DISCIPLESHIP

MESSAGE FROM FR GREG

Today's Gospel of Luke tells the story of the two disciples on the road to Emmaus, who encounter the resurrected Jesus but do not recognize him until he breaks bread with them. This powerful story carries a number of important themes and lessons that are still relevant to Christians today.

One of the key themes of the story is the importance of faith and belief in Jesus. The two disciples are initially filled with despair and confusion after the crucifixion of Jesus, and they do not yet understand the significance of the empty tomb. However, as they walk and talk with the resurrected Jesus, he helps them to see the truth and to believe in him more deeply. This experience highlights the importance of having faith in Jesus, even in the face of difficult circumstances or uncertainty.

Another important theme in this story is the role of community and fellowship in our spiritual lives. The two disciples on the road to Emmaus are not alone in their confusion and grief – they are walking together and discussing their feelings and experiences. When Jesus joins them, they are able to have an even deeper conversation and to share in a communal meal. This experience emphasizes the importance of finding support and connection with others who share our faith.

One of the most striking aspects of this story is the way in which Jesus reveals himself to the disciples through the breaking of bread. This act of sharing a meal together is symbolic of the Eucharist, or Communion, which remains a central part of Christian worship to this day. The fact that the disciples only recognize Jesus after he breaks bread with them emphasizes the spiritual significance of this act, and the importance of recognizing Christ's presence in our daily lives.

A related theme in this story is the importance of hospitality and generosity. The two disciples initially invite Jesus to stay with them, not realizing who he is. However, once they recognize him and he disappears, they rush back to Jerusalem to share the news with others. This act of sharing and hospitality is a powerful reminder of the importance of generosity and openness in our spiritual lives.

"They recognised him at the breaking of the bread."

Overall, Gospel for this Sunday is a powerful and moving story that carries a number of important lessons and themes. It emphasizes the importance of faith, community, and fellowship, as well as the spiritual significance of the breaking of bread and the act of sharing a meal together. It also highlights the importance of hospitality and generosity in our daily lives, and reminds us of the power of Christ's presence in even the most unexpected and challenging moments of our lives. As Catholics we can draw inspiration from this story and strive to live out its lessons in our own lives, always seeking to deepen our faith and to share the love of Christ with others.

Yours in Christ

CANDLE STAND CLEANING

As Mabel, one of our wonderful ladies who cleans our candle stands once a week, will be leaving us in the near future it is time to put out an appeal for her replacement. It possibly takes one hour per week and orientation would be given. Please contact the Parish Office if you would like to enact your stewardship in this way.

He said to them, "Why are you afraid, you of little faith?"

Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the seas; and there was a dead calm.

OUR 'THANK YOU'S'

Firstly we owe a huge thanks to the donors of our prizes for our major raffle drawn this weekend:

- Grace Mazur, Managing Director of Thermomix Australia for the Thermomix, Vacuum Cleaner & Pizza Oven.
- Tom Croll for the two large prints
- An anonymous donor for the knife set

This generosity has enabled our youth to take a further step in their journey to WYD Lisbon. Thank you.

Secondly, we thank Tom Croll and Mark Bennett for their work refurbishing the statue of St Francis of Assisi in our admin centre garden - it's bright and shining now!

Finally, thank you to all of our young Altar Servers who do such a great job making so many of our Masses both joyous and function smoothly.

Today is a special day to thank them for their service over the past year.

CONGRATULATIONS BISHOP ANTHONY RANDAZZO

The Holy Father, Pope Francis has requested I undertake an additional responsibility as I remain Bishop of the Diocese.

He has appointed me as the Apostolic Administrator of the Personal Ordinariate of Our Lady of the Southern Cross, Australia. I am honoured and humbled to collaborate with the Holy Father in this new ministry. The Ordinariate provides a pathway for Anglicans to full communion in the Roman Catholic Church while retaining elements of their worship traditions and spiritual heritage in their union with the Catholic Church. While I look forward to this new phase of life of the Ordinariate community beginning in July, I will continue to serve all in the Diocese with ongoing commitment, dedicated to building our shared vision and priorities. May Our Lady of the Southern Cross pray for us and guide us to her Son, Jesus Christ. Click here to watch the video.

POSITION VACANT

DIOCESAN PASTORAL DISCERNMENT PROJECT FACILITATOR

- LOOKING FOR THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

As part of the 35th anniversary of the Diocese of Broken Bay, in August 2021, Bishop Anthony Randazzo invited the Diocesan region of the Central Coast to participate in a project of pastoral discernment. The Central Coast region was identified as the first of the three geographic regions to undertake this project which was undertaken in 2022. As part of this discernment, now completed for the Central coast and envisaged for the Northern Beaches and North Shore of the Diocese, of paramount importance is to recognise the each of the local region's particular pastoral circumstances, opportunities, and challenges.

