DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Dear friends,

Divine Mercy Sunday is a celebration in the Catholic Church that takes place on the second Sunday of Easter. This day is dedicated to the devotion of Divine Mercy, which is centered on the mercy of God and the forgiveness of sins. It is a day to reflect on the great love and mercy that God has for all of us and to renew our commitment to living a life of faith.

The devotion of Divine Mercy is based on the teachings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun who had a series of visions in the early 20th century. In her visions, Jesus spoke to her about the great need for mercy in the world and asked her to spread the message of Divine Mercy to all people. Saint Faustina wrote a diary of her experiences, which has become a popular devotional book in the Catholic Church.

On Divine Mercy Sunday, we are reminded that God's mercy is limitless and that he is always ready to forgive us, no matter what we have done. This is a comforting message for all of us, as we all struggle with sin and the temptations of the world. It is easy to become discouraged or overwhelmed by our faults and failings, but the message of Divine Mercy reminds us that we are never beyond God's love and forgiveness.

One of the most powerful aspects of the devotion of Divine Mercy is the image of Jesus as the Divine Mercy. This image, which was revealed to Saint Faustina, depicts Jesus with rays of light emanating from his heart, symbolizing the love and mercy that he has for all of us. This image reminds us that Jesus is always with us, even in our darkest moments, and that he is always ready to offer us his love and mercy.

Divine Mercy Sunday is a day to reflect on our own need for mercy and forgiveness. We are all sinners, and we all fall short of the glory of God. But the message of Divine Mercy reminds us that we can always turn to God in our weakness and ask for his forgiveness. As Saint Faustina wrote in her diary, "The greater the sinner, the greater the right he has to my mercy."

On Divine Mercy Sunday, we are called to renew our commitment to living a life of faith. This means turning away from sin and striving to live a life that is pleasing to God. It means practicing the spiritual and corporal works of mercy, such as feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, and visiting the sick. It means forgiving those who have wronged us and seeking reconciliation with those we have wronged.

The message of Divine Mercy is not just for Catholics, but for all people. We live in a world that is often marked by violence, division, and hatred. But the message of Divine Mercy reminds us that there is always hope, even in the darkest of times. It reminds us that God's love is greater than any sin or evil in the world, and that he is always working to bring about the redemption and salvation of all people.

In conclusion, Divine Mercy Sunday is a day to reflect on the great love and mercy that God has for all of us. It is a day to renew our commitment to living a life of faith, and to seek forgiveness and reconciliation with God and with others. As we celebrate this day, let us be reminded of the words of Saint Faustina, who wrote, "Oh, how much I am obliged to you, my Jesus, for not having despised the sinner's heart, but rather enlightening it with your mercy." May we all be enlightened by the mercy of God and strive to live a life of faith and love..

With warmest wishes,

Fr Greg Skulski SDS

Parish Priest.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

1 PT 2:2

Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk, that in him you may grow to salvation, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS 2:42-47

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles
The faithful lived together and owned everything in common.

The whole community remained faithful to the teaching of the apostles, to the brotherhood, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers.

The many miracles and signs worked through the apostles made a deep impression on everyone.

The faithful all lived together and owned everything in common; they sold their goods and possessions and shared out the proceeds among themselves according to what each one needed.

They went as a body to the Temple every day but met in their houses for the breaking of bread; they shared their food gladly and generously; they praised God and were looked up to by everyone. Day by day the Lord added to their community those destined to be saved.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 117:2-4. 13-15. 22-24. R. V.1

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

1. Let the sons of Israel say:

'His love has no end.'

Let the sons of Aaron say:

'His love has no end.'

Let those who fear the Lord say:

'His love has no end.'

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

2. I was thrust, thrust down and falling but the Lord was my helper.

The Lord is my strength and my song; he was my saviour.

There are shouts of joy and victory in the tents of the just.

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes.

This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad.

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

SECOND READING

1 PT 1:3-9

A reading from the first letter of St Peter

He has given us a new birth as his children, by raising Jesus Christ from the dead.

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy has given us a new birth as his sons, by raising Jesus Christ from the dead, so that we have a sure hope and the promise of an inheritance that can never be spoilt or soiled and never fade away, because it is being kept for you in the heavens. Through your faith, God's power will guard you until the salvation which has been prepared is revealed at the end of time. This is a cause of great joy for you, even though you may for a short time have to bear being plagued by all sorts of trials; so that, when Jesus Christ is revealed, your faith will have been tested and proved like gold – only it is more precious than gold, which is corruptible even though it bears testing by fire – and then you will have praise and glory and honour. You did not see him, yet you love him; and still without seeing him, you are already filled with a joy so glorious that it cannot be described, because you believe; and you are sure of the end to which your faith looks forward, that is, the salvation of your souls.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JN 20:29

Alleluia, alleluia!

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me; appy those who have not seen me, but still believe!

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JN 20:19-31

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

After eight days Jesus came in and stood among them.

In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.

'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said:

'Receive the Holy Spirit.

For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. When the disciples said, 'We have seen the Lord', he answered, 'Unless I see the holes that the nails made in his hands and can put my finger into the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.' Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them. 'Peace be with you' he said. Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.' Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him: 'You believe because you can see me. Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

There were many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in this book. These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

CF. JN 20:27

Bring your hand and feel the place of the nails, and do not be unbelieving but believing, alleluia.
