YEAR C TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 6-10-19

Habakkuk 1:2-3:2:2-4 1 Timothy 1:6-8.13-14 Luke 17:5-10

Dear sisters and brothers,

As we move towards the end of the year there are a number of activities occurring within our parish family.

As well as our weekly coming together, "Unlocking The Mystery of the Bible", can I offer a final reminder that our parish retreat occurs next Saturday. If you haven't registered please do so this weekend on the sheets of paper provided at the back of the church.

Also a reminder to everyone but especially to all those involved in Kidz Word and Children's liturgies about our evening, on Tuesday 22nd October with Charbel Raish as we reflect together on "How to Enrich Children's Ministries". As part of our Parish Plan for this year, supporting and enhancing our liturgical ministries has had a particular focus and this evening will assist further in achieving this goal.

Along with this evening we will also be offering some formation for all those who assist the parish in the ministries of service at the altar as well as distributing Holy Communion. More details will be offered in coming weeks but at this stage could I ask if any parishioner not currently involved in either of these ministries who would be interested in finding out more or participating in these ministries could please place your name and contact details either on the sheet of paper at the back of the church or leave this information with one of our secretaries at the parish office. I hope many of you will come forward to provide service for our parish in these and indeed all our parish ministries!

Fr Peter

Light for Our Path

The Parish Retreat day will be held on;
 Saturday 12th October
 at the Benedictine Monastery in Arcadia.

It will commence at 10 am and conclude about 3 pm.

The theme for the day will focus on Creation as God's first Incarnation. Such a way of understanding and contemplating our created world enables us to embrace its magnificence with a deep sense of wonder and gratitude for all that is. As we grow in appreciation of this, we become more aware of creation being a "thou" not an "it." This enables us to live more intentionally in a right relationship with the earth and the cosmos through a loving exchange of giving and receiving.

It is hoped that one of the fruits of our day together will be an increased sense of growing in harmony as a Parish community of faith, with the one great song of love and grace, ever ancient, ever new.

Please indicate your attendance by putting your name on one of the sheets of paper located near the entrance to the church.

While there is no fixed cost for the day everyone is asked to bring their own lunch. Any donation would be appreciated.

If you need transport please contact the parish office.

The day will be facilitated by Sr. Patty Andrew osu (a sister of the Ursuline Congregation)

Parish Mission Statement

We are a diverse Catholic community centred in the Eucharist. We gather for worship to serve and reach out to others as we grow in relationship with God and each other.

Safeguarding Message September 2019

SAFEGUARDING MONTH—an inclusion of people with disability is about evangelisation and mission.

PPC Council Member Garry Leary

Marcelle and I first joined the parish in 1984. Our four children attended the St Gerard's primary school and during that time we were both very involved in the activities of the school, meeting many wonderful people. This has allowed us to now continue to enjoy many lifelong friendships.

Our four children have now grown up to be wonderful parents and have blessed us with 15 grandchildren all of whom bring us much joy and happiness.

I have been a financial planner for 41 years, having owned my own business for 32 years. As a professional I have had the privilege of serving others and making a difference in theirs and their family's lives. This has provided a great deal of satisfaction and has led to a very satisfying career.

I have been an Acolyte at St Gerard's for over 20 years. The privilege of serving our parish by assisting our priests at Mass has certainly deepened my faith. From time to time I have also been involved in the RCIA programme sponsoring both catechumens and candidates as they progress on the journey of understanding the Catholic faith. The joy that I have experienced when they decide that God is calling them to become a Catholic is truly wonderful. I continue to live in admiration of their commitment and desire to be involved.

I have a keen interest in many sports but more particularly Cricket (as a player, coach, scorer and umpire), Rugby Union (as a player and coach), swimming and bush walking. Needless to say I love the outdoors. I also have a keen interest in history, particularly Australian history and I enjoy reading autobiographies of interesting people.

It has been an absolute privilege to be a member of the Parish Pastoral Council since 2013. During this time, I have fulfilled the roles of both Secretary and Chairperson. I have served on the council with some wonderful parishioners, so willing to give of their time, insights, energy and experience. In particular I have valued their willingness to reflect in their own faith experiences. I will always treasure these experiences and have learned much during this time.

Children's Liturgy

Adults, catechists and parents who are involved in any children's ministries, we have an exciting opportunity to meet Charbel Raish, founder of Parousia Media! Charbel has extensive experience in educational and pastoral activities of the Church and will be visiting our parish in October to help us discover "what else is possible", when we lead our children in their early years of faith formation.

Have you ever found yourself in a cycle of repeating what you have always been doing, and wishing you were equipped with more to make your session more meaningful and engaging? Well then, this is an evening you will not want to miss! See details below and SAVE THE DATE!

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (all bow)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Reflection on Sunday's Gospel—Believe It

Faith.

What is faith?

"Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen." So says the Letter to the Hebrews (Hebrews 11:1).

We need and want to love and be loved and it takes time to learn how.

Do you have any doubt that various cities around the world exist, even though you have not actually walked in them? Moscow, Katmandu, Tokyo? And, can you make plans for dinner with a friend if you suspect that s/he is just a figment of your imagination? No. So, you have a conviction of things (or persons) not seen. You have faith.

