Year of JOY

Dear Parishioners,

Grandparents Day is a beautiful reminder of the gift that grandparents are in our lives—not only as loving family members, but as strong role models in our journey of faith. For many of us, our first experiences of prayer, church, and stories of Jesus came from time spent with our grandparents. Their deep devotion and quiet strength often help to shape our own relationship with God.

Grandparents hold a special place in the family as carriers of tradition, wisdom, and spiritual values. Their example of faith in action—whether through daily prayer, attending Mass, or acts of kindness—shows younger generations how to live a life centered on God. Often, it is in their simple, consistent acts of faith that grandchildren find inspiration and guidance.

Praying together is one of the most powerful ways grandparents nurture faith. Sitting together in silence, holding hands in prayer, or saying the Rosary before bed—these are more than just routines; they are sacred moments of connection. In those quiet prayers, grandchildren learn not just words, but how to trust, hope, and turn to God in all things. It is often these small, shared moments that leave the deepest imprint on a child's heart.

As we reflect on the importance of grandparents in our faith journey, we are reminded of Saints Anne and Joachim, the grandparents of Jesus. Though little is said about them in Scripture, tradition tells us they were people of deep prayer and faith. They raised Mary, the mother of Jesus, teaching her to love God and live faithfully. Their legacy is felt not only in Mary's life, but in the life of Jesus Himself. In their quiet, faithful love, we see the timeless role of grandparents in passing on God's promise from one generation to the next.

Today, we give thanks for our grandparents—for their love, their prayers, and their example. We also remember those who may no longer be with us, trusting that their prayers still echo in heaven on our behalf. Let us honor them by praying together as families, sharing stories of faith, and asking God to help us grow in the virtues they've taught us: patience, kindness, and trust in His plan.

May we always treasure the gift of our grandparents. And may their faith, like that of Saints Anne and Joachim, continue to guide and bless us throughout our lives.

Happy Grandparents Day!

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS RCIA - PROGRAM BEGINNING IN SEPTEMBER

Have you ever wanted to know what Catholics actually believe? Have you ever considered becoming Catholic? Do you know someone who would like to know more?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a formative process by which those interested in learning more about Christianity and the Catholic Church attend sessions over an extended period of time. They will be presented with a variety of essential topics which cover the key pillars of the faith - our profession, celebration, lifestyle, and our prayer. At different stages of the process, individuals are given the invitation to continue on their journey towards the Easter Sacraments and reception into the Church.

It's a journey of spiritual formation, typically involving study, prayer, and participation in parish life. The process can lead to receiving the sacraments of initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist) at the Easter Vigil.

Please call the Parish office on 4325 1042, email patsgos@acs.net.au or pop into the Parish office to make an appointment with Father Greg for further information and enrolment.

Jubilee is a time of Hope

For everyone, may the Jubilee be a moment of genuine, personal encounter with the Lord Jesus, the "door" (cf. Jn 10:7:9) of our salvation, whom the Church is charged to proclaim always, everywhere and to all as "our hope" (1 Tim 1:1).

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

CF PSALM 67:6-7,36

God is in his holy place, God who unites those who dwell in his house; he himself gives might and strength to his people.

FIRST READING

GENESIS 18:20-32

A reading from the book of Genesis

The Lord said, 'How great an outcry there is against Sodom and Gomorrah! How grievous is their sin! I propose to go down and see whether or not they have done all that is alleged in the outcry against them that has come up to me. I am determined to know.'

The men left there and went to Sodom while Abraham remained standing before the Lord. Approaching him he said, 'Are you really going to destroy the just man with the sinner? Perhaps there are fifty just men in the town. Will you really overwhelm them, will you not spare the place for the fifty just men in it? Do not think of doing such a thing: to kill the just man with the sinner, treating just and sinner alike! Do not think of it! Will the judge of the whole earth not administer justice?' The Lord replied, 'If at Sodom I find fifty just men in the town, I will spare the whole place because of them.'

Abraham replied, 'I am bold indeed to speak like this to my Lord, I who am dust and ashes. But perhaps the fifty just men lack five: will you destroy the whole city for five?' 'No', he replied 'I will not destroy it if I find forty-five just men there.' Again Abraham said to him, 'Perhaps there will only be forty there.' 'I will not do it' he replied 'for the sake of the forty.'

Abraham said, 'I trust my Lord will not be angry, but give me leave to speak: perhaps there will only be thirty there.' 'I will not do it' he replied 'if I find thirty there.' He said, 'I am bold indeed to speak like this, but perhaps there will only be twenty there.' 'I will not destroy it' he replied 'for the sake of the twenty.' He said, 'I trust my Lord will not be angry if I speak once more: perhaps there will only be ten.' 'I will not destroy it' he replied 'for the sake of the ten.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 137:1-3. 6-8. R. v.3

(R.) Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

1. I thank you, Lord, with all my heart, you have heard the words of my mouth.

Before the angels I will bless you.

I will adore before your holy temple.

(R.) Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

2. I thank you for your faithfulness and love which excel all we ever knew of you. On the day I called, you answered; you increased the strength of my soul.

(R.) Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

3. The Lord is high yet he looks on the lowly and the haughty he knows from afar. Though I walk in the midst of affliction you give me life and frustrate my foes.

(R.) Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

4. You stretch out your hand and save me, your hand will do all things for me. Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands.

(R.) Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

SECOND READING

COLOSSIANS 2:12-14

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

You have been buried with Christ, when you were baptised; and by baptism, too, you have been raised up with him through your belief in the power of God who raised him from the dead. You were dead, because you were sinners and had not been circumcised: he has brought you to life with him, he has forgiven us all our sins.

He has overridden the Law, and cancelled every record of the debt that we had to pay; he has done away with it by nailing it to the cross.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

ROMANS 8:15

Alleluia, alleluia!

You have received the Spirit which makes us God's children, and in that Spirit we call God our Father.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LUKE 11:1-13

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Once Jesus was in a certain place praying, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said, 'Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.' He said to them, 'Say this when you pray: "Father, may your name be held holy, your kingdom come;

give us each day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive each one who is in debt to us. And do not put us to the test."

He also said to them, 'Suppose one of you has a friend and goes to him in the middle of the night to say, "My friend, lend me three loaves, because a friend of mine on his travels has just arrived at my house and I have nothing to offer him"; and the man answers from inside the house, "Do not bother me. The door is bolted now, and my children and I are in bed; I cannot get up to give it to you." I tell you, if the man does not get up and give it him for friendship's sake, persistence will be enough to make him get up and give his friend all he wants.

'So I say to you: Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. For the one who asks always receives; the one who searches always finds; the one who knocks will always have the door opened to him. What father among you would hand his son a stone when he asked for bread? Or hand him a snake instead of a fish? Or hand him a scorpion if he asked for an egg? If you then, who are evil, know how to give your children what is good, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PSALM 102:2

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits.
