SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

The two verses of the first reading constitute a very rich oracle of salvation, one of the many passages memorialised by Handel's oratorio, Messiah. The oracle is an idealised picture of an Israelite king and the peaceful kingdom over which he will rule. Though this is a vision of the future, the verbs are prophetic perfect, indicating that in God's time the future is already present. The three-part description of the banishment of the armaments of war is balanced by a three part description of the future kingdom (v.10). This king will be the agent of God's blessings to all people. The extent of his reign reflects the broad scope of the ideal realm of the messianic king (see Ps 72:8).

The responsorial psalm opens with a declaration of praise, followed by the reasons for praising God. The opening acclamation is closely associated with the revelation of God and the acknowledgment of God's name revealed at the time of the re-establishment of the covenant (see Exod 34:6). Covenant language abounds here. God is described as gracious and compassionate and filled with lovingkindness. The works of the Lord include everything that God has made as well as everything that God has done as saviour. The faithful of the Lord are those who are bound to God in covenant loyalty. The final section of the psalm extols God's reign and God's care for those who are burdened.

Paul contrasts two ways of living: life in the flesh and life in the spirit. For Paul, flesh refers to human nature with all of the limitations that sometimes incline one away from God. Life in the spirit is a life attuned to God. Paul assures the Christians that they are in the spirit, if the Spirit of God dwells within them. The real point of this passage is the resurrection of those who are in union with God. Paul insists that those who live in the Spirit have Christ living in them – the same Christ who, through his own death, vanquished the powers of death. Though sin can still exact physical death, it cannot quench the spirit that lives because of righteousness.

In the gospel reading, Jesus addresses God as Father. Though the exclusively male characterisation of this title troubles many people today, it does reflect the intimate relationship that Jesus shared with God. God is further addressed as Lord of heaven and earth, a title that denotes universal sovereignty. Jesus then appeals to the wisdom tradition saying that the hidden things of God are not revealed to the worldly wise, but to those who are dependent on others and, consequently, receptive. Jesus' invitation is reminiscent of the invitation to submit oneself to Wisdom (see Sir 6:24; 24:19). He invites his hearers to take on his yoke, to accept the responsibilities that he will lay on them. If they do so, they too will be blessed with the revelation of God.

"I am gentle and humble of heart."

BREAKING NEWS - 7:30PM FRIDAY 7 JULY

Congratulations to our Chancellor of the Diocese of Broken Bay, and parishioner of St Patrick's Gosford, Kelly Paget!

Kelly has been chosen by the Pope as one of the 10 non-bishop members to represent Oceania at the upcoming Synod of Bishops.

"I have been quite overwhelmed by my selection as a non-bishop member for the XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, and the gravity of my appointment by Pope Francis has not been lost on my family or I. Being part of this synodal journey, which we have been walking since 2021 has already been an extraordinary privilege. I pray that I can continue to listen to the Spirit, and engage in the process being faithful to Christ's Mission for us," Kelly said following the announcement. <https://www.facebook.com/search/top?q=catholic%20diocese%20of%20broken%20bay>

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention

for July

For a Eucharistic life

We pray that Catholics may place the celebration of the Eucharist at the heart of their lives, transforming human relationships in a very deep way and opening to the encounter with God and all their brothers and sisters.

Saint Benedict (AD 480-547) is patron saint of students, as well as one of the patron saints of Europe. He has had an immense influence on our educational practice, and he had much to do with the shape of Western culture. He is known as the "father of Western monasticism," having established a Rule that would become the norm for innumerable Christian monks and nuns. The Rule revolves around five practices: Prayer, Work, Study, Hospitality and Renewal. Prayer is the foundation to the monastic life and calling, and can be a constant part of the life of non-monastics as well.

We could all pray to St Benedict for his intercession on behalf of all students especially those in year 12.

I AM GENTLE AND HUMBLE . . .”

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF. PS 47:10-11

Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

FIRST READING

ZEC 9:9-10

A reading from the prophet Zechariah
See how humbly your king comes to you!

The Lord says this:

'Rejoice heart and soul, daughter of Zion! Shout with gladness, daughter of Jerusalem! See now, your king comes to you; he is victorious, he is triumphant, humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

He will banish chariots from Ephraim and horses from Jerusalem; the bow of war will be banished.

He will proclaim peace for the nations.

His empire shall stretch from sea to sea, from the River to the ends of the earth.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 144:1-2. 8-11. 13-14. R. V.1

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

1. I will give you glory, O God my King, I will bless your name for ever. I will bless you day after day and praise your name for ever.

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

2. The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love. How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures.

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

3. All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing.

They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God.

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

4. The Lord is faithful in all his words and loving in all his deeds. The Lord supports all who fall and raises all who are bowed down.

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

SECOND READING

ROM 8:9.11-13

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

If by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body, you will live.

Your interests are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him, and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

SEE MT 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 11:25-30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

I am gentle and humble of heart.

Jesus exclaimed, 'I bless you, Father, Lord of heaven and of earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to mere children. Yes, Father, for that is what it pleased you to do. Everything has been entrusted to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, just as no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

'Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest. Shoulder my yoke and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Yes, my yoke is easy and my burden light.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

NEW EPISODE OF INTO THE DEEP OUT NOW! HIS YOKE IS EASY

WITH KELLY PAGET.

This week Jaimi is joined by Kelly Paget, Chancellor of Broken Bay Diocese. Jaimi and Kelly dive into this Sunday's Gospel, Matthew 11:25-30. They discuss the invitation Jesus is offering us in this reading, share how these words have personally offered them comfort and explore exactly what Jesus meant by 'my yoke is easy and my burden light.' They discuss the nature of discipleship, how loving Christ helps us love others well, and explore their own experiences with discipleship. Let's dive in!
