Welcome to our Parish of Epping and Carlingford consisting of our two worshipping communities of St Gerard Majella's at Carlingford and Our Lady Help of Christians at Epping. YEAR BTWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME*9-8-18*Isaiah 35:4-7*James 2:1-5*Mark 7:31-37

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation with over 80 children and young people of our parish together with their families. I would like to thank all those who have helped to prepare the children especially their families, the group facilitators, members of the parish team including our wonderful office staff and especially our Sacramental Coordinators Lynn Siau and Marcella Letteri who have done an excellent job in patiently guiding and organising our parish programme. Our parish has been greatly blessed by your ministry! Next weekend over all the parish Masses we will present the certificates to the children.

As you can also see in the bulletin, we will be farewelling Father Anselam NEXT WEEKEND, 15th September at the 6pm Mass at St Gerard's Carlingford followed by a supper in the parish meeting room. Unfortunately, due to commitments at Waitara and the need for him to commence his appointment at Wairoa immediately on the following weekend, the only opportunity we have to farewell Anselam here at Epping and Carlingford is this coming Saturday evening vigil Mass. I hope as many of you as possible can join us to thank God and him for his gentle and much appreciated ministry here in this part of God's vineyard over the past couple of years!

For those who may wish to make a donation towards a parish gift for Father Anselam a box is available near the entrances to the churches for you to place your financial contribution or you can drop it into the parish office before next Friday. We have also provided some cards for you to write a farewell message on if you so wish. These cards will be left in both churches until Friday.

Last Thursday our "Sharing our Faith" series, which will run for four weeks, commenced with over sixty parishioners taking part. Our formation as 'Missionary' disciples, which all of us through baptism are called to take seriously, will, I believe, be assisted greatly by this series run by Martin Teulan. Also, this weekend we invite ALL parishioners, especially those who haven't taken part in our Alpha series so far, to seriously considering doing so by signing up for the Alpha programme commencing at the end of this month. Along with the great food, videos and discussion, Alpha is a wonderful opportunity to make new friends and renew old ones here in the parish. Please see the bulletin for more details.

Finally, as Fr Joey, myself and the clergy of the diocese commence our retreat this coming Monday please keep us in your prayers as we will be keeping you all in ours!

Fr Peter

You are all invited to a farewell for Fr Anselam in the parish meeting room at St Gerard's next Saturday 15th September commencing with the 6pm Vigil Mass and followed by a light supper—finger food. So if anyone could help out with a plate of food to share that would really be appreciated.

Also donations towards a gift for Fr Anselam can be left in one of the boxes or at the parish office. A card is also available at the back of the church which can be signed.

Come and See event—Is there More to Life?

Who comes to Alpha in Epping Carlingford?

Young adults, young married, parents of young families.
Some Catholics, some not sure about being Catholic, some not Catholic, some not sure about Christianity.

So who is Alpha for?

All of the above and especially for those with questions about life, about who is Christ?

Alpha is a place of entry into the journey of faith, of hope and of love.

It is "shallow water" where you can get your feet wet and the opposite to diving in at the deep end. You come and see and as you keep coming you keep seeing more and can take the first step or the next step in your personal journey. This could be to trust more, or it could be to want to find out more, or it could be to open up to change in your life.

Alpha is for people with questions and supports people seeking when they are not sure what they are looking for. Alpha is fun for people to connect. They form real friendships over the meal and from sharing their lives.

We invite you too,
"Come and See ~ Is there more to life?"

Next Saturday evening 15th September at Epping at 6 pm, we invite you to come to the Parish Meeting room. Join us over some food. We will watch a 25-minute video, then share some of the stories. This will be after the 5pm Mass. Families are welcome.

Or Wednesday evening 19th September at 7 pm, you can come to the Parish Hall in the school. Join us over a sit-down meal, then the video and some stories.

The following Wednesday evening 26th September at 7, we start the Alpha sessions.

Can you see the Sign-up Slips on the seats in the church?

