Peter's Pence

On 4th October we join with other Parishes across the world in taking up the Peter's Pence Collection. The Peter's Pence Collection provides for the charitable works and structures of mercy identified by His Holiness, Pope Francis.

The annual appeal is usually taken up all over the world around the time of the feast day of St Peter and St Paul (29 June). This year, due to COVID-19, His Holiness Pope Francis has asked that the annual appeal take place on 4 October, which is the Feast of St Francis Assisi.

By supporting this collection, you join with other Parishes across the world in supporting projects identified by the Pope including emergency assistance to those in need due to natural disaster, war, oppression and disease. Our generosity allows the Holy Father to respond to those suffering with love and compassion. Thank you for your generosity.

You are invited to donate by completing and returning to the parish the Peter's Pence collection envelope available at Masses, or online at our parish website/bank account using the reference: "Peter's Pence".

Musicians and Singers Needed!

One of the essential elements of our Masses is the ministry of music. I am sure we all know how uplifting our Masses can be when this ministry is carried out well by talented and faith-filled parishioners lifting our minds and hearts to God.

Especially during this pandemic some of our regular participants in this ministry have been unavailable and many other generous members of this ministry have attempted to fill in where possible. I thank them sincerely for their generosity!

Regardless of the current situation, over the next twelve months, I want to have a particular focus on this essential aspect of our prayer together by asking all parishioners to consider whether they or people they know who are gifted either as singers or musicians could assist our parish in this most important ministry. Even if you are only able to fill in occasionally I would love to hear from you!

Please don't presume that "someone else will do it!"

Could anyone who can assist please contact me directly by email at peter@eppcarl.org.au or by phone via the parish office on 9876 2853.

Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible

Many Catholics want to read the Bible because they know it is God's Word, but they give up because it seems so complicated. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible helps you get the "big picture" by showing how fourteen books of the Bible tell the story from Adam and Eve to Christ and the Church.

Jeff Cavins shows you how to read the Bible so that you can actually understand it. The unique color-coded Bible Timeline arranges the key people, places, and events of Scripture through the centuries leading to the birth of Jesus. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible will help you discover the story of salvation history and understand how you fit into God's plan.

You receive a study guide to go with the video presentations of The Bible Timeline.

Experience of a parishioner last year

Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible, was a very valuable opportunity to develop some fundamentals of God's word as given to us in the Bible. The combination of home Bible reading and preparation; the excellent videos by Jeff Cavins and accompanying workbook; the great group discussions; and the warm and committed environment of parishioners made this a unique turning point in my life.

The program gave perspective to the parts of the bible already familiar; made books and chapters previously not encountered understandable; and an overall connection with God's love for us. I was always humbled and always deeply impressed by the insights and understanding and faith of other group members. The program taught in simple and clever ways the 'who, what, when, where and why' of key events of the bible. For someone whose previous bible reading was very limited, this was a terrific overview set of lessons that I would recommend without hesitation.

Who is a Catechist?

Who is a Catechist?

A Catechist ((SRE) teacher) is a person who gives her/his time voluntarily to provide Special Religious Education to children in our parish public primary and secondary schools.

An SRE Assistant helps the catechist in the classroom.

Catechists are those who're called to serve through teaching, witness, prayer, service and building community.

Give the Gift you were given, by giving, we receive.....

Catch the Vision...

From the work of a small group of concerned Catholics in the 16th Century has grown one of the most prolific ministries in the Catholic Church. These few passionate souls dedicated themselves to teach people and share their knowledge about the Faith and this has grown into a ministry that extends beyond the boundaries of culture, language, age and resources. It is supported by years of faithful service and changes the lives for thousands of young people. Welcome to the world of a Catechist!

By Giving, We Receive...

Sharing in love what we know brings new life. Proclaiming the Good News profits not only those who hear it but those who proclaim it.

Truly, "It is giving that we receive" (St Francis of Assisi)

Remember ...

You won't be 'thrown in the deep end' and many people start as a classroom helper. You will receive quality training in the curriculum and classroom management so that you feel confident in the classroom and can focus on sharing the gift of the faith

Reflection on Sunday's Gospel

Listen carefully. The Word of God speaks to us.

