SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

The first reading describes a drama of national crisis, prophetic involvement and political power plays. The fate of the prophet Jeremiah seems to be in the hands of a vacillating king, who is influenced first by the power establishment of Judah (v.5) and then by a lone court official from the land of Cush. The word of God spoken by the prophet and the policies of the nation are in deadly conflict and Jeremiah appears to be the centre of contention. In such a situation, the one who speaks in God's name is likely to pay the price. This is exactly what happened.

The psalm is a prayer of thanksgiving for past deliverance. In view of this deliverance, the psalmist pleads for further help from God. The danger into which God reaches in order to rescue the psalmist is the pit or the swamp, both metaphors for death. The imagery is reminiscent of the ancient seasonal myths in which one of the gods descends into the abode of the dead only to rise again to new life. The metaphor gradually came to be used to speak of the descent of human beings in general. This psalm includes the hope of rising from misfortune. Having been drawn up out of danger, the psalmist is placed on a secure rock, a place of sound footing.

In this exhortation to endurance, the author of the Letter to the Hebrews skillfully employs the metaphor of a race. Just as the games were often held in a large stadium or amphitheatre that could hold the crowds that came to watch, so Christians are surrounded by a great crowd of witnesses (mártys). Just as athletes are spurred on by the cheers of the people in the stands, so too Christians are encouraged by those who have preceded them. Like runners, Christians should be unimpeded by unnecessary weight, the heaviest burden being sin itself. Jesus ran the race, and now he enjoys the crown which is the reward for his success. Christians now have Jesus as their model.

The picture of Jesus in this gospel passage is troubling if we think of him merely as a gentle messiah who came to spread peace throughout the world. Here he insists that his coming is comparable to a dramatic prophetic visitation. He has come to cast fire on the earth, to be baptised, and to cause division at the very heart of human society. It is not that Jesus is eager for these disturbing events in themselves to unfold. Rather, he himself burns with zeal for the accomplishment of his earthly mission, which, in calling for radical change, will inevitably include such consequences. While Jesus himself may have been a man of peace, the message that he proclaimed was clearly divisive. He made demands on people that challenged them to the very heart of their being.

"I have come to bring fire to the earth."

A LETTER OF THANKS FROM THE BISHOP

RECEIVED THIS WEEK

IN A LETTER TO FR GREG RECEIVED ON FRIDAY, BISHOP ANTHONY RANDAZZO, WROTE IN PART.

I was delighted to have the opportunity to celebrate Mass in the Chapel at St Francis of Assisi Somersby last Saturday evening and would like to thank you and your parishioners personally for the warm welcome extended to me, along with members of my Chancery Staff.

It was particularly heartening to engage in spirit-led consultation with the parish community, as we discern together, our best possible options in moving forward in the future. I am grateful to the parishioners who attended and for their open-heartedness in sharing in the conversations of the evening.

May I also thank sincerely those from your parish who provided the generous hospitality that was enjoyed by all. Please be assured of my continuing prayers for you in your pastoral ministry and for the People of God in the Parish of Gosford. May the guidance of the Holy Spirit continue to lead us together in our pathway into the future.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

PS 83:10-11

Turn your eyes, O God, our shield; and look on the face of your anointed one; one day within your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

FIRST READING

JER 38:4-6. 8-10

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah

You bore me to be a man of strife for the whole world.

The king's leading men spoke to the king. 'Let Jeremiah be put to death: he is unquestionably disheartening the remaining soldiers in the city, and all the people too, by talking like this. The fellow does not have the welfare of this people at heart so much as its ruin.' 'He is in your hands as you know,' King Zedekiah answered 'for the king is powerless against you.' So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the well of Prince Malchiah in the Court of the Guard, letting him down with ropes. There was no water in the well, only mud, and into the mud Jeremiah sank.

Ebed-melech came out from the palace and spoke to the king. 'My lord king,' he said, 'these men have done a wicked thing by treating the prophet Jeremiah like this: they have thrown him into the well where he will die.' At this the king gave Ebed-melech the Cushite the following order: 'Take three men with you from here and pull the prophet Jeremiah out of the well before he dies.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 39:2-4. 18. R. V.14

(R.) Lord, come to my aid!

1. I waited, I waited for the Lord and he stooped down to me; he heard my cry.

(R.) Lord, come to my aid!

2. He drew me from the deadly pit, from the miry clay.

He set my feet upon a rock and made my footsteps firm.

(R.) Lord, come to my aid!

3. He put a new song into my mouth, praise of our God.

Many shall see and fear and shall trust in the Lord.

(R.) Lord, come to my aid!

4. As for me, wretched and poor, the Lord thinks of me.

You are my rescuer, my help, O God, do not delay!

(R.) Lord, come to my aid!

SECOND READING

HEB 12:1-4

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

Let us bear patiently the struggle placed upon us.

With so many witnesses in a great cloud on every side of us, we too, then, should throw off everything that hinders us, especially the sin that clings so easily, and keep running steadily in the race we have started. Let us not lose sight of Jesus, who leads us in our faith and brings it to perfection: for the sake of the joy which was still in the future, he endured the cross, disregarding the shameful of it, and from now on has taken his place at the right of God's throne. Think of the way he stood such opposition from sinners and then you will not give up for want of courage. In the fight against sin, you have not yet had to keep fighting to the point of death.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JN 10:27

Alleluia, alleluia!

My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LK 12:49-53

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

I have come not to give peace, but discord.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I have come to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were blazing already!

There is a baptism I must still receive, and how great is my distress till it is over!

'Do you suppose that I am here to bring peace on earth?

No, I tell you, but rather division. For from now on a household of five will be divided: three against two and two against three; the father divided against the son, son against father, mother against daughter, daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.'
