thank everyone who participated over the eight weeks. Each week, on average, just over 100 parishioners regularly attended and many have commented that they found the programme to be both challenging and rewarding. In particular I want to thank Denis McNamara our Missionary Discipleship Co-ordinator for organising and co-ordinating this important step in our continuing to support and form missionary disciples within our parish and beyond.

Thirdly, a parishioner has approached me about the possibility of re-establishing a 'Legion of Mary' group within our parish. The Parish Pastoral Council is keen to gauge whether there is sufficient interest and support to proceed with such a group.

If you are interested please leave your name and contact details with one of our secretaries at the parish office.

Finally, as mentioned in recent weeks, I invite as many of you as possible to join us for our annual Parish 'Thanksgiving' Evening which will take place on Wednesday 20th November at St Gerard's.

Everyone is welcome and the evening commences with Mass at 7pm followed by our thanksgiving supper in the parish hall. For catering purposes please let the parish office know by email or phone or on the slip below no later than this coming Friday.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (all bow)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Reflection on this Sunday's Gospel—Love After Death

Death is hard to talk about. But life after death is even harder. Since both are in this week's readings, let's try it.

Death brings many images and experiences to mind. Often much suffering accompanies them.

Real love is like a piece of rich earth that nurtures great trees. I have been with a fair number of people as they died, and each time the event has seemed miraculous. Someone I had known and spoken with, someone whose every movement came from a mysterious source of life within them, burning bright as a candle in darkness, that someone has vanished. The body is the same one I knew before. The mouth is the same one that talked and laughed. But in the blink of my eye, the individual is gone.

"Where did she go?" "Where did he go?"

But even that way of talking is inaccurate. We "go" by means of walking, using our arms and legs, and thus changing locations. In death "going somewhere" is deceptive. It is accomplished by cessation of all motion whatsoever. Any "going" has to be at a much, much deeper level.

Only the thing called "hope" can tell us where these people go. One of the brothers in the First Reading says it this way: "It is my choice to die at the hands of men with the hope God gives of being raised up by him."

Hope, not surety.

And we have only to glance at the crucifixion to see that Jesus chose to die this way. He knew his Abba so well that he kept hope alive even when everything screamed against it. God is God of life, the Gospel says; "to him all are alive," even the dead.

Why are they alive? Because God keeps love.

What?

Yes. Real love is like a piece of rich earth that nurtures great trees. Roots dig deep down in this earth for nourishment and moisture. The green selves grow out of this earth. And notice something obvious: the earth does not grow out of them! Life grows out of love, not visa versa. Their life and our lives are rooted in the rich loam of love.

It is difficult to say the last sentence correctly. Let me try again. Love is a force much deeper than life. When life ceases, love stays. It becomes the home, the embracing arms that enfold us. Love is the substance, life is the out-growth.

So the "place" dead persons go, leaving their bodies behind, is into the heart of love, into the arms of God who is love.

Here is how the poet Hopkins put it:

Hither then, last or first,
To hero of Calvary, Christ's feet—
Never ask if meaning it, wanting it, warned of it—men go.*

Christ's feet are where you and I will be, honoring the perfect fullness of love he has achieved. Oh yes, we have to release our tight grip on the treasures we have hoarded, things we have chosen instead of love.

If we have a hard time "meaning it and wanting it" during our lives, even so we are still folded into the luxuriant soil of God's love. Of course sometimes we refuse it, and then our roots go dry in the sun. Yet love forgives and invites us and helps us back.

It is hard to talk about. But worth it.

John Foley, SJ

*The poem fragment comes from the poem by Gerard Manley Hopkins, SJ, "The Wreck of the Deutschland," stanza 8. "Men" in that day meant all persons.

Who are the Maccabees?

There is so much to know. What is going on in Israel at that time? Who are these invaders? Where is God in all of this?

For the past 8 weeks a large group of parishioners have attended the Wednesday evening sessions and have been Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible. They would have answers to these and other questions from The Bible Timeline. We are celebrating the journey and preparing to offer Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible to parishioners next year and to follow up the Unlocking, with The Great Adventure. Come and join us after Easter next year.

