SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

Today we hear how Philip, one of the seven men appointed to attend to the needs of the widows of the Hellenists, travels north to Samaria. The animosity between the Jews and the Samaritans can be traced back to the period after the death of Solomon when the northern Israelite tribes withdrew their allegiance from the southern Judean monarchy. This breach was re-enforced when those who returned from exile in Babylon rejected the Samaritans' offer to help in the rebuilding of the temple in Jerusalem. Still, the Samaritans shared Jewish messianic hopes. This explains their openness to Philip's preaching. The wonders that he performed convinced them of the trustworthiness of his words.

Today's psalm response begins with a summons to praise God. It is universal in scope, all the earth is called to praise the God of Israel. Second, the name of God is the object of the praise. Third, the praise given to God is glorious, not to be dismissed casually. The works of God to which the psalmist refers are the wonders that God has accomplished in the history of Israel. Since subduing chaotic waters was at the basis of all activity in the ancient Near Eastern creation tradition, historical water crossings always contained a dimension of creation in them. In the creation story, after the forces of evil are vanquished, the victorious warrior is acclaimed king over all creation.

Christian suffering is the subject of the teaching from 1 Peter. Believers are told to use their suffering to enhance the spread of the gospel. The sufferings of Christ are offered as an example to follow and in which they can place their trust. The sufferings of Christians is then placed within the context of the holiness of Christ, a holiness that gives Christians both strength to endure patiently and courage to give witness to their faith. The Christians are also told to keep their consciences clear, to give no one justification for finding fault with them that they might then be regarded as innocent sufferers. Christ is the example of one who suffers innocently.

This gospel emphasises the link between love and obedience. Jesus calls for a love that is as self-sacrificing

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for May

For church movements and groups.

We pray that Church movements and groups may rediscover their mission of evangelization each day, placing their own charisms at the service of needs in the world.

"I shall ask the Father and he will send you another Advocate."

as his own. Obedience is not a requirement for love, it is the consequence of it. Jesus knows that his departure will leave the disciples feeling abandoned and so he assures them of his return. This passage also argues that this world seems open only to what is tangible. It cannot see the Spirit. The disciples, on the other hand, are motivated by love and so they respond to Jesus in obedience. 'On that day' refers to the time of eschatological fulfilment. Used here it implies that the day of Jesus' return will in fact be the dawning of the eschatological age.

OUR LADY OF FATIMA

SATURDAY 13 MAY

Is devoted to Our Lady of Fatima and during the month of May one can see why we celebrate and pray to Mary her intervention for peace and forgiveness of all humanity.

MAY THE MONTH OF MARY
WHAT BETTER WAY TO HONOUR MARY
JOIN WITH US EVERY NIGHT AT 9:00 PM TO PRAY THE ROSARY

https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC44NSRmeB1mg_EK1JUFJpvg

The ways Mary is honored in May is as varied as the people who honor her.

Saturday is the fifth week of Easter and it is also the feast day of Our Lady of Fatima, also known as Our Lady of the Holy Rosary of Fatima.

Between May 13 and October 13, 1917, three Portuguese children—Francisco and Jacinta Marto and their cousin Lucia dos Santos—received apparitions of Our Lady at Cova da Iria near Fatima, a city 177 kilometres north of Lisbon.

Mary asked the children to pray the rosary for world peace, for the end of World War I, for sinners, and for the conversion of Russia. Mary gave the children three secrets. Following the deaths of Francisco and Jacinta in 1919 and 1920 respectively, Lucia revealed the first secret in 1927. It concerned devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The second secret was a vision of hell. When Lucia grew up she became a Carmelite nun and died in 2005 at the age of 97.

Pope John Paul II directed the Holy See's Secretary of State to reveal the third secret in 2000; it spoke of a "bishop in white" who was shot by a group of soldiers who fired bullets and arrows into him. Many people linked this vision to the assassination attempt against Pope John Paul II in St. Peter's Square on May 13, 1981.

The feast of Our Lady of Fatima was approved by the local bishop in 1930; it was added to the Church's worldwide calendar in 2002, three years before the death of Pope John Paul II who was later canonised in 2012.

Our young pilgrims from the Diocese attending World Youth Day in Lisbon later in August will also travel to Fatima with Bishop Anthony Randazzo. They will visit the Marian shrine dedicated to Our Lady of Fatima and the Basilica of Our Lady of the Rosary. Please keep them in your prayers.

FROM THE BISHOPS OFFICE

The following is a praise of a letter from the Bishop.

Dear Fathers, Deacons, my sisters and brothers of the Diocese of Broken Bay,

In June last year I shared with you my hopes to begin a conversation about the life and culture of our Cathedral

As I stated at the time, the Cathedral is at the heart of our Diocese, and a most important symbol of our identity. It is here that our local Church is brought together under the unity of your Bishop, together with my clergy, and the entire people of God entrusted to my care. It is the first Church amongst others, the one from which the Diocese radiates and returns.

