The Communities of St Patrick's East Gosford,
St Francis of Assisi Somersby & Holy Trinity Spencer Neighbourhoods of Grace, entrusted to the care of the Salvatorians.

In an unusual turn of events, Abram is blessed by a foreigner in the name of a foreign god. The names that appear here reveal something of the significance of the actions performed. Melchizedek means 'my king' and 'righteous'. Salem is probably a shortened form of Jerusalem, the Jebusite city captured by David and later made the capital of his kingdom (cf. 2 Sam 5:6-8. The title 'God Most High' is closely associated with the ancient cult practised in Salem (cf. Pss 46:4; 87:5). It seems that the importance of Israel's patriarch is overshadowed by the significance of David.

The responsorial psalm extols the Davidic king. God directs the human king to sit at God's own right hand, the place of honour. Furthermore, it is God who enthrones the human king, subjugating his enemies as a footstool under his feet. The day of the birth of the king is not his natal day but the day of his enthronement, the day when he enters into a unique and intimate relationship with God. Finally, by divine oath, the Davidic king is granted the priestly status that belonged to Melchizedek, the priest-king of Salem.

Paul did not receive the tradition in direct revelation from the Lord; he received it by word of mouth, the usual way a religious heritage is transmitted. This establishes the ecclesial authority of the teaching, and it demonstrates Paul's own conviction that the risen Christ transmits the tradition through the agency of the members of the Body of Christ, the church. The ritual words come from a succinct account of Jesus' last supper, wherein he points to both the continuity and the discontinuity between the old and the new covenants. Jesus' sharing of the blessed bread and cup was a prophetic symbolic action that anticipated his death. Believers live an essentially eschatological existence, anticipating the future as they re-enact the past.

Five loaves and two fish would not have been much of a meal for Jesus and the Twelve, much less the crowd that is said to have gathered on this occasion. Jesus' actions over the food are brief but significant. He blessed it; he broke it; and he gave it as food. The Eucharistic overtones are obvious. The apostles are actually the ones through whom the crowds experience the munificence of Jesus. This demonstrates how Jesus provides for his people through the agency of the church. Over the years there have been attempts to explain what really happened in this event. Any attempt to explain away the miracle completely misses the point of the narrative. Its many-levelled meaning rests on the miraculous abundance that God provides through Jesus. © Dianne Bergant

"They all ate and were filled."

PARISH FINANCES PLEASE CONSIDER A REGULAR DONATION

As the end of the financial year is looming and we are about to distribute new sets of envelopes for planned giving in 2022/23, we ask you to consider the way in which you would like to financially support your parish on a weekly or monthly basis.

Below is a tear off slip providing you the opportunity to submit to the Parish Office your intention to either join the envelope system, or have a monthly deduction from your debit/credit card - two ways of giving that helps your parish to set its budget each year. Perhaps you are already in Planned Giving and want to help your parish face the ever rising post-COVID costs involved in providing the fully functioning, fully insured [at about $25,000 pa], beautiful, safe and comfortable church/parish we all enjoy, by considering an increase in your giving?

Please know that your giving to the level you can afford is very much appreciated.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 80:17

He fed them with the finest wheat and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

FIRST READING

GEN 14:18-20

A reading from the book of Genesis

Melchizedek brought bread and wine.

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing:

'Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.'

And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 109:1-4. R. V.4

(R.) You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

1. The Lord's revelation to my Master:

'Sit on my right:

I will put your foes beneath your feet.'

(R.) You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

2. The Lord will send from Zion your sceptre of power:

rule in the midst of all your foes.

(R.) You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

3. A prince from the day of your birth on the holy mountains; from the womb before the daybreak I begot you.

(R.) You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

4. The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change.

'You are a priest for ever, a priest like Melchizedek of old.'

(R.) You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

SECOND READING

1 COR 11:23-26

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the death of the Lord.

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming to his death.

SEQUENCE

Sing forth, O Zion

Behold the bread of angels, sent

For pilgrims in their banishment,

The bread for God's true children meant,

That may not unto dogs be given:

Oft in the olden types foreshowed;

In Isaac on the altar bowed,

And in the ancient paschal food,

And in the manna sent from heaven.

Come then, good shepherd, bread divine,

Still show to us thy mercy sign;

Oh, feed us still, still keep us thine;

So may we see thy glories shine

In fields of immortality;

O thou, the wisest, mightiest, best,

Our present food, our future rest,

Come, make us each thy chosen guest,

Co-heirs of thine, and comrades blest

With saints whose dwelling is with thee.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JN 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LK 9:11-17

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

They all ate and were filled.

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.

It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

WELL EARNED THANK YOUs

There are many people in our Parish who selflessly help in many ways and we often take them for granted.

This week we would like to thank the Hospital Visitation teams.

The majority of our Sunday and Friday Ministry people have devoted many years to brightening the lives of patients in Gosford Hospital.

Sometimes we forget just how devoted many of our parishioners are to our parish, our faith and to each other.

Thank you all
