Year of JOY

WHAT TO DO WHEN A ROSARY OR CRUCIFIX BREAKS

When a blessed rosary, crucifix, or other sacramental—such as medals, scapulars, or holy images—breaks or becomes too worn to use, it can feel disheartening. These sacred items often hold deep personal and spiritual significance. They accompany our prayers, comfort us in trials, and remind us of God's nearness. But when they can no longer serve their purpose, how should we treat them?

THE SACRED NATURE OF SACRAMENTALS

Sacramentals are not mere religious decorations. They are sacred signs blessed by the Church to draw us closer to God and deepen our faith. Through these objects, we are reminded of spiritual realities and the grace that flows from the sacraments themselves. Because they have been blessed by a priest or deacon, they carry a sacred character and must be treated with reverence. The Code of Canon Law (Canon 1171) instructs that blessed objects are not to be treated as ordinary items.

HOW TO PROPERLY DISPOSE OF BROKEN OR WORN SACRAMENTALS

When a rosary breaks or a crucifix becomes damaged, the respectful way to dispose of it is not by tossing it into the trash. Instead, the Church offers simple and meaningful ways to return these items to God's creation:

Bury Them:

Return the sacramental to the earth from which it came. This is the most traditional method. You can gently place it in the soil—perhaps in a garden or under a tree—allowing it to rest naturally.

Burn Them:

If the item is made of paper, cloth, or wood (like old scapulars or palm branches), you may burn it reverently. Once the ashes are cool, bury them in the ground.

WHY REVERENCE MATTERS

Treating blessed items respectfully isn't about superstition or formality—it's about love and gratitude. These objects have been visible reminders of invisible grace. By handling them with reverence, even in their disposal, we acknowledge the holiness they represent and the God who blessed us through them.

A MOMENT OF REFLECTION

Before parting with your broken rosary or worn crucifix, take a moment to thank God for the blessings you received through it. Recall the prayers prayed, the peace found, and the faith strengthened. Every sacramental, no matter how small, has served a sacred purpose in your journey toward holiness.

Prayer of Thanksgiving for a Sacramental

Heavenly Father, thank You for the gift of this sacramental, which has reminded me of Your love and mercy. As I return it to the earth, may my heart remain rooted in Your grace. Renew my spirit and draw me ever closer to You. Through Christ our Lord. Amen

THANK YOU HELENE HUSSEIN

We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to Helene Hussein for her wonderful work in the Parish Office over the past year as Finance Administrator. Helene has been an invaluable member of our team, bringing dedication, professionalism, and warmth to everything she has done.

Her careful attention to detail, commitment to accuracy, and calm approach have been greatly appreciated, ensuring the smooth running of the parish's financial affairs. Beyond her administrative expertise, Helene's kindness and cheerful presence have made a lasting impression on everyone who has had the pleasure of working with her or visiting the office.

We offer our sincere gratitude and best wishes to Helene for the future — she will be greatly missed!

THANK YOU TO OUR PARISH DINNER COMMITTEE

A heartfelt thank-you to our wonderful Parish Dinner Committee for organizing last Saturday's Oktoberfest Parish Dinner! Your dedication, creativity, and hard work made the evening truly special. From the delicious food to the warm atmosphere and joyful fellowship, every detail reflected your care and community spirit. We also extend our gratitude to all who volunteered, served, decorated, and helped make the night a success.

Thank you to everyone who joined us in celebration your presence and laughter brought our parish family together in faith and friendship.

THANK YOU MARK BENNETT

Sincere thanks to Mark Bennett for painting the concrete in front of the Jordan room drive in

THANK YOU PAUL GALEA

And finally thank you Paul Galea for your continued efforts in cleaning the windows of the Church

3RD ANNIVERSARY OF ST JOHN PAUL II SHRINE

Thank you to everyone who made our celebration of the 3rd Anniversary of the St. John Paul II Shrine so special! We are deeply grateful to our talented musicians, dedicated senior altar servers and altar servers, and our wonderful youth ministry for their joyful service. A special thanks to our hardworking parish office staff for their effort and dedication in preparing such a meaningful and memorable event. Your love and commitment made this celebration truly beautiful and inspiring for all.

PLANNED GIVING

“ Honour the Lord with your wealth, with your First Fruits ”

Planned Giving is a commitment to entrust God with a regular financial gift to the Parish, Clergy, or both.

Our parishes are vibrant, living communities of faith, enriched by the love of God. In His love, we are continually being formed as members of the Body of Christ.

Through our parishes, Jesus invites each of us to take an active role in His Mission. We do this by offering our time, talents, and treasure for the building up of His Kingdom.

To carry out this Mission, the Church depends on its members. Jesus taught that everything we have is a gift from God. In response, we are called to give willingly and generously, offering our first fruits, a practice deeply rooted in Scripture.

Your financial offerings help fulfill this calling. They ensure that your parish remains a beacon of light - a place where people encounter Jesus Christ in the Eucharist and experience the love of God through the sacraments and life of the Church, in communion with one another.

