SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY BRENDAN BYRNE SJ

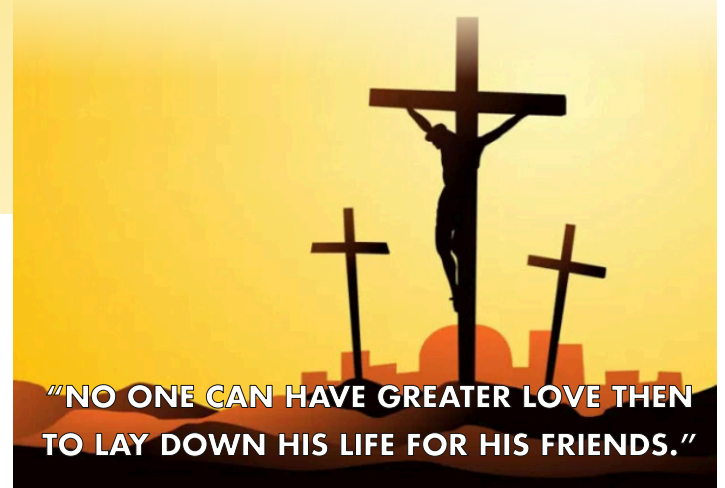

The scriptural offerings for today tap some of the richest veins of Johannine literature. A single phrase in the Gospel sums it up: "Remain in my love."

The First Reading continues selections from the early chapters of Acts (10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48). In this rather truncated excerpt from Peter's interaction with the Roman centurion Cornelius, we find the early Church inching its way towards a new understanding of its identity and mission. It is not simply to be a renewal movement within Judaism but an instrument for the gathering of all nations into one worldwide People of God. As so often in Acts, the Holy Spirit is well 'out in front' of community understanding. The community of believers, hitherto a movement within Judaism, has to catch up with the wider outreach of the Spirit. It does in the person of Peter, who is describing here the deeply moving experiences in connection with Cornelius that have led him, beyond himself and his previous understanding, to grasp the new reality to which the whole Church is being called.

The two remaining readings, from the Johannine literature, bring out the centrality of love as the supreme attribute of God. The Second Reading, 1 John 4:7-10, states it baldly: 'God is love.' The 'logic' in this letter often tends to run backwards and has to be unpacked. The statement comes as a foundation for an exhortation to believers to love one another. When believers truly love another, this is a sure sign that they have been drawn into and live within the life of God, which is love. We know this because we experience God in the divine outreach of love shown in the sending of the Son to be our rescue from sin.

Towards the end the writer makes an important clarification: what is being talked about is not our love for God but God's love for us. Thus any ability to love on the part of believers is simply the extension of a great 'chain' of love stemming ultimately from the love of the Father. If our lives are caught up in this great chain, then we truly 'know' God and know that we have been 'begotten' by God. We are living in the community of love that is the 'family' of God.

The same 'chain' of love is central to the exhortation we hear in the Gospel. What Jesus is essentially trying to communicate to the disciples as he continues his discourse at the Last Supper is a sense of his own experience of being loved by the Father. He loves them as he has been loved by the Father in order to pass on to them the 'joy' that he experiences in that divine love. There is no joy like that of suddenly discovering we are loved by someone from whom we would very much like to be loved but never dreamed that being loved by that person would ever be a possibility, let alone something that would one day come about. Such love – and the resultant joy in its discovery – is pure gift. Jesus is here insisting that the rationale of his whole life and mission is that human beings should share the joy (of being loved by God) that is his as eternal Son of the Father (cf. John 1:18).

The 'commandments' that the disciples are urged to 'keep' all reduce, in the Fourth Gospel, to the commandment to love the brothers and sisters. Keeping this essential commandment is what is meant by the exhortation: 'Remain in my love.' The Greek word menain, translated 'remain,' has wide resonances in this Gospel, embracing the idea of 'dwell' as well as 'remain'. Thus the fullest sense of the command here is 'come to live, and remain living, within my love'. The thought is close to that we have seen in the First Reading: believers are to realise that they are caught up within the 'current' of a divine communion of love. They should 'remain' within that current by allowing divine love to flow through them to one another.

