YEAR A

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

6-09-20

Ezekiel 33:7-9

Romans 13:8-10

Matthew 18:15-20

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

September is a month of Safeguarding in our Diocese. This is a month of reminding us that as the Church we are obligated to protect and support children and vulnerable people in our communities. The motto of this year "Listening to the past; Caring for the future" leads us to reflect on that important issue.

Last Tuesday, the Diocese with its pastor – Bishop Anthony Randazzo, celebrated the "Liturgy of Lament" praying for the victims and with the victims of sexual abuse. During the liturgy, we acknowledged our responsibility for the sin of abuse, asked for God's and the victim's forgiveness, and reflected on how to protect children in the future.

This Sunday asks us to take responsibility for the Church. It is our duty to react if we see a sin; we can't pretend that we are blind and we are deaf. It is our responsibility to warn people and if necessary report to the Church. If we love the Church; if we care for our children, safeguarding and protection have to be the core of our Catholic faith.

Blessing of Crosses and Crucifixes . . .

As you know we try to tap into our Church's tradition of punctuating the rhythm of the year with feasts and festivals by observing some of those feasts in a special way so that they might help to relate our faith to the living of our lives.

One of those feast days will soon be upon us. The Feast of the Triumph of the Cross, Monday 14th September, celebrates the victory over sin and death that comes through the Cross of Jesus. It is an especially appropriate day each year to bless the cross or crucifix in our sacred space at home.

Please bring along your cross or crucifix from your sacred space at home – these will be blessed at the 9:30am Mass at St Gerard's.

There is no Mass at Epping on a Monday.

Listen to the Word ~ Respond in prayer

God is reconciling the world to himself through Jesus. God entrusted this good news of reconciliation to us. (We hear this before the Gospel, 2Cor 5:19) We are reconciled with God and with one another through Jesus.

Listen to how God wants peace and reconciliation in our personal world. Matthew told his community in the Gospel (18:15-20) this is how reconciliation happens if a brother or sister does something wrong.

Step 1 Go. Have it out with him or her, alone, between your two selves. If they listen, you have won them back. If they do not listen, then step 2. Take one or two witnesses to sustain any charge. If they listen, you have won them back. If they refuse to listen, step 3. Report it to the community. If he or she refuses to listen to the community, treat him or her like a pagan or a tax collector.

Remember how Jesus treated pagans and tax collectors? – With respect and acceptance to win them over to God's loving ways.

God has entrusted to us this work of reconciliation and Jesus makes three very strong promises to us.

If your community makes the decision to forbid (bind) or to permit (loose) on earth, then it will be considered the same in heaven. (Mt 18:18)

If two of you agree and ask my Father in Heaven, God the Father will grant it to you. Matthew added that Jesus said this once again, so Jesus made sure we would remember to pray. (18:19)

When we get together and meet in Jesus name, as few as three or even two, *Jesus promises us, I shall be there with you. (18:20)

Respond in prayer

At Mass we pray for our parish ~ Heavenly Father may we be faithfully united in mind and heart.

Paul in the second reading shows how. (Rm 13:8-10) ~ LOVE. You must love your neighbour, just as you must love yourself. Love is the one thing that cannot hurt your neighbour or yourself. Love is the answer to every one of the commandments of our God of love.

*Heavenly Father we pray for the patience, the kindness, the endurance to love. Give us your Holy Spirit to empower us to love our neighbour, and to love ourselves. We pray for our families. Form us and make us strong enough to give love and to receive love, to be loving and be forgiving.

If a brother or sister in our community has done something wrong, they may not be aware of it. You must act to warn them, to make them aware. In all of this, pray to be loving and to reconcile any division. Follow the steps. Take the initiative. Go to them. Speak the truth in love. Pray to persevere with the person through the steps

Pray with another or others and agree to ask our Heavenly Father who we trust will grant it to us. Then always, continue to meet in Jesus name with another or others and pray to recognise Jesus in our meetings and hear him saying, I am here with you.

