Year of JOY

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY - 15 AUGUST 2025

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, celebrated every year on August 15, is one of the most significant Marian feasts in the Catholic Church. It commemorates the moment when the Blessed Virgin Mary, at the end of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory. This solemnity is not only a celebration of Mary's personal holiness and intimate relationship with God but also a powerful sign of hope for all believers. The Assumption reminds us that the promise of eternal life is not an abstract idea, but a real destiny prepared for those who remain faithful to God.

The Church has declared the Assumption a Holy Day of Obligation because it is a central mystery of our faith and a source of inspiration for the Christian journey. On this day, Catholics are required to attend Mass, not as a burden, but as an act of love and reverence. By participating in the Eucharist, we join Mary in her "yes" to God and unite ourselves more deeply to the mystery of Christ's resurrection and our own future glory. The Assumption shows us that Mary, fully human like us, was raised into heaven by the grace of God foreshadowing what awaits all those who live in grace and follow Christ.

Mary plays a unique and powerful role in our Catholic life. She is not only the mother of Jesus but also the spiritual mother of the Church. Her life of humility, obedience, and unwavering faith serves as a model for all believers. At the Annunciation, her fiat "Let it be done to me according to your word" marked the beginning of salvation history in a new and profound way. Throughout her life, Mary remained close to Jesus, from His birth to His death on the cross, and even in the early Church. Her presence reminds us that following Christ often means walking a path of quiet strength and sacrificial love.

In times of struggle, Catholics turn to Blessed Mary for intercession and comfort. We do not worship her, but we honor her as the most exalted of all saints, the one who points us always toward her Son. The Assumption deepens this relationship. It reminds us that Mary is already where we hope to be with God forever in heaven. She is our advocate, our helper, and a sign of the Church's future glory.

Celebrating the Assumption is a moment to renew our trust in God's promises. Just as Mary was lifted up into heaven, so too are we called to rise above sin, fear, and death into the fullness of life with God. Her Assumption assures us that heaven is real and attainable through God's grace. As we honor Mary on this feast, may we also strive to imitate her faith, love, and obedience, trusting that what God has done for her, He also desires to do for each of us.

God bless

For Mutual Coexistence

Let us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious, or ideological reasons.

Blessed Francis Jordan

Let us always reverence the Cross - then love and joyousness come by themselves.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SACRAMENTS OF ANOINTING OF THE SICK AND THE LAST RITES.

In the Catholic Church, Anointing of the Sick and Last Rites are related but distinct concepts, often misunderstood as the same. Both are part of the Church's pastoral care for the sick and dying, but they serve different purposes and can occur at different stages of illness or life.

Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments and is intended for anyone who is seriously ill, undergoing major surgery, or experiencing the frailty of old age. It involves a priest anointing the forehead and hands of the sick person with holy oil, accompanied by prayers for healing, strength, and forgiveness. This sacrament is not only for those near death but also for the recovery of health, both physical and spiritual. It can be received multiple times if the person's condition worsens or if they face another serious illness.

Last Rites, on the other hand, is not a single sacrament but a combination of several rites given to a person who is close to death. It typically includes three elements: the Sacrament of Reconciliation (confession), Anointing of the Sick, and Viaticum, which is the final reception of the Eucharist ("food for the journey"). The Last Rites are meant to prepare the soul for death and entry into eternal life, offering spiritual comfort, peace, and the forgiveness of sins.

In summary, while the Anointing of the Sick can be administered at any serious stage of illness, Last Rites are specifically for those who are dying. Every Catholic nearing the end of life is encouraged to receive the Last Rites if possible, but the Anointing of the Sick is broader in scope and not limited to the dying.

Importantly, a priest cannot administer either the Anointing of the Sick or the Last Rites after death. Once a person has died, the sacraments can no longer be given. In that case, a priest may offer prayers for the dead, but the sacraments themselves must be given while the person is still alive, even if they are unconscious.

Light a candle for Gaza

God of light,

You meet us in the darkest places.

Every year, when we light our Easter candle, we pray 'may the light of Christ, rising in glory, dispel the darkness of our minds and hearts.'

We pray today that all people may work with you to dispel the darkness of violence and war.

