NEW TESTAMENT COMMENTARY

BY MARY COLOE PBVM

'I am with you always.'

Today is a strange feast. A celebration of a real absence and a real presence. The Galilean Jesus of Nazareth as known by his disciples is no longer with us. This historical Jesus is absent and today acknowledges that absence. And yet, the Risen Christ known to those of faith continues to be a living presence in our midst. This is the real presence we celebrate today.

The graphic story of Jesus' Ascension is found only in Luke's Gospel where the Jesus of history is carried up to heaven and so begins a second phase as the Spirit empowers the community to continue the mission of Jesus. Luke then opens his second volume, The Acts of the Apostles with this same experience of the Ascension, followed by the coming of the Spirit during the Jewish Festival of Pentecost. This is Luke's perspective.

Matthew's theology is different. There is no description of Jesus leaving, in fact Matthew's Gospel ends with the promise of Jesus, 'I am with you always'. These words 'I am with you' echo the words spoken to Joseph when Jesus' birth is first announced, 'He shall be called Emmanuel – a name that means God-is-with-us.' The entire Gospel is framed by this image of God-with-us. This is who Jesus is for the first disciples, and this is who Jesus is for all who continue in their footsteps.

Matthew's Jesus is modelled on the great Jewish prophet and teacher Moses, which is evident in this scene. Where the followers of Moses were those within Israel, Jesus commands that discipleship now be extended to 'all nations'. God's covenant with Israel is now open to all people. Where belonging to

"I shall ask the Father and he will send you another Advocate."

Israel was sealed with the ritual of circumcision, Jesus gives his disciples a new ritual for those who would belong to his community, namely, the ritual of baptism. Where Judaism was founded on the teaching and Law of Moses, the community of Christians is founded on the teaching of Jesus.

You might recall that in Matthew's Gospel Jesus says, 'Do not think that I have come to abolish the law and the prophets; I have come not to abolish them but to fulfil them. For truly I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the law until all is accomplished.' (Matt 5:17-18) But in Matthew's account of the crucifixion there are signs that mark the end of the world. There is an earthquake and the tombs open and those once dead return to life. For Matthew the Cross marks the passing away of heaven and earth and the beginning of a new age. Jesus' commission to his disciples establishes the membership, the initiation ritual, and the ethic for a new community in the new age. A community for 'all nations,' who participate in one baptism and follow the teaching of Jesus.

These final words of Matthew's Gospel I find most encouraging. We are told that when the disciples saw Jesus, some worshipped him, but some still doubted. This small nucleus of the Christian community holds both people of faith and disciples with room to doubt. This is the community who, in spite of its frailty hears the words, 'I am with you always.'

Let us be heartened by these words of a God who continues to be with us, even in our failings.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

ACTS 1:11

Men of Galilee, why gaze in wonder at the heavens?

This Jesus whom you saw ascending into heaven will return as you saw him go, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS 1:1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Why are you standing here looking into the sky? Jesus has been taken into heaven.

In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning until the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven. He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. 'It is' he had said, 'what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.'

Now having met together, they asked him, 'Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.'

As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight. They were still staring into the sky when suddenly two men in white were standing near them and they said, 'Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky? Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, this same Jesus will come back in the same way as you have seen him go there.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 46:2-3. 6-9. R. V.6

(R.) God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

1. All peoples, clap your hands, cry to God with shouts of joy!
For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear, great king over all the earth.

(R.) God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

2. God goes up with shouts of joy; the Lord goes up with trumpet blast.
Sing praise for God, sing praise, sing praise to our king, sing praise.

(R.) God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

3. God is king of all the earth.

Sing praise with all your skill.

God is king over the nations; God reigns on his holy throne.

(R.) God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

SECOND READING

EPH 1:17-23

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

He made Jesus to sit at his right hand in heaven.

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of him. May he enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope his call holds for you, what rich glories he has promised the saints will inherit and how infinitely great is the power that he has exercised for us believers. This you can tell from the strength of his power at work in Christ, when he used it to raise him from the dead and to make him sit at his right hand, in heaven, far above every Sovereignty, Authority, Power, or Domination, or any other name that can be named, not only in this age, but also in the age to come. He has put all things under his feet, and made him, as the ruler of everything, the head of the Church; which is his body, the fullness of him who fills the whole creation.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

MT 28:19. 20

Alleluia, alleluia!

Go and teach all people my gospel.

I am with you always, until the end of the world.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 28:16-20

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commandments I gave to you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

MT 28:20

Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age, alleluia.
