YEAR B

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

15-07-18

Amos 7:12-15

Ephesians 1:3-14

Mark 6:7-13

Dear Parishioners,

When you read this, the Broken Bay Year of Youth Cross will be with us as we commence hosting the Cross for the two-week period from today 14th July until 27th July.

More detail on each of the events are set out in the brochures which are available at the back of each of the Churches. We invite you, whether you are young or not so young, to come along to as many of the events as you are able to make, as we celebrate the Year of Youth.

Our celebrations commence with the Reception Mass this weekend at the 6:00pm Vigil Mass at St Gerard's Church, followed by a Reception Dinner in the St Gerard's Parish Hall.

During the two-week period, we will be holding 12 events to celebrate the Year of Youth, and details on each of the events are set out in the Brochures which are still available at the back of each of the Churches. We invite you, whether you are young or not so young, to come along to as many of the events as you are able to make, as we celebrate the Year of Youth.

If you are able to join us and support the success of the events over the two-week period, please do so. If you are coming to events that include supper or refreshments, we ask that you please bring along a plate of food to share. If you would like to assist at any of the events please contact the Parish Office on 9868 2853, or Kevin Macdonald on 0427 906 960.

One of our central celebrations is the Procession of the Year of Youth Cross event where we are processing the Year of Youth Cross from St Gerard's Church to Our Lady Help of Christians' Church on the afternoon of Saturday 21st July. The celebration commences with afternoon tea at St Gerard's Church from 1:30pm, with the opening prayer and procession starting at 2:00pm. The Procession is being undertaken in 5 stages, stopping for prayer and reflection at 4 stops (Parishioner's front yards and Boronia Park) along the way, with the Procession arriving at Our Lady Help of Christians' Church by 4:30pm for final prayers and refreshments (in time for the Cross to be received during the 5:00pm Vigil Mass).

Whilst we welcome everyone to join us on the entire 4.8km pilgrimage, you are welcome to walk one or more stages if the whole walk sounds a bit daunting.

Maps of the final Cross Procession route are at the back of each of the Churches, as well as a planned running sheet for the Procession itself. If you plan to come to this event, please have a look at the Map and Running Sheet to familiarise yourself for next weekend.

For those coming along, please remember to bring along a hat, sunscreen (since it won't be raining!) and water to drink along the way (water will be available when we stop at Boronia Park). We plan to recite the rosary as we process, so please bring along rosary beads if you have them.

One last suggestion for those attending is that we suggest that you consider car-pooling with at least one other person to get to the event. We suggest this noting that you will need to be able to leave and collect your vehicles at/from various locations as you walk the Procession route. For example, if you are walking from St Gerard's Church to Our Lady Help of Christians' Church, we suggest you car-pool with at least one other person coming on the Procession, and that one vehicle is left at Our Lady Help of Christians' Church and the car pool group then drive to St Gerard's Church to commence the Procession. This will enable you to then drive from Our Lady Help of Christians' Church to St Gerard's Church at the end of the Procession to collect the second vehicle.

Please join us in the celebrations of the Year of Youth Cross. If you would like further information, please contact the Parish Office (9868 2853), Fr Joey (by email or through the Parish Office), or Kevin Macdonald on 0427 906 960.

On behalf of the entire parish I would like to thank all those who have so generously given their time and talent to assist in these preparations. May the presence of this Cross be a sign of unity, hope and transformation for all of us especially our young people.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Reflection on this Sunday's Gospel: Our Inability to Cast Out Demons

The older I get, the more I realize that there is a huge difference between speaking effectively, perhaps even brilliantly, and actually changing anybody's life. It's one thing to impress a person, move a heart, inspire someone, reveal the depth of some truth, help someone to understand himself or herself more deeply, or to teach and minister in a way that brings admiration. No small thing. But it's something else, something much more difficult, to move someone in such a way that he or she actually changes and gives up the habits, compensations, addictions, indulgences, fears, and angers that stand between him and her and the joy of being a saint.

The integrity of our private lives and private morals, down to the smallest detail, is the real power behind our words.

Even when we are at our best, we are still not very effective in helping each other better our lives. In effect, people listen to us and say: "You're wonderful, but this isn't going to change my life!" Like John the Baptist, we are able to point out the way, but not able to help affect the transformation that's needed for someone to actually change his or her way of life. That's why there's a lot more admiration than transformation inside religious and moral circles.

And that's true too in the world at large. In the arts, politics, and academia, we've become masters at everything, except actually creating new beauty and actually bettering community.

We're brilliant at showing what's wrong, but far less effective in actually improving the situation. If we're honest, we can all truthfully speak these words (which John Shea puts into the John the Baptist's mouth): "I can denounce a king, but I cannot enthrone one. I can strip an idol of its power, but I cannot reveal the true God. I can wash the soul in sand, but I cannot dress it in white. I can devour the word of the Lord like wild honey, but I cannot lace his sandals. I can condemn the sin, but I cannot bear it away." Why? Why is our power less than our knowledge? Why, when we know so much, are we so powerless to change things?

Largely, I believe, it's because our own lives aren't integral enough. We aren't saints, pure and simple, and only saints have the right to actually ask someone to change his or her life and have some power to affect that transformation. Why?

There's a story about a troubled mother who had a daughter who was addicted to sweets. One day she approached Gandhi, explained the problem to him and asked whether he might talk to the young girl. Gandhi replied: "Bring your daughter to me in three weeks time and I will speak to her." After three weeks, the mother brought her daughter to him. He took the young girl aside and spoke to her about the harmful effects of eating sweets excessively and urged her to abandon her bad habit. The mother thanked Gandhi for this advice and then asked him: "But why didn't you speak to her three weeks ago?" Gandhi replied: "Because three weeks ago, I was still addicted to sweets."