Please fill in the slip, for catering and for setting your place.
You are our guest, so we want to be ready to welcome you

There is a box at the entry to the church, or you can fold the slip and put it on the plate.

Also think of your friend, your neighbour or someone from your family.
Take a Sign-up slip to invite them personally.

Parish Youth Forum

As part of the Year of Youth celebrations, our Parish of Epping and Carlingford will be holding a Parish Youth Forum this Sunday. The Youth Forum invites us all to enter into a prayerful discernment about the importance and life-giving presence of young people in the local Church and society. It will be held on Sunday 9 September, after the 10:15am Mass at the Parish Hall at Epping

We invite you all whether you are young, or not so young to 'Come and have your say' to discuss and share your vision of the future for our young people.

We will have morning tea/light lunch down next to the Parish Hall at 11:15am, followed by the Forum in the Parish Hall. All ages are welcome including youth, young adults, parents, grandparents etc. (12 years old and up).

We will also be holding kids' activities (5-12 years old) in the Parish Meeting Room during the Youth Forum for those who may not want to participate in the Forum.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

ECUMENICAL RELATIONSHIPS

Our parish is strongly committed to ecumenism and a formal Covenant has been signed with the Anglican Parish of Epping, Epping Uniting Church, West Epping Uniting Church and Epping, Baptist Church.

HAVE YOU TOLD US? If you have recently changed your address, phone number or email. For parishioners who give by credit card, does your credit card expire in the near future? Please give the parish office a call on 9876 2853 if you have received a new credit card and/or a new expiry date.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Gracious God, you call us, your disciples in Broken Bay to be the face of Jesus to the world, to care and evangelise in his name.

Through your Spirit, you call us all, to serve you in many forms of Christian discipleship.

We ask you particularly at this time to call forth individual believers to serve your disciples in Broken Bay in our lay ecclesial ministries, in religious life, in diaconate and in priesthood.

May we be a Church where generosity, dedication and passion are called forth and nurtured.

May we be a Church where we can listen for your voice in a noisy world, and respond with faith and hope.

We ask you this through the Good Shepherd who laid down his life for his sheep, Christ, our Lord. Amen

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Reflection on this Sunday's Gospel: Affective Prayer

"Be opened!"—And immediately the man's ears were opened, his speech impediment was removed, and he spoke plainly. (Gospel)

A while ago I attended a six-day retreat given by Robert Michel, an Oblate colleague and a highly sought-after spiritual mentor. His approach was disarming. Most of us are forever looking for something novel, at the cutting-edge, outside the box, something complex, but what he offered was stunningly simple and down-to-earth. He spent the whole time trying to teach us how to pray in an affective way.

What exactly does that mean, to pray affectively? In essence, what he told us might be summarized this way: "You must try to pray so that, in your prayer, you open yourself in such a way that sometime—perhaps not today, but sometime—you are able to hear God say to you: 'I love you!' These words, addressed to you by God, are the most important words you will ever hear because, before you hear them, nothing is ever completely right with you, but, after you hear them, something will be right in your life at a very deep level."

These are simple words, but they capture what we ultimately try to do when we "lift mind and heart to God" in prayer.

In the end, prayer's essence, its mission-statement, its deep raison d'être, is simply this: we need to open ourselves to God in such a way that we are capable of hearing God say to us, individually, "I love you!"

"This might sound pious and sentimental. It's anything but that. Don't be put off by simplicity. The deeper something is the simpler it will be. That's why we have trouble understanding the deep things, be they of science or the heart. What separates the great minds (Augustine, Aquinas, Descartes, Whitehead, Einstein, Lonergan) from the rest of us is their capacity to grasp the simple. Anyone can understand what's complex, but we have trouble grasping the principle of relativity, the concept of being, the concept of love, and things about the nature of the God, for exactly the opposite reason. They're too simple. The simpler something is, the harder it is to wrap our minds around it and the more we need to make it complex in order to understand it. That's true too of prayer. It's so simple that we rarely lay bare its essence. It has ever been thus, it would seem.

