YEAR C	SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER	26-05-19
Acts 15:1-2.22-29	Apocalypse 21:10-14.22-23	John 14:23-29

Reflection on the Sunday's Gospel— Closer Than Ever

In Sunday's liturgy, Jesus says, "If you loved me you would rejoice."

Imagine this: your best friend is leaving town, the one you had counted on for any trouble you just needed to share. There is no way to change his/her going, it is virtually certain.

What do you do with your sorrow?

In the reading, Jesus was leaving.

He told Mary Magdalene he must go to the Father. He had plunged into death and he swam to shore, but nevertheless could not stay on in this world.

We sorrow, big time.

We are to be closer to Jesus and to the Father even than the apostles were!

Sunday, this is the story of the Gospel. The crucifixion had taken him away from us, and now his ascension will make his absence completely final. We, along with the apostles, do not want to lose him one more time! We are aghast that our friend is going away.

Think of the experience of a funeral. You may be truly glad that your beloved no longer has the pains and shortages of this life. But you do not get your own burden lifted, you get more added to it. He or she is gone.

Jesus says, "Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me tell you, I am going away and I will come back to you." Going away but coming back? What kind of sense does this make?

(1) Start with the pre-Jesus world. God the Father had been with the people for all ages. The First Testament tells this over and over.

But God the Father stayed unknowable in very important ways. He told Moses that he, God, would pass by the mouth of a cave where Moses was, and ...

... when my glory passes I will set you in the cleft of the rock and will cover you with my hand until I have passed by. Then I will remove my hand, so that you may see my back; but my face may not be seen. (Exodus 33: 22)
To see God directly would destroy a human being.

(2) To close this gap, God decided to tell us everything about himself in a way we could understand. He speaks out his very self using a Word that left nothing unsaid. Jesus was that Word, spoken in the large language called humanity. Now God can be known because we can know Jesus.

(3) Jesus dies, resurrects and ascends to the Father from whom he came. Are we abandoned?

No.

Just as the Father had done, Jesus actually spoke out his very self in a further Word that left nothing of himself unsaid. That Word is the Holy Spirit. The Spirit is the full reality of a human being called Jesus, who is already the very interior reality of God. We are to be closer to Jesus and to the Father even than the apostles were!

If you and I say yes to this Spirit, we will know that Jesus is with us, just as sheep know the voice of their shepherd. In knowing Jesus, we will know the presence of the Father. We will find him in the Mass, in the Great Sacrament of Baptism, in prayer, in the people around us. We will be side by side with the closest possible presence of the God of love. So we needn't sorrow. Nice as it might have seemed to experience Jesus in his physical company, we now have a much closer relation to him in the here and now.

PASTORAL COUNCIL NEWS
MAY 2019

Dear Parishioners!

Our fourth Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) meeting for the year was held earlier this month.

At each meeting, apart from keeping the 2019 Parish Plan front and center, the PPC also spend some time in formation of its members in various topics of relevance. This month the topic was "Growing Missionary Disciples through Small Groups".

So...what does small groups have to do with growing as missionary disciples?

Thanks to Martin Teulan we found out that we grow in missionary discipleship and develop attributes such as a daily prayer life, knowledge and love of scriptures, sharing one's faith with others particularly in the context of a community primarily through small groups.

Small groups offer more personal contact with others, increasing participation in faith through learning, discussion, leadership, reflection and listening.

Denis McNamara (Parish Missionary Discipleship Co-Ordinator) was invited to the PPC meeting to share the current initiatives underway. He shared examples of these small groups:

Lenten groups have surpassed expectation with well over 170 people participating and committing to a 6week program. 21day challenge to read St Johns gospel and now the 28day challenge to read St Luke's Acts of the Apostles.

Next installment of Alpha started on May 14 at Carlingford. It is hoped that previous Alpha sessions have created enough momentum, enough gifts of leadership and hospitality for small groups ("Connect" groups) to form as an offshoot of Alpha.

There is much to be excited about as we progress through our Parish Plan for 2019. The steady formation of small groups building connections and friendships that enable the growth of missionary disciples is encouraging and hopeful!

GETTING TO KNOW OUR COUNCIL MEMBERS

PPC Chair Joan Sally

Joan joined as a PPC member in 2016. Since joining she has served as secretary until recently where she was appointed Chair. She also serves as a Eucharistic minister and Lector at St Gerard's Carlingford.

Joan is married to Declan (an Irishman who left Nth Ireland to travel the world but only got so far as Australia). They have been married for 21 years and have a son Matthew.

As Pre-marriage educators, Joan and Declan are committed to supporting engaged couples starting out their vocation of marriage. The cause of Marriage and Family is an important mission which they find very rewarding and purposeful. Joan says her Catholic faith is her anchor. She is deeply rooted in her faith in God and tries to live and love life in gratefulness.

Outside of Parish Life, Joan works in the Pharmaceutical industry, having been an employee of various multi-national companies. As Head of Quality, she is responsible for ensuring that medicines are safe, effective and meet International standards.

In her spare time, she enjoys spending time with her family and friends; dabbles in oil painting and sketching and has been known to sell a few of her artworks in the past.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, At the words that follow, up to and including the Virgin Mary, all bow.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

A simple way to be a "missionary disciple"

Christians are called to share their gifts and talents with one another to build up the Body of Christ.

People often enquire about the Catholic faith, and as a parish we are called to respond. The Rite of Christian Initiation (RCIA) process guide these people along a journey of self-discovery where they come to experience the life and faith of the Christian Community. One simple and profound way that we endeavour to achieve this end is through the gift of hospitality.

