Hebrews 12:18-19.22-24

Luke 14:1-7-14

Dear sisters and brothers,

Firstly, on this "Father's Day", we celebrate and give thanks for the vocation of "fatherhood" as it is lived here in our parish and throughout our community! At all Masses this weekend we will acknowledge the significance of this occasion with the imparting of a special Father's Day blessing as well as giving each of our dads a Father's Day card expressing our deepest thanks not only for what they do but also who they are.

Secondly, in coming weeks you will be hearing about one of the ways we as a parish will continue to implement our parish plan with its goal of enabling us to become "missionary disciples" (people with a personal relationship with Jesus who share that gift with others) through a deeper understanding of the Bible. Until the Second Vatican Council in the 1960s, Catholics were generally warned to be careful when it came to reading the Bible outside of Mass in case they were led into "error".....of course, part of why this came about was due to the thinking of the time which emphasised distancing ourselves from the "Protestants", many of whom insisted on having only the Bible and downplayed the importance of or even the need for the Sacraments. Since then there has been many attempts to assist our Catholic people to read and understand the richness of what is ultimately Gods Word for all people. Encountering the Scriptures through prayer and study is essential if we are to grow in our Christian faith and our relationship with Jesus Christ.

I would like you all to consider, seriously, participating in our forthcoming programme, "Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible" which will be offered in homes and in our parish meeting rooms commencing towards the end of September.

The programme will help us "uncover the story woven throughout Scripture so that you get the "big picture" of the Bible and understand what it is all about". It will assist us to make sense of the Bible and how it relates to everyday life as well as see how the Sacraments, the Church, and our entire Catholic Faith are rooted in Scripture. Once again I hope as many as possible will consider participating in this new and exciting programme!

Finally, September marks the beginning of our "Safeguarding month" here in the Diocese as we commit ourselves through prayer and action to protecting the young and vulnerable within our Church and the wider community. With that in mind I encourage as many as possible to join with me on Tuesday night at the Cathedral for our Liturgy of Inclusion and Care commencing at 6.30pm.

Fr Peter

Reflection

The 1st reading is full of wisdom about what really matters. The greater you are, the more you should behave humbly, and then you will find favour with the Lord. Sir 3:18 (RSV) Is life about becoming great and famous? We are encouraged to use our gifts and become great at what we do. You don't see Behaves humbly on job applications. The reading goes on to say the most important person is the Lord, and the most important thing for us is to find favour with the Lord. True wisdom tells us how. Behave humbly. Being great and behaving humbly could be a challenge, even for some of us who are not recognised for being great. There could be some underlying tension in us about where we find favour and whose favour really matters to us.

The 2nd reading is full of images: Not a blazing fire, no trumpeting thunder, or great voice speaking... Come to Mount Zion, heavenly Jerusalem, millions of angels, everyone is a "first born", come to Jesus, the mediator, a new covenant, blood of purification... Heb 12: 18-19, 22-23

Where would you begin to find out what all these images are referring to? What do they mean?

In the Gospel Jesus advised those at the meal. Next time invite those poor, crippled, lame and blind people. They were the outcasts in his time. They could not repay the favour. Jesus says to us "At your next dinner party invite a few from the outcasts of today". Do we know any refugees, homeless, ex-prisoners, alienated hard done by, etc.? Invite them. They cannot repay you. When the virtuous rise again you will be repaid! This is a very different wisdom. What did Jesus tell us about outcast people who have nothing?

Where can I find answers and insight?

1. You could have a conversation about being great and whose favour you really want to find.
2. You could discover where those images come from in the Bible story.
3. You could look through the Gospels.

You could also join a group who are Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible, and discover who we are as Catholics from understanding the Bible.

Denis McNamara Supporting Missionary Disciples

Many people want to read the Bible because they know it is God's Word but give up because it is so complicated. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible helps you to get the "big picture" of the Bible by showing how fourteen books of the Bible tell the complete story from Adam and Eve to Christ and the Church. You will be able to read the Bible so that you can actually understand the key people, places, and events of Scripture in chronological order. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible will help you discover the story of salvation history and understand how you fit into God's plan.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (all bow)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Reflection on Sunday's Gospel

Jesus was sometimes invited to a meal by those who were curious to hear him. They were sometimes unfriendly to him we know from the gospel accounts. But most of his hosts were probably motivated by curiosity to hear what this teacher who was making such a stir had to say. This reconstruction of one such meal by Luke shows the Saviour's skills as a teacher; and the kind of challenge he brought to those who were leaders in the community. Those at table with are 'watching him closely'; he knows that he is expected to entertain them with his table talk.

He uses as his starting point what has been taking place as the guests assembled. To our modern ears, it all seems rather stilted; but the scene described by Jesus was familiar to his listeners, and taken for granted by them, as the customary way to behave in a culture with rules of status and precedence that were very complex – determined by such things as age, learning, public standing and wealth. This situation provides the material of a parable that invites his listeners to see beyond these old conventions. He who is happy to make himself the servant of all and urges his followers to do the same knows how important the openness and generosity of true humility will be in the life of his disciples when his mission has been accomplished in Jerusalem – for 'God opposes the proud but gives his blessings to the humble' (James 4:6). There is a lesson here for every Christian community: the quality of the relationships that make up a community will be the measure of the blessings they receive, and the effectiveness of their missionary outreach.

