Year of JOY

NEW TESTAMENT COMMENTARY

by Mary Coloe PBVM

They all ate as much as they wanted.
1 Corinthians 11:23-26; Luke 9:11-17

We are what we eat.

'Take and eat, this is my body.' These familiar words express our faith that God comes to us as life and nourishment. In the ordinary ritual of sharing food and drink, we are drawn into the presence of God. This faith is found in the writings of the New Testament when the disciples discovered an ongoing presence of Jesus in their midst. 'He's alive!' is the joyful message of Easter. In their small gatherings as they shared their stories of Jesus, and broke bread together, they knew Jesus was still with them. What we now call Eucharist, they called 'The Lord's supper' for Jesus remained with them as host, as surely as he once was host in their many shared meals.

In Paul's letter, we have the earliest description of the Last Supper and the Institution narrative, since this letter was written around 56 CE, many years before Mark's Gospel took its final written form. At this Last Supper Jesus gave to the bread and wine the meaning of his actions the following day. Disciples, by participating in eating the bread and drinking the wine, participated in the meaning of Jesus' death. The solemn ritual transcends the present moment to draw into it both past and future. This is what a ritual, or memorial is. It is not nostalgic remembering of an event in the past; it is a means of participating now in the significance of a past event, and appropriating this for one's self. The bread and wine symbolise a body given and blood poured out, and these symbols then make accessible for all Christians what Jesus did.

Jesus names this ritual a new covenant, which needs to be understood against the background of Israel's great covenant at Mount Sinai. A covenant is one of many terms used to describe Israel's sense of belonging in a special relationship to God. Prior to Sinai, covenants had been experienced by Abraham and other ancestors, but at Sinai, all the people were involved. At this time, the covenant was sealed with the pouring out of the blood of sacrificial animals – half poured on the altar to represent God, and half sprinkled on the people. Since blood represented the life-force, this sharing in blood, was a symbolic way of saying that the people now participate in the very life of God.

In taking bread and wine and saying these solemn words, Jesus transforms this ancient ceremony and, now, the guarantee that we participate in the life of God is Jesus' own life.

Stories such as the one we hear in today's Gospel link the post-Easter experience of the Lord's presence with their memory of other meals during the ministry of Jesus. This meal with the multitude, anticipates his later meal on the eve of his death and the ongoing meals in the Christian communities. Notice in the Gospel that the disciples are told to feed the crowd and to distribute the blessed bread. The action of these disciples continues in our communities today.

In celebrating this feast we not only give thanks for the presence of Christ in the bread and wine, we also celebrate that being nourished by the life of Jesus we become the living body of Christ. As Paul states, 'Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.' (1Corinthians 12:27)

Pope Leo XIV - Prayer Intention for June

That the world might grow in compassion

Let us pray, that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from His Heart, learn to have compassion on the world.

Blessed Francis Jordan

Therefore it is necessary to make use of everything to become true Sisters of Society. To refine oneself inwardly and outwardly with holy zeal and with joy - So, go ahead courageously! MM Letters 1895/08/05

COMMUNION SERVICE

On Thursday the 26th June there will be a Communion service held at 9.00am

SALVATORIAN COLLABORATORS

The next Salvatorian collaborators meeting will be held at 3pm on Saturday June 28th in the Jordan room. All Parishioners invited and welcome to attend.

RENOVATIONS TO THE CHURCH

Due to the generosity of a couple within our Parish, who humbly wish to remain anonymous, over the coming weeks additional marble will be installed behind the Sacred heart and Immaculate Heart Statues, located at the front sides of the Church. The lighting to these statues has also been reinstated. A huge thank you for your generosity!

YOUTH MASS - UNPLUGGED

Sometimes it's nice to unplug from the noise and bright lights. Two years ago in winter, while preparing for Mass on Sunday evening, we lost power to the Church. After quickly pulling out some candles and with spontaneous hymns from the congregation during Mass, that night turned into a beautiful, simple celebration of the Eucharist. Join us for 6pm Mass Sunday 6th July as we light some candles, turn out the lights and put down the instruments for Youth Mass - Unplugged.

PETER'S PENCE

On Sunday 29th of June we join with other Parishes across the world in taking up the Vatican's annual Peter's Pence Collection. The Peter's Pence Collection provides for the charitable works of mercy identified by His Holiness, Pope Leo XIV, including emergency assistance to those in need due to natural disaster, war, oppression and disease. Your generosity allows the Holy Father to respond to those suffering with love and compassion. You can make a gift using the Peter's Pence collection envelope available in the pews. Thank you for your generosity.

FIRST FRUITS OFFERING

How much can I give?

God calls us to be generous with all our gifts. Stewardship means giving back to God in gratitude for all He has given us, including giving from our treasure.

We may often find ourselves throwing last minute donations into the collection basket, however, by creating a plan we can better share the gifts that God has given us.

Giving from our treasure, our money, is a pillar of our faith – just like attending Sunday Mass or participating in parish ministries. Here are some questions to keep in mind when considering your first fruits offering.

