EASTER MESSAGE FROM FR GREG

Dear friends,

As we celebrate Easter this year, I would like to take a moment to reflect on the message of peace that this holy season represents, and to offer my heartfelt wishes for peace in our hearts and in the world around us, especially in Ukraine.

Easter is a time when we remember the sacrifice that Jesus made for us, and the message of hope, forgiveness, and reconciliation that His resurrection represents. It is a time when we are called to renew our commitment to living lives of love, compassion, and service to others, and to working towards a more just and peaceful world.

But in our world today, peace can often seem elusive. We see conflict and violence in so many parts of the world, and we are reminded of the suffering that so many people endure as a result.

In particular, I would like to offer my thoughts and prayers to the people of Ukraine, who have been experiencing ongoing conflict and instability in recent times. The violence and unrest in Ukraine have caused immense suffering for many people, and have left a deep wound in the heart of the nation.

As we celebrate Easter this year, I invite you to join me in praying for peace in Ukraine. Let us pray for an end to the violence and conflict, and for a peaceful resolution to the ongoing crisis. Let us pray for the leaders of Ukraine, that they may be guided by wisdom, compassion, and a commitment to the common good. And let us pray for all those who have been affected by the conflict, that they may find healing, hope, and a renewed sense of purpose and meaning.

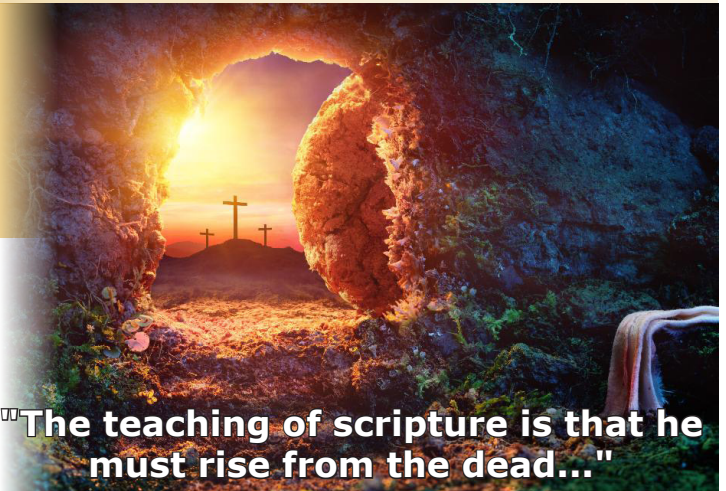

But our prayers for peace cannot end there. As followers of Christ, we are called to be instruments of peace in the world. We are called to work towards reconciliation, to seek justice and mercy, and to be agents of healing and hope in our communities and beyond.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for April

For a culture of peace and non violence.

We pray for the spread of peace and non violence, by decreasing the use of weapons by States and citizens.

"The teaching of scripture is that he must rise from the dead..."

As we celebrate Easter this year, let us renew our commitment to living lives of peace and service. Let us seek to build bridges of understanding and compassion, and to be sources of love and support for those in need. Let us work together to build a world where peace, justice, and compassion reign.

May this Easter be a time of great peace and renewal for each and every one of you. And may we continue to strive towards a world where peace, justice, and love are the guiding principles of our lives.

With warmest wishes,

Fr Greg Skulski SDS

Parish Priest.

CELEBRATING FR GREG'S BIRTHDAY

Morning tea on Sunday April 16, though his birthday is actually on Easter Sunday! Please join us after the 9.30am Mass at the Jordan Room to celebrate and offer our good wishes.

FR FRANCIS JORDAN SDS

Let us always reverence the Cross – then love and joyousness come by themselves.

SUPPORTING OUR YOUTH

OUR WYD PILGRIMS THANK YOU!

Our youth wish to thank, from the bottom of their hearts, you who have so generously supported them with their fund raising efforts. Whilst we received many generous donations and fund raising dollars over the last 12 or so months, we particularly thank Paul & Mary Orenstein for their very generous donation that helped make the dream a reality. We will still have some fund raising activities to do and ask you especially to support our raffle.

THANK YOU FOR CLEANING THE CHURCH

TO ALL THE FABULOUS FOLK WHO HELPED.

There were a significant number of parishioners who stayed after Mass on Monday to help clean the church in preparation for Easter. Special thanks to John and Pam McCrae, Ron and Denise Beg who provided morning tea to the volunteers following the hard work cleaning.

MARRIAGE COURSE

All married couple invited to join us for a SmartLoving Marriage Course over the next five months.

First Session: 16th April 2023, with following sessions held the 2nd Sunday of each month.

SCHOOL HOLIDAYS WISHES

We Wish Children and Staff best wishes and safe holidays. We look forward to their return after the autumn break.

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

The last few weeks were very challenging for me as I underwent an operation and since then I have been going through the process of recovery.

Today I would like to share a few things with you.

Firstly, last Monday I received a phone call from my doctor with an 'all clear' result from the biopsy. I was very relieved and happy to hear this and that is why I want to say a huge 'Thank You' to all of you for your prayers and support over the last few weeks! Prayer is the greatest strength in the world!! I really appreciated it!!

It will still take few more weeks for me to recover fully and run again but I'm feeling much better now.

Secondly, you all are aware that 2022 was a very intense time for me as I was by myself in the parish for most of the year and during that time we were also preparing for the installation of the relics of JP II. It was incredibly busy and I think that it affected me in some way and consequently I feel it is time for me to take some time for a restful break. This is why I would like to share with you that having in mind my wellbeing, I applied to my Superior, Fr George Kołodziej SDS, to allow me to take my long service leave this year. The response from Fr George was very positive and so from May 1 till the end of July I will be away and then will join the WYD pilgrims in Rome and travel with them for two weeks before we all come back together to Australia in August.

I made this decision after suffering some health issues over the last few months but during my long service leave I will focus on my spiritual, physical and mental wellness and renewal. I hope to come back full of energy and recharged spiritually.

Thank you for your understanding and support.

Yours in Christ

Fr Greg Skulski SDS

“The teaching of scripture is that he must rise from the dead...”

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 138:18,5-6

I have risen, and I am with you still, alleluia. You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia. Too wonderful for me, this knowledge, alleluia, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS 10:34. 37-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

We have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead.

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 117:1-2. 16-17. 22-23. R. V.24

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

1. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end. Let the sons of Israel say: 'His love has no end.'

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

2. The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up. I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds.

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone. This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes.

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

SECOND READING

COL 3:1-4

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

Look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is.

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

SEQUENCE

The sequence is said or sung on this day. On the weekdays of the Octave of Easter, its use is optional.

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer sacrifice and praise.

The sheep are ransomed by the Lamb; and Christ, the undefiled, hath sinners to his Father reconciled.

Death with life contended: combat strangely ended!

Life's own Champion, slain, yet lives to reign.

Tell us, Mary: say what thou didst see upon the way.

The tomb the Living did enclose; I saw Christ's glory as he rose!

The angels there attesting; shroud with grave-clothes resting.

Christ, my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee.

That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know.

Victorious king, thy mercy show!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

1 COR 5:7-8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ has become our paschal sacrifice; let us feast with joy in the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JN 20:1-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

The teaching of scripture is that he must rise from the dead.

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

1 COR 5:7-8

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed, alleluia; therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia.