The role requires a candidate with tertiary qualifications in theology, ministry, social science or a related discipline, supported by at least five years in pastoral planning and/or project management in a Church context and experience in planning of evangelisation practices in diocesan and parish contexts. You will have an understanding that this is integral to ministry in a Catholic setting and experience working in close collaboration with parishes and agencies of the Catholic Church, notably clergy and community consultation and the facilitation of large and small groups. For more information please contact recruitment@bbcatholic.org.au for an Information Pack including for details on how to apply. Applications close Thursday, 18 May 2023

FIRST READING

ACTS 2:14, 22-33

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles
It was impossible for him to be held by the power of Hades.

On the day of Pentecost, Peter stood up with the Eleven and addressed the crowd in a loud voice: 'Men of Israel, listen to what I am going to say: Jesus the Nazarene was a man commended to you by God by the miracles and portents and signs that God worked through him when he was among you, as you all know. This man, who was put into your power by the deliberate intention and foreknowledge of God, you took and had crucified by men outside the Law. You killed him, but God raised him to life, freeing him from the pangs of Hades; for it was impossible for him to be held in its power since, as David says of him: I saw the Lord before me always, for with him at my right hand nothing can shake me.

So my heart was glad and my tongue cried out with joy:
my body, too, will rest in the hope that you will not abandon my soul to Hades nor allow your holy one to experience corruption. You have made known the way of life to me, you will fill me with gladness through your presence.

'Brothers, no one can deny that the patriarch David himself is dead and buried: his tomb is still with us. But since he was a prophet, and knew that God had sworn him an oath to make one of his descendants succeed him on the throne, what he foresaw and spoke about was the resurrection of the Christ: he is the one who was not abandoned to Hades, and whose body did not experience corruption. God raised this man Jesus to life, and all of us are witnesses to that. Now raised to the heights by God's right hand, he has received from the Father the Holy Spirit, who was promised, and what you see and hear is the outpouring of that Spirit.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 15:1-2. 5. 7-11. R. V.11

(R.) Lord, you will show us the path of life.

1. Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you. I say to the Lord: 'You are my God. O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup; it is you yourself who are my prize.'

(R.) Lord, you will show us the path of life.

2. I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel, who even at night directs my heart. I keep the Lord ever in my sight: since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm.

(R.) Lord, you will show us the path of life.

3. And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad; even my body shall rest in safety. For you will not leave my soul among the dead, nor let your beloved know decay.

(R.) Lord, you will show us the path of life.

4. You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right hand happiness for ever.

SECOND READING

1 PT 1:17-21

A reading from the first letter of St Peter

The ransom that was paid to free you was the blood of the Lamb, Jesus Christ.

If you are acknowledging as your Father one who has no favourites and judges everyone according to what he has done, you must be scrupulously careful as long as you are living away from your home. Remember, the ransom that was paid to free you from the useless way of life your ancestors handed down was not paid in anything corruptible, neither in silver nor gold, but in the precious blood of a lamb without spot or stain, namely Christ; who, though known since before the world was made, has been revealed only in our time, the end of the ages, for your sake. Through him you now have faith in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory for that very reason – so that you would have faith and hope in God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

SEE LK 24:32

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord Jesus, make your word plain to us: make our hearts burn with love when you speak.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LK 24:13-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

They recognised him at the breaking of the bread.

Two of the disciples of Jesus were on their way to a village called Emmaus, seven miles from Jerusalem, and they were talking together about all that had happened. Now as they talked this over, Jesus himself came up and walked by their side; but something prevented them from recognising him. He said to them, 'What matters are you discussing as you walk along?' They stopped short, their faces downcast. Then one of them, called Cleopas, answered him, 'You must be the only person staying in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have been happening there these last few days.' 'What things?' he asked. 'All about Jesus of Nazareth' they answered 'who proved he was a great prophet by the things he said and did in the sight of God and of the whole people; and how our chief priests and our leaders handed him over to be sentenced to death, and had him crucified. Our own hope had been that he would be the one to set Israel free. And this is not all: two whole days have gone by since it all happened; and some women from our group have astounded us: they went to the tomb in the early morning, and when they did not find the body, they came back to tell us they had seen a vision of angels who declared he was alive. Some of our friends went to the tomb and found everything exactly as the women had reported, but of him they saw nothing.'

Then he said to them, 'You foolish men! So slow to believe the full message of the prophets! Was it not ordained that the Christ should suffer and so enter into his glory?' Then, starting with Moses and going through all the prophets, he explained to them the passages throughout the scriptures that were about himself.

When they drew near to the village to which they were going, he made as if to go on; but they pressed him to stay with them. 'It is nearly evening' they said 'and the day is almost over.' So he went in to stay with them. Now while he was with them at table, he took the bread and said the blessing; then he broke it and handed it to them. And their eyes were opened and they recognised him; but he had vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, 'Did not our hearts burn within us as he talked to us on the road and explained the scriptures to us?'

They set out that instant and returned to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven assembled together with their companions, who said to them, 'Yes, it is true. The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon.' Then they told their story of what had happened on the road and how they had recognised him at the breaking of bread.