The Diocesan-wide consultation will begin with Mass as we celebrate our Patronal feast, Mary Star of the Sea.

I encourage you to join me at Our Lady of the Rosary Cathedral for Vigil Mass at 5.30pm on Tuesday, 30 May 2023 before we move to The Light of Christ Centre for a light supper and conversation as we continue our Cathedral Precinct journey together. Please respond to the invitation below if you wish to attend.

I ask that you pray for this journey as it continues to unfold and for which I am sure, will be the source of many new blessings for our Diocese

Mary Star of the Sea, pray for us. Christ.

Bishop Anthony Randazzo.

PASTORAL WORKS Broken Bay

Pastoral Works Broken Bay is the pastoral charity of the Catholic community in Broken Bay.

In supporting our pastoral works you are helping our dedicated catechists provide thousands of state school students with a Catholic education; and helping us provide comfort, care, a listening ear and the sacraments to those who are vulnerable or experiencing loneliness, illness and isolation through our hospital chaplaincy program.

Our pastoral works also assist students with disability achieve their dreams, and provides practical support for the deaf community.

Your gift does make a difference. It maybe young people in schools, someone in hospital, a parish or the wider community.

My prayer is that Pastoral Works Broken Bay enables us to reach further and wider in helping our community, and more deeply connects us to our vision and the mission of Jesus. I am deeply grateful for your support.

Most Rev Anthony Randazzo DD JCL,
Bishop of Broken Bay

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. IS 48:20

Proclaim a joyful sound and let it be heard;
proclaim to the ends of the earth:
The Lord has freed his people, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS 8:5-8. 14-17

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

They laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

Philip went to a Samaritan town and proclaimed the Christ to them. The people united in welcoming the message Philip preached, either because they had heard of the miracles he worked or because they saw them for themselves. There were, for example, unclean spirits that came shrieking out of many who were possessed, and several paralytics and cripples were cured. As a result there was great rejoicing in that town.

When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, and they went down there, and prayed for the Samaritans to receive the Holy Spirit, for as yet he had not come down on any of them: they had only been baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 65:1-7. 16. 20. R. SEE V.1

(R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

1. Cry out with joy to God all the earth, O sing to the glory of his name.

O render him glorious praise.

Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds!

(R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

2. 'Before you all the earth shall bow; shall sing to you, sing to your name!'

Come and see the works of God, tremendous his deeds among men.

(R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

3. He turned the sea into dry land, they passed through the river dry-shod.

Let our joy then be in him; he rules for ever by his might.

(R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

4. Come and hear, all who fear God.

I will tell what he did for my soul:

Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer nor withhold his love from me.

(R.) Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

SECOND READING

1 PT 3:15-18

A reading from the first letter of St Peter

In the body he was put to death, in the spirit he was raised to life.

Reverence the Lord Christ in your hearts, and always have your answer ready for people who ask you the reason for the hope that you all have. But give it with courtesy and respect and with a clear conscience, so that those who slander you when you are living a good life in Christ may be proved wrong in the accusations that they bring. And if it is the will of God that you should suffer, it is better to suffer for doing right than for doing wrong.

Why, Christ himself, innocent though he was, had died once for sins, died for the guilty, to lead us to God. In the body he was put to death, in the spirit he was raised to life.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JN 14:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them and we will come to them.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JN 14:15-21

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

I shall ask the Father and he will give you another Advocate.

Jesus said to his disciples:

'If you love me you will keep my commandments.

I shall ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever, that Spirit of truth whom the world can never receive since it neither sees nor knows him; but you know him, because he is with you, he is in you.

I will not leave you orphans; I will come back to you.

In a short time the world will no longer see me; but you will see me, because I live and you will live.

On that day you will understand that I am in my Father and you in me and I in you.

Anybody who receives my commandments and keeps them will be one who loves me; and anybody who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I shall love him and show myself to him.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

JN 14:15-16

If you love me, keep my commandments, says the Lord, and I will ask the Father and he will send you another Paraclete, to abide with you for ever, alleluia.

NEW EPISODE OF INTO THE DEEP OUT NOW!!

Join Fr Greg and Jaimi as they dive into a very special weekend coming up! Not only is it the Feast Day of Our Lady of Fatima, but it is also Mother's day weekend. In the words of St John Paul II, 'thank you to women who are mothers!' This week Jaimi and Fr Greg reflect on the gift of mothers in our world today, and share some of the beautiful things they have learnt from both their own mothers and from the Blessed Mother Mary, our spiritual mother. Let's dive in! Click here or the image above.
