COURAGE

EASTER MESSAGE

FROM OUR PARISH PRIEST, FR GREG

In this Year of Courage in our parish, we today celebrate Easter and rejoice that Jesus Christ has risen and is no longer among the dead. Where, then, can we find Him? Where will He be? Jesus is among us and we can now encounter the Risen Christ in many ways. Have your eyes been opened? Have your sins been forgiven? Have you returned home? Have you deepened your trust in God and in others during this Lenten season? Have those parts of you that were dead returned to life?

Our Lenten journey is complete and we now follow the Easter road that will lead us to see the Risen Lord in many new ways. Was there anything that was different for you during this Holy Week? Did you try or experience anything new? Is today a new day for you? Can this Easter fulfil your dreams and desires? We are commissioned to tell the story and to testify through our lives of the one who rose from the dead. Today is a new day - let us rejoice and be glad!!!! Let us go forth and proclaim, "Jesus is risen indeed!" Let us trust God in all the situations of our lives as Jesus trusted His Heavenly Father during Holy Week when he suffered, died and rose from the death for you and for me!

Our Savior, Jesus Christ, has conquered death and everything that diminishes the Divine life in us and amongst us. His resurrection from the dead is not simply a fact of history to be retold at Easter. It is a mystery to be lived everyday. As Christians, we are just as inspired by the presence of Jesus among us today as those who first saw the empty tomb.

Like them, we too know that Jesus is not found amongst the dead. He lives among us in the community gathered to celebrate the Eucharist. He lives in the Gospel that is proclaimed by word and deed. Through the Sacraments of the Church, he gathers disciples, heals the sick, reconciles sinners and calls us to service. In the Church's outreach, it is the hand of Jesus that lifts up the poor, feeds the hungry, shelters the homeless and visits the confined. In these ways, and many others, we give witness to the mystery of Jesus living among us. Indeed, in this way we become the Body of Christ for the world.

"HE IS RISEN!"

This great Easter mystery cannot be lived in isolation. It requires the bonds of community to support us and to challenge us. Every Sunday, the Church gathers as the Body of Christ at the table of God's Word and in the celebration of the Eucharist - the source and summit of our life in Christ. We gather every Sunday as active participants in the life of our Resurrected Lord.

Dear parishioners, wherever you may be on this Easter journey, I wish you blessings during this Easter season and every day. I pray that our Risen Lord will be revealed to you in the Word and the Sacraments, in the love of family, friends and the Church, in the witness of charity and holiness of life, and that this revelation helps you to renew your trust in God and in others around you!

God bless you

Fr Greg Skulski SDS

Parish Priest.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention

MARCH

For New Martyrs

Let us pray that those who risk their lives for the Gospel in various parts of the world might imbue the Church with their courage and missionary drive.

FR. Francis Jordan

Prayer is the coin minted in heaven which alone can purchase paradise. Ah, you will see in the hereafter what you could have obtained here below through prayer.

"HE IS RISEN!"

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf PSALM 138:18,5-6

I have risen, and I am with you still, alleluia.

You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia.

Too wonderful for me, this knowledge, alleluia, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 10:34. 37-43
A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

We have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead.

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 117:1-2. 16-17. 22-23. R. v.24

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

1. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.

Let the sons of Israel say: 'His love has no end.'

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

2. The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up.

I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds.

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes.

(R.) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

SECOND READING

COLOSSIANS 3:1-4

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

Look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is.

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

1 CORINTHIANS 5:7-8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ has become our paschal sacrifice; let us feast with joy in the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MARK 16:1-7

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified, has risen.

When the sabbath was over, Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices with which to go and anoint him. And very early in the morning on the first day of the week they went to the tomb, just as the sun was rising.

They had been saying to one another, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?' But when they looked they could see that the stone – which was very big – had already been rolled back. On entering the tomb they saw a young man in a white robe seated on the right hand side, and they were struck with amazement. But he said to them, 'There is no need for alarm. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified: he has risen, he is not here. See, here is the place where they laid him. But you must go and tell his disciples and Peter, "He is going before you to Galilee; it is there you will see him, just as he told you."'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

1 CORINTHIANS 5:7-8

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed, alleluia; therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia.
