YEAR B

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

18-04-21

Acts 3:13-15.17-19

1 Jn 2:1-5

Lk 24:35-48

Dear Parishioners,

Landscaping at St Gerard's: A parishioner has proposed to landscape the recently cleared area on the south side of the church. The area will include a statue of Our Lady and seating to make this area conducive to prayer, retaining the memorial wall and statue of St Gerard. This will be at no cost to the parish. Max Lucas will be available to walk people through the proposal at 8.45am on Sunday, April 25th. Comments can be made to parish@eppcarl.org.au by Friday, April 30th.

Reconciliation: We are again offering the sacrament of Penance on Monday nights at OLHC at 6pm and Friday nights at 7.30pm at St Gerard's.

Annual Leave: Fr Jim is on holidays this weekend. We welcome Fr David Orr who will celebrate the vigil Mass at St Gerard's and Fr Geoff Bugden who will celebrate the 7.45am and 9.30am Masses at St Gerard's. Fr Jim will return in time to celebrate 6pm at OLHC.

Anzac Day is Sunday, April 25th. The Church has readings and prayers for the celebration of Anzac Day, however, the Sunday Mass takes precedence. We will instead pray the Mass of Anzac Day on Saturday, April 24th at 9.15am. If there is a returned service person who would like to read the Ode at this Mass, or someone who would like to play the Last Post, please contact the parish office.

Open minds understand ~

After Easter, we hear what took place and watch the reactions of those who saw Jesus. Cleophas with the other disciple told their story, to the group in Jerusalem, of what had happened to them on the road to Emmaus. They recognised Jesus when he "broke the bread". Jesus is alive!

Can you imagine the comments, the questions that expressed the craziness of this thought that the one they saw executed by crucifixion was now out walking the road to Emmaus? This larger group of men and women would have been on their feet.

Then Jesus stood among them. This blew their mind. They heard him say "Peace", be calm. Why are you so agitated? Why these doubts? Look. Touch. See for yourself! They were conflicted and overcome. Their joy was so great, but they stood there dumbfounded, astonished, amazed.

Then Jesus opened their minds. He explained the Scriptures. Jesus said to them. See how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead. Everything written about me in the Law of Moses, in the Prophets and in the Psalms has to be fulfilled. Luke 24:45-48

Everything written about Jesus in the Old Testament has been fulfilled. Everything written about us in the New Testament, can be fulfilled in our lives. This is our faith. Everything written will be fulfilled in our rising from death to eternal life in Christ. This is our hope.

If you are not sure, come to Alpha. Bring your questions, bring your doubts. If you are sure, grow in your faith and your hope at Alpha. The Spirit who inspired everything that was written can inspire us with insight and understanding.

Open our minds to understand.

We pray to Jesus. Reveal to us how everything written in the Old Testament was inspired to tell us about you in the New Testament. Come with an open mind. Come to be surprised.

This Tuesday at Alpha, we ask
Who is Jesus? We look at the evidence. We listen to witnesses.
Our minds can be opened to understand. Tell others, Alpha is this opportunity.

Come to Alpha at 7 pm on Tuesday 20 April.
Join us in the parish hall at St Gerard's, 543 North Rocks Road, Carlingford.
Drive in beside the church and the school notice board.
Let Maree know you and your guests are coming. Call the office on 9876 2853

Or you can let us know on the parish website. Sign Up for Alpha!

Supporting people to become disciples

I was preparing my shopping trolley to be Covid free when I was approached by a St Gerard's Parishioner. He said he and his family were not going to Mass due to Covid. I confirmed that mass was open again with minimal restrictions. Masks were not longer necessary.

He mentioned he knew very few within the parish. What an opportunity. I couldn't resist, I mentioned to him that Alpha was starting up and he and his family would be warmly welcomed.

*"Where do I obtain more information?" he asked. He had not been receiving the parish bulletin. We agreed that the parish website would be a good option. This is a fabulous example of the Holy Spirit in action What led me to Alpha? I had most of today's materialistic must haves, however I was missing something inside. I came to Alpha to meet fellow Epping Carlingford parishioners. I came to learn about faith. I was hopeful. By allowing the Holy Spirit to be among us, the group developed a deeper understanding of who Jesus is and why it is important to have belief and faith. I invite each of you. Join us for Alpha.

