YEAR C	THE MOST HOLY TRINITY	16-06-19
Proverbs 8:22-31	Romans 5:1-5	John 16:12-15

Dear Sisters & Brothers,

"Fr Joey's exciting excursion into the Parish Ministries".

Before Fr Peter left on his Sabbatical, he asked me to write an article each week for the bulletin. So I have given this some thought and not to be outdone by his explorations of the Holy sites in the Holy Land, I decided to also make my own travel. I have decided to visit the many sites and experiences of our ministries in the parish and call it "Fr Joey's exciting excursion to ministry meetings" (Thanks to Jack Forest who coined the title as he did with "The fabricated fables of Fr Joey" during the Antioch trivia night). In this excursion, I will invite you to come and explore the different ministries in our parish.

Our first stop is, of course, the parish office. I know you all know Dennis and Maree, but let me give you more information about their ministry and some personal notes about them.

Dennis has been in our parish for some 29 years. He is the Parish Secretary, Sacristan at Epping, and also an Adult Server.

Did you know that Dennis used to be a seminarian that is why he is so versed in our Catholic faith. He is Assistant Coordinator in our RCIA process.

He is married to Louise (a teacher), who carries out the ministry of Reading. He has a daughter, Brooke who has finished her studies and a son Phillip who is at the moment studying for his Science degrees. Phillip is also an Adult Server.

One of the things that is so remarkable with Dennis is that you can count on him anytime. Whenever I need something very important at Epping, whatever time it is during the day even late in the evening, you can count on him to come to the Church. He is very hardworking and very trustworthy. You can see Dennis going back and forth from Epping to Carlingford to take care of the church supplies in both of our churches.

Maree has been with us for 16 years. She is also very hardworking and very generous with her time. Maree is a Pastoral Care Assistant, Bookkeeper and Assistant Parish Secretary.

She and her husband lived and worked in Germany for 27 years. On the death of her husband Maree returned to Australia, after much pleading by her aunt. Apart from her busy responsibilities in the office, she still has time to look after the Church as Assistant Sacristan and carry out the ministry of Adult Server.

Apart from her busy responsibilities in the office, she still has time to help with the priests' albs, polish brass, helps out when we have functions and teaches me the how's of living in Australia, like how to rent a car when someone hit my car, applying for my vacation leave etc.

We are blessed to have Dennis and Maree in the office. I hope that when you come across them, please don't forget to thank them to acknowledge their ministry in our parish!

Fr Joey

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (all bow)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Reflection on this Sunday's Gospel— Closing the Circle

"Why do we have to hear all this stuff about the Trinity," a gentleman asked at a talk I was giving. "Why can't we just go to church and be good to each other?"

I replied, "well, we can ... because of the Trinity."

Because the Triune God is not some kind of brainy speculation by scholars, it is simply the way we experience God in this world. Christian living is the Trinity in action.

Let me explain.

First, long ago human beings learned that there is only one God, who found "delight in the human race" (First Reading). Think of the many, many stories in the First Testament about God pursuing us, his labor to make a loving and holy covenant with us. "I will be your God and you will be my people," he said. Like a marriage agreement.

Did this work? Well, not really. God became, by turns, angry, hurt, delighted, spurned, glorified, ignored, praised and rejected. Yet he kept coming back and back to renew the covenant, since God's love is steadfast.

God is like liquid motion, like a dynamism in which everything is changing always, yet it remains always the same.

Second, we found out that God's nature had always possessed another component.* God had not been alone or lonely, as in a desert. His very nature had always been to relate to others, to "pour himself forth," as the First Reading puts it, and to receive back. This giving and receiving is the "Second Person," or the "Word." This Word was made flesh.

We saw him. Jesus laughed and cried and preached and turned over tables and cured folks, and was loyal to his people even to the end. "Everything that the Father has is mine," he said (Gospel). That's how we knew that Jesus was The Word and that the Word was God.

Gradually there came a third revelation about the Trinity. In Sunday's Gospel Jesus hints about it: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now." In other words, our small souls could never ever open to the great God—unless an actual presence of God gentled itself down and began to dwell within us.

Do you get the two-way logic?

- Everything the Father has and is belongs to the Word.
- Everything that the Word has and is belongs to the Father.

This mutuality is a third "part" of God. It is the Spirit. It tells us who the Christ (God) is, and it bestows us (and the whole earth) back upon the Father, closing the circle.