1. PRAY

Keep an open heart and pray for God's guidance to help make your decision.

2. PLAN

Plan your giving whether, weekly, monthly or yearly.

3. GIVE

Offer your 'first fruits', a meaningful portion of your income, in thanksgiving to God.

SIGNS OF HOPE - THE SICK - HOSPITAL MINISTRY

Volunteer Catholic Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion visit hospitals throughout the Diocese of Broken Bay providing comfort and care to Catholic patients.

Our Diocese and NSW Health require that 40 hours of training is completed to perform this important role.

The Introduction to Pastoral Care Course (IPCC) meets this requirement, is FREE and is open to those who already volunteer in a hospital context, or in local health and aged care facilities, and to those who might be deciding if they are suited to this ministry.

As well as being prepared by your Parish to be an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, some of the key qualities we are looking for in anyone who may be considering being part of this hospital ministry are:

- A genuine prayerful faith life including reverence for and regular participation in Sunday Eucharist
- An ability to listen and a willingness to refer on when necessary
- A warm, friendly, empathetic disposition
- The ability to relate to people of different ages, personalities and backgrounds
- A respect for others and their diversity
- The ability to work as part of a team
- Enthusiasm, motivation and professionalism
- A compassionate heart

The course will be offered on five consecutive Wednesdays: July 2,9,16,23 and 30 between 9:00am and 3:00 pm at CatholicCare Central Coast Family Centre (10/10 Pioneer Avenue, Tuggerah). Morning tea & lunch will be provided. Further information please contact the Parish office.

JOIN PLANNED GIVING IN OUR PARISH

Planned giving is a meaningful way to support your parish community, both now and for future generations. Here are a few reasons why you should consider joining a planned giving program:

1. Sustaining the Mission: Planned giving helps ensure that the parish can continue its vital ministries. Whether it's supporting the formation of young people or maintaining the parish's physical space, your gift contributes to the ongoing mission of the Church.

2. Empowering the Parish's Growth: Planned giving allows the parish to plan budget for future projects and initiatives, from expanding outreach programs to enhancing the church building. Your contribution makes these goals attainable.

3. A Faithful Response: Stewardship is a core principle of the Catholic faith. Planned giving is an opportunity to express gratitude for God's blessings by giving back in a meaningful and lasting way. It's a way to participate in the work of God.

By joining planned giving, you help secure the future of your parish and ensure that its ministries continue to thrive for years to come.

SIGNS OF HOPE - THE STRANGER

The Stranger

Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it.
 Hebrews 13:2

Signs of hope should also be present for migrants who leave their homelands behind in search of a better life for themselves and for their families. Their expectations must not be frustrated by prejudice and rejection. A spirit of welcome, which embraces everyone with respect for his or her dignity, should be accompanied by a sense of responsibility, lest anyone be denied the right to a dignified existence.

Exiles, displaced persons and refugees, whom international tensions force to emigrate in order to avoid war, violence and discrimination, ought to be guaranteed security and access to employment and education, the means they need to find their place in a new social context.

May the Christian community always be prepared to defend the rights of those who are most vulnerable, opening wide its doors to welcome them, lest anyone ever be robbed of the hope of a better future.

We are called to choose either the culture of humanity and fraternity or the culture of indifference.

You can make a difference.

THEY ALL ATE AND WERE FILLED.

Entrance Antiphon

Cf Psalm 80:17

He fed them with the finest wheat and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

First Reading

Genesis 14:18-20

A reading from the book of Genesis

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing:

‘Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.’ And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 109:1-4. R. v.4

(R.) You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

1. The Lord’s revelation to my Master: ‘Sit on my right: I will put your foes beneath your feet.’

(R.) You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

2. The Lord will send from Zion your sceptre of power: rule in the midst of all your foes.

(R.) You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

3. A prince from the day of your birth on the holy mountains; from the womb before the daybreak I begot you.

(R.) You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

4. The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change. ‘You are a priest for ever, a priest like Melchizedek of old.’

(R.) You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, ‘This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.’ In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, ‘This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.’ Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

Sequence

Behold the bread of angels, sent
For pilgrims in their banishment,
The bread for God’s true children
meant,
That may not unto dogs be given:
Oft in the olden types foreshowed;
In Isaac on the altar bowed,
And in the ancient paschal food,
And in the manna sent from heaven.
Come then, good shepherd, bread
divine,
Still show to us thy mercy sign;
Oh, feed us still, still keep us thine;
So may we see thy glories shine
In fields of immortality;
O thou, the wisest, mightiest, best,
Our present food, our future rest,
Come, make us each thy chosen guest,
Co-heirs of thine, and comrades blest
With saints whose dwelling is with thee.

Gospel Acclamation

John 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the living bread from heaven,
says the Lord; whoever eats this bread
will live for ever.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 9:11-17

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.

It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, ‘Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.’ He replied, ‘Give them something to eat yourselves.’ But they said, ‘We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.’ For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, ‘Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.’ They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

Communion Antiphon

John 6:57

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.
