Welcome to our Parish of Epping and Carlingford consisting of our two worshipping communities of St Gerard Majella's Church at Carlingford and Our Lady Help of Christians' Church at Epping. If you are new to the area or visiting today we are glad that you are with us, and we hope that our celebration of the Eucharist together will provide both nourishment and challenge on your Christian journey.

YEAR B

PENTECOST SUNDAY

23-05-21

Acts 2:1-11

Gal 5:16-25

Jn 15:26-27; 16:12-15

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Pentecost! This is the great celebration of the Holy Spirit. We also consider it to be the birthday of the Church, for it was on that first Pentecost Sunday which we hear in Acts Chapter 2 that the disciples began to preach the good news. We hear from St Paul that the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithful, gentleness and self control. Is there one of these which you particularly need or desire? Pray this weekend for the Holy Spirit to manifest this in you. We are celebrating Pentecost at all weekend Masses, at our vigil prayer service on Saturday night (details below) and with an ecumenical gathering on Tuesday night (details on page 2).

Volunteering: The Holy Spirit gives us gifts to equip us for ministry. Each of us has access to the Holy Spirit, so each of us have a contribution to make to the ministry of the parish. St Paul writes about this extensively in 1 Corinthians chapter 12. This weekend there are volunteer sheets on your seats. We invite you to choose a ministry you'd like to assist with by ticking the box, and placing the sheet in the blue or red collection boxes in the church. Your details will be given to the leader of that ministry who will contact you to invite you to take part and to answer your questions. You can download the volunteer form now at <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/epping-carlingford/groups-and-ministries/volunteering/volunteering> and return to eppcarlvolunteer@bbcatholic.org.au

Safeguarding is the term we use for pro-actively ensuring that children and vulnerable people are kept safe in the Church. We do this both to avoid the sins and crimes and of the past, but also in response to Jesus' command to "let the children come to me, and do not stop them". In the coming months we have a project to review our parish life to ensure that we are doing everything we can to keep children safe. Fr Jim is looking for a few people with a passion for safeguarding to work with him on this project. Please contact him jim@eppcarl.org.au, 9876 2853 or see him at Mass.

Relocation: With the recent announcement that the re-development of the Epping site will commence at the start of 2022, Fr Jim has begun consulting with the Parish Pastoral Council and other groups to look at how we continue to operate at OLHC Church, and what services and ministries we will move offsite. A small team has been formed with Helen Barry, Joan Sally, Declan Sally and Kevin McDonald to map out the various processes and tasks required. Keep an eye out for a number of consultations within the parish in the coming months.

"A Paddock Out the Back" is the title of the history of OLHC Church and Parish, written in 2017 for the centenary of Catholic worship in Epping. To celebrate the feast of Our Lady Help of Christians on Monday we have copies of this book available, free for parishioners, at the back of OLHC Church this weekend.

School Masses: St Gerard's School will join us for the 9.30am Mass on Mon May 24th to celebrate 200 years of Catholic education in Australia. We will also have a special Mass at 11.15am at OLHC with OLHC school, which is coincidentally the solemnity of Our Lady Help of Christians.

The Parish Bulletin is a key piece of communication within the parish, both printed, and emailed to 700+ people per week. You may have noticed however that much of the information is duplicated from week to week as we try to give advance notice for upcoming events. To reduce the time spent on bulletin production each week we will move to produce the bulletin fortnightly, starting from next week. This will also have a cost savings and an environmental benefit. Groups submitting notices for the bulletin will need to have their notices to Maree by Wednesday May 26th for the May 30 & June 6 bulletin.

Today we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit.
the Spirit we name every time we bless ourselves, the Spirit whom we pray for in every Eucharist that our gifts might become the body and blood of Christ, the Spirit in whom we were confirmed.

But the work of the Spirit, the great work of the Holy Spirit is unity:

In the inner life of the Trinity the Spirit is the bond of love between the Father and Son; and so in the Church the Spirit becomes the bond of love uniting us as daughters and sons of the Father and sisters and brothers of Christ.

But we pay only lip-service to the Holy Spirit if we confirm that work of the Spirit's just to within the Church:

"The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit" (John 3:8).

Please give generously to the final CWF appeal of the Financial Year 2020/21. Donations are 100% tax deductible and support five charities:-

1. Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care ministers reach 3,500 patients and 700 families each year in our local hospitals.
2. Confraternity of Christian Doctrine—materials, training and support for almost 1,000 catechists who take the gospel to students in our State schools.
3. St Lucy's School—serving primary school students with disabilities.
4. St Edmund's College—serving secondary school students with disabilities.
5. Ephpheta Centre—serving the Catholic deaf community.

