Social Justice Sunday 29th September

This Sunday is Social Justice Sunday. The Australian Catholic Bishops' Social Justice Statement for 2019-20 is titled 'Making it Real: Genuine human encounter in our digital world'.

New digital media offer positive possibilities for encounter and solidarity, however some elements of our digital world may be harmful. These include information overload; social isolation; marginalisation of the vulnerable; consumerism and fake news.

The Bishops amplify Pope Francis' call to us to 'boldly become citizens of the digital world', with the image of the Good Samaritan as our inspiration. We are called not only to love our neighbour, but to bring the love of God to the new global neighbourhood. The Statement points out that we are called not just to be inhabitants of this new digital world, but active citizens shaping it.

For further details about the Social Justice Statement, visit the Office for Social Justice website:
www.socialjustice.catholic.org.au

Social Justice Statements will also be available from the back of both churches.

Prayer for Our Digital World

Lord, make us instruments of your peace. Help us to recognise the evil latent in a communication that does not build communion. Help us to remove the venom from our judgements. Help us to speak about others as our brothers and sisters. You are faithful and trustworthy; may our words be seeds of goodness for the world: where there is shouting, let us practise listening; where there is confusion, let us inspire harmony; where there is ambiguity, let us bring clarity; where there is exclusion, let us offer solidarity; where there is sensationalism, let us use sobriety; where there is superficiality, let us raise real questions; where there is prejudice, let us awaken trust; where there is hostility, let us bring respect; where there is falsehood, let us bring truth. Amen.

Dads' Club The monthly gathering of the parish Dads' Club (for all dads in both the Epping and Carlingford communities of the parish) takes place this Friday 4th October at 7:30pm. For details contact Tim Paxton 9945 0151. Dads welcome for a relaxing and enjoyable evening.

Parish Mission Statement

We are a diverse Catholic community centred in the Eucharist. We gather for worship to serve and reach out to others as we grow in relationship with God and each other.

Safeguarding Message September 2019

SAFEGUARDING MONTH—an inclusion of people with disability is about evangelisation and mission.

Light for Our Path

The Parish Retreat day will be held on; Saturday 12th October
at the Benedictine Monastery in Arcadia.

It will commence at 10 am and conclude about 3 pm.

The theme for the day will focus on Creation as God's first Incarnation. Such a way of understanding and contemplating our created world enables us to embrace its magnificence with a deep sense of wonder and gratitude for all that is. As we grow in appreciation of this, we become more aware of creation being a "thou" not an "it." This enables us to live more intentionally in a right relationship with the earth and the cosmos through a loving exchange of giving and receiving.

It is hoped that one of the fruits of our day together will be an increased sense of growing in harmony as a Parish community of faith, with the one great song of love and grace, ever ancient, ever new.

Please indicate your attendance by putting your name on one of the sheets of paper located near the entrance to the church.

While there is no fixed cost for the day everyone is asked to bring their own lunch. Any donation would be appreciated.

If you need transport please contact the parish office.

*The day will be facilitated by Sr. Patty Andrew osu
(a sister of the Ursuline Congregation)*

Children's Liturgy

Adults, catechists and parents who are involved in any children's ministries, we have an exciting opportunity to meet Charbel Raish, founder of Parousia Media! Charbel has extensive experience in educational and pastoral activities of the Church and will be visiting our parish in October to help us discover "what else is possible", when we lead our children in their early years of faith formation.

Have you ever found yourself in a cycle of repeating what you have always been doing, and wishing you were equipped with more to make your session more meaningful and engaging? Well then, this is an evening you will not want to miss! See details below and SAVE THE DATE!

MEDAL: Mass with Novena will be celebrated in St. Anthony's Church, Marsfield, on Saturday 5th October, 2019 at 10.00 a.m. All welcome.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (all bow)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Awesome service. Amazing results.