Reflection - The Jesus Code— Unravelling the Secret

We all love to unearth hidden things, to crack some puzzle or code. We need only to look at the hoopla that surrounded The Da Vinci Code to see how true this is. Like children, we all still believe there's a buried treasure somewhere, a secret wisdom, just waiting to be found.

Interestingly, Jesus speaks of just such a hidden secret. The gospels tell us he spoke in parables and that these were only understood by those who were inside a certain circle, but they remained riddles to everyone outside that circle.

Love is the deepest mystery within the universe.	That, of course, begs the question: what is the hidden secret, and who is inside and who is outside the circle of understanding? In the message of Jesus, what's the secret to be discovered, the code be cracked? Mark's gospel takes this up explicitly. His Jesus makes it very clear that there is a hidden, secret wisdom that needs to be grasped if one is to understand the deep design of things. What is it?

In short, it's the cross of Christ and the wisdom that's contained within it. The hidden secret is that love is most truly revealed in the brokenness of Jesus on the cross. What's hidden in the cross of Christ is the code that we have to break open if we are to learn the deep secrets of life. The cross contains a wisdom, the wisdom of the crucified, which is a prism through which all else is to be viewed.

More specifically, what is this wisdom?

Unlike false, gnostic teachers who are forever playing games and giving the impression that learning the deep secrets is a question of luck, brilliant intelligence, or of becoming their disciples, Jesus tries everywhere to reveal the secret in public and in a language open to everyone. His whole life and mission are an attempt to lay open for everyone the deepest secret of all and to make that secret accessible to everyone, as accessible as the nearest water tap or the village well. Since Jesus, the deepest secret is an open secret. What is it?

One entry into it is through the words Jesus speaks to his uncomprehending disciples on the road to Emmaus. In trying to explain this secret, he asks them: "Wasn't it necessary?" Wasn't what necessary?

That there is a necessary connection between certain things: isn't a certain prior suffering and humiliation always the condition for glory? Don't we all, like Cinderella, first have to sit in the ashes before the glass slipper will fit our feet? Isn't sublimation always the means to the sublime? Isn't it precisely when we are vulnerable and unable to impress or overpower others that we are finally open to intimacy, love, and family? Aren't self-sacrifice and self-denial, in the end, the way real love manifests itself? Isn't the crucifixion of the private ego the route to empathy and community? Isn't the forgiveness of those who hurt us the final manifestation of human maturity?

And, most graphic of all, isn't the way Jesus died—innocent, trusting, unwilling out of love to protect himself against suffering, absorbing hatred and sin, understanding and forgiving those who were murdering him, refusing to resort to any kind of superior physical power to overwhelm his adversaries, refusing to give back in kind, and refusing to give himself over to bitterness and cynicism—the paragon of mature human love?

Love is the deepest mystery within the universe. It lies at the base of everything, the cosmic, the biological, the emotional, the psychological, the sexual, the spiritual. There is a level of reality inside of all things where one sees the relentless deep pull towards a unity, community, fusion, and oneness beyond self. Love stirs all things, speaking to every element in the language it can understand. Deep inside of us, we know too that this alone can bring us home.

And there is an inner code, a certain DNA, within love itself. It too has inner secrets, an inner structure, and a code that needs to be cracked if we are to properly understand its dynamics. And we don't crack that code all at once, at a weekend retreat or at religious rally. We crack it slowly, painfully, with many setbacks, over the course of a lifetime.

But Jesus gave us the keys to crack it. They can be named: vulnerability, the refusal out of love to protect ourselves, self-sacrifice, putting others before ourselves, refusing to give back in kind when someone hurts us, a willingness to die for others, the refusal to give ourselves over to cynicism and bitterness when things beset us, continued trust in God and goodness even when things look the opposite, and especially forgiveness, having our hearts remain warm and hospitable, even when we have just cause for hatred.

These are the keys to the wisdom that Jesus revealed and the gospels tell that we are "inside" or "outside" the true circle of love, depending upon whether or not we grasp this wisdom.