The second half of the reading brings out the sacrificial quality of the love in question. The love that Christ is passing on to the disciples involved laying down his life for them as his 'friends'. Despite the vast difference between ordinary human beings and Christ as Son of God, the disciples can think of themselves as his 'friends' rather than servants for two reasons. First, he has made the supreme gesture of friendship by laying down his life for them. Second, he has shared with them the intimacy he enjoys with the Father. They are 'friends' not through their choice of him but because he has chosen them – all part of a vast divine design to communicate God's love (= 'bear fruit') to the world.

MAY - THE MONTH DEDICATED TO OUR MOTHER MARY

May will always be a special month, the month that the Church dedicates to the Blessed Virgin Mary, mother of God and our mother.

The month is just the right time to renew the love that all of us who are baptised ought to profess for the woman whom God chose — from eternity — to be the earthly mother of his Son, Jesus Christ, the word made flesh for the redemption of the human race.

How can we not turn our gaze toward her, who looks at us with sweetness and compassion. It's no coincidence that the Son of God wanted to grow up in the warmth of a mother like Mary and receive her loving care.

MAY 2024 APPEAL

This weekend we will launch our Diocesan-wide Pastoral Works Broken Bay (PWBB) May Appeal.

PWBB supports two key charitable works in the Diocese – the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine or CCD and our Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care Program.

Asking for donations is never taken for granted, especially in challenging economic times. However, parishioners have been extremely generous in supporting the charitable works of the Diocese.

Our Pastoral Works appeal connects everyone to the mission of Jesus Christ in our Diocese. Every gift or donation brings comfort, friendship, or security, and often opens the doorway to a faith-filled life.

Our new Donation envelopes have arrived and we are delivering them to parishes now. These will include a QR code that will take you directly to a Donation page on the Diocesan website.

Donations can be made at any time, not only during May. The PWBB May appeal is the last one for the financial year 2023/2024 and all donations over $2 are tax deductible.

FIRST READING

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 10:25-26. 34-35. 44-48

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

The gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out upon the gentiles also.

As Peter reached the house Cornelius went out to meet him, knelt at his feet and prostrated himself. But Peter helped him up. ‘Stand up,’ he said, ‘I am only a man after all!’

Then Peter addressed them: ‘The truth I have now come to realise’ he said, ‘is that God does not have favourites, but that anybody of any nationality who fears God and does what is right is acceptable to him.’ While Peter was still speaking the Holy Spirit came down on all the listeners. Jewish believers who had accompanied Peter were all astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit should be poured out on the pagans too, since they could hear them speaking strange languages and proclaiming the greatness of God. Peter himself then said, ‘Could anyone refuse the water of baptism to these people, now they have received the Holy Spirit just as much as we have?’ He then gave orders for them to be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ. Afterwards they begged him to stay on for some days.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 97:1-4. R. SEE V.2

(R.) The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

1. Sing a new song to the Lord for he has worked wonders.

His right hand and his holy arm have brought salvation.

(R.) The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

2. The Lord has made known his salvation; has shown his justice to the nations.

He has remembered his truth and love for the house of Israel.

(R.) The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

3. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Shout to the Lord all the earth, ring out your joy.

(R.) The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

SECOND READING

1 JOHN 4:7-10

A reading from the first letter of St John

God is love.

My dear people, let us love one another since love comes from God and everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God.

Anyone who fails to love can never have known God, because God is love.

God’s love for us was revealed when God sent into the world his only Son so that we could have life through him; this is the love I mean: not our love for God, but God’s love for us when he sent his Son to be the sacrifice that takes our sins away.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JOHN 14:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them and we will come to them.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JOHN 15:9-17

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

No one can have greater love than to lay down his life for his friends.

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you.

Remain in my love.

If you keep my commandments you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and remain in his love.

I have told you this so that my own joy may be in you and your joy be complete.

This is my commandment:

love one another, as I have loved you.

A man can have no greater love than to lay down his life for his friends.

You are my friends, if you do what I command you, I shall not call you servants any more, because a servant does not know his master’s business; I call you friends, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.

You did not choose me, no, I chose you; and I commissioned you to go out and to bear fruit, fruit that will last; and then the Father will give you anything you ask him in my name.

What I command you is to love one another.’

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

JOHN 14:15-16

If you love me, keep my commandments, says the Lord, and I will ask the Father and he will send you another Paraclete, to abide with you for ever, alleluia.