John's gospel already makes that point. The Gospel of John, as we know, structures itself very differently from the other gospels. John has no infancy narratives or early life of Jesus. In his gospel, we meet Jesus as an adult right on the first page and the first words out of Jesus' mouth are a question: "What are you looking for?" That question remains throughout the rest of the gospel as an interpretive coloring suggesting that beneath everything else a certain search is going on. A lot of things are happening on the surface, but underneath, there remains always the nagging, restless question: "What are you looking for?"

Jesus answers that question explicitly only at the end of the gospel, on the morning of the resurrection. Mary Magdalene goes looking for him, carrying spices with which to embalm his dead body. Jesus meets her, alive and in no need of embalming, but she doesn't recognize him. Bewildered, but sincere, she asks Jesus where she might find Jesus (something, I suspect, we do often enough in prayer). Jesus, for his part, repeats for her the question he opened the gospel with: "What are you looking for?" Then he answers it. With deep affection, he pronounces her name: "Mary."

In doing that, he tells her what she and everyone else are forever looking for, God's voice, one-to-one, speaking unconditional love, gently saying your name. In the end, that's what we are all looking for and most need. It's what gives us substance, identity, and justification beyond our own efforts to make ourselves lovable, worthwhile, and immortal. We are forever in fear of our own seeming insubstantiality. How to give ourselves significance? We need to hear God, affectionately, one-to-one, pronounce our names: "Carolyn!" "Julia!" "Kern!" "Gisele!" "Steve!" "Sophia!" Nothing will heal us more of restlessness, bitterness, and insecurity than to hear God say: "I love you!"

Moreover since prayer is meant to be a mutual thing, it's important too that we respond in kind: Part of affective prayer is also that we, one-to-one, with affection, occasionally at least, say the same thing to God: "I love you!" In all long-term, affectionate relationships the partners have to occasionally prompt each other to hear expressions of affection and reassurance. It's not good enough to tell a marriage partner or a friend just once "I love you!" It needs to be said regularly. The relationship of prayer is no different.

Prayer, it is said, is not meant to change God but us. True. And nothing changes us as much for the good as to hear someone say that he or she loves us—especially if that someone is God.

Blessing of Crosses and Crucifixes . . .

As you know we try to tap into our Church's tradition of punctuating the rhythm of the year with feasts and festivals by observing some of those feasts in a special way so that they might help to relate our faith to the living of our lives. One of those feast days will soon be upon us. The Feast of the Triumph of the Cross, is this Friday, 14th September, celebrates the victory over sin and death that comes through the Cross of Jesus. It is an especially appropriate day each year to bless the cross or crucifix in our sacred space at home.

Please bring along your cross or crucifix from your sacred space at home – these will be blessed at the 12:15am Mass at Our Lady Help of Christians and the 9:30am Mass at St Gerard's.

Diocesan Clergy Retreat

Fr Peter and Fr Joey will be away from 10th—14th September for the annual Clergy Retreat which will be held at Douglas Park, from Tuesday to Friday inclusive.

There will be Communion Services instead of the usual Masses celebrated in the parish.

Please keep Fathers Peter and Joey and all the clergy of our Diocese in your prayers throughout this coming week.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD [KIDZ WORD]

During the 9:30am Mass at Carlingford and the 10:15am Mass at Epping each Sunday during school term, Children's Liturgy is held for primary school aged children at both St Gerard's and Our Lady Help of Christians.

The children move from the main body of the Church to the meeting room after completion of the Greeting by the priest. There are at least two to three volunteers who help with the Children's Liturgy. Each week the liturgy will include a song, reflective prayer, a Profession of the Faith, a reading of the Sunday Gospel and a reflection lead by the leader of the Children Liturgy.

If you would like your child/ren to take part, please join the other children when the priest asks for 'those children taking part in the Children's Liturgy to come to the front of the Church.'

There is no Children's Liturgy on a Sunday when it is a Children's Mass or school holidays.