But Jesus has a deeper lesson to give. He uses the rapport he has established with his audience to speak to them of the revolutionary ways of God, the main burden of his preaching. 'When someone invites you to a wedding feast', he begins – not wanting to offend them by making too obvious reference to the behaviour he has observed; but also, probably, pointing to the messianic theme he will take up later, after one of the guests has commented, 'Blessed is anyone who will share the meal in the kingdom of God'. His reference to seeking the 'place of honour' is an echo of his criticism of the Pharisees for liking 'to take the seats of honour at the synagogue' (Lk 11:43). His story of 'invited guests' probably also challenges the presumption of the 'leading Pharisees' that their strict observance marked them out as the 'elect', or chosen ones, of God, certain to take part in the messianic feast. This is backed up by the parable to which we have made reference that follows on from today's reading. It tells of the guests who do not accept their invitation to the banquet, and are replaced by 'the poor, the crippled, the blind and the lame'. In today's reading, Jesus has already startled his listeners by saying that God will bless those who invite these very ones to their table. These interpreters of the Law, he knows, forbade entrance to the temple to the lame and the blind.

Blessing of Crosses and Crucifixes . . .

Please bring along your cross or crucifix from your sacred space at As you know we try to tap into our Church's tradition of punctuating the rhythm of the year with feasts and festivals by observing some of those feasts in a special way so that they might help to relate our faith to the living of our lives. One of those feast days will soon be upon us. The Feast of the Triumph of the Cross, Saturday 14th September, celebrates the victory over sin and death that comes through the Cross of Jesus. It is an especially appropriate day each year to bless the cross or crucifix in our sacred space at home. home – these will be blessed at the 9:15am Mass at Our Lady Help of Christians.

The Dignity of Baptism: Our responsibilities

Q How do the baptised carry out their rights and responsibilities?

A As baptised Christians, we have immense privileges and responsibilities.

We are called to gather together on Sundays and holy days to join the community of believers in praise and worship.

We are called to celebrate the sacraments, especially the sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood – the Eucharist, our great prayer of thanksgiving.

We are called to know and to live according to the law of God.

For every Christian, living out our Baptism looks a little different because each of us has a unique vocation – God calls each of us in a different way.

One thing is certain: Baptism changes us and makes immense demands on us. Not to live out our Baptism in service of God and neighbour is to be like the person in the parable who received a coin and buried it in the ground instead of investing it and letting it grow.

Confirmation 2019

This week, we complete the final session – Confirmation. We talk about what happens during the Rite of Confirmation. We will tell the children to focus and think carefully about what is going to happen that day when we gather at Church, what Fr. Peter will say to them and their appropriate responses as they are being anointed with the Oil of Chrism. In the Acts of the Apostles, we read 'The Holy Spirit comes at Pentecost' to help the children understand that the Holy Spirit was sent to us lovingly by God so that He would always be in our midst to guide us, even though we can't see Him.

Rehearsals for the Confirmation Liturgy will be held on the 7th September 2:30pm at Our Lady Help of Christian's Church and 4pm at St Gerard Majella's Church.

Upon completion of their preparation, Candidates will go on to celebrate Confirmation in our parish on Saturday, 14th September. Please keep these children and their families in your prayers during this important time!

On another note, at our Confirmation liturgies on the 14th September, we would like to invite children in Year 3 and above to join in singing with the choir during the celebration! If you are interested in signing your child up for this special occasion, please send us an email, indicating which church you would like to sing at.

Confirmation will be celebrated at 10am in St Gerard's Church and 12pm in Our Lady Help of Christian's Church.

If you have any queries or would like more information regarding your child's sacramental journey within our parish, please feel free to contact us.

Making Disciples in our Catholic Parish

What happens in people who decide to follow Jesus? Have you ever wondered what led them to choose to be a "disciple"? Sherry Weddell has discovered from her research that it was their intention. They made a definite choice. She calls them "intentional disciples". This choice came after a series of steps where people enter a new awareness. They step over a "threshold", which was the word for entering a home.

Sherry Weddell is coming to Pennant Hills to share how the Holy Spirit works in the lives of people in our church and for those coming into our church. This "wisdom" has helped and inspired many people and parishes around the world. Who would benefit from going?

If you tell others about Jesus and God's love ~ Catechist, RCIA, or you are a parent, grandparent or even a God parent ~ this time with Shelly will give you insight into the thresholds that children, teenagers and adults step over as they grow in their faith.

If you are a leader, a host or helper in the Sacramental program, or at Alpha or at Antioch, Shelly will show you your role of supporting others to take the next step in their faith journey.

If you are on the PPC or any ministry at Mass, this day with other parishioners will help. Who would I go with?

Come and sit with others from the parish and make Saturday 11 September a day to remember as we recall our own journey and discover how our gifts guide others in their journey.

You are invited! Come and join others from our Epp Carl parish on Saturday 11 September to be a guest of our Diocese. If you have never been to an all-day event like this, you do not know the joy and friendship of being with people from other parishes and sharing our own good news. If you never never go, you will never never know!

So pray ~ Holy Spirit, lead me to a friend or a new friend to go with to be with others and discover our gifts and grow in our faith.

We start at 9:30am - 4:00pm.
Morning Tea and Lunch provided
Where ~ Caroline Chisholm Centre, Bldg 2, 423 Pennant Hills Road, Pennant Hills. (near the railway station)
