Year of JOY

REFLECTION by Greg Sunter

Gospel Reflection

Throughout most of its history, the Church has linked the two major figures of Peter and Paul, so it is fitting that they share this feast day. However, also throughout most of the Church's history, Peter has been given greater regard and has held a more significant place in the tradition. In fact, the Church itself is often described as 'Petrine' – in the tradition of Peter. Much is made of the line of Popes being traced back to Peter. The authority and structure of the Church is linked to the Petrine model of Church. Describing Peter as the 'rock' upon which the Church was built is an excellent image of stability and constancy.

In something of a contrast, the apostle Paul is best known as the great traveller who spread the message of Jesus all around the shores of the Mediterranean, establishing communities of faith wherever he went. His letters – or epistles – to these communities were some of the first Christian writings; predating by 20 years or more the four gospels of the New Testament. Rather than stability and constancy, Paul is identified with growth and change; expansion and openness. Many would argue that without Paul the early Christian communities may not have survived beyond the end of the 1st Century.

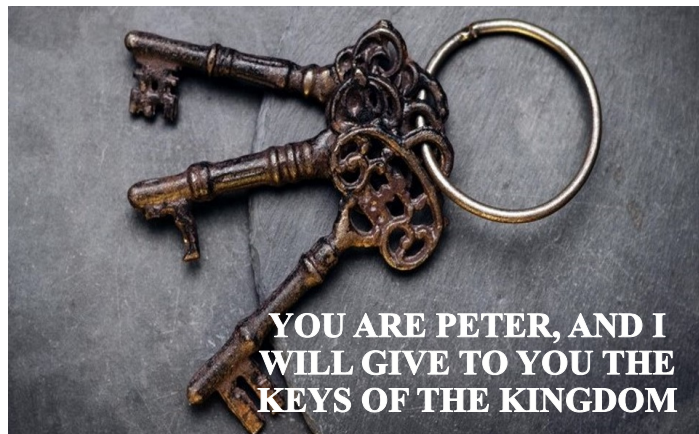

Peter and Paul represent two great traditions within the Church: the strength of tradition and oneness associated with Peter; and the valuing of new ideas and outreach to others that typified the work of Paul. Although the Petrine tradition has been dominant for most of the Church's history, the Pauline tradition was rediscovered in the latter part of the 20th Century and it is now clearly evident that the church needs both of these arms to embrace the world.

Scriptural context

When the gospel writer has Jesus declare that he will give to Peter the keys of the kingdom of heaven, he is quoting almost directly from a verse in Isaiah, 'I will place on his shoulder the key to the house of David; what he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open.' (22:22). The passage in Isaiah is about the appointment of a steward – a caretaker – for the people of Jerusalem. It makes clear that the one appointed carries the authority of the Lord who appoints him. When almost the same words are used about Peter, it carries the meaning from its original context.

Living the Gospel – Who do you say I am?

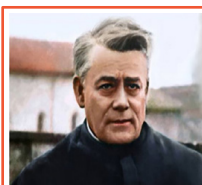

The question Jesus puts to his disciples is the very same question that he puts to us every day of our lives, 'Who do you say I am?' How we choose to answer that question will be reflected in our attitude towards self, others and to life itself. How we answer that question will change frequently throughout life as experience and changing spirituality lead us into asking other questions of ourselves. If we hold that the teaching and example of Jesus are important to us, then we are bound to strive towards emulating them in our own lives.

Pope Leo XIV - Prayer Intention for June

That the world might grow in compassion

Let us pray, that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from His Heart, learn to have compassion on the world.

Blessed Francis Jordan

We should renew our Apostolic spirit on this day - that spirit which animates the Apostles and accomplished such great things for the honor of God and the salvation of Souls

PETER'S PENCE

This Sunday 29th of June we join with other Parishes across the world in taking up the Vatican's annual Peter's Pence Collection. The Peter's Pence Collection provides for the charitable works of mercy identified by His Holiness, Pope Leo XIV, including emergency assistance to those in need due to natural disaster, war, oppression and disease.

Your generosity allows the Holy Father to respond to those suffering with love and compassion.

You can make a gift using the Peter's Pence collection envelope available in the pews.

Thank you for your generosity.

COMMUNION SERVICE

On Thursday the 3rd July there will be a Communion service held at 9.00am

YOUTH MASS - UNPLUGGED

Sometimes it's nice to unplug from the noise and bright lights. Two years ago in winter, while preparing for Mass on Sunday evening, we lost power to the Church. After quickly pulling out some candles and with spontaneous hymns from the congregation during Mass, that night turned into a beautiful, simple celebration of the Eucharist.

Join us for 6pm Mass Sunday 6th July as we light some candles, turn out the lights and put down the instruments for Youth Mass - Unplugged.

MEMORIAL WALL NICHEs AVAILABLE

Our Parish memorial wall located at the back of the Church, has niches available to purchase for yourself or your loved ones.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES NOW AVAILABLE

A huge thank you to those Parishioners who participated in planned giving over this last financial, your generosity is greatly appreciated by our Parish community.

Those parishioners that participate in planned giving via envelopes, your 2025/2026 envelopes are now available for collection in the Church foyer.

JOIN PLANNED GIVING 2025/2026 IN OUR PARISH

Planned giving is a meaningful way to support your parish community, both now and for future generations.

Planned giving can be carried in a number of ways, direct debit set up via your bank account, monthly credit card set up via the Parish office or envelopes via the collection plates at weekend Masses.