- CWF envelope in your pew
- Online at www.bbcatholic.org.au/give
- Or scan the QR code.

All donations contribute to our parish target. Our annual target is $57,774, and because of covid-enforced low numbers at Mass last year we still have $40,529 to go. This equates to around $50 for each of the 750 or so people who attend Mass each weekend. Some of us cannot afford to give this much, others of us can afford more. The Year's Shortfall
$9,219.00

Please pray for guests and team at the Alpha Retreat Saturday 29th. They will be learning ~ Who is the Holy Spirit? What does the Holy Spirit do? And most important of all, How do I receive the Holy Spirit?

Pentecost
At Pentecost, what happened?

Luke tells us many sights and sounds had an impact on those in Jerusalem. The noise of a mighty wind brought people from every nation under heaven to the place where the Apostles with the community of believers were gathered.

What changed?

The apostles were filled with joy, transformed by the Holy Spirit. They lit up with tongues of fire upon them and began to speak foreign languages. The people in the crowd heard in their own language what the believers were saying. How could they understand this group from Galilee talking all these languages? They were bewildered, amazed and astonished. We hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.

What marvels?

The apostles told them what Jesus did in his life and how he died. Of all these, the greatest marvel was his rising from the dead. He has no tomb. His home is in Heaven. Jesus is the Son of God. The latest marvel they can see. The Holy Spirit is poured out on believers who proclaim,

Jesus is Lord.

The people at Pentecost asked, What must we do? Peter said, Repent, which means change and Be Baptised. Be immersed in God's power! Ask yourself, "what must I do?" The answer is the same. Change, improve! That is pretty impossible without God's power in your life. That is why we pray, "Holy Spirit bring your power. Change our lives."

What difference does the Holy Spirit offer us?

The Holy Spirit is God dwelling within us and the Holy Spirit is, The love of God poured into our hearts. Rm 5:5 Change is possible and the Holy Spirit makes the difference. How do you and I receive the Holy Spirit? We join with Mary, the apostles and the others who made up the community of 120 people gathered together. They prayed to receive the Holy Spirit with Mary, who had been overshadowed by the Holy Spirit. We pray with Mary when we say, Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners. Mary is praying for us to receive the Holy Spirit. We simply pray with her, Come Holy Spirit.

How do you know if the Holy Spirit has come upon you?

Jesus said, You will be baptised (immersed) in the Holy Spirit. You will receive power, you will be witnesses. The Holy Spirit will guide you and you can let the Spirit give you the joy and power to witness with your life. St Paul wrote, No one can say "Jesus is Lord" unless under the influence of the Holy Spirit. 1Cor 12:3 Can you say Jesus is Lord of your life? We need the Holy Spirit to love the Lord with all our heart, all our mind and all our strength. Together we pray for all of us, Come Holy Spirit.

Parish - Reflection Who Am I to Judge?

Perhaps the single, most-often quoted line from Pope Francis is his response to a question he was asked vis à vis the morality of a particularly dicey issue. His infamous-famous reply: who am I to judge?

Although this remark is often assumed to be flighty and less-than-serious, it is, in fact, on pretty safe ground. Jesus, it seems, says basically the same thing. For example, in his conversation with Nicodemus in John's Gospel, he, in essence, says: I judge no one.

Only when we are living inside these virtues are we living inside God's Spirit.	If the Gospel of John is to be believed, then Jesus judges no one. God judges no one. But that needs to be put into context. It doesn't mean that there aren't any moral judgments and that our actions are indifferent to moral scrutiny. There is judgment—except it doesn't work the way it is fantasized inside the popular mind. According to what Jesus tells us in John's Gospel, judgment works this way: God's light, God's truth, and God's Spirit come into the world. We then judge ourselves according to how we live in the face of them. God's light has come into the world, but we can choose to live in darkness. That's our decision, our judgment. God's truth has been revealed, but we can choose to live in falsehood, in lies. It's our decision, our judgment to make.

And God's Spirit has come into the world, but we can prefer to live outside that spirit, in another spirit. That too is our decision, our judgment. God judges no one. We judge ourselves. Hence we can also say that God condemns no one, though we can choose to condemn ourselves. And God punishes no one, but we can choose to punish ourselves. Negative moral judgment is self-inflicted. Perhaps this seems abstract, but it is not. We know this existentially. We feel the brand of our own actions inside us. To use just one example: how do we judge ourselves by the Holy Spirit.

