NEW TESTAMENT COMMENTARY

1 CORINTHIANS 2:6-10; MATTHEW 5:17-37

by Mary Coloe PBVM

Here Paul is at his paradoxical best. Remember he is arguing against those who want to present the Christian message as an intellectual revelation, an ideology. Greece was the birthplace of Western Philosophy (Philos: love; Sophos: wisdom) and in Corinth Paul has to deal with this tendency to intellectualise the Gospel. Paul takes up the Corinthians' love of wisdom to show them what true wisdom looks like.

The wisdom Paul offers about Christ is only accessible by those who have reached a level of maturity, and it is not the wisdom of this age – Paul even implies that this is mere childish wisdom. What Paul offers is God's wisdom kept secret till now. What a great way to start an argument! All his listeners would want to consider themselves mature, and would want to be let into a secret that others do not know.

This secret wisdom is known by God's own spirit which plunges the depths of God and can be known only by those who possess God's spirit, not the world's spirit. Paul will say more about this spirit as his letter continues.

Unfortunately, in the liturgy it is really difficult to appreciate the flow and logic of Paul's argument since we only get little snippets of it each week. I recommend you read these first chapters of 1 Corinthians aloud, so you can enter into Paul's argument.

The opening verse of today's Gospel presents a difficulty. Jesus states, 'I have not come to abolish the Law or the Prophets ... till heaven and earth pass away, not one dot, not one little stroke shall disappear from the Law until its goal is achieved.' But then, Jesus goes on to reinterpret and even change the law. 'You have learned that it was said .. but I say...'. How can we make sense of this apparent contradiction.

Firstly we need to remember that Matthew's community have come to faith through Judaism and so have valued

Such was said to your ancestors;
but I am speaking to you.

the Law and the Prophets. It would be difficult to present Jesus if this meant completely denying the value of their Jewish traditions. So throughout the Gospel Matthew shows Jesus upholding righteousness and even demanding a greater perfection than the written Torah.

Secondly, we need to understand the phrase, 'till heaven and earth pass away'. Matthew, like other Christians of his time, saw in Jesus the coming of God's reign and the ending of the reign of Satan. In Jesus a new Age was being inaugurated, what is called the Kingdom of God. The ultimate defeat of Satan occurs in Jesus' complete surrender to God in death and God then vindicates Jesus in his resurrection. So Jesus' death marks the end of the old age, the time of Satan's power, and the birth of a new era of the Spirit of God. If you look ahead to Matthew's depiction of the crucifixion (Chapter 27) he describes cosmic upheaval at the moment of Jesus' death. 'The earth shook, rocks split, tombs were opened and the dead raised.' Matthew here describes the moment when 'heaven and earth pass away' and a new creation dawns.

Matthew's community, now living in the post-resurrection new Age of the Spirit are challenged to live the same righteousness of Jesus. The Law and the Prophets have been fulfilled and now the community is to 'obey all that I have commanded you' (Matthew 28:20).

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for February

For Parishes

We pray that parishes, placing communion at the centre, may increasingly become communities of faith, fraternity and welcome towards those most in need.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

POSITIONS AS COUNCILLOR REPRESENTING THE 5 FIELDS OF MISSION ARE VACANT AND READY TO BE FILLED.

Want to know more about the available roles, and how to nominate?
Position descriptions will be available from the welcome desk next weekend.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

THE FIVE FIELDS OF MISSION THE PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY

The primary responsibility of a Parish Pastoral Councillor is to be an active collaborator in the activation of the Parish vision and mission statement. To effectively exercise this role, a councillor should be familiar with the spiritual and physical needs of the Parish community, with an understanding of the structures, functions and people that sustain the Parish. It is also important for a councillor to have an appreciation of the needs and values of the local society in which Gosford Parish is located. With this basis – and a humble and prayerful desire to serve the Parish and its members – councillors can effectively work together in aiding the Parish Priest to discern the goals and strategies that will activate the Parish's vision and mission statement.

In addition to the primary functions, a councillor will become a liaison for one of the 5 Fields of Mission;

- Parish Operations
Ministries that serve the functional needs of the parish.
- Evangelisation
Ministries that allow encounters with Jesus.
- Community
Ministries that help people to belong and feel welcomed.
- Discipleship
Ministries involved in the formation of parish leaders. Open to all, but with the intention that new leaders would be formed in the process, to ensure we have succession in place for the future. Just as Jesus did with his disciples
- Liturgy
Ministries that further the beauty to our liturgical celebrations.