This can take several forms, but one in particular way is by parishioners opening their homes to host the meeting with the enquirers.

Many parishioners in past years have opened up their homes for this purpose, and one of greatest memories our enquirers express is this act of hospitality and welcome.

This is a wonderful opportunity to meet and welcome people interested in joining our parish community. If you are able to assist by offering your home for a meeting, or would like more information, please complete the information on the sheets at the back of the church or contact the parish office (9876 2853). A member of the RCIA Team will be in contact with further details.

Q How can the parish community help the catechumens?

A In many ways! Through their friendly, welcoming demeanour toward catechumens, by learning their names, greeting them and engaging them in conversation, parishioners reassure them that they have a place in the community. Most of the rites of initiation take place at Sunday Mass. By its attention and participation in these rites, the assembly at Mass expresses the community's care and encouragement for the catechumens. What's more, at every liturgy, catechumens look to parishioners as models, following their example and reflecting on the meaning of the rituals as they watch the responses of the gathered community celebrating the Eucharist. Welcoming the catechumens into parish activities not only makes them feel included, it also provides them glimpses of the life of disciples. Becoming a sponsor for a catechumen is yet another way parishioners could be helpful. Finally, the faithful can pray for the catechumens throughout the week.

6th Sunday of Easter 2019

Do you ever wonder if the Holy Spirit is still influencing our world and changing lives today?

Well "maybe", some may say. Look at the division, look at the tragic weakness in our church, highlight the uncertainty and there you have it!

Yes, we can focus on the fears and fail to see where the Holy Spirit is actually at work, transforming us.

The first reading reminds us of the "disagreement" in the early church, the "long argument" and they had to "discuss the problem". Then something amazing occurred. They sorted it out. There was an apology. They "sent greetings" and apologised that "some had disturbed you with their demands" and "unsettled your minds".

The message was clear, "It has been decided by the Holy Spirit and by ourselves not to saddle you with any burden beyond these essentials..."

Yes, the Holy Spirit still influencing our world.

Where does someone like our Pope Francis come from? Can we see how the Holy Spirit formed this man and guided his life?

Yes, people's lives are changed and transformed in our world today.

Where do people in our parish find the hope and strength to persevere in loving and forgiving? We see people caring and supporting their families. They live with hope in all that is happening in their extended family and in the world around them.

The prayer of Jesus is being answered:

Holy Father, I pray for those who believe in me. May they all be one. Father, may they be one in us, as you are in me, and I am in you, so that the world may believe it was you who sent me.

When we see love that heals and holds families together, when we believe that the power of God is helping us to love and live out our lives in love for one another we are witnesses to Jesus prayer that we may be one without divisions.

May our hearts be opened to see and to experience the power of the Holy Spirit at work within us and among us in those who love us and those who need our love.

This is what makes us disciples and followers of Jesus. We are chosen by a God of Love and we are gifted with the power to love through the Holy Spirit. We choose to live our lives loving. Look around at Mass. You are with saints.

We are sent to love, to be missionary disciples...

Alpha continues ~ please pray for all those on their journey of faith.

Denis McNamara Supporting people to become disciples

Children's Sacramental Journey - First Eucharist 2019

This weekend, we move into our fourth and final group session called Eucharist. In this session, we discuss the Liturgy of the Eucharist where the children will learn about the prayers that are said, how to respond and receive Jesus in Holy Communion. Upon receiving the goodness of Jesus, they are taught to go forth and share the love of the Eucharist with others by their words, thoughts and deeds.

In preparation for their First Holy Communion, the children and their families are invited to celebrate Reconciliation in the Second Rite next Saturday, 1st June at 3pm in St. Gerard Majella's Church. The children have been asked to think deep and write a 'Thank-you' letter to their parents. Similarly, the parents have been asked to pen a letter to their children. At the conclusion of this Reconciliation Liturgy, parents and children will exchange their letters. This is a beautiful moment for the families and often the parents' letters are preciously kept by the children in a special place at home!

Please keep these children and their families in your prayers as the children journey towards becoming fully initiated members of the church.

We always like to hear from you and look forward to building a fruitful relationship. If you have any queries or would like more information regarding your child's sacramental journey within our parish, please send an email to kids.sacrament@eppcarl.org.au

Children's Liturgy of the Word – 6th Sunday of Easter

This week, Kidz Word looks at Jesus preparing his disciples for the time when he would leave them. Jesus knew that his disciples would be afraid, just like how the children would be afraid if their parents had to go away without them. However, the children have all experienced being left in the care of others like grandparents or other responsible adults. Similarly, Jesus promised his disciples that the Father would send someone to take his place. The children learn about the Holy Spirit being with us right now, working in each of us, as we being followers of Jesus, continue the work of Jesus.

During Kidz Word, the adult leaders lead the children through prayers, songs/mimes and readings. The children reflect on the same Scripture readings as the rest of the assembly. They are taught a simplified message of the readings and are encouraged to share that message with their family and friends after Mass.

Adult volunteers are needed to lead Kidz Word each week, as well as to assist with the supervision of the children. This is a great opportunity for adults and middle/high school youth to help these eager youngsters celebrate God's Word. Training and resources are provided. A Working with Children's Check will be required, which we can assist you with.

If you would like to help bring this meaningful ministry to life so God's Word can reach the hearts of our young children, please contact the parish office on 9876 2853 or email me at lynn@eppcarl.org.au
We look forward to hearing from you!
