PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Gracious God, you call us, your disciples in Broken Bay to be the face of Jesus to the world, to care and evangelise in his name.

Through your Spirit, you call us all, to serve you in many forms of Christian discipleship.

We ask you particularly at this time to call forth individual believers to serve your disciples in Broken Bay in our lay ecclesial ministries, in religious life, in diaconate and in priesthood.

May we be a Church where generosity, dedication and passion are called forth and nurtured.

May we be a Church where we can listen for your voice in a noisy world, and respond with faith and hope.

We ask you this through the Good Shepherd who laid down his life for his sheep, Christ, our Lord. Amen

A tribute to much loved educator:

It is with great sadness that I inform you of the passing of Kathy Busuttill earlier this month.

Kathy Busuttill was a valued member of the St Gerard's community for almost 30 years. She began teaching at St Gerard's school in 1988 and worked fulltime on a number of different grades until she retired in 2017. Hundreds of St Gerard's students have been taught by Mrs Busuttill over the years and will remember her fondly for her kindness and dedication.

Kathy was constantly updating her knowledge of curriculum and the way children learn and she passed on love of literature, and passion and skill for craft, to all whose she taught. She was always enthusiastic about school events and we all have fond memories of her dressed from head to toe in red at athletics carnivals, as well as the many clever outfits she put together for the Book Week parades.

Kathy was a wonderful colleague who shared her knowledge and experience so generously with the many teachers she worked with. She took a genuine interest in each person she met and developed lifelong friendships with many in the school community. She will be long remembered and dearly missed by us all.

CCD - Be There for Me Update

Darcy is a Catholic kid in Year 5 at a public school. She and her friends are looking forward to their catechist returning to teach them about Jesus and his Church. While over 900 catechists (in the Diocese) are heading back to this wonderful work, some are not able to return at this time. So, can you be there for them as a relief catechist?

Already there has been a positive response to the call for relief catechists. Some people have returned to the ministry after taking a break for a few years. Others are coming into the ministry because changed circumstances mean they have time. These relief catechists are doing Safeguarding training and will be offered a special introduction to managing classes with good lesson preparation.

Special pre-packaged lessons have been developed to make life easier for everyone. Students are already finding these digital screen resources most engaging. In the first lesson a Year 5 student asked, "Why does the picture of Jesus calming the storm have a blue sky?" The catechist replied, "Maybe it was a sun shower."

All jokes aside there are some parishes with a few classes that are yet to be covered. Frenchs Forest are looking for someone to be there on Wednesdays for Year 5 and 6. Ku-Ring-Gai Chase want someone for a while on Tuesday afternoons and Woy Woy Parish need people to fill most days of the week.

Reflection on this Sunday's Gospel

Hear God speaking. Listen. Your soul will come to life.

Listen, Isaiah says, God is calling out, like someone at the markets. Come, the specials today, Corn, wine, milk. No cost ~ for those with no money. God's free gift for all. Don't waste money or spend wages and not be satisfied! Listen to Me – it's free. Pay attention to Me. Come to Me. Your soul will live. Isaiah 55:1-3

Paul puts things in perspective. Nothing can come between us and the love of Christ. He says it again.

Nothing can come between us and the love of God made visible in Christ Jesus our Lord.

How is that true to your experience? Does anything in our world come between you and the love God has for you? What has the power to do that to you? Paul lists all the threats or possible terrors and says We triumph over all of these by the power of him who loved us! However, within us, we have the power to reject God's love. Rm 8:35, 37-39

Can we use the power within us to learn about God's love in this Gospel event? Matthew tells us what happened. Jesus just heard his cousin John was dead. There was no trial. He was murdered. Jesus needed to be with his friends by themselves. They headed for a lonely place only to find a large crowd of people were there waiting. Jesus took pity on them. He healed their sick. It was evening and they were hungry.

Jesus did what Isaiah said God promised to do. Jesus gave good things to eat and rich food to enjoy. Jesus fed them for free. Matthew 14:13-21

Did they have something to tell their family and neighbours when they went home!

How can we respond to hearing God speaking to us? Could we pray with trust as the person who wrote the Psalm 144 said ~ The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

Could we pray in Paul's prayer ~ God I am grateful for I know nothing can come between us Lord. Nothing can separate me from your love. I fear not one thing.

Your love, God has been made visible in Jesus.

Jesus, You are the Christ.

You are the one sent to heal our world.

You are my Lord and my God.

When you go home and when you go out from home, be sure to tell others about the good things you received for free and the one who gives life for your soul.

