Year of JOY

HOW IS THE EUCHARIST CALLING ME TO DEEPER CONVERSATION, GREATER SERVICE, AND RECONCILIATION IN MY DAILY LIFE?

The Eucharist is at the very heart of Christian life — a profound mystery of Christ's love that invites continual transformation. When I participate in the Eucharist, I am not merely attending a ritual; I am encountering the living Christ who offers Himself completely for the salvation of the world. This encounter calls me to deeper conversion, greater service, and reconciliation in every aspect of daily life.

First, the Eucharist calls me to deeper conversion. In receiving the Body and Blood of Christ, I am invited to examine my own heart and recognize the areas that need healing and renewal. The Eucharist exposes the contrast between Christ's perfect love and my own selfishness or complacency. Each Mass becomes a moment of grace, urging me to turn away from sin and to align my life more closely with God's will. Conversion, then, is not a one-time event but a continual process of becoming more Christ-like — letting His presence reshape my attitudes, relationships, and choices.

Secondly, the Eucharist inspires greater service. When Jesus said, "Do this in memory of me," He was not only referring to the liturgical act but also to a way of living. To share in the Eucharist is to share in Christ's mission of self-giving love. The same Christ who humbles Himself to become our food calls me to humble myself in service to others — especially the poor, the lonely, and the marginalized. The Eucharist reminds me that faith cannot remain confined to the church walls; it must overflow into action. Serving others becomes a continuation of the Eucharistic mystery — a living sacrifice of love in the world.

Finally, the Eucharist moves me toward reconciliation — with God, others, and myself. Before approaching the altar, I am reminded to be at peace with my brothers and sisters. The Eucharist unites all believers into one Body of Christ, breaking down divisions and healing wounds of resentment or pride. It challenges me to forgive as I have been forgiven and to seek harmony in relationships fractured by misunderstanding or hurt. In this way reconciliation is not only a personal experience but also a communal one, fostering unity within the Church and the broader human family.

In essence, the Eucharist is both gift and mission: it nourishes my soul and compels me to embody Christ's love in the world. Through it, I am continually called to conversion of heart, to generous service, and to the healing grace of reconciliation.

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING PRESENT FOR THE ENTIRE HOLY MASS

The Holy Mass is the highest form of worship in the Catholic Church. It is not just a religious obligation, but a sacred encounter with Jesus Christ Himself—through His Word, His Sacrifice, and His Real Presence in the Eucharist. For this reason, we should strive to be present for the entire celebration, from the opening sign of the cross to the final blessing and dismissal.

Arriving late to Mass means we miss vital parts of the liturgy. The Introductory Rites, including the Penitential Act and the Gloria, prepare our hearts to receive God's Word and grace. Skipping them not only disrupts our personal preparation but also the unity of the community gathered in worship. It can also suggest, even unintentionally, that we are not giving God the full respect and attention He deserves.

Every part of the Eucharist is meaningful. The Liturgy of the Word opens our hearts to God's voice through Scripture and the homily, helping us understand His will for our lives. The Liturgy of the Eucharist brings us to the foot of the Cross, where Jesus offers Himself again for our salvation. By fully participating in each part, we not only honor God but also nourish our own spiritual lives.

Likewise, leaving before the final blessing is more than just a physical departure—it can signify a lack of reverence or gratitude. The final blessing sends us forth, strengthened by grace, to live as disciples in the world. Missing this is like walking out of a conversation just before the final, most important words are spoken.

Mass is not something we "fit into" our schedule—it is a sacred gift we give our full attention to. Being punctual and staying until the end reflects love, respect, and devotion to God. When we give Him our time, He gives us far more in return: His peace, His presence, and His transforming grace.

THE FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

The Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica invites us to reflect on the meaning of the Church — not merely as a building, but as the living community of God's people. The Lateran Basilica, also known as St. John Lateran, is the cathedral of the Bishop of Rome — the Pope — and is considered the mother and head of all churches in the world. Its dedication, celebrated since the 4th century, reminds us that every church building is a visible sign of the invisible reality of God's presence among His people.

When we enter a church, we step into sacred space — a place set apart for encounter with the divine. Yet, this feast calls us to look deeper: we ourselves are temples of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 3:16). The stones of the basilica symbolize our own lives, joined together by faith and love to form the Body of Christ. The beauty, order, and sanctity of a church building mirror the harmony and holiness God desires for His people.

This celebration also reminds us of our unity with the universal Church. The Lateran Basilica stands in Rome, yet its feast is celebrated throughout the world, symbolizing our shared faith and communion with the successor of Peter. It calls us to pray for the Church — that she may always be a place of refuge, healing, and truth.

Ultimately, the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica is not only about honoring an ancient building, but about renewing our dedication to God. As living stones, we are invited to let Christ dwell in us more fully, so that through our lives, the world may encounter the living presence of God — His Church alive and radiant in every heart.