Reflection on Sunday's Gospel—The Church's Economic-Social Teachings

Most of us have been raised to believe that we have right to possess whatever comes to us honestly, either through our own work or through legitimate inheritance. No matter how large that wealth might be, it's ours as long as we didn't cheat anyone along the way. By and large, this belief has been enshrined in the laws of democratic countries and we generally believe that it is morally sanctioned by the Christianity.

Partly this is all true, but it needs a lot of qualification. The right to private ownership and private wealth—from scripture, through Jesus, through the social teachings of the churches, through papal encyclicals from Leo XIII through John Paul II—is mitigated by a number of moral principles. Let me list a number of those principles (which are taught with the weight of Ordinary Magisterium within Roman Catholicism and the ecclesial equivalent of that in most Protestant churches). For Roman Catholics, I will list the major references to church documents:

Both the workers and the employers have an equal duty to be concerned for the common good

- God intended the earth and everything in it for the sake of all human beings. Thus, in justice, created goods should flow fairly to all. All other rights are subordinated to this principle (Gaudium et Spes 69, Populorum Progressio 22). We do have a right to private ownership and no one may ever deny us of this right (Rerum Novarum 3-5, 14; Quadregesima Anno 44-56, Mater et Magistra 109) but that right is subordinated to the common good, to the fact that goods are intended for everyone (Laborem Exercens 14). Wealth and possessions must be understood as ours to steward rather than to possess absolutely. (Rerum Novarum 18-19).
- No person (or nation) may have a surplus if others do not have the basic necessities (Rerum Novarum 19, Quadregesimo Anno 50-51, Mater et Magistra 119-121 & 157-165, Populorum Progressio 230). Thus, no one may appropriate surplus goods solely for his own private use when others lack the bare necessities for life (Populorum Progressio 23). People are obliged to come to the relief of the poor and if a person is in extreme necessity he has the right to take from the riches of others what he needs (Gaudium et Spes 69).
- The present economic situation in the world must be redressed (Populorum Progressio 6, 26, 32, Gaudium et Spes 66, Octogesima Adveniens 43, Sollicitudo Rei Socialis 43). Thus the law of supply and demand, free enterprise, competition, the profit motive, and the private ownership of the means of production may not be given complete free reign. They are not absolute rights and are only good within certain limits (Populorum Progressio 26, Quadregesimo Anno 88, 110).
- In regards to the private ownership of industry and the means of production, two extremes are to be avoided: Unbridled capitalism on the one hand, and complete socialism on the other (Quadregesimo Anno 46, 55, 111-126).
- Governments must respect the principle of subsidiarity and intervene only when necessary (Rerum Novarum 28-29, Quadregesimo Anno 79-80, Mater et Magistra 117-152). However when the common good demands it they not only may step in, they are obliged to do so (Populorum Progressio 24, 33, Mater et Magistra 53, Gaudium et Spes 71). As well certain forms of property should be reserved for the state since they carry with them an opportunity of domination too great to be left to private individuals (Quadregesimo Anno 114, Mater et Magistra 116).
- Governments may never sacrifice the individual to the collectivity because the individual is prior to civil society and society must be directed towards him or her (Mater et Magistra 109, Quadregesimo Anno 26).
- Employers must pay wages which allow the worker to live in a "reasonable and frugal comfort" (Rerum Novarum 34) and wages may not simply be a question of what contract a worker will accept. Conversely, workers may not claim that the produce and profits which are not required to repair and replace invested capital belong by right to them (Quadregesimo Anno 55, 114) and they must negotiate their wages with the common good in mind (Quadregesimo Anno 119, Mater et Magistra 112). As is the case with the employer, it is not just a question of what kind of contract can be extracted.
- Both the workers and the employers have an equal duty to be concerned for the common good (Laborem Exercens 20).
- And, the condemnation of injustice is part of the ministry of evangelization and is an integral aspect of the Church's prophetic role (Sollicitudo Rei Socialis 42).

