NEW TESTAMENT COMMENTARY BY MARY COLOE

I AM SENDING YOU WHAT THE FATHER HAS PROMISED.

Acts 1:1-11; Hebrews 9:24-28; 10:19-23; Luke 24:46-53

God's power

Luke is the only Gospel writer to give a forty-day time frame for the events of Easter:

Stage 1. The risen Jesus is present with his disciples for forty days, confirming their faith and preparing them for their future mission. This time is followed by Jesus' return to his Father.

Stage 2. Ten days later, the Spirit comes upon the disciples.

You might also notice that Luke in fact gives us two different times for Jesus' Ascension. In Luke 24, Jesus gathers his disciples on the same day as the Resurrection. All the events in Luke 24 are situated on the first day of the week. Then, in the Acts of the Apostles, also written by Luke, he provides a longer time-frame that separates Easter, the Ascension, Pentecost.

This fifty day time frame, found in the Acts, may well be governed by the Jewish liturgical calendar where the Feast of Pentecost or 'First Fruits' occurs fifty days after Passover (Easter). Within the Jewish Liturgy, Pentecost/First Fruits celebrates the arrival of the Israelites at Mt Sinai, following their escape from Egypt and crossing the Sea, which was celebrated at Passover.

The Ascension celebrates Jesus returning to God and his glorification at God's right hand. It is a further dimension of the Easter experience that Jesus has triumphed over evil and death, and his humanity is now within the Godhead. The Ascension also celebrates an experience of the early Christian communities. There was a time when they knew Jesus of Nazareth. He lived among them and they were attracted by his vision of God's reign. Then, following his death, there were brief moments of his presence. But there came a time when even these Risen appearances finished. The time of the Jesus bound by human history had come to an end.

And yet, when they gathered to share their memories and to celebrate the Lord's Supper, they knew that he was still a presence in their midst. In fact, in the absence of Jesus of Nazareth, they had a new certainty of faith and an enthusiasm for spreading the Gospel message. This empowering and enlivening presence they called the Spirit, drawing on the words of their Jewish Scriptures that described the power of God's Spirit in people's lives. The Greek word for the power of the Spirit is dunamis, from where we get words such as 'dynamic' and 'dynamite'.

With the new experience of the Spirit as a power and presence in their lives, Jesus' return to his Father is not a cause of grief but one of joy, for now people of all times can share the experience of those first disciples. The Risen Jesus lives on with us. Alleluia.

The reading from Hebrews moves from the Greek image of the exaltation in heaven, to the Jewish image of Jesus now present with God in the Temple's inner sanctuary, the Holy of Holies. The anonymous author likens Jesus' ascension into Heaven, to the Jewish High Priest entering once every year into the Holy of Holies to sprinkle the blood from the lamb sacrificed for atonement from sin. This letter's theology is that through Christ's death, sin has been vanquished so that now there is no need for further sacrifices. Because of him, we now have the right/privilege of coming into God's presence. The curtain across the entrance to the Holy of Holies has now been permanently opened, giving all believers access to God. These images of sacrifice, sprinkling blood, and the Temple curtain would have been familiar to the audience of this letter. Speaking to Christians today such images need to be treated carefully. The line of this letter that perhaps could be developed is, through Jesus, we have the right to enter the sanctuary – or to enter God's presence.

The readings, using different images, all profess a theology of God's ongoing presence with us now – that Jesus' ascension does not mark an end of a relationship, but rather, models our own open access to God.

Blessed Francis Jordan

Even when enemies attack you with terrible fury and threaten to devour you, fear not! For God will bind and limit them. Lift your heart and all your thoughts to God, who alone is your help!

PILGRIMS OF HOPE - FOLLOWING IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF SAINT JOHN PAUL II

PILGRIMS OF HOPE - Day 7 -

On the seventh day of the pilgrimage, pilgrims headed to Zakopane (Krzeptówki) to the Shrine of Our Lady of Fatima, which was built as a votive for life saving of St John Paul II from an assassination attempt in 1981.

PILGRIMS OF HOPE - DAY 8 - Day 8 began in the small town of Wadowice, Saint John Paul II's birthplace. This peaceful town, nestled in southern Poland, is where Karol Wojtyła — the future Pope — spent his childhood and youth. Walking through the museum located in his family home, the pilgrims were able to trace his early years, learning about his family, his school life, his love for the theatre and sports, and the deep faith that shaped his future path.

They also visited the church where he was baptized, the Basilica of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Standing at the baptismal font where the future pope first received the sacrament that began his journey of faith was a powerful and humbling experience. After a very long day of spiritual experience, wonderful lessons of history, faith and hospitality. they left beautiful Poland and arrived safely to their next destination in Italy.

PILGRIM OF HOPE - DAY 9 - Was a deeply moving and unforgettable day for the entire group. They began the morning by going together to St. Peter's Square for the Regina Caeli prayer with Pope Leo XIV. The atmosphere was filled with emotion, reverence, and joy as thousands of faithful gathered in unity. Hearing the Holy Father speak and bless the crowd was a powerful spiritual moment that touched them all a truly a once-in-a-lifetime experience to be part of such a beautiful tradition in the heart of the Church.

Some of the pilgrims were especially blessed with the incredible opportunity to see Pope Leo XIV up close. Their joy was indescribable, and it added a special grace to the pilgrimage.