NOVEMBER MASSES FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

During the month of November, the Church especially dedicates prayers and Masses for all the faithful departed.

The Parish office is still accepting November Mass intentions. Individual Mass intentions are open for December onwards

This is a time to remember with love our family members, friends, and all souls who have gone before us. Offering Masses for our departed loved ones is a beautiful act of faith, love, and mercy. The Holy Mass is the greatest prayer of the Church, because in it, Jesus Christ offers Himself to the Father for the salvation of the world. When we offer a Mass for the souls in purgatory, we unite our prayers with the perfect sacrifice of Christ, asking God to purify them from every sin and bring them into the joy of heaven.

Throughout November, 30 Masses will be offered each day for the repose of souls. This is a powerful spiritual gift. Our prayers and these Holy Masses help the souls in purgatory to be cleansed and prepared to enter eternal life with God. The Church teaches that our intercession, especially through the Eucharist, can bring great relief to these souls and hasten their journey to heaven.

This practice also strengthens our faith and hope in eternal life. It reminds us that love does not end with death, and that we are united in the Communion of Saints—the Church on earth, in purgatory, and in heaven. Offering Masses for the dead is a true work of mercy, showing our deep belief in God's mercy and our everlasting hope of being reunited with our loved ones in His kingdom.

Located in St Patrick's Church foyer is a box for you to place completed envelopes, or you could place envelopes in the collection plate at Mass or drop them into the Parish office.

MINISTRATION OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST

Ministers who take the Eucharist to those unable to attend Mass are reminded to always handle the consecrated Host with the utmost reverence. The Host must be carried in a sacred vessel, known as a pyx, which both signifies and safeguards the sacredness of what it contains.

The use of a pyx provides a secure and dignified way to carry the Body of Christ, protecting it from damage or the risk of being dropped. Out of deep respect, those entrusted with carrying a pyx should always be mindful that they are transporting the Real Presence of Christ.

For additional protection and discretion, the pyx is then placed in a small purse-like case. These purses are available for collection by Eucharistic Ministers from the Parish office.

END OF THE YEAR OF JOY IN GOSFORD PARISH

As our Parish Year of Joy comes to an end this November, we pause to reflect on what this year has meant for us as a faith community. Throughout the months, we have been reminded again and again that joy is not simply an emotion that comes and goes—it is a gift from God, rooted in His love and presence among us.

Saint John Paul II once said, "God made us for joy." These simple words carry profound truth. Joy is not something we must earn; it is woven into our very being. When we live in relationship with God, we discover that joy is found even amid struggle, sorrow, and daily routine. It is the quiet confidence that God is with us and that His love never fails.

This Year of Joy has invited us to open our hearts—to find joy in prayer, in service, in community, and in the Eucharist. As we move forward, may we continue to live out what we have celebrated: to be witnesses of God's joy in a world that often forgets how to hope. Let our lives proclaim that true joy is found in Christ, who makes all things new.

END OF YEAR OUTING FOR ALTAR SERVERS

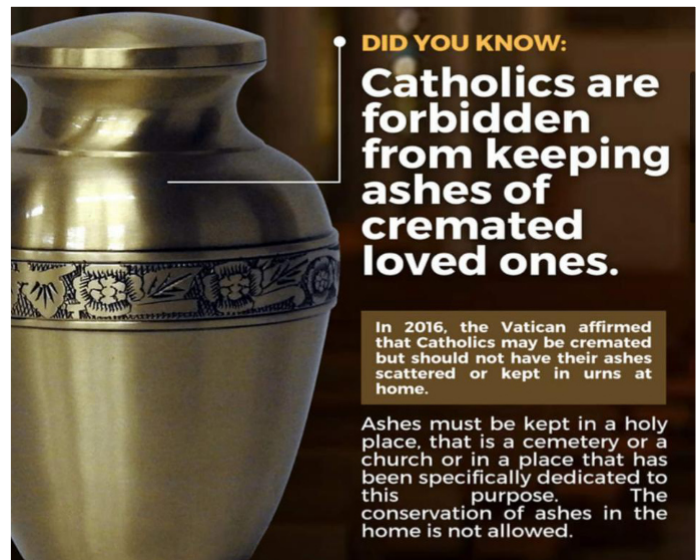

Father Greg and Father Bronek invite all altar servers for an end of year thanksgiving outing. This will take place on Sunday 30 November 12-2pm. Parents are encouraged to contact the Parish office to confirm attendance.

END OF YEAR THANKSGIVING MASS & DINNER FOR ALL VOLUNTEERS

Father Greg and Father Bronek wish to thank all the wonderful volunteers of our parish, and invite you all to attend an end of year Thanksgiving Mass at 6pm, followed by dinner at the Parish on Wednesday 10 December. Please confirm your attendance at the Parish office before 5 December.

THANK YOU PAUL GALEA

Special thanks to Paul Galea for his works inside the church. Thank you Paul for donating your time and effort!

