POPE FRANCIS SPEAKS ABOUT THE MIDDLE EAST WAR.

During the First General Congregation of the Synod at the Paul VI Hall at the Vatican, October 4, 2023. Vatican Media/Handout via REUTERS/File Photo Acquire Licensing Rights

VATICAN CITY, Oct 8 (Reuters) - Pope Francis called for an end to attacks and violence in Israel and Gaza on Sunday, saying terrorism and war would not solve any problems, but only bring further suffering and death to innocent people.

"I follow with apprehension and sorrow what is happening in Israel," the pope said in his weekly address to faithful in St. Peter's Square. "I express my solidarity with the relatives of the victims, and I pray for all those who are experiencing hours of terror and anguish," he said.

On Saturday, a multi-pronged attack by Palestinian gunmen on Israeli towns left at least 250 Israelis dead, with more than 300 Palestinians killed in Israel's retaliatory bombardment.

"Let the attacks and weapons cease, please, because it must be understood that terrorism and war bring no solutions, but only to the death and suffering of many innocent lives. War is a defeat, every war is a defeat. Let us pray for peace in Israel and Palestine," the pope said.

MOTHER TERESA REFLECTS ON WORKING TOWARD PEACE

The fruit of silence is prayer; the fruit of prayer is faith; the fruit of faith is love; the fruit of love is service; the fruit of service

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention

for October

For the Synod.

We pray for the Church, that she may adopt listening and dialogue as a lifestyle at every level, and allow herself to be guided by the Holy Spirit towards the peripheries of the world.

"WHOMSOEVER YOU FIND INVITE TO THE WEDDING."

is peace.

Let us not use bombs and guns to overcome the world. Let us use love and compassion. Peace begins with a smile. Smile five times a day at someone you don't really want to smile at; do it for peace. Let us radiate the peace of God and so light His light and extinguish in the world and in the hearts of all men all hatred and love for power.

Today, if we have no peace, it is because we have forgotten that we belong to each other-that man, that woman, that child is my brother or my sister. If everyone could see the image of God in his neighbour, do you think we would still need tanks and generals?

Peace and war begin at home. If we truly want peace in the world, let us begin by loving one another in our own families. If we want to spread joy, we need for every family to have joy.

Today, nations put too much effort and money into defending their borders. They know very little about the poverty and the suffering that exist in the countries where those bordering on destitution live. If they would only defend these defenceless people with food, shelter, and clothing, I think the world would be a happier place.

The poor must know that we love them, that they are wanted. They themselves have nothing to give but love. We are concerned with how to get this message of love and compassion across. We are trying to bring peace to the world through our work. But the work is the gift of God.

ROSARIES BEFORE WEEKEND MASSES

DURING OCTOBER

At St Patrick's church we will be saying the Rosary 20 minutes before every weekend Mass. [Saturday 4:40pm, Sunday 7:10 am, 9:10 am and 5:40 pm]

We will of course continue with our Rosary at 9:00 pm.

MEDIA COORDINATOR

TOM CROLL HAS DECIDED TO STEP ASIDE

After nearly 5 years in the role Tom has decided it's time to hang up his boots and take it easier. Tom will still be around the parish as he says it is his home. Please wish him well for the future.

FR GREG HAS APPOINTED JOHN FRENCH AS THE NEW MEDIA COORDINATOR.

We are delighted to have John join the team at St Patrick's. John is one of the brothers to Fr Sam French and Seminarian Mathew French.

John has photography, video and live streaming experience plus a lifetime involved in the Catholic church. Tom and John will work together over the coming weeks to ensure a smooth transition of the responsibility to John.

IGNITE CONFERENCE:

We had 22 youth representing St Pat's at the Ignite Conference hosted by our Diocese during the school holidays, and what a few days it was! Each day was filled with inspiring guest speakers, praise and worship rallies with Emmanuel Worship, adoration, mass and more. Meeting other young people who share the same faith and getting to encounter the love of Jesus in a new way, each of our youth played a unique role in making these days the incredible community times that they were. This year's conference focused on the theme of Wonder, and our youth were challenged to consider the wonder's God is working in their own lives, and open their hearts to His voice. A big thank you to each and every one of our attendees; your joy, openness and faith made Ignite what it was. Also a big thank you to our incredible youth leaders for your leadership in making the event possible for us, and to all those working hard behind the scenes! We'll see you next year Ignite!

FATIMA NIGHT

ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE MIRACLE OF THE SUN.

WE HAD A LARGE CROWD OF PARISHIONERS JOIN TOGETHER IN PRAYER ON FRIDAY NIGHT 13TH OCTOBER

There were comments from those who attended like, "wonderful", "one of the most prayerful nights I have ever been to!"

We had Mass followed by a candle light procession of the faithful up to the School Playground while everyone join in saying and singing the Rosary. It was a truly powerful evening that had a positive spiritual effect of all.

The Australian Contingent

Kelly Paget addressing the Synod

"WHOMSOEVER YOU FIND INVITE TO THE WEDDING."

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

PSALM 129:3-4

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand?

But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel.

FIRST READING

ISAIAH 25:6-10

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The Lord will prepare a feast and will wipe away the tears from every cheek.

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all people a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines, of food rich and juicy, of fine strained wines.

On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy Death for ever. The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek; he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so.

That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation; the Lord is the one in whom we hoped.

We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us; for the hand of the Lord rests on this mountain.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 22. R. v.6

(R.) I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

1. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose.

Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit.

(R.) I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

2. He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name.

If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear.

You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort.

(R.) I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

3. You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.

My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing.

(R.) I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.

In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

(R.) I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

SECOND READING

PHILIPPIANS 4:12-14. 19-20

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

I am able to do all things in him who strengthens me.

I know how to be poor and I know how to be rich too. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere: full stomach or empty stomach, poverty or plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can. Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

SEE EPHESIANS 1:17-18

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MATTHEW 22:1-10

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Whomsoever you find invite to the wedding.

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited" he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He dispatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out on to the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.'