Full role descriptions for each of the five roles are available from the Welcome desk in the foyer. Please take which ever you may be interested in, if you want more information about the roles.

Nomination forms are available on the pews.

The Parish Pastoral Council

The main function of Gosford Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) is to activate the Parish's vision and mission statement. With a focus on strategy and planning, the PPC is essentially a consultation and consensus body - as opposed to a coordinating team. In this way, it is a discernment group, supporting the Parish Priest in the decision-making process for the pastoral needs of the Parish.

The following 5 Fields of Mission are identified as the areas of practical application to bring to life the vision, mission and values of the parish.

Parish Operations

Evangelisation

Community

Discipleship

Liturgy

“The missionary work in the church today must be done by the laity. You’re the ones who can give testament to the true Gospel of Jesus Christ by what you do each and every day.”

(Cardinal Kevin Farrell, 8th February 2023)

On Wednesday 8th of February, members of General Committee of the International Community of the Divine Saviour (ICDS), better known as Lay Salvatorians, were in Rome to receive the Statutes of their society at the Vatican from the office of the Dicastery for Laity, Family and Life. This declares them a legal identity of the Catholic Church. They will also be officially recognised by the Catholic Church as an International Private Association of the Faithful, with juridical personality in Canon Law.

Lay Salvatorians live out the charism of their Founder, Blessed Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan, by preaching the Gospel not just through words but through their lives, not resting content until all know, love and serve Jesus as their Saviour. Their commitment to this mission brings a visible sign of the reality of God into the world in all areas of everyday life.

If you would like to know more about this branch of the Salvatorian family, please talk to of our Gosford Lay Salvatorians - Margaret, Cecilia, Katrina - or one our priests.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 30:3-4

Be my protector, O God, a mighty stronghold to save me.

For you are my rock, my stronghold!

Lead me, guide me, for the sake of your name.

FIRST READING

SIR 15:15-20

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

He never commanded anyone to be godless.

If you wish, you can keep the commandments, to behave faithfully is within your power.

He has set fire and water before you; put out your hand to whichever you prefer.

Man has life and death before him; whichever a man likes better will be given him.

For vast is the wisdom of the Lord; he is almighty and all-seeing.

His eyes are on those who fear him, he notes every action of man.

He never commanded anyone to be godless, he has given no one permission to sin.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 118:1-2. 4-5. 17-18. 33-34. R. V.1

(R.) Happy are they who follow the law of the Lord!

1. They are happy whose life is blameless, who follow God's law!

They are happy those who do his will, seeking him with all their hearts.

(R.) Happy are they who follow the law of the Lord!

2. You have laid down your precepts to be obeyed with care.

May my footsteps be firm to obey your statutes.

(R.) Happy are they who follow the law of the Lord!

3. Bless your servant and I shall live and obey your word.

Open my eyes that I may consider the wonders of your law.

(R.) Happy are they who follow the law of the Lord!

4. Teach me the demands of your statutes and I will keep them to the end.

Train me to observe your law, to keep it with my heart.

(R.) Happy are they who follow the law of the Lord!

SECOND READING

1 COR 2:6-10

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

God in his wisdom predestined our glory before the ages began.

We have a wisdom to offer those who have reached maturity: not a philosophy of our age, it is true, still less of the masters of our age, which are coming to their end. The hidden wisdom of God which we teach in our mysteries is the wisdom that God predestined to be for our glory before the ages began. It is a wisdom that none of the masters of this age have ever known, or they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory; we teach what scripture calls: the things that no eye has seen and no ear has heard, things beyond the mind of man, all that God has prepared for those who love him.

These are the very things that God has revealed to us through the Spirit, for the Spirit reaches the depths of everything, even the depths of God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

SEE MT 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 5:20-22. 27-28. 33-34. 37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Such was said to your ancestors; but I am speaking to you.

Jesus said to his disciples: I tell you, if your virtue goes no deeper than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven.

'You have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not kill; and if anyone does kill he must answer for it before the court. But I say this to you: anyone who is angry with his brother will answer for it before the court.

'You have learnt how it was said: You must not commit adultery. But I say this to you: if a man looks at a woman lustfully, he has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

'Again, you have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not break your oath, but must fulfil your oaths to the Lord. But I say this to you: do not swear at all. All you need say is "Yes" if you mean yes, "No" if you mean no; anything more than this comes from the evil one.'