PWBB NOVEMBER APPEAL

Dear friends,

We need your generosity and support!

Our Diocese of Broken Bay will be launching at the start of November the Pastoral Works (PWBB) November Appeal. The Appeal supports various charities in our Diocesan community, particularly the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) and the Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care Program. PWBB also supports St Lucy's School and St Edmund's College for students with disabilities, and the Ephpheta Centre supports the deaf community.

This financial year, 2025/2026, Gosford Parish has been asked to contribute to the charity works of our Diocese with $40,273. These ministries need our community's generosity as they get little or no Government funding.

Please consider donating to help us reach this year's goal. You can donate at any time, not only during May or November.

ALL DONATIONS OVER $2 ARE TAX DEDUCTIBLE!

I saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. Behold God's dwelling with the human race. He will dwell with them and they will be his people, and God himself with them will be their God.

FIRST READING

EZEKIAL 47:: 1-2. 8-9. 12

A reading from the prophet Ezekial

The angel brought me to the entrance of the Temple, where a stream came out from under the Temple threshold and flowed eastwards, since the Temple faced east. The water flowed from under the right side of the Temple, south of the altar. He took me out by the north gate and led me right round outside as far as the outer east gate where the water flowed out on the right-hand side. The man went to the east holding his measuring line and measured off a thousand cubits; he then made me wade across the stream; the water reached my ankles. He measured off another thousand and made me wade across the stream again; the water reached my knees. He measured off another thousand and made me wade across again; the water reached my waist. He measured off another thousand; it was now a river which I could not cross; the stream had swollen and was now deep water, a river impossible to cross. He then said, 'Do you see, son of man?' He took me further, then brought me back to the bank of the river. When I got back, there were many trees on each bank of the river. He said, 'This water flows east down to the Arabah and to the sea; and flowing into the sea it makes its waters wholesome. Wherever the river flows, all living creatures teeming in it will live. Fish will be very plentiful, for wherever the water goes it brings health, and life teems wherever the river flows. Along the river, on either bank, will grow every kind of fruit tree with leaves that never wither and fruit that never fails; they will bear new fruit every month, because this water comes from the sanctuary. And their fruit will be good to eat and the leaves medicinal.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

(R.) The waters of the river gladden the city of God.

1. God is for us a refuge and strength, a helper close at hand, in time of distress; so we shall not fear though the earth should rock, though the mountains fall into the depths of the sea. (R.) The waters of the river gladden the city of God

2. The waters of a river give joy to God's city, the holy place where the Most High dwells. God is within, it cannot be shaken; God will help it at the dawning of the day. (R.) The waters of the river gladden the city of God

3. The Lord of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our stronghold. Come, consider the works of the Lord, the redoubtable deeds he has done on the earth. (R.) The waters of the river gladden the city of God

SECOND READING

1 CORINTHIANS 3:9-11. 16-17I

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

You are God's building. By the grace God gave me, I succeeded as an architect and laid the foundations, on which someone else is doing the building. Everyone doing the building must work carefully. For the foundation, nobody can lay any other than the one which has already been laid, that is Jesus Christ.

Didn't you realise that you were God's temple and that the Spirit of God was living among you? If anybody should destroy the temple of God, God will destroy him, because the temple of God is sacred; and you are that temple.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

2 CHRONICLES 7:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

I have chosen and sanctified this house, says the Lord, that my name may remain in it for all time.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JOHN 2:13-22

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Just before the Jewish Passover Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and in the Temple he found people selling cattle and sheep and pigeons, and the money changers sitting at their counters there. Making a whip out of some cord, he drove them all out of the Temple, cattle and sheep as well, scattered the money changers' coins, knocked their tables over and said to the pigeon-sellers, 'Take all this out of here and stop turning my Father's house into a market'. Then his disciples remembered the words of scripture: Zeal for your house will devour me. The Jews intervened and said, 'What sign can you show us to justify what you have done?' Jesus answered, 'Destroy this sanctuary, and in three days I will raise it up'. The Jews replied, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this sanctuary: are you going to raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the sanctuary that was his body, and when Jesus rose from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the words he had said.

PARISH MEMORIAL WALL ST PATRICKS CHURCH - NICHES

The Parish Memorial Wall, located at the rear of St Patrick's Church, offers a sacred and peaceful place of remembrance for our dearly departed. The wall contains niches available for purchase for yourself or for loved ones, providing a lasting memorial within the grounds of our parish. Each year, the Memorial Wall and its niches are Blessed by the Parish Priest during a special ceremony, often attended by family members and parishioners who gather to remember, pray for, and honour those who have passed away. The surrounding gardens are lovingly maintained by our parish volunteers, creating a tranquil space for quiet reflection and prayer throughout the year. This area stands as a visible sign of our faith in the Resurrection and our continuing bond with those who now rest in the peace of Christ. For further information about purchasing a niche please contact the Parish Office on 4325 1042 or email patsgos@acs.net.au