In the Gospel, Jesus said, "Listen chief priests and elders of the people. A man planted a vineyard then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. At vintage time he sent servants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed, killed and stoned them. He sent a larger number. They dealt with them in the same way. Finally, he sent his son. They will respect my son. When the tenants saw the son, they said, This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance. They seized and killed him."

Jesus asked, What will the owner do to those tenants? The priests and elders answered, He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives. Jesus said I tell you. The kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit. Mt 21:33-43

What is God saying to us? What is our response?

We want to be faithful tenants who look after the gifts entrusted to us and to produce the fruit of the Kingdom of God. We respond in the words of the psalm and pray with St Paul for our community, our friends, our families and our neighbours.

God of hosts, visit this vine and protect it, the vine your right hand has planted. Give us life that we may call upon your name. Let your face shine on us and we shall be saved. Ps 79: 19-20

In the second reading, Paul tells us. If there is anything you need, pray for it. Ask God. Give thanks to God. Then that peace of God, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus.

We pray Holy Spirit fill our minds with everything that is true, everything that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honour, and everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. Phil 4:6-9

Reflection on this Sunday's Gospel.... The Real Story

Our brains love stories because they include events with "before-and-after" built right in, along with suspense, action, relationships and intercommunication; not to mention emotion and disappointment and elation and so on. These elements are the most like daily experience of any device we have in the language.

So, Sunday we will hear several tales of a vineyard.

The first story tells about "a friend" who carefully built a vineyard: clearing stones, building a watchtower, planting the choicest vines (First Reading). He even "hewed out a wine press." But the vineyard yielded bad grapes. God tells the people of Jerusalem and Judah in vivid language that they themselves are this vineyard, and that he is going to destroy it and trample it down. They would not let God's love grow up among them.

In the Gospel Jesus embroiders this tale. In just one sentence he handles the part about planting a vineyard, digging out a wine press, building a tower. Then he goes further.

In his version he says that the owner rents his rich vineyard to tenants, as was the custom, and he trusts them to raise choice grapes for him. In due season he sends his servants to collect the yield—which must have been great because the tenants dishonestly want to keep everything including the vineyard. But the tenants beat or stone or even kill the servants!

Next, a surprising, seemingly implausible twist to the tale. The owner decides to send his own son, thinking that the tenants will surely respect him. Would you have done the same? Wouldn't you or I have said, "I will keep my family away from these criminals"?

I surely would. But not the owner. He sends his only son into the trap and the tenants kill him.

The details of the two stories are different, but isn't it the same story, about God punishing those who fail to produce?

Actually the two parables are not the same. There is much, much more in the Gospel. Jesus hints at this afterwards:

Did you never read in the Scriptures:

The stone that the builders rejected has become the corner-stone;
by the Lord has this been done,
and it is wonderful in our eyes.
(Gospel).

This is a new metaphor, and it is the key to the Gospel tale. It fills the story with dramatic new meaning.

The son sent into the vineyard is Jesus himself!

He is to be rejected and killed, just as the prophets and the owner's son were. But here is the difference: as God's son he is entirely willing to go among the sinning people. He lives by compassion, so danger takes second place.

If the main character in the Gospel were called Life, and it had its own choices to make, it would desire to turn into another being, one called Love. Life always yearns to go back to its source, the everlasting union called by that simple name, love.

Greed and disregard stop this progress. True Life gets buried. It rises again when we look to Jesus on Sundays. He is love. He is there for us in our vineyard.

God sent his own son into the trap of human life not because life is perfect, but because love is.

Supporting our Parish Financially

A number of people have enquired as to how they can continue their financial support for the parish during this difficult time. We realise that this may not be possible in the light of growing unemployment and reductions in superannuation returns at the moment and there is absolutely no pressure on anyone to contribute!

The First Collection Supports the needs of the priests of the parish, the retired priests of the diocese and the Bishop.

The Second Collection Money from the Second Collection supports the running costs of the parish including the payment of staff. If you are able to contribute, the Church account details are shown below:
