THE DIVINE MERCY

HOW THE DEVOTION CAME TO BE:

The Divine Mercy devotion as we practice it today came from Saint Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun who lived in the early 20th century. She claimed that she had regular visions of Jesus and saints and that Jesus himself gave her the details of the devotion.

The devotion quickly spread throughout Poland and was a source of strength and inspiration during the terrible years of the war. By 1941, it spread around the world and, despite the war, had made it to the United States.

Polish priest and Saint Faustina's spiritual director Father Michael Sopocko was inspired to start a religious congregation related to the devotion.

Pope Pius XII blessed a Divine Mercy image in 1956 and allowed many bishops throughout the world to give their blessing to writings about the devotion.

Not everyone in the hierarchy approved of the devotion, however. Cardinal Alfredo Ottaviani, the head of the Holy Office (predecessor to the Congregation for the Doctrine of Faith - the Vatican's theological watchdog department), tried to persuade Pope Pius XII to sign a condemnation of Saint Faustina's works but was rebuffed.

On March 6, 1959, the Holy Office finally issued a document forbidding the use of "images and writings that promote devotion to Divine Mercy in the forms proposed by Sister Faustina."

The Polish people were crushed - including many of the clergy. One such person was Karol Wotyta (now Saint John Paul II), a "rising star" in the church's hierarchy.

Within a year of having his new position, and with approval from the Vatican, he started a fresh investigation into her works.

Wotyta discovered that the previous condemnation of Saint Faustina's works had been mostly a result of those at the Vatican reading her works not in their original Polish but via faulty French and Italian translations.

Then in April of 1978, after decades of work and prayer by the supporters of the Divine Mercy devotion, the Vatican reversed its previous ban on her works!

Catholics around the world rejoiced!

Just a few months later, the now-Cardinal Wotyta, who had led the effort, was made Pope John Paul II.

For The Role Of Women

Let us pray that the dignity and worth of women be recognized in every culture, and for an end to the discrimination they face in various parts of the world.

“JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU”

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

1 PETER 2:2

Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk, that in him you may grow to salvation, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 4:32-35

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

The whole group was united, heart and soul.

The whole group of believers was united, heart and soul; no one claimed for his own use anything that he had, as everything they owned was held in common.

The apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus with great power, and they were all given great respect.

None of their members was ever in want, as all those who owned land or houses would sell them, and bring the money from them, to present it to the apostles; it was then distributed to any members who might be in need.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 117:2-4. 15-18. 22-24. R. v.1

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

1. Let the sons of Israel say: 'His love has no end.'

Let the sons of Aaron say: 'His love has no end.'

Let those who fear the Lord say: 'His love has no end.'

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

2. The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up. I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds.

I was punished, I was punished by the Lord, but not doomed to die.

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes.

This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad.

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

SECOND READING

1 JOHN 5:1-6

A reading from the first letter of St John

Anyone begotten by God has already overcome the world.

Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten by God; and whoever loves the Father that begot him loves the child whom he begets.

We can be sure that we love God's children if we love God himself and do what he has commanded us; this is what loving God is – keeping his commandments; and his commandments are not difficult, because anyone who has been begotten by God has already overcome the world; this is the victory over the world – our faith.

Who can overcome the world?

Only the man who believes that Jesus is the Son of God; Jesus Christ who came by water and blood, not with water only, but with water and blood; with the Spirit as another witness – since the Spirit is the truth.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JOHN 20:29

Alleluia, alleluia!

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me; happy are those who have not seen me, but still believe!

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JOHN 20:19-31

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

After eight days, Jesus came in and stood among them.

In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.'

'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit.

For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. When the disciples said, 'We have seen the Lord', he answered, 'Unless I see the holes that the nails made in his hands and can put my finger into the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.' Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them. 'Peace be with you' he said. Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.' Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him:

'You believe because you can see me.

Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

There were many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in this book. These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Cf JOHN 20:27

Bring your hand and feel the place of the nails, and do not be unbelieving but believing, alleluia..