Here are a few reasons why you should consider joining a planned giving program:

1. Sustaining the Mission: Planned giving helps ensure that the parish can continue its vital ministries. Whether it's supporting the formation of young people or maintaining the parish's physical space, your gift contributes to the ongoing mission of the Church.
2. Empowering the Parish's Growth: Planned giving allows the parish to plan budget for future projects and initiatives, from expanding outreach programs to enhancing the church building. Your contribution makes these goals attainable.
3. A Faithful Response: Stewardship is a core principle of the Catholic faith. Planned giving is an opportunity to express gratitude for God's blessings by giving back in a meaningful and lasting way. It's a way to participate in the work of God.

By joining planned giving, you help secure the future of your parish and ensure that its ministries continue to thrive for years to come.

I WOULD LIKE TO VOLUNTEER

There are many seniors in our community who are lonely and may not have family or friends living nearby. Our federally funded Aged Care Volunteer Visitors Scheme volunteers spend an hour once a fortnight developing friendships, having a chat and sharing a cuppa. The joy they bring is immeasurable! Our one-on-one visiting scheme matches volunteers from the local community with residents who live at home or in aged care facilities who have been identified as being socially isolated and whose quality of life is improved by friendship and companionship.

Affectionately referred to as CatholicCare's 'friendship program', you will be able to build new connections and positive relationships with someone who will greatly appreciate your company. The time will be spent having a cuppa, going on outings, reading together, listening to music, playing games and other activities. We receive regular requests for volunteers who speak other languages so it's a bonus if you are multilingual! Can you spare an hour a fortnight? The visiting times are very flexible, orientation and ongoing training and support is provided and we provide an opportunity for social gatherings.

I AM A SENIOR WANTING A REGULAR VISITOR

Across the Central Coast and Northern Sydney, our volunteers are trained to provide meaningful companionship and support to seniors in their own homes, or in residential care homes.

They offer a friendly face, a listening ear and an opportunity for social connection for those who may not have regular visitors. We believe that everyone deserves to feel connected and cared for!

At CatholicCare we pride ourselves on ensuring a consistent and carefully matched volunteer who visits regularly. This is a free service. If you, or a senior you know, would benefit from a regular visitor please contact us.

SIGNS OF HOPE - THE ELDERLY

The Elderly

They will still bear fruit in old age, they will stay fresh and green.

Psalm 92:14

Wisdom belongs to the aged, and understanding to the old.

Job 12:12

The Elderly who frequently feel lonely and abandoned, also deserve signs of hope. Esteemed for the treasure that they are, their life experiences, their accumulated wisdom and the contribution that they can still make.

Here I would also mention grandparents, who represent the passing on of faith and wisdom to the younger generation. May they find support in the gratitude of their children and the love of their grandchildren, who discover in them their roots and a source of understanding and encouragement.

We are called to attend to our grandparents and the elderly, not only as a sign of gratitude and affection, but as a necessity in the construction of a more human and fraternal society.

You can make a difference.

YOU ARE PETER, AND I WILL GIVE TO YOU THE KEYS OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN.

Entrance Antiphon

These are the ones who, living in the flesh, planted the Church with their blood; they drank the chalice of the Lord and became the friends of God.

First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 12:1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

King Herod started persecuting certain members of the Church. He beheaded James the brother of John, and when he saw that this pleased the Jews he decided to arrest Peter as well. This was during the days of Unleavened Bread, and he put Peter in prison, assigning four squads of four soldiers each to guard him in turns. Herod meant to try Peter in public after the end of Passover week. All the time Peter was under guard the Church prayed to God for him unremittingly.

On the night before Herod was to try him, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, fastened with double chains, while guards kept watch at the main entrance to the prison. Then suddenly the angel of the Lord stood there, and the cell was filled with light. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him. 'Get up!' he said 'Hurry!' – and the chains fell from his hands. The angel then said, 'Put on your belt and sandals.' After he had done this, the angel next said, 'Wrap your cloak round you and follow me.' Peter followed him, but had no idea that what the angel did was all happening in reality; he thought he was seeing a vision. They passed through two guard posts one after the other, and reached the iron gate leading to the city. This opened of its own accord; they went through it and had walked the whole length of one street when suddenly the angel left him. It was only then that Peter came to himself. 'Now I know it is all true,' he said. 'The Lord really did send his angel and has saved me from Herod and from all that the Jewish people were so certain would happen to me.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 33:2-9. R. v.5

(R.) The Lord set me free from all my fears.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad.

(R.) The Lord set me free from all my fears.

2. Glorify the Lord with me. Together let us praise his name. I sought the Lord and he answered me; from all my terrors he set me free. (R.) The Lord set me free from all my fears.

3. Look towards him and be radiant; let your faces not be abashed. This poor man called; the Lord heard him and rescued him from all his distress.

(R.) The Lord set me free from all my fears.

4. The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who revere him, to rescue them. Taste and see that the Lord is good. He is happy who seeks refuge in him. (R.) The Lord set me free from all my fears.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.

The Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 16:18

Alleluia, alleluia!

You are Peter, the rock on which I will build my Church; the gates of hell will not hold out against it. Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 16:13-19

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say he is John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he said, 'who do you say I am?' Then Simon Peter spoke up, 'You are the Christ,' he said, 'the Son of the living God.' Jesus replied, 'Simon son of Jonah, you are a happy man! Because it was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you but my Father in heaven. So I now say to you: You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church. And the gates of the underworld can never hold out against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven: whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.'

Communion Antiphon

Cf Matthew 16:16,18

Peter said to Jesus: You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.

And Jesus replied: You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church.