Giving to God is much more than a donation; it is faith in action. By offering to God our first and best fruits, we are expressing a joyful desire to love Him with all our heart.

Giving reflects and deepens our trust in the Lord and our gratitude for the blessings He has bestowed on us. In a world competing for our time and money, when we give these back to God, we make space for Him in our hearts, and our lives.

“Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

How to Give

MASS FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED POINT CLARE CEMETERY

During the month of November, we especially remember and pray for the souls of our faithful departed. As part of these special devotions, a Mass will be celebrated at Point Clare Cemetery on Sunday, 3rd November at 10:00am.

All parishioners and friends are warmly invited to join.

NOVEMBER BLESSING OF THE PARISH MEMORIAL WALL - ST PATRICKS CHURCH

On Saturday, 2nd November at 10:30am, we will hold a special Blessing of the Niches within the Parish Memorial Wall. This blessing is a time of quiet reflection and gratitude for those interred there

All are welcome to attend and take part in this prayerful act of remembrance.

PARISH MEMORIAL WALL ST PATRICKS CHURCH - NICHES AVAILABLE

The Parish Memorial Wall, located at the rear of St Patrick's Church, offers a sacred and peaceful place of remembrance for our dearly departed. The wall contains niches available for purchase for yourself or for loved ones, providing a lasting memorial within the grounds of our parish.

Each year, the Memorial Wall and its niches are Blessed by the Parish Priest during a special ceremony, often attended by family members and parishioners who gather to remember, pray for, and honour those who have passed away. The surrounding gardens are lovingly maintained by our parish volunteers, creating a tranquil space for quiet reflection and prayer throughout the year.

This area stands as a visible sign of our faith in the Resurrection and our continuing bond with those who now rest in the peace of Christ.

For further information about purchasing a niche please contact the Parish Office on 4325 1042 or email patsgos@acs.net.au

NOVEMBER MASSES FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

During the month of November, the Church especially dedicates prayers and Masses for all the faithful departed. It is a time to remember with love our family members, friends, and all souls who have gone before us. Offering Masses for our departed loved ones is a beautiful act of faith, love, and mercy. The Holy Mass is the greatest prayer of the Church, because in it, Jesus Christ offers Himself to the Father for the salvation of the world. When we offer a Mass for the souls in purgatory, we unite our prayers with the perfect sacrifice of Christ, asking God to purify them from every sin and bring them into the joy of heaven.

Throughout November, 30 Masses will be offered each day for the repose of souls. This is a powerful spiritual gift. Our prayers and these Holy Masses help the souls in purgatory to be cleansed and prepared to enter eternal life with God. The Church teaches that our intercession, especially through the Eucharist, can bring great relief to these souls and hasten their journey to heaven.

This practice also strengthens our faith and hope in eternal life. It reminds us that love does not end with death, and that we are united in the Communion of Saints—the Church on earth, in purgatory, and in heaven. Offering Masses for the dead is a true work of mercy, showing our deep belief in God's mercy and our everlasting hope of being reunited with our loved ones in His kingdom.

Located in St Patrick's Church foyer is a box for you to place completed envelopes, or you could place envelopes in the collection plate at Mass or drop them into the Parish office.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf PSALM 104:3-4

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

FIRST READING

SIRACH 35:12-14, 16-18

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

The Lord is a judge who is no respecter of personages. He shows no respect of personages to the detriment of a poor man, he listens to the plea of the injured party. He does not ignore the orphan's supplication, nor the widow's as she pours out her story. The man who with his whole heart serves God will be accepted, his petitions will carry to the clouds. The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds, until it arrives he is inconsolable nor will he desist until the Most High takes notice of him, acquits the virtuous and delivers judgement. And the Lord will not be slow, nor will he be dilatory on their behalf.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 32:2-3, 17-19, 23. R. v.7

(R.) The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad. (R.) The Lord hears the cry of the poor

2. The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth. The just call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress. (R.) The Lord hears the cry of the poor

3. The Lord is close to the broken-hearted; those whose spirit is crushed he will save. The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants. Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. (R.) The Lord hears the cry of the poor

SECOND READING

2 TIMOTHY 4:6-8, 16-18

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.

The first time I had to present my defence, there was not a single witness to support me. Every one of them deserted me – may they not be held accountable for it. But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

2 CORINTHIANS 5:19

Alleluia, alleluia!

God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself; and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LUKE 18:9-14

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being virtuous and despised everyone else, 'Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector.

The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself, "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get." The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Cf PSALM 19:6

We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

MASS INTENTION ENVELOPES AVAILABLE IN THE FOYER

Each Mass can be offered for an intention for yourself, loved ones both living or deceased, or a private intention. You will find the 'Please offer Holy Mass' envelopes on the welcome desk within the Church foyer or in the Parish office. Please include your offering and place in the collection bowls during weekend Masses. Every Thursday Masses are allocated within the Mass calendar. Please note Masses are typically booked up to 2 weeks in advance.