This is a first answer, a ground level meaning of the word faith, a simple one. We can say "God exists," but others might reply, "so what? I believe my spleen exists, but so what?" So, maybe there is more than a simple belief that "God exists."

That "more" might mean relationship.

You have assurance that a friend will be loyal to you, will be true to the promise contained in friendship. You have faith that your relationship with your friend will not expire.

This is a higher level of faith.

It includes doubt as well. There are moments when it feels like a trusted friend has turned away from you. Such moments are terrible. Some people avoid close relationships altogether just for fear of this kind of a betrayal!

Understandable as such fear is, all of us need gradually and prudently to open ourselves up to deeper friendships. We need and want to love and be loved and it takes time to learn how. Hurt does not have to mean cancellation.

We see a third level of faith in the First Reading. The prophet Habbakuk witnesses a lot of harm and speaks to God with great emotion.

How long, O Lord? I cry for help but you do not listen. Why do you let me see ruin? Why must I look at misery?

Maybe Habbakuk did not know that hurt can be part of a good relationship. He demands to know how the Lord could be so unmoved. Surprisingly, God answers, in a lengthy and encouraging reply. "The vision still has its time," he says, it "presses on to fulfillment, and it will not disappoint; if it delays, wait for it, it will surely come."

Reassuring.

However, the stumbling block in this level is "wait for it." God will make things better but not yet. Our insides scream "Not yet! What are you talking about? Why don't you help us right now? Why are you delaying and giving suffering such a feast?"

The apostles say roughly the same thing to Jesus in the Gospel:

Increase our faith!

What is the Lord's answer? It surely seems like delay, delay, delay.

But, in truth, God is using delay as a way of increasing our faith.

What if we are not yet ready for the depth of God's answers? What if we are not quite ready for true relationship? God brings us along until we become ready for more.

According to Jesus it does not matter how much faith you have, a car-load or a teaspoon-full. Stay in there and the remainder will come, he says.

A quote from "Let the Sun Shine - An Australian Catholic Response to Climate Change" – by Fr Charles Rue :

"St Francis of Assisi shows us how we can make ecological sensitivity a part of our spiritual journey. He showed respect, and particularly „courtesy“, towards nature in both its living and inanimate forms; he called it brother and sister, an example of genuine prayer and compassion for every aspect of Earth. Pope John Paul II named Francis as the patron saint of ecology."

Listen to what the Spirit is saying...

We invite the group who participated in Listening and Dialogue to now reconvene in communal Discernment on any one of the six themes. Our Writing and Discernment Groups will then meet and discern on these responses, with prayer and from their own theological knowledge, towards publishing thematic papers and fleshing out the agenda for the first session of the Plenary Council in October 2020.

There are six National Themes for Discernment:

1. Missionary and Evangelising
2. Inclusive, Participatory and Synodal
3. Prayerful and Eucharistic
4. Humble, Healing and Merciful
5. A Joyful, Hope-filled and Servant Community
6. Open to Conversion, Renewal and Reform

If you would like to be part of a group please complete the sheets which can be found at the back of both churches.

THE RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS*Q What is the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults?

A The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the book which guides the preparation of adults and older children for the sacraments of initiation.

In the early Church, when adult Baptism was the norm, a process of preparation developed with distinct stages and rites, forming candidates in the Christian life and surrounding them with the Church's prayer.

When infant Baptism became the norm, this process fell out of use until the Second Vatican Council called for a restoration of the process.

The book referred to as the "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults" (or RCIA for short) describes the stages and rites in the current initiation process – which echo many of the elements of the ancient catechumenate while also taking into account the needs of the contemporary Church.

Faith*Lord, increase our faith.

The Apostles asked Jesus for more faith. Did I hear you say, "Me too!" We pray for more faith, but what are we praying for?

Paul reminds Timothy of the gift of faith and reminds us to "Fan into a flame the gift God gave you." God's gift - the Spirit of power and love and self-control. "You have been entrusted to look after something precious, guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit, who lives in you."

We pray at Mass; Lord increase our faith. Take time to pray at home, "Holy Spirit, you live in me. Fan into a flame this gift God gave me. May I experience your Spirit of power and love and self-control."

Have you ever tried to explain your faith? Bishop Robert Barron wrote, "Faith is an attitude of trust in the presence of God. Faith is openness to what God will reveal, do, and invite. It should be obvious that, in dealing with the infinite, all-powerful person who is God, we are never in control.

One of the most fundamental statements of faith is this: your life is not about you. You're not in control. This is not your project. Rather, you are part of God's great design. To believe this in your bones and act accordingly is to have faith. When we operate out of this transformed vision, amazing things can happen, for we have surrendered to "a power already at work in us that can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine." Even a tiny bit of faith makes an extraordinary difference.

What can I do, if I am not sure if I have faith or I am sure I do not have this attitude of trust in God's presence in my life? Your honesty is the beginning of your journey! You can say this simple prayer ~ God, if you are real, show yourself to me.

We know God responds in powerful ways when you just say, "I am open. God show yourself to me".