What aliveness, what keenness there is in God: speaking to us, reaching out, flowing forth, and then receiving back. God is like liquid motion, like a dynamism in which everything is changing always, yet it remains always the same because it is rooted in love—because it is love.

We are invited into that circle of love.

Too theoretical? Allow me to put it more simply. Do you suffer? Do you love? God invites you to meld that pain and that care into the Trinity's unending love.

John Foley, SJ

\ Almost any pronoun I use to talk about God, like "part," "nature," even "person," runs into the same problem. You can't capture God in a word. Except in The Word.*

A PRAYER TO GOD WHO IS TRINITY

In the name of the Holy One
In the name of the Son
In the name of the Spirit
We are made one
God for us, we call You Father
God alongside us, we call You Jesus,
God within us, we call You Holy Spirit.
You are the Eternal Mystery that enables and holds and enlivens all things
—even us and even me.
Every name falls short of Your goodness and greatness.
We can only see who You are in what is.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be.
Amen

Helping our Catechumens and Enquirers on their journey of faith: The Sponsor

Q What is the role of the sponsor?

A The whole community welcomes and walks with a person who is responding to the Spirit's movement in their lives (RCIA, 1) Sponsors represent the community and are appointed by the pastor. They are present from the Rite of Acceptance and through the Period of the Catechumenate. Sponsors accompany their catechumens to weekly Mass and catechumenal sessions and introduce the catechumens to the life of the parish. Sponsors are "spiritual companions", sharing their faith and mentoring the catechumens in Catholic prayers, gestures and sacramentals. Often the sponsor is asked to continue with the catechumen as a god-parent when the Period of Purification and Enlightenment begins.

How come Christians carry on about the Trinity?

Other religions cannot comprehend and always challenge the idea of the Trinity! People of the Jewish faith stress that God is One. We agree and also say that what is concealed in the Old Testament is revealed in the New Testament. People of the Muslim faith stress that God is one and the Koran states that Jesus did not claim to be the Son of God. We believe Jesus is the Son of God and revealed who God is. We know God's name ~ Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

When you came in the door of the church, you came to receive. Yes to receive gifts of many kinds. We say sorry, we ask for forgiveness and to be forgiving. We ask "deliver us from evil". We also come to praise our God "Glory to God in the highest". We call God "Father, or Abba Father". We pray with Jesus and say "Our Father". We ask Jesus to come into our hearts in communion and we ask for the Holy Spirit to dwell in us. We can only pray because "the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit". If you want help to pray at Mass, ask for the Holy Spirit. Our prayer is always to the "one God, for ever and ever". We know our God is a trinity of persons and know God is love.

When you go out the door of the church, you will take those gifts. You will take the Trinity with you in the grace of being closer to Jesus. You will be more aware of God our Father. You will be more empowered with the Holy Spirit. You will be more like God, who is love.

You will understand better the gift of your life and the purpose of your life to be loving. May your life be enriched by your relationship with God, so you will be a missionary of God's love in your family, in your work place, with your friends and with your neighbours.

This festival is specifically for people between Year 9 up to 30 years old (under 18s must be accompanied and supervised by an adult). If you would like to find out more or you are interested in attending the ACYF, please email the Youth Minister on joanna@eppcarl.org.au or call Joanna on 0423 717 550.

National Refugee Week 15-22 June

From the beginning, Jesus experienced the terrors of the refugee when his family fled tyranny and sought refuge in Egypt. In his ministry he led the life of a wanderer and relied on the hospitality of others: 'The Son of man has nowhere to lay his head' (Matthew 8:20). He urged his disciples to do the same: 'Take no gold, or silver, or copper in your belts, no bag for your journey' (Matthew 10:9-10). He embraced the outsider and the exile as a person like himself, and he commands us to do as he did. When we Australians support policies of cruelty and rejection, we close our ears to Christ's call and turn him away from our doors.

We know that we are better than this. As Christians, we know that it is within us to hear the call of Jesus. As Australians we have shown ourselves willing to take the path of generosity and leadership. We can do so again.

The words and actions of Jesus demand a response. We do not open our hearts and our home to vulnerable people simply because they are 'deserving' of charity or compassion. We take them in, provide shelter and bandage their wounds because they are equal to us in dignity. They are no longer 'aliens' (Lev. 19:33) but our brothers and sisters.
