The Catholic Parish of Epping & Carlingford

YEAR C

10 JULY 2022 FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

17 JULY 2022 SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Caring for Our Common Home: In May our parish had a forum to hear the stories of refugees and asylum seekers and then to look at practical ways in which we can respond. Several strategies emerged which we will now work on, including collecting specific items for Jesuit Refugee Services, details of which are below as well as within the bulletin pages.

This forum was an effective way of engaging in listening to real life stories, and so we're going to use the same format for our next social justice focus on the environment. "Care for our common home" (planet earth) is the language Pope Francis uses in his landmark encyclical Laudato 'Si to draw Catholics and all people of good will to join together in a common mission of caring for the earth, not just because it is our home, but also because it is created by God and in caring for creation we honour God as Creator.

We invite you to join us for a forum on Caring for Our Common Home on Sunday August 7th, 11am – 1pm at St Gerard's meeting room. This will be an opportunity for us to share our stories of what is important to us, and to hear from some people with expertise in environmental issues. We'll then look to find practical responses for ourselves as a parish and a wider community.

Volunteering: Thank you to the many people who volunteered for new ministries last weekend. If you have brought back your volunteer form from last week you can place it in either collection box. If it's still at home, you can scan it and send it through to eppcarlvolunteer@bbcatholic.org.au. Or there are volunteer forms at the back of each church. Once you complete this form a leader from the group or ministry you choose will contact you to assist you to join.

Apologies and thanks: I've been off sick with the flu and complications with asthma for much of the past two weeks. I apologise for the short notice at which Monday and Wednesday night adoration and Mass were cancelled. I am grateful to the parishioners who have led Communion Services on weekdays at short notice, and also to Fr Raphael and Fr Stephen from St Agatha's who celebrated weekend Masses in my absence. I am also grateful for the prayers, kindness, and many offers of support which people have given.

~ Fr Jim

SOME TEMPORARY CHANGES IN THE CLERGY ROSTER & LITURGICAL SCHEDULE

Fr Vincent's annual leave: Fr Vincent is away until July 21st. We welcome Fr Geoff Bugden, a former assistant priest of our parish who will be assisting with weekend Masses. Fr Geoff is well known to many of you, and you might like to invite him for lunch or dinner (and Fr Jim might tag along too when he is fully recovered!).

Reconciliation at St Gerard's: During Fr Vincent's leave we won't be able to have reconciliation, adoration and benediction on Friday nights. Starting Friday June 25th we'll have adoration and reconciliation available after Friday morning Mass from 10am – 10.30am, and extended reconciliation time on Saturday evenings from 5.15pm – 5.45pm. Upon Fr Vincent's return he can evaluate with parishioners whether it is preferable to return to Friday nights or to continue with Friday mornings and Saturday evenings.

PARISH SUPPORT FOR REFUGEES & ASYLUM SEEKERS

THANK YOU for your generous response last weekend to the request from the Jesuit Refugee Service, Parramatta, for those specific items which were in short supply. They will soon be distributed to those folk supported by JRS. If you would like to help in the delivery of these items, please contact Jane at jane.turner@jrs.org.au. Pictured below is an example of the generosity of our parishioners!

We anticipate a similar call for help and will have another collection on the weekend of August 6th and 7th. JRS will advise the critical items needed. This information will be in the next Parish Bulletin.

If we doubted the need for such a service in our neighbourhood, JRS has told us that their Parramatta office serves and supports 59 clients in Carlingford/Epping and nearby suburbs.

ST GERARD'S 50TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATIONS – 16TH OCTOBER 2022

We aim to reflect and celebrate with past and present parishioners the 50 years life of our parish at St Gerard's, to thank God for blessing and graces on all the families past and present, and to ask God to continue to bless and grow our parish through the intercession of St Gerard. To kickstart this celebration, each fortnight we will feature a parishioner's story and history with our church. This fortnight, our dear Marie Saul, sacristan of St Gerard's Church writes for us and is pictured below with her family and some fellow parishioners:

The name of the Parish, Epping and Carlingford is very appropriate for me because Bert, Chris and I moved to Ray Road, Epping in June 1960. At that time Epping was our parish. Chris attended school there until December 1964, and in 1965 the children within the boundaries of the new Carlingford Parish were transferred from Epping to Carlingford.

