HOW CAN I CARRY THE TRANSFORMING PRESENCE OF CHRIST FROM THE ALTAR INTO MY RELATIONSHIPS, WORK, AND DAILY INTERACTIONS?

Carrying the transforming presence of Christ from the altar into daily life is the heart of Christian discipleship. What happens in worship is not meant to stay there; it is meant to overflow into the world. Here are several ways to let the grace you receive at the altar shape your relationships, work, and ordinary interactions.

1. Let worship form your inner posture.

At the altar you encounter Christ's self-giving love—love that is patient, merciful, and unafraid to serve. When you rise from that place, pause to ask: What inner posture did Christ show me today? Maybe it was humility, compassion, or perseverance. Intentionally carry that posture into the next thing you do. Over time, this trains your heart to respond to people not out of impulse but out of the character Christ is forming in you.

2. Practice the "continuation" of communion.

Communion is not only receiving Christ but becoming His body. After worship, look for small ways to extend the same generosity you have received: slowing down to listen, forgiving quickly, offering encouragement, or noticing someone who is overlooked. These may seem small, but they are the daily bread of Christlike presence—ordinary acts that become sacramental when done in love.

3. Bring prayer into the rhythm of your day.

The altar is an encounter, not an escape. Let that encounter follow you by anchoring your day with brief, sincere prayers. Before a meeting, whisper: Christ, be in this conversation. Before a hard task: Strengthen me to work with integrity. Before speaking to someone difficult: Let me see them as You do. These simple prayers make space for Christ's presence to guide your responses rather than your anxieties.

4. See others through the lens of mercy.

Worship reminds you that you are loved and forgiven. Carry that awareness into your relationships by giving others the same mercy Christ extends to you. This does not mean ignoring boundaries or accepting harmful behavior—it means approaching others without harsh judgment, remembering that every person is in process, every heart is burdened, and every story is known fully only to God.

5. Offer your work as an act of love.

Whatever your job, let it become an altar of its own. Approach your tasks with diligence, honesty, and kindness. Ask how your work can contribute to the good of others, even in hidden ways. Christ transforms the ordinary not by making it spectacular, but by filling it with purpose and love.

6. Return often—and with openness.

Finally, the transformation that begins at the altar deepens through repetition. Keep returning with honesty, gratitude, and desire for renewal. The more you allow Christ to shape you in worship, the more naturally His presence will radiate from you in daily life.

In this way, the altar becomes not a destination but a starting point—sending you out as a living sign of Christ's love wherever you go.

Let us Pray that those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support care, and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life.

Do not omit any good work that befits your state. Fear useless anxieties as a great enemy which will hinder you from all good!

LETTER FROM FATHER GREG

Dear Parishioners,

As many of you are aware, Bishop Anthony Randazzo announced a few weeks ago in his pastoral letter that the Precious Blood of Christ will soon be reintroduced during Holy Communion in all churches across our diocese. This is a wonderful and grace-filled moment for our faith community, as it allows us once again to share more fully in the Eucharistic mystery — receiving both the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Having said that, our parish is not yet ready to begin this practice immediately. Before we can do so, it is essential that our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and senior altar servers receive the proper preparation and training. This is a sacred and important ministry that calls for reverence, understanding, and careful attention to detail. We must ensure that everyone involved is confident and well prepared before we start distributing the Precious Blood of Christ again.

As the end of the year is a particularly busy time for many of us, I have decided to delay the reintroduction of the Chalice until beginning of next year. This will allow us to dedicate the necessary time to provide training and formation for all ministers involved.

Thank you for your patience, understanding, and ongoing commitment to our parish community. Together, we will approach this next step in our Eucharistic life with faith, reverence, and joy.

Yours in Christ,

Fr Greg

ANOIDING OF THE SICK AND LAST RITES

In the Catholic Church, Anointing of the Sick and Last Rites are related but distinct concepts, often misunderstood as the same. Both are part of the Church's pastoral care for the sick and dying, but they serve different purposes and can occur at different stages of illness or life.

Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments and is intended for anyone who is seriously ill, undergoing major surgery, or experiencing the frailty of old age. It involves a priest anointing the forehead and hands of the sick person with holy oil, accompanied by prayers for healing, strength, and forgiveness. This sacrament is not only for those near death but also for the recovery of health, both physical and spiritual. It can be received multiple times if the person's condition worsens or if they face another serious illness.

Last Rites, on the other hand, is not a single sacrament but a combination of several rites given to a person who is close to death. It typically includes three elements: the Sacrament of Reconciliation (confession), Anointing of the Sick, and Viaticum, which is the final reception of the Eucharist ("food for the journey"). The Last Rites are meant to prepare the soul for death and entry into eternal life, offering spiritual comfort, peace, and the forgiveness of sins.

In summary, while the Anointing of the Sick can be administered at any serious stage of illness, Last Rites are specifically for those who are dying. Every Catholic nearing the end of life is encouraged to receive the Last Rites if possible, but the Anointing of the Sick is broader in scope and not limited to the dying.