Reflection on the Sunday's Gospel...The Multiplication of Loaves and Fishes

This Sunday, the Gospel presents to us the miracle of the multiplication of loaves and fish (Mt 14:13-21). Jesus performed it along the Lake of Galilee, in a deserted place where he had withdrawn with his disciples after learning of the death of John the Baptist. But many people followed them and joined them there; and upon seeing them, Jesus felt compassion and healed their sick until the evening. And seeing the late hour, the disciples became concerned and suggested that Jesus send the crowd away so they could go into the villages and buy food to eat. But Jesus calmly replied: "You give them something to eat" (Mt 14:16); and he asked them to bring five loaves and two fish, blessed them, began to break them and give them to the disciples, who distributed them to the people. They all ate and were satisfied, and there were even leftovers!

We can understand three messages from this event. The first is compassion. In facing the crowd who follows him and — so to speak — "won't leave him alone", Jesus does not react with irritation; he does not say: "These people are bothering me". No, no. He reacts with a feeling of compassion, because he knows they are not seeking him out of curiosity but out of need. But attention: compassion — which Jesus feels — is not simply feeling pity; it's more! It means to suffer with, in other words to empathize with the suffering of another, to the point of taking it upon oneself. Jesus is like this: he suffers together with us, he suffers with us, he suffers for us. And the sign of this compassion is the healing of countless people he performed. Jesus teaches us to place the needs of the poor before our own. Our needs, even if legitimate, are not as urgent as those of the poor, who lack the basic necessities of life. We often speak of the poor. But when we speak of the poor, do we sense that this man or that woman or those children lack the bare necessities of life? That they have no food, they have no clothing, they cannot afford medicine.... Also that the children do not have the means to attend school. Whereas our needs, although legitimate, are not as urgent as those of the poor who lack life's basic necessities.

The second message is sharing. The first is compassion, which Jesus felt, and the second is sharing. It's helpful to compare the reaction of the disciples with regard to the tired and hungry people, with that of Jesus. They are different. The disciples think it would be better to send them away so they can go and buy food. Jesus instead says: "you give them something to eat". Two different reactions, which reflect two contrasting outlooks: the disciples reason with worldly logic, by which each person must think of himself; they reason as if to say: "Sort it out for yourselves". Jesus reasons with God's logic, which is that of sharing. How many times we turn away so as not to see our brothers in need! And this looking away is a polite way to say, with white gloves, "Sort it out for yourselves". And this is not Jesus' way: this is selfishness. Had he sent away the crowds, many people would have been left with nothing to eat. Instead those few loaves and fish, shared and blessed by God, were enough for everyone. And pay heed! It isn't magic, it's a "sign": a sign that calls for faith in God, provident Father, who does not let us go without "our daily bread", if we know how to share it as brothers.

Compassion, sharing. And the third message: the miracle of the loaves foreshadows the Eucharist. It is seen in the gesture of Jesus who, before breaking and distributing the loaves, "blessed" them (Mt 14:19). It is the same gesture that Jesus was to make at the Last Supper, when he established the perpetual memorial of his Redeeming Sacrifice. In the Eucharist Jesus does not give just any bread, but the bread of eternal life, he gives Himself, offering Himself to the Father out of love for us. But we must go to the Eucharist with those sentiments of Jesus, which are compassion and the will to share. One who goes to the Eucharist without having compassion for the needy and without sharing, is not at ease with Jesus.

Compassion, sharing, Eucharist. This is the path that Jesus points out to us in this Gospel. A path which brings us to face the needs of this world with fraternity, but which leads us beyond this world, because it comes from God the Father and returns to Him. May the Virgin Mary, Mother of Divine Providence, accompany us on this journey.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (all bow)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Supporting our Parish Financially

A number of people have enquired as to how they can continue their financial support for the parish during this difficult time. We realise that this may not be possible in the light of growing unemployment and reductions in superannuation returns at the moment and there is absolutely no pressure on anyone to contribute!

The First Collection Supports the needs of the priests of the parish, the retired priests of the diocese and the Bishop.

The Second Collection Money from the Second Collection supports the running costs of the parish including the payment of staff. If you are able to contribute, the Church account details are shown below:

Epping and Carlingford Parish Accounts for Internet Banking with the Commonwealth Bank

First Collection BSB 062 784 A/C No 858 8002

Second Collection BSB 062 784 A/C No 858 8001

In order to record planned giving in the parish office, we would suggest the reference be planned giving number where applicable and surname.

Thank you to all those who have made financial contributions. Your support is very much appreciated.