And there's the lesson: We must do more than just point out the right road to others, we must be on that road ourselves. For this reason, the integrity of our private lives and private morals, down to the smallest detail, is the real power behind our words.

In her autobiography, The Story of a Soul, Therese of Lisieux tells how she sensed that she could help others, across time and distance, by being part of the silent, hidden, moral heart within the Body of Christ. Hidden away in an obscure convent, she sensed she could help people outside those walls, and help the whole world, by being part of a hidden moral heart. And so she bore down in her private life and focused on making every action, no matter how small, pure and loving, believing that some universal power would flow forth from this private, hidden goodness.

How right she was! We know that from our own lives. Anyone who has had the right and power to ask us to make a real sacrifice has had that right and power only because he or she was inviting us into a moral reality that he or she was already living, at least essentially. Conversely, we've all experienced how feeble is the invitation from someone who speaks the right things, but doesn't live them.

In the Gospels, we see an instance where Jesus' disciples are perplexed because they're powerless to cast out a demon. When they ask Jesus about it, he says: "This kind is cast out only by prayer and fasting." That cryptic phrase contains more than we suspect.

The power to baptize with fire and spirit, that is, the power to actually change someone's life for the better, unlike the power to simply enlighten, issues forth only from a heart that is essentially pure, moral, and integral because only that kind of heart can cast out the real demons.

Planned Giving

Your generosity in supporting the priests and good works of the Church is gratefully acknowledged. Each person's capacity to give is different and depends on individual circumstances and you are not expected to give anything more than reasonable. We would ask for your support in the Planned Giving Programme by either opting to give by weekly envelopes, monthly by credit card or monthly via your bank account (a form is provided to authorise a direct debit).

There are two collections taken up at Mass on a Sunday. These are the 1st Collection which supports the needs of priests of the parish; and the 2nd Collection which supports the running costs of the parish, things such as maintenance, insurance, wages and many other costs. The parish must work within its own budget and is unable to draw funds for expenses from any source other than its own parish income.

Have you considered a Bequest to your Parish? Perhaps now is the time when you may like to consider commemorating your memory (or that of a loved one) by a gift to the Parish in your Will? We know that this is not a decision to be made lightly, but perhaps some prayerful reflection may lead you to determine if this is something that is appropriate for you. Please speak with Fr Peter.

Children's Sacramental Journey Confirmation 2018

Enrolment for the Sacrament of Confirmation is now open and will close on Sunday, 22nd July. Enrolment information, forms and brochures are available at the back of both churches and available for download on the parish website www.eppcarl.org.au. Alternatively, please feel free to contact us and we will forward you the enrolment kit.

In our Diocese of Broken Bay, children who have been baptised and are in Year 2 or above are eligible to celebrate Confirmation. Our Sacramental Programme is advertised through the parish website, bulletins, announcements at Mass, both parish school newsletters, catechists and word-of-mouth. This can mean we are unable to ensure every eligible child is notified. If you do know of anyone whose children are in Year 2 or above, please feel free to spread the word for us.

Children enrolled in this Sacrament's preparation are required to attend a group session once a week with their parent over 4 weeks. The group sessions are family-centred and encourage parent-child interaction with activities to help children explore the key concepts of the sacrament in an age-appropriate and fun way. Upon completion, the children (also known as Candidates) will celebrate Confirmation in our parish on Saturday, 8th September.

We always like to hear from you! If you have any queries or would like more information regarding your child's sacramental journey within our parish, please feel free to drop us a line.

Gerry's Playgroup

St Gerard's hosts a "Playgroup" for families in our community.

- Playgroup gives children an opportunity to have fun, make new friends and develop new skills through informal play.
- Playgroup provides parents and carers with an opportunity to meet other parents and carers, make friends and share ideas and experiences.
- St Gerard's playgroup is a great way to get to know other families in our school community.

The playgroup meets every Monday morning during the school term in the parish hall. Parking is available via Roselea Way in the car park behind the school. Access to the parish hall is via the gate at the back of the school.

Why do we do that? Incense?

The ancient world was a smellier place than the modern world! Fragrant incense covered the unpleasant smells! Eventually, ownership of incense came to be a sign of honour and dignity and it adorned the houses of the wealthier members of society. It also came to have a religious symbolism: - it signifies the divine 'fragrance' of the presence of God - the smoke rising is a symbol of our prayers, our spirit, rising as a sacrifice of praise to God - it was a sign of honour: it was carried in procession before high officials and burnt in the residences of important people. This Roman symbolism came to be carried over into the Christian liturgy: celebrant and people were incensed as a sign of their dignity under God, another case of liturgy borrowing from life - taking a common thing and using it as a symbol of spiritual things.

ACBC Australian WYD2019 Prayer (WYD 2019 in Panama)

Eternal God,
You loved the world so much that You gave us your only Son,
to accompany us in every moment of our lives.
From diverse backgrounds across our vast land,
we journey as one, your pilgrim church.

We leave what is known and what is precious to us to embark on life's pilgrimage, uncertain of who our companions will be or what joys, hopes and challenges await us.

In our brokenness, we desire wholeness.
We trust Jesus, your Word, to lead us on this journey.
Unafraid of what we do not know,
we are full of excitement and ready to embrace all.

May your Holy Spirit open us to transformation.
We want to give ourselves to the Holy Spirit as Mary did.
With her, we say:
"I am the servant of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word".
Assist us that we may welcome all that is needed to renew our lives.

May we become Jesus' true disciples,
forgetting ourselves and loving His kingdom, His truth,
and all he came to save by His Holy Cross.

Mary, Our Lady Help of Christians, Patron of Australia, pray for us.
Amen.
