NEW TESTAMENT COMMENTARY

BY MARY COLOE PBVM

"Make your home in me."

Acts 9:26-31; John 15:1-8

'I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser.'

'Make your home in me as I make mine in you.' These words express the profound insight of this Gospel that God dwells in us as we dwell in God. God is at home in our living and we have our home within the life of God. I struggle to find words for this truth and can only speak of a famous Icon of the Trinity where there are three figures sitting at a table with an empty space in the foreground. The icon draws the viewer into this space, inviting the viewer to sit at this table, to join the communion and become part of this divine household.

Just as I use this ancient Russian Icon as an image of our reciprocal dwelling in God, so Jesus gives his disciples an image they would be familiar with, the image of the vine. A vine is one entity. While there may be times when it is technically more accurate to speak of the vine-stock and the vine branches as separate, usually they are regarded as one. The vine has no reality apart from its interwoven branches. The image Jesus offers speaks of the profound intimacy and reciprocity God desires with us. 'I am the vine, you are the branches.'

Just as a vine needs to be cared for by the vine-dresser, being 'at home' with another requires time and tending. Home-making is the task of a lifetime. May we attend to the God who is at home with us and may we find our home within the loving embrace of God.

It is important to recognise that these verses from John are part of the Last Discourse just prior to the Johannine passion. The Discourse functions to console the disciples on the eve of Jesus' departure to the Father, and it also interprets the Johannine meaning of the Cross, which is very different to the Synoptics. For John, the cross was a means of drawing disciples into Jesus' own relationship with the Father. On the cross,

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention

APRIL

For The Role Of Women

Let us pray that the dignity and worth of women be recognized in every culture, and for an end to the discrimination they face in various parts of the world.

"ALL WHO LIVE IN ME, AND I IN THEM, BEAR MUCH FRUIT."

Jesus changes the relationship between disciples and himself when he says to the disciple, 'behold your mother'. If the disciple now has the same mother as Jesus, then disciples are now 'brothers and sisters of Jesus,' (see 20:17) and therefore children of God. It is through the disciples' relationship with Jesus, taking on his 'sonships' that disciples are reborn as God's children. The image of the vine is one way of expressing the intimacy between disciples and Jesus and disciples in Jesus with the Father.

In the readings today, notice the language of 'brothers' (Acts) and 'children' (1 John). We can take this language for granted but it expresses the faith of the early disciples of Jesus. They are now in a new relationship with Jesus and with God. The Resurrection message in John is, 'Go to my brothers and sisters and tell them, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God."' (20:17) This became the spiritual experience of the early believers who looked on each other as 'brothers and sisters' and 'children' of God.

These readings in the weeks after Easter offer an interpretation of the meaning of the Passion and how this impacted on the lives of the believers. For them, the death and resurrection was not just something that happened to Jesus; it also impacted on their own lives. They were changed. The Christian message was never meant to be an ideology, a set of belief statements or moral laws; it was a whole new way of seeing oneself, one's world and one's relationship with God and others. In the 1st Epistle of John, the impact of Easter is expressed as a commitment to love for Easter revealed the depths of God's love.

FIRST READING

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 9:26-31

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

He explained how the Lord appeared to Saul and spoke to him on his journey. When Saul got to Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him: they could not believe he was really a disciple. Barnabas, however, took charge of him, introduced him to the apostles, and explained how the Lord had appeared to Saul and spoken to him on his journey, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. Saul now started to go round with them in Jerusalem, preaching fearlessly in the name of the Lord. But after he had spoken to the Hellenists, and argued with them, they became determined to kill him. When the brothers knew, they took him to Caesarea, and sent him off from there to Tarsus. The churches throughout Judaea, Galilee and Samaria were now left in peace, building themselves up, living in the fear of the Lord, and filled with the consolation of the Holy Spirit.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 21:26-28. 30-32. R. v.26

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

1. My vows I will pay before those who fear him.

The poor shall eat and shall have their fill.
They shall praise the Lord, those who seek him.

May their hearts live for ever and ever!

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

2. All the earth shall remember and return to the Lord, all families of the nations worship before him.

They shall worship him, all the mighty of the earth; before him shall bow all who go down to the dust.

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

3. And my soul shall live for him, my children serve him.

They shall tell of the Lord to generations yet to come, declare his faithfulness to peoples yet unborn: 'These things the Lord has done.'

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

SECOND READING

1 JOHN 3:18-24

A reading from the first letter of St John

His commandments are these: that we believe and that we love one another.

My children, our love is not to be just words or mere talk, but something real and active; only by this can we be certain that we are the children of the truth and be able to quieten our conscience in his presence, whatever accusations it may raise against us, because God is greater than our conscience and he knows everything.

My dear people, if we cannot be condemned by our own conscience, we need not be afraid in God's presence, and whatever we ask him, we shall receive, because we keep his commandments and live the kind of life that he wants.

His commandments are these: that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and that we love one another as he told us to.

Whoever keeps his commandments lives in God and God lives in him.

We know that he lives in us by the Spirit that he has given us.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JOHN 15:4-5

Alleluia, alleluia!

Live in me and let me live in you, says the Lord; my branches bear much fruit.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JOHN 15:1-8

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

All who live in me, and I in them, bear much fruit.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser.

Every branch in me that bears no fruit he cuts away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes to make it bear even more.

You are pruned already, by means of the word that I have spoken to you.

Make your home in me, as I make mine in you.

As a branch cannot bear fruit all by itself, but must remain part of the vine, neither can you unless you remain in me.

I am the vine, you are the branches.

Whoever remains in me, with me in him, bears fruit in plenty; for cut off from me you can do nothing.

Anyone who does not remain in me is like a branch that has been thrown away – he withers; these branches are collected and thrown on the fire, and they are burnt.

If you remain in me and my words remain in you, you may ask what you will and you shall get it.

It is to the glory of my Father that you should bear much fruit, and then you will be my disciples.'
