SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

The day of the Lord is that time of the fulfilment of all of God's promises and the realisation of the destiny of the world. It is the time when justice will be realised. Initially, Israel believed that this day would be for it a time of vindication and rejoicing. However, the prophets set them straight on this matter, insisting that Israel itself would have to face the righteous anger of God. The metaphor of a blazing fire characterises this. On the other hand, the day of the Lord will rise majestically for the upright, like the sun in the eastern sky. This experience of God is the total reversal of the flaming destruction in store for the wicked.

The psalm response is an example of a hymn the celebrates the enthronement of God as king over all. Today all creation is summoned to praise God. The cosmic scope of God's rule includes both the seas and the entire world. The final verse is eschatological in character. The Lord is coming, and is coming to judge. The idea of judgment frequently engenders a sense of dread, since it implies the notion of passing judgment. Within the cosmic setting that lies behind this psalm, judgment means setting things in order so that life can prosper. There may need to be some reordering for this to happen, but the idea is generally positive.

Paul offers his own conduct as an example for the Thessalonians to follow. He has been faithful to his own teaching. The Thessalonians can learn from his actions as well as from his words. Paul teaches three lessons: He has not acted in a disorderly fashion; He has not presumed upon the hospitality of others; He has worked long and hard so that he would not be a financial burden to them. This leads him to comment on a situation he has been told exists within the Thessalonian community. He condemns those who have acted as busybodies rather than being actually busy. If people want to eat, they must work like everyone else. Paul offers himself as an example in this.

The admiration for the temple expressed by some bystanders prompted Jesus to predict its destruction. The reading addresses the events that will precede the destruction, signs that should alert people to the impending doom. These long-expected signs portend the persecutions that the followers of Jesus will have to endure because of the name of Jesus. Faithful to the end, even if they are put to death, they will be saved.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for November

For children who suffer.

We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

"Your endurance will win you your life."

These signs are often understood as pointing beyond this world to the next. Kairós refers to a decisive moment, not to chronological time. It marks the time of fulfilment and it connotes eschatological reality. Jesus knew what would transpire in the future, and he is here preparing his followers for that future.

WORLD DAY OF THE POOR 2022

Pope Francis established the commemoration of the World Day of the Poor, with it first marked in 2017. It occurs on the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. In 2022, it will be marked on Sunday, November 13.

The theme for Pope Francis' World Day of the Poor message for 2022 is "For your sakes Christ became poor (cf. 2 Cor 8:9)". The Pope's message begins: With these words, the Apostle Paul addresses the first Christians of Corinth in order to encourage their efforts to show solidarity with their brothers and sisters in need. The World Day of the Poor comes this year as a healthy challenge, helping us to reflect on our style of life and on the many forms of poverty all around us.

PARISH EXPENSES

We all get caught up in our daily lives, and the joy of being able to come to our parish for Mass and events, but perhaps it is a good time to raise the subject of the expenses that come with keeping the parish thriving, and certainly not the least is the cost of our annual insurance bill of $41,000 per annum, being an increase of $6,000 in 2021 and a further $10,000 pa in 2022 and we are reeling after just receiving this advice. We may add to that the cost of electricity, rates, repairs and maintenance, sacramental items, sanitary items for the bathrooms, cleaning costs and ancillary staff to ensure we meet your needs [to the best of our ability], plus office expenses and meeting all legal requirements associated with parish life.

We rely heavily on your donations via the plate or even in many cases, the one-off generous donations we receive to keep improving. Whilst the solution would be an increase in the overall level of planned giving to the parish, if anyone is feeling generous, your kind one-off donation would be gratefully accepted.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

JER 29:11,12,14

The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction.

You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

FIRST READING

MAL 3:19-20

A reading from the prophet Malachi

The sun of righteousness will shine on you.

The day is coming now, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and the evil-doers will be like stubble. The day that is coming is going to burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, leaving them neither root nor stalk. But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will shine out with healing in its rays.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 97:5-9. R. SEE V.9

(R.) The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.

1. Sing psalms to the Lord with the harp with the sound of music.

With trumpets and the sound of the horn acclaim the King, the Lord.

(R.) The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.

2. Let the sea and all within it, thunder; the world, and all its peoples.

Let the rivers clap their hands and the hills ring out their joy at the presence of the Lord.

(R.) The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.

3. For the Lord comes, he comes to rule the earth.

He will rule the world with justice and the peoples with fairness.

(R.) The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.

SECOND READING

2 THES 3:7-12

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

Do not give anyone food who refuses to work.

You know how you are supposed to imitate us: now we were not idle when we were with you, nor did we ever have our meals at anyone's table without paying for them; no, we worked night and day, slaving and straining, so as not to be a burden on any of you. This was not because we had no right to be, but in order to make ourselves an example for you to follow.

We gave you a rule when we were with you: not to let anyone have any food if he refused to do any work. Now we hear that there are some of you who are living in idleness, doing no work themselves but interfering with everyone else's. In the Lord Jesus Christ, we order and call on people of this kind to go on quietly working and earning the food that they eat.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

LK 21:28

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lift up your heads and see; your redemption is near at hand.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LK 21:5-19

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Your endurance will win you your life.

When some were talking about the Temple, remarking how it was adorned with fine stonework and votive offerings, Jesus said, 'All these things you are staring at now – the time will come when not a single stone will be left on another: everything will be destroyed.' And they put to him this question: 'Master,' they said, 'when will this happen, then, and what sign will there be that this is about to take place?'

'Take care not to be deceived,' he said, 'because many will come using my name and saying, "I am he" and, "The time is near at hand." Refuse to join them. And when you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be frightened, for this is something that must happen but the end is not soon.' Then he said to them, 'Nation will fight against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes and plagues and famines here and there; there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven.

'But before all this happens, men will seize you and persecute you; they will hand you over to the synagogues and to imprisonment, and bring you before kings and governors because of my name – and that will be your opportunity to bear witness. Keep this carefully in mind: you are not to prepare your defence, because I myself shall give you an eloquence and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relations and friends; and some of you will be put to death. You will be hated by all men on account of my name, but not a hair of your head will be lost. Your endurance will win you your lives.'