On the 13th of May 1962 after receiving 10 inches of rain the night before, we had our first Mass at St Gerard Majella Church Carlingford which was the parish hall in those days. Fr Nolan named the church St Gerard Majella after a suggestion from a parishioner who was expecting her 8th child. St Gerard Majella is the patron saint of mothers and babies.

We all had to walk down the driveway because it was a quagmire, but that didn't deter us, and Fr Nolan arrived in his galoshes feeling very proud and happy. On the 3rd of March 1963 Carlingford became a parish of its own with Fr Nolan as parish priest.

As my family grew so did the parish. The Alter Society was formed by Bernice Hensby. The ladies would clean and dust around the sanctuary and arrange the flowers. The flowers were, and still are, donated by Frank (RIP) and Maria Martelli and family since 1972. Our church choir was formed by Kit Smith in the early days and was very strong.

Antioch was introduced by Fr Casey in 1983, my daughter being in the first group. Antioch is still very strong in our parish today.

In 1989 after retiring Bert became more involved doing maintenance and looking after the gardens, he made large crosses for both churches and the bulletin boxes as well, to name a few projects. Bert retired six months before he died in 2006.

Since the death of Bert, I have become more involved in the church which is such a comfort to me. I had a reason to get up in the morning. I help in the sacristy, taking Communion to the sick, serving on the alter and St Vincent de Paul.

I have made some very close friends at the church and thank God and the priests, past and present. I am very proud to be part of the Parish Family here at Epping and Carlingford.

Getting to know your 4 PHILLIP World Youth Day pilgrims

Hi there! My name is Phillip Vassallo and I'm ecstatic that World Youth Day is coming up so soon. Even better, this is a major experience I'll be able to take part in with some fabulous mates that I've made through Antioch these past few years.

This opportunity is so exciting because I'll be able to take my own faith experience from Epping & Carlingford Parish while interconnecting with parishes across an international community. I'll be able to see how others celebrate their faith, and grow my faith along the way.

Also, being a part of the Parish Social Justice Team, it's especially going to be interesting traveling to Lisbon, with the city being a leader in sustainability. Examples of this is the fact they reduced energy consumption by 28% between 2012 and 2017, in addition to surpassing a 2030 goal to reduce carbon emissions by 40% fourteen years early.

CATECHISTS' CORNER - BY KATHERINE TAM

The harvest is abundant but the labourers are few;
so ask the Master of the harvest
to send out labourers for his harvest
Lk 10:2

The catechists are taking a break during the school holiday to come together for some exchanges and catching up especially with those not teaching in the same schools. We also have coffee meet ups organised by some proactive catechists for their fellow catechists in the same school as not everyone sees everyone due to classes running at different times.

While half of the year has passed and all of our schools have Scripture classes running almost uninterrupted, 2022 so far has not been uneventful. Quite a number of our catechists were Covid positive, fortunately no major health concerns.

We have happy news of births of mostly grandchildren, weddings, new jobs for which we sincerely send our congratulations. We also have a few health issues for which we pray for their speedy recovery. Due to Covid restrictions for almost 2 years, a few of us are rightly eager to visit overseas families. We have a number of planned long absences and quite a few unexpected ones.

We would like to thank our catechists keep watching out for each other and put in extra effort in standing-in for those who are absent for good reasons. It has been hard work for all of us.

We are currently stretched on resources and we pray to our kind and loving God to send us additional help so that we can have another 6 months of uninterrupted scripture classes for our ~800 students in the public schools.

If you decide to become one, please contact Fr Jim for Secondary Schools at Jim.McKeon@bbcatholic.org.au or Katherine Tam for Primary Schools at katherine@eppcarl.org.au for more information and also for a schedule of class times and schools.

~ Katherine Tam, Catechist Coordinator for Primary Schools
