Year of JOY

The Conclave begins...

The Papal conclave to elect the next pope will begin on May 7th in the Vatican's Sistine Chapel.

The cardinals will celebrate the Mass for the Election of the Roman Pontiff in St Peter's Basilica in the morning of Wednesday May 7th (Rome time) before processing into the Sistine Chapel late that afternoon-early evening.

BREAKING

The Conclave begins
on May 7th
Let us unite in prayer

There are 135 cardinals under the age of 80 who are eligible to vote in a papal election.

Australia has the youngest member of the conclave, 45-year old Ukrainian-born Cardinal Mykola Bychok of the Ukrainian Eparchy of Sts Peter and Paul of Melbourne.

Cardinals cast their votes for the election of the Pope through a secret ballot. By tradition and law this is held in the Sistine Chapel within the Vatican Apostolic Palace, which was closed to the public on Monday and remains completely sealed off until the election is completed.

Votes are taken once or twice in a morning session and once or twice in an afternoon session. A two-thirds majority of the electors present is required to elect a Pope.

After the votes are counted, all ballots are burned. If the ballot was inconclusive, a chimney positioned over the Sistine Chapel and visible from St Peter's Square, emits black smoke. If a Pope is elected, white smoke is emitted.

Once the Cardinals have elected a new Pope, the Dean of the College, Cardinal Giovanni Battista Re, asks for the elected candidate's consent - "Do you accept your canonical election as Supreme Pontiff?"

Upon receiving consent, he then asks: "What name do you wish to be called?"

It is from this moment the newly-elected Pope, leader of the world's 1.4 billion Catholics, acquires full and supreme authority over the universal church.

FR. Francis Jordan

Through religion everything is enveloped in a light that is at once clear and mystical. This is exactly what our human spirit needs.

NOVENA FOR THE INTENTION OF THE COLLEGE OF CARDINALS

Of the Holy Roman Church gathered in conclave to elect the Holy Father.

I kneel before You, Immaculate Virgin, Mother of God of Guadalupe, compassionate Mother of all who love You, call upon You, seek You, and place their trust in You. I pray for the Church in this time of great trial and danger. Just as in 1531 You came to the aid of the Church in Tepeyac, intercede now for the College of Cardinals gathered in Rome to elect the successor of Saint Peter, the Vicar of Christ, the Shepherd of the universal Church. In this turbulent time for the Church and the world, obtain from Your Divine Son the grace that the Cardinals of the Holy Roman Church, His Mystical Body, may humbly submit to the inspirations of the Holy Spirit.

Through Your intercession, may they choose the most worthy man to become the Vicar of Christ on earth.

With You, I place all my trust in Him who is our only help and salvation. Amen.

Heart of Jesus, salvation of those who trust in You, have mercy on us!

Mother of God of Guadalupe, Virgin Mother of God and Mother of Divine Grace, pray for us!

Cardinal Raymond Leo Burke

PWBB APEAL

Dear Friends, We need your generosity and support!

Our Diocese of Broken Bay will be launching at the start of May the Pastoral Works (PWBB) May Appeal. The Appeal supports various charities in our Diocesan community, particularly the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) and the Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care Program. PWBB also supports St Lucy's School and St Edmund's College for students with disabilities, and the Ephpheta Centre supports the deaf community. This financial year, 2025/2026, Gosford Parish has been asked to contribute to the charity works of our Diocese with $46,168. These ministries need our community's generosity as they get little or no Government funding. Please consider donating to help us reach this year's goal. You can donate at any time, not only during May or November.

ALL DONATIONS OVER $2 ARE TAX DEDUCTIBLE!

MAY APPEAL

"Your generosity with our Pastoral Works appeal helps us go further and wider in helping our community of Broken Bay, and more deeply connect us to our vision and the Mission of Jesus Christ. I am deeply grateful for your support."

OUR LADY OF FATIMA - 108 YEARS ON

The story begins in the village of Fatima, Portugal, on May 13, 1917. On that fateful day near that tiny village, The Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, appeared to three young peasant children: Francisco, Jacinta, and Lucia; ages 10, 9 and 7. As was the custom, these youngsters were tending their family's sheep when "a Lady all in white, more brilliant than the sun... indescribably beautiful," standing above a bush, appeared to the youngsters.

From May through October 1917, the Lady appeared and spoke to the children on the 13th day of each month.

News of these apparitions began to spread throughout the region. The children recounted that the Virgin told them that God had sent her with a message for every man, woman, and child living in the century. She promised that God would grant peace to the entire world if Her requests for prayer, reparation and consecration were heard and obeyed. While many people believed the children had actually seen the Virgin, many others discounted the children's story, subjecting them to much derision and ridicule. When it became known the Lady would visit the children for the last time on October 13, 1917, and had promised a sign that would convince the world she had appeared, many pilgrims made plans to attend.