PILGRIMS OF HOPE - DAY 10 - The day marked a deeply moving and spiritually enriching day as they undertook the Walk of Hope during this Jubilee Year. The pilgrimage began at the heart of the Catholic faith — the magnificent Basilica of St. Peter. With reverence and anticipation, they passed through the Holy Door, a powerful symbol of mercy and grace, and entered the largest Catholic Church in the world. There, in silent prayer, they gathered at the tomb of St. Peter, the first pope and cornerstone of the Church. It was a moment of connection with their spiritual roots and a powerful reminder of the enduring mission of the Church. While inside the basilica, they also paused to pray at the tomb of St. John Paul II, whose life and teachings have inspired generations of faithful. The atmosphere was solemn and awe-inspiring, deepening their sense of communion with the saints and the universal Church. Following the visit, they crossed St. Peter's Square to the Salvatorian Mother House, situated just in front of the basilica. There, they were warmly welcomed and introduced to the history of the Salvatorian community. They learned about their founder, Blessed Francis Jordan, and their mission of making the Savior known to all people. A particularly emotional moment was spent in prayer at the tomb of Blessed Francis Jordan — a man of deep faith and vision. This quiet time allowed them to reflect on their own vocations and the call to holiness in everyday life.

THE MONTH OF JUNE DEDICATED TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

The month of June is traditionally dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus a profound devotion rooted in the immense love Christ has for humanity. This devotion invites us to contemplate the heart of Jesus, pierced for our sins, yet overflowing with mercy, compassion, and grace.

The image of the Sacred Heart reminds us that Jesus is not distant or indifferent to our struggles. His heart burns with love for each of us personally. In a world often marked by indifference, hurt, and division, turning to the Sacred Heart calls us back to the source of true peace and healing. It is an invitation to rest in His love and to make our hearts more like His gentle, patient, and open to all.

June becomes a sacred time to renew our relationship with Christ. Through prayer, acts of reparation, and receiving the Eucharist, we enter into the mystery of His love. The First Friday devotion, especially during this month, deepens our union with Him and calls us to intercede for a world in need of healing.

Devotion to the Sacred Heart also urges us toward action. To love as Jesus loves means to serve with humility, to forgive without hesitation, and to extend mercy even when it is difficult. As we gaze upon His wounded heart, we are reminded of the cost of love and the power it has to transform.

Let this June be a time to draw near to the heart of Christ. May we offer Him our joys and sorrows, our hopes and fears. In doing so, we find strength not only for ourselves but also to share His love with a world thirsting for it. "Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in You."

SIGNS OF HOPE - THE SICK

The Sick

But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

Luke 10: 33-34

Signs of hope should be shown to the sick at home and in hospital. Their sufferings can be allayed by the closeness and affection of those who visit them. Works of mercy are also works of hope that give rise to immense gratitude. Gratitude should likewise be shown to all those healthcare workers who, often in precarious conditions, carry out their mission with constant care and concern for the sick and for those who are most vulnerable.

Inclusive attention should also be given to all those in particularly difficult situations. Care given to them is a hymn to human dignity, a song of hope that calls for the choral participation of society as a whole.

We are called to show to those who are ill, our love and communion, despite the pace of our own frenetic lives.

You can make a difference.

WHILE BLESSING THEM, HE WAS TAKEN TO HEAVEN.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 1:11

Men of Galilee, why gaze in wonder at the heavens?

This Jesus whom you saw ascending into heaven will return as you saw him go, alleluia.

FIRST READING

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 1:1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning until the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven. He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. 'It is,' he had said, 'what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.'

Now having met together, they asked him, 'Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.' As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight. They were still staring into the sky when suddenly two men in white were standing near them and they said, 'Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky? Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, this same Jesus will come back in the same way as you have seen him go there.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 46:2-3. 6-7. 8-9. R. v.6

(R.) God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

1. All peoples, clap your hands,
cry to God with shouts of joy!
For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear, great king over all the earth.

(R.) God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord

2. God goes up with shouts of joy;
the Lord goes up with trumpet blast.
Sing praise for God, sing praise,
sing praise to our king, sing praise.

(R.) God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord

3. God is king of all the earth.
Sing praise with all your skill.
God is king over the nations;
God reigns on his holy throne.

(R.) God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord

SECOND READING

EPHESIANS 1:17-23

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of him. May he enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope his call holds for you, what rich glories he has promised the saints will inherit and how infinitely great is the power that he has exercised for us believers. This you can tell from the strength of his power at work in Christ, when he used it to raise him from the dead and to make him sit at his right hand, in heaven, far above every Sovereignty, Authority, Power, or Domination, or any other name that can be named, not only in this age, but also in the age to come. He has put all things under his feet, and made him, as the ruler of everything, the head of the Church; which is his body, the fullness of him who fills the whole creation.'

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

MATTHEW 28:19. 20

Alleluia, alleluia!

Go and teach all people my gospel.

I am with you always, until the end of the world.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LUKE 24:46-53

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus said to his disciples: 'You see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this.'

'And now I am sending down to you what the Father has promised. Stay in the city then, until you are clothed with the power from on high.' Then he took them out as far as the outskirts of Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them. Now as he blessed them, he withdrew from them and was carried up to heaven. They worshipped him and then went back to Jerusalem full of joy; and they were continually in the Temple praising God.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

MATTHEW 28:20

Behold, I am with you always,
even to the end of the age, alleluia.