May this fragile light be a sign of our hope for the people of Gaza.

May they find healing and lasting peace.

Amen.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf PSALM 73:20,19,22,23

Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever. Arise, O God, and defend your cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you.

FIRST READING

WISDOM 18:6-9

A reading from the book of Wisdom

That night had been foretold to our ancestors, so that, once they saw what kind of oaths they had put their trust in, they would joyfully take courage. This was the expectation of your people, the saving of the virtuous and the ruin of their enemies; for by the same act with which you took vengeance on our foes you made us glorious by calling us to you. The devout children of worthy men offered sacrifice in secret and this divine pact they struck with one accord: that the saints would share the same blessings and dangers alike; and forthwith they had begun to chant the hymns of the fathers.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 32:1. 12. 18-20. 22. R. v.12

(R.) Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

1. Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just; for praise is fitting for loyal hearts. They are happy, whose God is the Lord, the people he has chosen as his own.

(R.) Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own

2. The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. (R.) Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own

3. Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. (R.) Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own

SECOND READING

HEBREWS 11:1-2, 8-19

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

Only faith can guarantee the blessings that we hope for, or prove the existence of the realities that at present remain unseen. It was by faith that our ancestors were commended. It was by faith that Abraham obeyed the call to set out for a country that was the inheritance given to him and his descendants, and that he set out without knowing where he was going. By faith he arrived, as a foreigner, in the Promised Land, and lived there as if in a strange country, with Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. They lived there in tents while he looked forward to a city founded, designed and built by God.

It was equally by faith that Sarah, in spite of being past the age, was made able to conceive, because she believed that he who had made the promise would be faithful to it. Because of this, there came from one man, and one who was already as good as dead himself, more descendants than could be counted, as many as the stars of heaven or the grains of sand on the seashore.

All these died in faith, before receiving any of the things that had been promised, but they saw them in the far distance and welcomed them, recognising that they were only strangers and nomads on earth. People who use such terms about themselves make it quite plain that they are in search of their real homeland. They can hardly have meant the country they came from, since they had the opportunity to go back to it; but in fact they were longing for a better homeland, their heavenly homeland. That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God, since he has founded the city for them.

It was by faith that Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac. He offered to sacrifice his only son even though the promises had been made to him and he had been told: It is through Isaac that your name will be carried on. He was confident that God had the power even to raise the dead, and so, figuratively speaking, he was given back Isaac from the dead.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

MATTHEW 24:42. 44

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful and ready: You know not when the Son of Man is coming.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LUKE 12:32-48

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus said to his disciples: 'There is no need to be afraid, little flock, for it has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom.

'Sell your possessions and give alms. Get yourselves purses that do not wear out, treasure that will not fail you, in heaven where no thief can reach it and no moth destroy it. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

'See that you are dressed for action and have your lamps lit. Be like men waiting for their master to return from the wedding feast, ready to open the door as soon as he comes and knocks. Happy those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. I tell you solemnly, he will put on an apron, sit them down at table and wait on them. It may be in the second watch he comes, or in the third, but happy those servants if he finds them ready. You may be quite sure of this, that if the householder had known at what hour the burglar would come, he would not have let anyone break through the wall of his house. You too must stand ready, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.'

Peter said, 'Lord, do you mean this parable for us, or for everyone?' The Lord replied, 'What sort of steward, then, is faithful and wise enough for the master to place him over his household to give them their allowance of food at the proper time? Happy that servant if his master's arrival finds him at this employment. I tell you truly, he will place him over everything he owns. But as for the servant who says to himself, "My master is taking his time coming", and sets about beating the menservants and the maids, and eating and drinking and getting drunk, his master will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does not know. The master will cut him off and send him to the same fate as the unfaithful.

'The servant who knows what his master wants, but has not even started to carry out those wishes, will receive very many strokes of the lash. The one who did not know, but deserves to be beaten for what he has done, will receive fewer strokes. When a man has had a great deal given him, a great deal will be demanded of him; when a man has had a great deal given him on trust, even more will be expected of him.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PSALM 147:12,14

O Jerusalem, glorify the Lord, who gives you your fill of finest wheat.