Though the region had been subjected to three days of torrential downpour, nearly 70,000 people journeyed through the heavy rain and mud to the place of the previous apparitions to witness the predicted miracle. Many were scornful, unbelievers whose sole intent was to discredit the children's stories.

Suddenly the "clouds separated...and the sun appeared between them in the clear blue, like a disk of white fire." The people could look at the sun without blinking and while they gazed upward, the huge ball began to "dance". The huge fireball whirled rapidly with dizzy and sickening speed, flinging out all sorts of brilliant colors that reflected on the faces of the crowds. The fiery ball continued to gyrate in this manner three times, then seemed to tremble and shudder, and plunge in a mighty zigzag course toward the earth. The crowd was terrified, fearing this was the end of the world.

However, the sun reversed course and, retracing its zigzagging course, returned to its normal place in the heavens. All of this transpired in approximately ten minutes. After realizing they were not doomed, the crowd began ecstatically laughing, crying, shouting and weeping. Many discovered their previously drenched clothing to be perfectly dry.

GROTTO NEARLY COMPLETE

Our Parish Grotto is coming along beautifully. Join Bishop George, Father Greg & Father Bronek on the 10th of May during the celebration at the 5pm Mass, for the Blessing of the Grotto, as we entrust our Parish & School community to the intercession of Our Lady of Fatima.

NATIONAL FAMILIES WEEK

National Families Week will be held between 12–18 May this year with the theme being "Lending a hand to thrive: supporting each other", across Australia we are invited to come together in celebration of family life and community. It's a time to honour the unique role families play in nurturing, teaching, and caring for one another—especially children and the vulnerable.

This year's theme encourages us to reflect on the strength of connection, care, and resilience. As a community, we also reaffirm our commitment to creating safe, welcoming spaces where every person—especially children—is respected, protected, and valued.

Coinciding with the UN International Day of Families on 15 May, this week reminds us of the importance of safeguarding and supporting families in our communities.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF PSALM 65:1-2

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth; O sing to the glory of his name. O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 5:27-32. 40-41

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

The high priest demanded an explanation of the apostles. 'We gave you a formal warning,' he said 'not to preach in this name, and what have you done? You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and seem determined to fix the guilt of this man's death on us.' In reply Peter and the apostles said, 'Obedience to God comes before obedience to men; it was the God of our ancestors who raised up Jesus, but it was you who had him executed by hanging on a tree. By his own right hand God has now raised him up to be leader and saviour, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins through him to Israel. We are witnesses to all this, we and the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.' They warned the apostles not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. And so they left the presence of the Sanhedrin glad to have had the honour of suffering humiliation for the sake of the name.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 29:2. 4-6. 11-13. R. v.2

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

1. I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave.

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

2. Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts but a moment; his favour through life. At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

3. The Lord listened and had pity. The Lord came to my help. For me you have changed my mourning into dancing; O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever.

(R.) I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

SECOND READING

REVELATION 5:11-14

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

In my vision, I, John, heard the sound of an immense number of angels gathered round the throne and the animals and the elders; there were ten thousand times ten thousand of them and thousands upon thousands, shouting, 'The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and blessing.' Then I heard all the living things in creation – everything that lives in the air, and on the ground, and under the ground, and in the sea, crying, 'To the One who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb, be all praise, honour, glory and power, for ever and ever.' And the four animals said, 'Amen'; and the elders prostrated themselves to worship.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Christ is risen, the Lord of all creation; he has shown pity on all people.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL
ACCORDING TO JOHN

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples. It was by the Sea of Tiberias, and it happened like this: Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said, 'I'm going fishing.' They replied, 'We'll come with you.' They went out and got into the boat but caught nothing that night.

It was light by now and there stood Jesus on the shore, though the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus. Jesus called out, 'Have you caught anything, friends?' And when they answered, 'No', he said, 'Throw the net out to starboard and you'll find something.' So they dropped the net, and there were so many fish that they could not haul it in. The disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord.' At these words 'It is the Lord,' Simon Peter, who had practically nothing on, wrapped his cloak round him and jumped into the water. The other disciples came on in the boat, towing the net and the fish; they were only about a hundred yards from land.

As soon as they came ashore they saw that there was some bread there, and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you have just caught.' Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, 'Who are you?'; they knew quite well it was the Lord. Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

LUKE 24:35

The disciples recognized the Lord Jesus in the breaking of the bread, alleluia.
