"A SOWER WENT OUT TO SOW"

God's Love

God's love is the only love that never falters and never fails. Take comfort in your faith and know that God truly loves you, now and forever. "Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love."

1 John 4:7 – 8

FR FRANCIS JORDAN SDS

POPE FRANCIS' JULY 2020 INTENTION

OUR FAMILIES

We pray that today's families may be accompanied with love, respect and guidance.

We throw the word "love" around pretty freely. We use it casually to talk about everyday things we like a lot. More seriously, we talk about our love for other people: Our children, our spouses, our friends, to name a few. But, sadly, life teaches us that all these loves are impermanent. Our car might break down, the ice cream might melt, or, much more seriously, our loved ones might die or disappoint us.

Divine love is of another order. God will never disappoint us. God will never disappear. Our Lord Jesus Christ did not sacrifice himself on the cross only to stop caring after his resurrection. The Bible reminds us of these truths over and over again, in both the Old and New Testaments. Spend some time with these Bible verses that remind us of God's unconditional love; his ever available, freely given love to all who seek it in times of trouble. God's love is the only love that never falters and never fails. Take comfort in your faith and know that God truly loves you, now and forever.

THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS LEAVE EAST GOSFORD

July 17 marks the last day there will be the Christian Brothers' presence at St Edward's College, and it is with sadness that we see the Brothers depart. We ask you to please remember them in your prayers.

RECEIVING COMMUNION ON THE TONGUE

Those who prefer to receive the Eucharist on the tongue are advised that it can only be distributed by the priest so please place your in that line, and at the end of it so that others are not behind you. Thank you.

PARISH VISION AND MISSION STATEMENT – 26 JULY 2020.

Fr Greg will launch a survey regarding the Parish of St Patrick's Gosford to gather ideas from parishioners as to their thoughts for an appropriate Parish Vision and Mission Statement.

So, now is the time to put your thinking caps on and discuss among yourselves. What do you think should be at the heart of St Patrick's Gosford?

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 16:15

As for me, in justice I shall behold your face; I shall be filled with the vision of your glory.

FIRST READING

IS 55:10-11

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The rain makes the earth fruitful.

Thus says the Lord: 'As the rain and the snow come down from the heavens and do not return without watering the earth, making it yield and giving growth to provide seed for the sower and bread for the eating, so the word that goes from my mouth does not return to me empty, without carrying out my will and succeeding in what it was sent to do.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 64:10-14. R. LK 8:8

(R.) The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

You care for the earth, give it water, you fill it with riches.

Your river in heaven brims over to provide its grain.

(R.) The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

And thus you provide for the earth; you drench its furrows, you level it, soften it with showers, you bless its growth.

(R.) The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

You crown the year with your goodness.

Abundance flows in your steps, in the pastures of the wilderness it flows.

(R.) The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

The hills are girded with joy, the meadows covered with flocks, the valleys are decked with wheat.

They shout for joy, yes, they sing.

(R.) The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

SECOND READING

ROM 8:18-23

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

All creation is waiting for the revelation of the children of God.

I think that what we suffer in this life can never be compared to the glory, as yet unrevealed, which is waiting for us. The whole creation is eagerly waiting for God to reveal his sons. It was not for any fault on the part of creation that it was made unable to attain its purpose, it was made so by God; but creation still retains the hope of being freed, like us, from its slavery to decadence, to enjoy the same freedom and glory as the children of God. From the beginning till now the entire creation, as we know, has been groaning in one great act of giving birth; and not only creation, but all of us who possess the first-fruits of the Spirit, we too groan inwardly as we wait for our bodies to be set free.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower; all who come to him will live for ever.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 13:1-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

A sower went out to sow.

Jesus left the house and sat by the lakeside, but such crowds gathered round him that he got into a boat and sat there. The people all stood on the beach, and he told them many things in parables.

He said, 'Imagine a sower going out to sow. As he sowed, some seeds fell on the edge of the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Others fell on patches of rock where they found little soil and sprang up straight away, because there was no depth of earth; but as soon as the sun came up they were scorched and, not having any roots, they withered away. Others fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Others fell on rich soil and produced their crop, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Listen, anyone who has ears!'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

CF. PS 83:4-5

The sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for her young: by your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

Blessed are they who dwell in your house, for ever singing your praise.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

In the short reading from Isaiah the workings of the natural world become the vehicle for saying something about the word of God. This simple metaphor lays bare several characteristics of what ecologists call the 'integrity of creation'. The first is the inter-relationship that exists between the various spheres. Without water, the earth would not be fertile; without the fruits of the earth, human beings would not have food to eat. Speaking through the prophet, God declares: So it is with my word! A cause and effect relationship exists between the word of God and the outcome that it accomplishes; the word of God is consistent and reliable; and human beings are totally dependent upon it.

The responsorial psalm develops the theme of 'nature' in a different direction. Whereas the previous reading concentrated on the unfolding of the life processes within nature itself, this passage describes God as directly involved in these natural workings. Behind God's control of the water may be a polemic against the fertility god Baal. The Canaanites believed that this god regulated the heavenly waters that rained down upon the land, fertilising it and making it fruitful. Actually, it is Israel's God who governs the heavenly waters and reigns over the land, bringing the much needed water to it and preparing it for planting. Although the psalm is a hymn of praise, the exaltation itself is also a form of thanksgiving.

Paul maintains that the entire created world is somehow swept up with humankind in the eschatological drama. Frustration in the beginning when it was cursed because of human sin (see Gen 3:17), it now awaits the revelation that will be granted the children of God. The only way that one can understand this thinking is if the bond between the natural world and humanity is acknowledged. Paul further insists that the sufferings that we are forced to bear now are the 'birth pangs of the messiah' referred to in Jewish eschatology. As is the case with a woman in labour, the pain may be intense, but as hers are forgotten when the child is born, so will the present afflictions pass (see Mt 24:8; Mk 13:8).

Parabolic teaching was a very common pedagogical technique. As is so often the case in wisdom thinking, nature provides examples from which to gain insights into human life. 'The parable of the sower' might better be called 'the parable of the soil' for the focus here is neither on the sower nor on the seed, but on the character of the soil. Taken at face value, the parable is not a difficult story to understand. The word (seed) produces various percentages of yield. But what does it really mean? When one understands the meaning of the parable, one is apt to wonder: What kind of soil am I? How receptive am I to the word of God?
