Year of JOY

WHY MASS AND PRAYERS OFFERED FOR SOULS HELP THEM IN ETERNITY

The Catholic Church teaches that our prayers, especially the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, have real spiritual power to assist souls who have passed from this life. This belief is rooted in the mystery of the Communion of Saints — the profound unity between the faithful on earth, the souls being purified in purgatory, and the saints in heaven. Though death separates us physically, it cannot break the bond of love that exists within the Body of Christ.

When we offer the Holy Mass or prayers for the departed, we participate in Christ's redemptive work. The Eucharist is not simply a memorial; it is the re-presentation of Christ's one sacrifice on Calvary. Every Mass draws its power from that same saving act, in which Jesus offered Himself for the salvation of all humanity. By offering Mass for a soul, we ask God to apply the infinite merits of Christ's sacrifice to that person — to purify them, heal them, and hasten their entrance into eternal glory.

The souls in purgatory are assured of heaven, but they still undergo purification from the remnants of sin — the lingering attachments or consequences that must be healed before they can fully share in the perfect joy of God's presence. Our prayers, almsgiving, sacrifices, and especially the Mass, help them because God, in His mercy, allows our intercessions to strengthen and console them. Just as love motivates us to care for our loved ones on earth, that same love moves us to pray for them after death.

Prayer is, therefore, the bridge between time and eternity. When we pray for our departed loved ones, we enter into a sacred conversation that transcends earthly limits. Though we cannot see them, our prayers reach them through the heart of God, and their gratitude and love reach us in return. This exchange of grace reminds us that love does not end at the grave — it is transformed.

By praying and offering Mass for the souls of the departed, we also grow in hope and charity. We are reminded of our own destiny and called to live with greater faith and compassion. In this way, prayer becomes not only a gift to the dead but also a blessing for the living — a profound act of communion with those who have gone before us into the embrace of eternal life.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN ALL SAINTS DAY AND ALL SOULS DAY

All Saints' Day, celebrated on November 1, honors all the saints in heaven — both those officially canonized by the Church and the countless others who have reached eternal glory but are unknown to us. It is a joyful feast that reminds us of our call to holiness and celebrates the triumph of God's grace in the lives of His faithful servants.

All Souls' Day, observed on November 2, is dedicated to praying for the souls of the faithful departed who are still being purified in purgatory. On this day, the Church offers Masses and prayers for their repose, asking God to grant them eternal rest and bring them into His presence.

Together, these two feasts express the unity of the Communion of Saints — the Church triumphant (heaven), the Church suffering (purgatory), and the Church militant (on earth) — all bound together in Christ's love

THANK YOU TO OUR PARISH RCIA LEADERS

We would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to Chris Paget, who is stepping down from his leading role in the RCIA program. For many years, Chris has dedicated his time, energy, and faith to guiding and supporting adults on their journey to becoming members of the Catholic Church. His commitment, compassion, and leadership have been a true blessing to our parish community. Through his efforts, many have come to know Christ more deeply and have embraced their faith with confidence and joy. We pray that the Lord continues to bless Chris abundantly for his years of faithful service.

We are also pleased to welcome Amanda Dillon as she steps into the new leadership role for the RCIA program. We are deeply grateful for her willingness to serve and to continue nurturing the spiritual growth of those seeking to join the Church. Joining Amanda on the RCIA team are Maria Nardi, Amanda Edies, Adrian Andrzejewski, and Tegan Bayliss. We thank them for their dedication and enthusiasm. May the Holy Spirit guide and inspire the entire team as they help others grow in faith and in their relationship with God.

PRIESTHOOD ANNIVERSARY OF ST. JOHN PAUL II

On November 1, we joyfully celebrate the priesthood anniversary of St. John Paul II, who was ordained a priest in 1946. This special day marks 79 years since he began his lifelong mission of serving God and His people with deep faith, humility, and love. St. John Paul II dedicated his priesthood to spreading the message of Christ's mercy, hope, and the dignity of every human life. His example continues to inspire countless people around the world to live their faith with courage and joy. As we remember this anniversary, let us give thanks for his priestly witness and pray for his intercession, that we too may follow Christ faithfully and bring His love to all we meet.

NOVEMBER MASSES FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

During the month of November, the Church especially dedicates prayers and Masses for all the faithful departed.

Unfortunately the Parish office is not able to accept individual Mass intentions during the month of November as we have an obligation to say November Mass intentions daily for the faithful departed. Accepting individual Masses for December.

This is a time to remember with love our family members, friends, and all souls who have gone before us. Offering Masses for our departed loved ones is a beautiful act of faith, love, and mercy. The Holy Mass is the greatest prayer of the Church, because in it, Jesus Christ offers Himself to the Father for the salvation of the world. When we offer a Mass for the souls in purgatory, we unite our prayers with the perfect sacrifice of Christ, asking God to purify them from every sin and bring them into the joy of heaven.