God's Spirit, the Holy Spirit, is not something so abstract and slippery that it cannot be pinned down. St. Paul, in the Epistle to the Galatians, describes the Holy Spirit in terms so clear that they can only be rendered abstract and ambiguous by some self-serving rationalization.

Does he describe and define the Holy Spirit?

So as to make things clear he sets up a contrast by first telling us what the Holy Spirit is not. The spirit of God, he tells us is not the spirit of self-indulgence, sexual vice, jealousy, rivalry, antagonism, bad temper, quarrels, drunkenness, or factionalism. Anytime we are cultivating these qualities inside of our lives, we should not delude ourselves into thinking we are living in God's spirit, no matter how frequent, sincere, or pious is our religious practice. The Holy Spirit, he tells us, is the spirit of charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness, gentleness, and chastity. Only when we are living inside these virtues are we living inside God's Spirit.

So then, this is how judgment happens: God's Spirit (charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness, gentleness, and chastity) has been revealed. We can choose to live inside the virtues of that Spirit or we can choose to live instead inside their opposites (self-indulgence, sexual vice, rivalry, antagonism, bad temper, quarrels, drunkenness, and factionalism). One choice leads to a life with God, the other leads away from God. And that choice is ours to make; it doesn't come from the outside. We judge ourselves. God judges no one. God doesn't need to.

When we view things inside this perspective it also clarifies a number of misunderstandings that cause confusion inside the minds of believers as well as inside the minds of their critics.

How often, for instance, do we hear this criticism: if God is all-good, all-loving, and all-merciful, how can God condemn someone to hell for all eternity? A valid question, though not a particularly reflective one. Why? Because God judges no one; God punishes no one. God condemns no one to hell. We do these things to ourselves: we judge ourselves, we punish ourselves, and we put ourselves in various forms of hell whenever we do choose not to live in the light, the truth, and inside God's Spirit. And that judgment is self-inflicted, that punishment is self-inflicted, and those fires of hell are self-inflicted.

There are a number of lessons in this. First, as we have just seen, the fact that God judges no one, helps clarify our theodicy. That is, it helps deflate all those misunderstandings surrounding God's mercy and the accusation that an all-merciful God could condemn someone to eternal hellfire. Beyond this, it is a strong challenge to us to be less judgmental in our lives, to let the wheat and the darnel sort themselves out over time, to let light itself judge darkness, to let truth itself judge falsehood, and to, like Pope Francis, be less quick to offer judgments in God's name and more prone to say: "Who am I to judge?"

The Spirit's work is to unite all Christians, and the work for Christian unity is not simply a matter of telling others 'they should come back to us': That is an arrogance utterly divorced from the Spirit.

For those truly open to the Spirit, 'who blows where he wills' the work for Christian unity is about seeking together a common place of unity.

"We proceed along the road leading to the conversion of hearts guided by love which is directed to God and, at the same time, to all our brothers and sisters, including those not in full communion with us. Love gives rise to the desire for unity. Love builds communion between individuals and between Communities. If we love one another, we strive to deepen our communion and make it perfect. Love is given to God as the perfect source of communion—the unity of Father, Son and Holy Spirit—that we may draw from that source the strength to build communion between individuals and Communities, or to re-establish it between Christians still divided. Love is the great undercurrent which gives life and adds vigour to the movement towards unity." (Pope John Paul II, Ut Unum Sint, n.21).

For Pope John Paul, if a person is not ecumenical they are not Christian. And today's feast of Pentecost asks whether we pay only lip-service to the Spirit.

From the clear celestial height
Thy pure beaming radiance give.Come, thou Father of the poor,
Come with treasures which endure;
Come, thou light of all that live!Thou, of all consolers best,
Thou, the soul's delightful guest,
Dost refreshing peace bestow;Thou on toil art comfort sweet;
Pleasant coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.Light immortal, light divine,
Visit thou these hearts of thine,
And our inmost being fill:If thou take thy grace away,
Nothing pure in man will stay;
All his good is turned to ill.Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour thy dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away.Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.Thou, on us who evermore
Thee confess and thee adore,
With thy sevenfold gifts descend:Give us comfort when we die;
Give us life with thee on high,
Give us joys that never end.
