SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

Habakkuk cries to God with the words of lament: 'How long?' 'Why?' He finds himself with violence, ruin, misery and destruction. What he really grieves is the absence of God's tender solicitude. When God does respond, it is with a vision, the fulfilment of which is in the future. Everyone will have to wait patiently its unfolding. The one who is rash or puffed up does not have an upright soul; the one who is just lives by faith. Without telling Habakkuk why he has had to carry the burden of suffering or how long he will have to wait, God instructs him in the manner of his waiting. The righteous wait in faith.

In the responsorial psalm, God is characterised as the rock of the people's salvation, solid and secure. God is also identified as creator. If the community as the flock, then God as the shepherd. The images of rock and shepherd illustrate the people's perception of God as protector. The psalmist issues a serious plea to be open to the voice of God. This plea suggests that 'today' the people who have been gathered together will hear God's voice. What follows is an appeal by God to respond positively, not in the spirit of rebellion that governed the ancestors while they were in the wilderness. 'Today' their descendants are called upon to respond with open faith and willing obedience.

Paul appeals to Timothy to be courageous in the face of hardship. While there is no question about the steadfastness of Timothy's faith, he needs the power, the love and the self-discipline that will enable him to stand up courageously and witness to his faith.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for October

For a Church open to everyone.
We pray for the Church; ever faithful to, and courageous in preaching the Gospel, may the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

"If you had faith!"

He should be like Paul, willing to accept and to embrace the suffering that will inevitably befall him as a minister of the gospel. Paul assures Timothy that his strength comes from God. Paul had handed on to Timothy the essence of the gospel. It is now Timothy's turn to carry it to others. He will have to refashion for new situations the teaching that he received.

The apostles ask for an increase of faith and Jesus speaks about its nature. They are interested in quantity and he is concerned about quality. Jesus uses the image of the seed to illustrate how very little faith is needed to accomplish extraordinary feats. The second saying is a story about a householder. Through it, Jesus teaches about the obligations of the one in service, not about the responsibilities of the one being served. Disciples of Jesus should expect a similar lot. They have been called to labour, and when they fulfil their duties faithfully, they have only done what is required of them. As harsh as this may sound, the rewards of discipleship must be sought in something other than a bonus.

3. "I give, devise and bequeath [the sum of ... or my property known as ... or ...% of my estate] free of all duties and taxes to the parish priest of St. Patrick's Parish of the Roman Catholic Church East Gosford to be used for the purposes of that parish..

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. EST 4:17

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will.

For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

FIRST READING

HAB 1:2-3; 2:2-4

A reading from the prophet Habakkuk

The just will live by faithfulness.

How long, Lord, am I to cry for help while you will not listen; to cry 'Oppression!' in your ear and you will not save?

Why do you set injustice before me, why do you look on where there is tyranny?

Outrage and violence, this is all I see, all is contention, and discord flourishes.

Then the Lord answered and said, 'Write the vision down, inscribe it on tablets to be easily read, since this vision is for its own time only:

eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive; if it comes slowly, wait, for come it will, without fail.

See how he flags, he whose soul is not at rights, but the upright man will live by his faithfulness.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 94:1-2. 6-9. R. V.8

(R.) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

1. Come, ring out our joy to the Lord; hail the rock who saves us.

Let us come before him, giving thanks, with songs let us hail the Lord.

(R.) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

2. Come in; let us bow and bend low; let us kneel before the God who made us for he is our God and we the people who belong to his pasture, the flock that is led by his hand.

(R.) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

3. O that today you would listen to his voice!

'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as on that day at Massah in the desert when your fathers put me to the test; when they tried me, though they saw my work.'

(R.) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

SECOND READING

2 TM 1:6-8, 13-14

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy

Never be ashamed of witnessing the Lord.

I am reminding you to fan into a flame the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner; but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God.

Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

1 PT 1:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

The word of the Lord stands for ever; it is the word given to you, the Good News.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LK 17:5-10

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

If you had faith!

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.

'Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"? Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty."

St Vincent de Paul Society

JOIN US AT ST JOSEPH'S WORKSHOP

Many of you will have heard of the high quality of furniture and other items crafted from recycled materials at St Joseph's Workshop in West Gosford.

The Workshop is a volunteer-based service that supports the work of the St Vincent de Paul Society by manufacturing new furniture that is provided to people who are experiencing hardship.

Products include tall boys, dresser drawers, kids' tables and chairs and much more. The items are fed into St Vincent de Paul Society's welfare programs or for sale in Vinnies Op Shops in Sydney and the Central Coast.

St. Joseph's Workshop

We are looking for additional volunteers to help make furniture for welfare and sale in St. Vincent De Paul shops across NSW. We work from 7.00am to 12.00pm Mon to Friday, so pick the day or days that suit you and come and join a great team of men & women learning new skills and meeting new people.

If you are on JobSeeker, we can satisfy your voluntary work requirements for Centrelink. We are an approved employer (Centrelink ID 40445).