Together as One ...

A Mass to remember, love and pray with our young people who have died.

You are invited to a candlelit Eucharist for parents, siblings, and other family members and friends who have experienced, or been touched by the death of a baby, (before or after birth), a child or young adult.

St Gerard Majella Church, Carlingford

You are welcome to bring a photo or a symbol of the young person you are remembering such as a small item of clothing, a toy or a favourite book to place in the sacred space before Mass.

All are welcome!

Plenary Council 2020

Listen to what the Spirit is saying...

This week we will look at:
A Joyful, Hope-filled and Servant Community
 This National Theme for Discernment is inspired by the voices of the People of God who expressed a yearning for the Church to be a sign of God's kingdom for all people in Australia—to be able to see the Catholic Church in action, and to recognise Jesus. There was an expression of faith-filled hope in the capacity of the Catholic community to celebrate together, to show what it is to be a follower of Christ and to be loved unconditionally by God. There was a call to contemplate the Gospel call to be a servant Church for the good of all people in Australis—particularly for refugees and asylum seekers and other people who are vulnerable or at risk. Many responses called for greater sharing of the story of the good works done by so many people and organisations of the Church. Some responses expressed a hunger for strong witness of faith, especially by priests, young people and female leaders in parish and school ministries.

If you would like to be part of a group please complete the sheets which can be found at the back of both churches.

The Initiation Process for Adults: Becoming actively involved in the parish community

Q What do people need to know in order to be initiated?

A The initiation process prepares people to follow the Christian way of life.

To do this, they need to learn to draw nearer to God and to come to a deep sense of the great mystery of salvation in which they seek to take part.

They need an introduction to the dogmas and precepts of the Christian faith.

They need to learn to be part of a Christian community and to work with others to spread the Gospel through acts of love and service.

For those already baptised, who are seeking full communion with the Catholic Church, preparation focuses on learning the Catholic tradition and what it means to live their Christian vocation in the Catholic Church.

Making Disciples.....

Are you looking forward to death and to resurrection from the dead?

In the Gospel at Mass, Jesus replied to those who say there is no resurrection ~ The God of Abraham is God of the living, for all are in fact, alive to God. The ones who lived only for this life without hope of life with God forever, were the "Sadducees". We who have a relationship with Jesus have hope you see.

How can we know this? We come to know we are alive to God when we have a personal relationship with God who is alive to us. In the first reading we hear how four brothers could say "We are prepared to die rather than break the laws of our ancestors". 2 Mac 7:2 They did die because they believed "the King of the world will raise us up to live again forever".

If we think that breaking the law to eat a little bacon is not that important and certainly not worth dying for, then we miss the point. Eating pork for the Jewish people was the first step in denying their religion. Worshipping idols as gods was the last step. These brothers were committed to God who was faithful to their people, the descendants of Abraham. They followed the law God gave to Moses. They would not betray that relationship with their God.

This is a challenge for us: Who among us would be prepared to die for our belief that Jesus rose from the dead? Well the martyrs did witness to their belief in resurrection and they put up with torture and death.

How do we come to believe in resurrection? We ask and we seek for this faith to be given. We receive a gift. Therefore, we ask and pray to the Giver, for the presence and power of the Holy Spirit to reveal this mystery to us. We seek to know Jesus and we trust "relying on God's promise we shall be raised up by him". 2 Mac 7:14

We can become alive to God through Jesus living in us. This is our faith. We say it in the Creed at Mass.

I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Prayer for Prisoners

God, Our Creator,
 We acknowledge the ancestors
 and original owners of this land.

Maker and spirit of earth and all creation let your love possess our land and may we share in faith and friendship, all your gifts.

We pray for all those in our prisons and those who through sickness, addictions and other reasons live in their personal prisons.

We remember and pray
 for those who seek to change
 difficult life stories.

We remember and pray
 for the victims of crime on the outside.

We remember and pray
 for the countless victims of crime on the inside.

We remember and pray
 for the whole criminal justice system and its processes.

Keep all of us ever mindful of your great love
 so that we may always remember you as a God of Mercy and forgiveness.

Amen.