Throughout November, 30 Masses will be offered each day for the repose of souls. This is a powerful spiritual gift. Our prayers and these Holy Masses help the souls in purgatory to be cleansed and prepared to enter eternal life with God. The Church teaches that our intercession, especially through the Eucharist, can bring great relief to these souls and hasten their journey to heaven.

This practice also strengthens our faith and hope in eternal life. It reminds us that love does not end with death, and that we are united in the Communion of Saints—the Church on earth, in purgatory, and in heaven. Offering Masses for the dead is a true work of mercy, showing our deep belief in God's mercy and our everlasting hope of being reunited with our loved ones in His kingdom.

Located in St Patrick's Church foyer is a box for you to place completed envelopes, or you could place envelopes in the collection plate at Mass or drop them into the Parish office.

POINT CLARE CEMETERY

During the month of November, we especially remember and pray for the souls of our faithful departed. As part of these special devotions, a Mass will be celebrated at Point Clare Cemetery Monday 3rd November at 10:00am.

All parishioners and friends are warmly invited to join.

WELCOME BEATA - FATHER GREGS SISTER

We are delighted to welcome Beata, Fr Greg's oldest sister from Poland, who will be visiting him from Monday and staying with us for two weeks. This is Beata's first visit to Australia, and we are overjoyed that she will be part of our parish family during her stay.

Let us extend to her the warmth and hospitality that our community is known for. When you see her at Mass or around the parish, please take a moment to greet her and make her feel at home. Welcome, Beata! May your time here be blessed with joy, friendship, and lasting memories.

PWBB NOVEMBER APPEAL

Dear friends,

We need your generosity and support!

Our Diocese of Broken Bay will be launching at the start of November the Pastoral Works (PWBB) November Appeal. The Appeal supports various charities in our Diocesan community, particularly the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) and the Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care Program. PWBB also supports St Lucy's School and St Edmund's College for students with disabilities, and the Ephpheta Centre supports the deaf community.

This financial year, 2025/2026, Gosford Parish has been asked to contribute to the charity works of our Diocese with $40,273. These ministries need our community's generosity as they get little or no Government funding.

Please consider donating to help us reach this year's goal. You can donate at any time, not only during May or November.

ALL DONATIONS OVER $2 ARE TAX DEDUCTIBLE!

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cf 1 Th 4:14; 1 Cor 15:22

Just as Jesus died and has risen again, so through Jesus God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep; and as in Adam all die, so also in Christ will all be brought to life.

FIRST READING

ISAIAH 25:6-9

A reading from the book of Isaiah

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich food. On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations, he will destroy Death for ever. The Lord will wipe away the tears from every cheek; he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth, for the Lord has said so. That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation; the Lord is the one in whom we hoped. We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

(R.) The Lord is my light and my salvation.

1. The Lord is my light and my help; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; before whom shall I shrink? (R.) The Lord is my light and my salvation.

2. There is one thing I ask of the Lord, for this I long, to live in the house of the Lord, all the days of my life, to savour the sweetness of the Lord, to behold his temple. (R.) The Lord is my light and my salvation.

3. O Lord, hear my voice when I call; have mercy and answer. It is your face, O Lord, that I seek; hide not your face. (R.) The Lord is my light and my salvation.

4. I am sure I shall see the Lord's goodness in the land of the living. Hope in him, hold firm and take heart. Hope in the Lord! (R.) The Lord is my light and my salvation.

SECOND READING

ROMANS 5:5-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

Hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us. We were still helpless when at his appointed moment Christ died for sinful men. It is not easy to die even for a good man – though of course for someone really worthy, a man might be prepared to die – but what proves that God loves us is that Christ died for us while we were still sinners. Having died to make us righteous, is it likely that he would now fail to save us from God's anger? When we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, we were still enemies; now that we have been reconciled, surely we may count on being saved by the life of his Son? Not merely because we have been reconciled but because we are filled with joyful trust in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have already gained our reconciliation.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JOHN 6:39

This is the will of my Father, says the Lord, that all who believe in the Son will have eternal life and I will raise them to life again on the last day.

GOSPEL

LUKE 7:11-17

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Young man, I say to you, to get up. Jesus went to a town called Nain, accompanied by his disciples and a great number of people. When he was near the gate of the town it happened that a dead man was being carried out for burial, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a considerable number of the townspeople were with her. When the Lord saw her he felt sorry for her. 'Do not cry,' he said. Then he went up and put his hand on the bier and the bearers stood still, and he said, 'Young man, I tell you to get up'. And the dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Everyone was filled with awe and praised God saying, 'A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people.' And this opinion of him spread throughout Judaea and all over the countryside.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Cf JOHN 11:25-26

I am the Resurrection and the Life, says the Lord. Whoever believes in me, even though he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will not die for ever.
