DISCIPLESHIP

LETTER FROM FR GREG

DEAR MEMBERS OF OUR PARISH COMMUNITY,

I am writing to extend my heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you for the unwavering support, both financial and through the dedication of countless volunteer hours, that you have provided to our parish. Your commitment and generosity have been nothing short of extraordinary, and I wanted to take a moment to express my deepest appreciation.

Over the years, our parish has been blessed with a strong sense of community and a shared commitment to our faith and the values we hold dear. This has been evident in the numerous ways in which you have come together to support our parish financially. Your contributions have enabled us to maintain our beautiful church, provide essential services to our members, and invest in outreach programs that extend our mission beyond our immediate community. The financial support you offer is the foundation upon which our parish is built, and we are profoundly grateful for your ongoing dedication.

Equally significant is the invaluable work of our volunteers. Our parish thrives not only because of financial contributions but also because of the time, energy, and passion that our volunteers pour into it. From those who serve in various ministries to those who organize events, your selfless efforts make our community a vibrant and welcoming place. You embody the spirit of service that is at the heart of our faith, and we are profoundly grateful for your dedication.

One of the most beautiful aspects of our parish is the sense of family and togetherness that it fosters. Through the years, I have witnessed the power of unity and the strength of our community. We come together to celebrate joys, support each other in times of hardship, and reach out to those in need. It is in these moments that the true essence of our parish shines specially during this year of discipleship. The collective kindness and compassion that you all demonstrate is a testament to the love that binds us as brothers and sisters in Christ.

I also want to acknowledge the countless hours that our volunteers dedicate to the numerous activities and initiatives within our parish, especially last weekend when we celebrated the Feast Day of St John Paul II. Your actions serve as an inspiration to all of us, reminding us of the importance of service and the difference we can make when we come together with a common purpose.

In a world that can sometimes seem divided and uncertain, our parish stands as a beacon of hope and unity. The support you provide, both financially and through volunteer work, is instrumental in maintaining this vital parish. It is through your sacrifices and dedication that our parish continues to flourish and fulfill its mission.

As we look toward the future, let us remain committed to the values that have brought us together. Let us continue to support each other, to nurture our spiritual growth, and to extend a helping hand to those in need. Our parish is not just a building; it is a community of people bound by faith, love, and service.

In closing, I want to express my deepest gratitude for all that you do. Your contributions, whether through financial support or volunteer work, are the lifeblood of our parish. Thank you for your unwavering commitment, your selflessness, and your love for our parish community. May God bless each one of you abundantly, and may our parish continue to be a source of inspiration and faith for all.

With heartfelt appreciation and blessings,

Fr Greg Skulski SDS

For NOVEMBER

For the Pope

We pray for the Holy Father; as he fulfills his mission, may he continue to accompany the flock entrusted to him, with the help of the Holy Spirit.

What is more consoling in this valley of tears than to be allowed into such an intimate relationship with God through meditation and contemplation.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf PSALM 104:3-4

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

FIRST READING

EXODUS 22:20-26

A reading from the book of Exodus

If you are harsh with the widow or the orphan, my anger will rage against you.

The Lord said to Moses, 'Tell the sons of Israel this, "You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans.

"If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him.

"If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 17:2-4. 47. 51. R. v.2

(R.) I love you, Lord, my strength.

1. I love you, Lord, my strength, my rock, my fortress, my saviour. My God is the rock where I take refuge; my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold.

The Lord is worthy of all praise:

when I call I am saved from my foes.

(R.) I love you, Lord, my strength.

2. Long life to the Lord, my rock!

Praised be the God who saves me.

He has given great victories to his king and shown his love for his anointed.

(R.) I love you, Lord, my strength.

SECOND READING

1 THESSALONIANS 1:5-10

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

You turned away from idols to serve God and await his Son.

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread - and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JOHN 14:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them and we will come to them.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MATTHEW 22:34-40

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

You shall love the Lord your God and your neighbour as yourself.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: you must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER FOR PEACE

LORD GOD OF PEACE, HEAR OUR PRAYER!

We have tried so many times and over so many years to resolve our conflicts by our own powers and by the force of our arms. How many moments of hostility and darkness have we experienced; how much blood has been shed; how many lives have been shattered; how many hopes have been buried... But our efforts have been in vain.

Now, Lord, come to our aid! Grant us peace, teach us peace; guide our steps in the way of peace. Open our eyes and our hearts and give us the courage to say: "Never again war!"; "With war everything is lost". Instil in our hearts the courage to take concrete steps to achieve peace.

Lord, God of Abraham, God of the Prophets, God of Love, you created us and you call us to live as brothers and sisters. Give us the strength daily to be instruments of peace; enable us to see everyone who crosses our path as our brother or sister. Make us sensitive to the plea of our citizens who entreat us to turn our weapons of war into implements of peace, our trepidation into confident trust, and our quarrelling into forgiveness.

Keep alive within us the flame of hope, so that with patience and perseverance we may opt for dialogue and reconciliation. In this way may peace triumph at last, and may the words "division", "hatred" and "war" be banished from the heart of every man and woman. Lord, defuse the violence of our tongues and our hands.

Renew our hearts and minds, so that the word which always brings us together will be "sister, and brother", and our way of life will always be that of: Shalom, Peace, Salaam!

Amen.
