NEW TESTAMENT COMMENTARY

BY DR MARY COLOE PBVM

'I am the living bread – anyone who eats of this bread will live forever.'

There are two experiences that lie behind the images used in this Gospel. The first was the experience of the Israelites when they escaped from Egypt and were fed by the manna in the wilderness. The second is the experience of Eucharist in the early Christian communities. Remember that this Gospel was written long after Jesus' death and Christians have been gathering for Eucharist for about sixty years. The evangelist affirms in very strong and vivid language the reality of Jesus' presence when Christians gather to eat and drink at the table of the Eucharist. Just as food nourishes ordinary human life, the bread and wine of the Eucharist nourishes the life of Christ in the believer.

By the first century, the gift of the manna was being linked to both Wisdom and the Law. So to speak of eating the manna/bread was a way of speaking about being nourished by God's wisdom and by the Law. Wisdom speaks:

'Come to me, you who desire me, and eat your fill of my produce...

those who eat me will hunger for more, and those who drink me will thirst for more.

Whoever obeys me will not be put to shame and those who work with my help will not sin.

All this is the book of the Covenant of the Most High God, the law which Moses commanded us as an inheritance for the congregation of Jacob.' (Sirach 24: 19-23)

Even within Judaism, the story of the Manna in the wilderness was being spiritualised so that later generations could still think of themselves as the recipients of this gift. Eating the bread of Wisdom was a metaphorical way of speaking about living according to the Law.

'Wisdom has built her house; she has hewn her seven pillars.

She has slaughtered her animals, she has mixed her wine, she has also set her table.

She has sent out her servant girls, she calls from the

"My flesh is real food and my blood is real drink."

highest places in the town,

"You that are simple, turn in here!" To those without sense she says,

"Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine I have mixed, Leave simpleness and walk in the way of insight.'" (Proverbs 9:1-6)

John's Gospel continues this Jewish tradition of 'spiritualising' the manna, but takes it much further. Now, it is not the Law that provides the path to Wisdom, or can provide nourishment, but Jesus. Where the nourishment offered by Wisdom was such that people hungered for more, the nourishment Jesus offers is for eternity life since belief in Jesus draws the believer into Jesus' own life – 'whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in them.'

Many in John's community were Jews who had come to faith in Jesus. As Jews they had a long tradition of celebrating Passover and recalling the gift of the manna. Now, as believers in Jesus, these Jews are no longer welcome in the Synagogue and so can no longer celebrate the Jewish Passover. The Gospel offers reassurance to them that they no longer need look to their past traditions, that they still have 'bread come down from heaven' in Jesus and this bread will offer life forever.

The Gospel makes no attempt to explain how this happens, even though the Jews want to know this. The Gospel simply affirms that it happens, that this is what the Johannine community experience. When Christians gather together in prayer and thanksgiving Jesus is present. Each Eucharist is a recommitment, a restatement of our faith that Jesus is our way of life.

THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS FEAST DAY, FRIDAY 16 JUNE

The heart has always been seen as the "center" or essence a person ("the heart of the matter," "you are my heart," "take it to heart," etc.) and the wellspring of our emotional lives and love ("you break my heart," "my heart sings," etc.) Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is devotion to Jesus Christ Himself, but in the particular ways of meditating on his interior life and on His threefold love -- His divine love, His burning love that fed His human will, and His sensible love that affects His interior life.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 80:17

He fed them with the finest wheat and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

FIRST READING

DT 8:2-3. 14-16

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy

He gave you food which you and your ancestors did not know.

Moses said to the people: 'Remember how the Lord your God led you for forty years in the wilderness, to humble you, to test you and know your inmost heart – whether you would keep his commandments or not. He humbled you, he made you feel hunger, he fed you with manna which neither you nor your fathers had known, to make you understand that man does not live on bread alone but that man lives on everything that comes from the mouth of the Lord.

'Do not then forget the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery: who guided you through this vast and dreadful wilderness, a land of fiery serpents, scorpions, thirst; who in this waterless place brought you water from the hardest rock; who in this wilderness fed you with manna that your fathers had not known.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 147:12-15. 19-20. R. V.12

(R.) Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

1. O praise the Lord, Jerusalem!

Zion, praise your God!

He has strengthened the bars of your gates, he has blessed the children within you.

(R.) Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

2. He has established peace on your borders, he feeds you with finest wheat.

He sends out his word to the earth and swiftly runs his command.

(R.) Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

3. He makes his word known to Jacob, to Israel his laws and decrees.

He has not dealt thus with other nations; he has not taught them his decrees.

(R.) Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

SECOND READING

1 COR 10:16-17

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Though we are many, we form a single body because we share this one loaf.

The blessing-cup that we bless is a communion with the blood of Christ, and the bread that we break is a communion with the body of Christ. The fact that there is only one loaf means that, though there are many of us, we form a single body because we all have a share in this one loaf.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JN 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JN 6:51-58

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

My flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

Jesus said to the Jews:

'I am the living bread which has come down from heaven.

Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

Then the Jews started arguing with one another: 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' they said. Jesus replied:

'I tell you most solemnly, if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you.

Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day.

For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in him.

As I, who am sent by the living Father, myself draw life from the Father, so whoever eats me will draw life from me.

This is the bread come down from heaven; not like the bread our ancestors ate: they are dead, but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.'