Reflection on this Sunday's Gospel...

Today's gospel reading from Matthew comes from a collection of Jesus' teachings applicable to life within the community of the Church, as it awaits the coming of the final Kingdom. In the passages that precede this one, Jesus has warned against arrogance on the part of those called to be leaders: 'the one who makes himself as little as this child is the greatest'; he has pronounced a terrible judgment on those who lead astray 'these little ones who have faith'. Matthew also includes here the parable of the lost sheep, as indicating the generous zeal that should be shown by leaders in the community. This reference to those who have gone astray leads into today's reading. It describes the manner in which these people are to be dealt with within the Church community. Clearly, the community Matthew is writing for has developed procedures to be followed in such cases, and they see themselves as acting in accordance with the Lord's own mind. When we recall the authoritative spirit that was taken for granted by those with leadership roles in the ancient world, we recognise how the listening and dialogue of these procedures reflect the fraternal love that was taught by Jesus - and recalled by Paul in our second reading.

In these procedures, we see the origins of the sacrament of reconciliation that is an essential part of the life of the Church during its time of pilgrimage. It was not a question of some private offence committed against the one who admonishes the wrongdoer. In referring to the need for 'two or three witnesses to sustain the charge', this procedure echoes the community's Jewish background, citing a prescription of the Old Testament (Deut 19:15), thus making it clear that it is a question of serious and public faults.

When these procedures, calling the wrongdoer to conversion, have failed, this person is to be 'excommunicated' - excluded from the community. We know from comments of St Paul concerning such cases, that this exclusion aimed to help the wrongdoer find forgiveness: 'Do not treat them as enemies, but warn them as believers', Paul writes (2 Thess 3; cf. 1 Cor 5). Being welcomed back to share in the life of the community - especially the Eucharist - was the sacramental sign of reconciliation with God. Note that Matthew follows these procedural instructions with a second reference, in his gospel, to the power to 'bind and loose' in God's name. This time it is given to the Church community, acting through the ministry of those who carry on the leadership role of the apostles. As we said, the sacramental sign of reconciliation with the Lord is being received back into the Church community.

'The Son of Man has power to forgive sins', Jesus declared (Mk 2:10). The reconciliation available in the life of the Church is the reconciliation he brings to the world. The words with which our reading ends, though brief, have immense importance for us, as we seek to understand and enter more fully into the mystery of the Church's common life. You come together 'in my name', Jesus tells us. In the biblical tradition, these words have a great depth of meaning: they imply our identification with the Lord through our baptism, and to the fact that he continues to be present in the world of our time through our coming together as his Church and celebrating the Church's common life. They also remind us of the Saviour's presence in the public prayer of the Church, uniting our prayers with his, as he intercedes for the world before the Father.

Plenary Council 2020

In light of the postponement of the Plenary Council assemblies by 12 months, Plenary Council president Archbishop Timothy Costelloe SDB is encouraging people across Australia to reflect more deeply on the practice of discernment.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (all bow)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Supporting our Parish Financially

A number of people have enquired as to how they can continue their financial support for the parish during this difficult time. We realise that this may not be possible in the light of growing unemployment and reductions in superannuation returns at the moment and there is absolutely no pressure on anyone to contribute!

The First Collection Supports the needs of the priests of the parish, the retired priests of the diocese and the Bishop.

The Second Collection Money from the Second Collection supports the running costs of the parish including the payment of staff. If you are able to contribute, the Church account details are shown below:

Epping and Carlingford Parish Accounts for Internet Banking with the Commonwealth Bank

First Collection BSB 062 784 A/C No 858 8002

Second Collection BSB 062 784 A/C No 858 8001

In order to record planned giving in the parish office, we would suggest the reference be planned giving number where applicable and surname.

Thank you to all those who have made financial contributions. Your support is very much appreciated.
