Year of

COURAGE

FROM THE OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Vox POPULI

18 April 2024

Recent violent events in Sydney have been distressing and confronting for all of us.

What unfolded at Bondi Junction last Saturday was horrific. Six innocent people losing their lives during a seemingly ordinary afternoon shopping.

Many more critically and seriously injured. Hundreds traumatised. Please continue to keep all of them in your prayers along-with those shoppers, store staff, paramedics and police who showed extraordinary courage and complete selflessness in what we soon discovered were harrowing circumstances.

While we were all challenged and struggling to come to terms with these events, another shocking and violent attack unfolded on Monday evening in a church in southwestern Sydney.

Parishioners and those watching a live-stream saw Assyrian Bishop Mar Mari Emmanuel and Fr Isaac Royel attacked, repeatedly stabbed, at Christ the Good Shepherd Church in the suburb of Wakeley.

Bishop Mar Mari is recovering in hospital. A 16-year-old boy has been arrested and is also in hospital. Television images of the crowd that gathered outside the church and the ensuing violence were extremely confronting.

Our churches are sanctuaries; our religious services a place and time for prayer, not violence and fear.

It is in these extreme and challenging times we need to come together as a community, to support each other, to be respectful of everyone. That is showing true strength.

When division and violence threatens God's people, we can pray for one another. We are united when we unite in prayer.

"Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for you by my

"THE GOOD SHEPHERD LAYS DOWN HIS LIFE FOR HIS SHEEP."

Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them." (Matthew 18:19-20)

Let us ask our Holy Mother Mary, Patron of our Diocese, that through her heavenly intercession those whose lives have been taken from their loved ones may attain the joy of eternal life; that those who have been harmed may make a complete recovery; and that those who have been traumatised, angered or destructive find peace and unity.

A Prayer to Jesus The Good Shepherd

Faithful Shepherd, You are not a hireling who runs away at the sight of danger, but Your fidelity was tested and proved on the wood of the Cross. Accept the gift of our gratitude for Your marvelous care. Help us to hear and follow Your Voice.

Watchful Shepherd, Who protects the flock and searches tirelessly for those who wander from the fold, retrieve the lost and bring them home. Tend and heal their wounds.

Good Shepherd, Who lays down His Life for His sheep, nourish Your people with the Bread of Life, that we may reflect Your likeness and enjoy the spring of Living Water that never ends.

Amen.

ANZAC DAY MASS AT 9:00AM

THURSDAY, 25TH APRIL

On ANZAC Day we honour the memories of the men and women who sacrificed their own freedom and dreams in the defence of a society that is good and just.

This day in April is a time to pause and reflect on those young people, whose time on earth was senselessly short, yet their actions will endure for all posterity.

As Christians we look to the resurrection of Jesus for light on the ultimate meaning of that heroism in the building up of the kingdom and pray for deliverance from suffering in the hope that God "will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more" (Revelation 21:4).

As conflict continues in places such as Ukraine and the Middle-East, let us use ANZAC Day to spend some time reflecting on the horror of what could happen if we were to walk away from peace.

VIGIL MINISTERS AND VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We have need for at least one more commentator and audio-visual presenter, as well as more readers. Please speak with Father or contact the office if you would like to help out.

A LITTLE HOUSEKEEPING

BULLETINS

Could we please ask that any Bulletins taken to the pews be returned to the receptacle in the foyer after Mass. Thank you for your compliance to keep our church a clean environment.

CANDLE STAND CLEANING

We take for granted the work of the ladies who clean our candle stands leaving them shining and new, but it should be acknowledged as where we would be without them. Currently, though, one of our ladies, Anna Neale, has had to step back from the role and we thank her for her stewardship. Is there anyone who would like to assist, twice a month? If you are interested in helping, please contact the office.

AN UPDATE ON FR GREG'S MOTHER

Please continue to keep Fr Greg's mother Jadwiga and his family in your prayers as the family received bad news after her current health tests. Her condition has worsened and the family is not given much hope. Please pray through the intercession of St John Paul II and Blessed Francis Jordan for her healing.

“THE GOOD SHEPHERD LAYS DOWN HIS LIFE FOR HIS SHEEP.”

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf PSALM 32:5-6

The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 4:8-12

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

This is the only name by which we can be saved.

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Peter said: 'Rulers of the people, and elders! If you are questioning us today about an act of kindness to a cripple, and asking us how he was healed, then I am glad to tell you all, and would indeed be glad to tell the whole people of Israel, that it was by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, the one you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by this name and by no other that this man is able to stand up perfectly healthy, here in your presence, today. This is the stone rejected by you the builders, but which has proved to be the keystone. For of all the names in the world given to men, this is the only one by which we can be saved.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 117:1. 8-9. 21-23. 26. 28-29. R. v.22

(R.) The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.

1. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end. It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in men: it is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in princes.

(R.) The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.

2. I will thank you for you have given answer and you are my saviour. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone. This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes.

(R.) The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.

3. Blessed in the name of the Lord is he who comes. We bless you from the house of the Lord; I will thank you for you have given answer and you are my saviour. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good; for his love has no end.

(R.) The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.

SECOND READING

1 JOHN 3:1-2

A reading from the first letter of St John

We shall see God as he is. Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JOHN 10:14

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JOHN 10:11-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

The good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep. Jesus said: 'I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd is one who lays down his life for his sheep. The hired man, since he is not the shepherd and the sheep do not belong to him, abandons the sheep and runs away as soon as he sees a wolf coming, and then the wolf attacks and scatters the sheep; this is because he is only a hired man and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd; I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for my sheep. And there are other sheep I have that are not of this fold, and these I have to lead as well. They too will listen to my voice, and there will be only one flock and one shepherd. The Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me; I lay it down of my own free will, and as it is in my power to lay it down, so it is in my power to take it up again; and this is the command I have been given by my Father.'

I am the good shepherd; I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for my sheep.

And there are other sheep I have that are not of this fold, and these I have to lead as well.

They too will listen to my voice, and there will be only one flock and one shepherd.

The Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again.

No one takes it from me; I lay it down of my own free will, and as it is in my power to lay it down, so it is in my power to take it up again; and this is the command I have been given by my Father.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

The Good Shepherd has risen, who laid down his life for his sheep and willingly died for his flock, alleluia.