The church has history on its side in teaching these principles. The failure of Marxism in Eastern Europe highlights precisely that an attempt to create justice for everyone without sufficiently factoring in the place of private profit and private wealth (not to mention God or love) doesn't lead to prosperity and justice, just as our present economic crisis highlights that an unregulated profit motive doesn't lead to prosperity and justice either. There is a middle road, and the Church's social teachings are that road-map.

Children's Sacraments

Dear Parents,

With the formalities over, we hope you will find a little time and space to celebrate your parental efforts in some delightful way. You certainly deserve it!

Of course, like parenting itself, your faith journey with your child continues beyond the programme. We acknowledge that, like all parenting, it can be very hard work, but also a joy and an extraordinary privilege.

Things to keep working on in the home environment to help your child 'grow' into this sacrament:

- Be attentive to the power of the Holy Spirit at work, the fruits and the gifts, all around you. They enjoyed that session very much; don't let that time be forgotten
- Affirm your child's gifts and call him/her forth as a servant of God. There are many things they can do that can make a difference to others.
- Practise home rituals: e.g., praying before bed, praying for others, family prayer, grace at meals, bible reading, Catholic symbols in the home.
- Take your child shopping at a Christian/Catholic shop to buy a few special things to set up a prayer space. A trip to Hot Dollar for some candles could be fun, as is getting coloured ribbons to decorate according to the church's liturgical calendar ie. green for Ordinary Time, gold, purple, red and pink!
- Send me an email to come and pick up your child's decorated dove and Confirmation name tag to be placed in a special treasure box or sacred space at home.

Bring your child to Sunday Mass and encourage their involvement in our parish community. Eg. Children's Liturgy (Kidz Word), Children's Mass and our children's choir.

In all this, we pray that you and your family will experience the Lord's peace and joy. Enjoy the ongoing adventure!

Promoting Missionary Disciples

Who do you trust to do the right thing?

In the first reading, Amos told the people, "The leaders do not care about the ruin of the people". They only care about living in luxury. He foretold, "They will be the first to go into exile", and they disappeared from history.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells a tragic story about a very rich person with everything and a desperately poor man covered with sores. After death the rich man is in agony in flames, while Lazarus is surrounded by the angels in the "bosom of Abraham". The no longer rich man is now begging, "Send Lazarus to warn my brothers, so they do not come to this place of torment." "Not possible" says Abraham. "But if someone comes from the dead, they will repent!" Abraham replies, "If they will not listen to Moses or the prophets, they will not be convinced, even if someone should rise from the dead. They were not convinced, when Jesus went to Bethany and raised Lazarus the brother of Mary and Martha and when Jesus himself rose from the dead.

In the Psalm, we join in this prayer of trust in the Lord, who keeps faith for ever, is just, gives bread to the hungry, and sets prisoners free.

Praise the Lord my soul! Our God gives sight, raises up those bowed down, loves the just, protects the stranger and upholds the widow and orphan.

What we hear today challenges us to listen, to trust and to be convinced that the way we live has consequences. We can also pray with trust in God.

Many have gone to Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible. Congratulations on your commitment.

This program will be offered next year, so many more will be able to 'unlock the mystery'.

Christian Initiation – A Process of Growth

Q What are the stages and steps in the process of Christian Initiation?

A The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults defines four stages in the process of becoming a Christian.

The first is the "Period of Evangelisation and Precatechumenate." In this informal time someone who is thinking about becoming a Christian can ask questions and be introduced to the Gospel.

In the second stage, the "Period of the Catechumenate," the person enters into a formal relationship with the Church, becoming a "catechumen" or listener. It is a time of nurturing and deepening faith in Christ.

The third stage, the "Period of Purification and Enlightenment" corresponds to the season of Lent. The catechumen – now counted among the "elect" – enters into a time of intense prayer and preparation for the Easter sacraments.

Following the reception of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil, the neophytes (new initiates) enter the "Period of Postbaptismal Catechesis or Mystagogy," reflecting on the life-changing sacraments received at the Easter Vigil.