Importantly, a priest cannot administer either the Anointing of the Sick or the Last Rites after death. Once a person has died, the sacraments can no longer be given. In that case, a priest may offer prayers for the dead, but the sacraments themselves must be given while the person is still alive, even if they are unconscious.

ADORATION AND CONFESSION

Due to Fr Greg and Fr Bronek being in Perth this week for their Salvatorian meeting, there will be no Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from Monday to Thursday. During their time away, the supplying priest will provide the sacrament of Confession only, beginning 20 minutes before each scheduled Mass. We apologise for any inconvenience this temporary change may cause and appreciate your patience and understanding. Regular services will resume once our priests return at the end of the week.

CALLED TO BE A SYNODAL CHURCH

Thank you to Patti Beattie and Kelly Paget for leading our formation day last weekend. Our parish leaders came together for a formation day focused on what it means to live as a Synodal Church—one that listens, discerns, and walks together in faith. We revisited our journey from the wider Universal and Diocesan Church to our own local context, reflecting on how synodality can shape and strengthen our ministries areas.

Through prayer and Conversation in the Spirit, we explored the Final Document of the Synod on Synodality and listened for how the Holy Spirit may be inviting us to renew our commitment to communion, participation, and mission within our Gosford Parish community. The day also offered practical insights into how we can embody a more synodal way of being in our parish life.

Together we continue this journey, with our Parish Pastoral Council helping to carry our shared discernment forward along the synodal pathway.

PWBB NOVEMBER APPEAL

Who does Pastoral Works Broken Bay support?

Every year, your donations to Pastoral Works Broken Bay (PWBB) support two key Diocesan ministries. They are the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) and Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care Program. PWBB also contributes financially to St Lucy's School and St Edmund's College for students with disabilities and the Ephpheta Centre which supports the deaf community.

1. Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD)

In our Diocese, more than 700 volunteer catechists who have received specialised training provide religious education to over 12,000 Catholic students attending public primary and secondary schools in our local parish communities. CCD provides regular resources and newsletters for the students and their families. It is a vital evangelisation role and a vibrant, enriching, and rewarding ministry. Without your support, thousands of our young people in our Diocese would not receive Catholic education.

2. Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care Practitioner Program

In the last financial year, our Priests and CatholicCare Pastoral Care Practitioners engaged with around 2,000 individuals (including patients, their families/friends/carers, and even hospital staff) across the seven hospitals in which they minister, representing around 5,000 pastoral visits. Their special ministry supports patients and their families when they are at their most vulnerable, and they are there for those who may not have a family. Sometimes, it may mean a simple conversation, a listening ear, or providing prayerful and sacramental support.

3. St Lucy's School

St Lucy's School is a Catholic K-12 school in the Dominican tradition for students with disabilities. They provide a holistic education, offering outstanding academic programs taught by special educators. At St Lucy's they view each child individually to unlock their unique potential and to encourage them to become independent.

4. St Edmund's College

St Edmund's is a Catholic 7-12 high school for students with a wide range of disabilities including sensory impairment, intellectual disability, and autism. St Edmunds creates a holistic learning environment incorporating academics and personal wellbeing through co-curricular activities.

5. The Ephpheta Centre

Ephpheta means "Be Open". The Ephpheta Centre provides pastoral care, sacramental services, support, and advocacy for the deaf or hard of hearing. The chaplaincy team visits people confined to their homes, nursing homes, hospitals, and those in prison, as well as friendship community gatherings catering to people across Sydney and the Central Coast.

All donations over $2 are 100% tax deductible.

REVELATION 5:12; 1:6

How worthy is the Lamb who was slain,
to receive power and divinity,
and wisdom and strength and honour.
To him belong glory and power for ever and ever.

FIRST READING

2 SAMUEL 5:1-3

A reading from the second book of Samuel

All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron. 'Look' they said 'we are your own flesh and blood. In days past when Saul was our king, it was you who led Israel in all their exploits; and the Lord said to you, "You are the man who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you shall be the leader of Israel."' So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a pact with them at Hebron in the presence of the Lord, and they anointed David king of Israel.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 121:1-5. R. SEE V.2

(R.) Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

1. I rejoiced when I heard them say: 'Let us go to God's house.'

And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.

(R.) Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

2. Jerusalem is built as a city strongly compact.

It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord.

(R.) Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

3. For Israel's law it is, there to praise the Lord's name.

There were set the thrones of judgement of the house of David.

(R.) Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

SECOND READING

COLOSSIANS 1:12-20

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

We give thanks to the Father who has made it possible for you to join the saints and with them to inherit the light. Because that is what he has done: he has taken us out of the power of darkness and created a place for us in the kingdom of the Son that he loves, and in him, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins.

He is the image of the unseen God and the first-born of all creation, for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth: everything visible and everything invisible, Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignities, Powers – all things were created through him and for him. Before anything was created, he existed, and he holds all things in unity. Now the Church is his body, he is its head.

As he is the Beginning, he was first to be born from the dead, so that he should be first in every way; because God wanted all perfection to be found in him and all things to be reconciled through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the cross.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

LUKE 21:28

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father;

blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LUKE 23:35-43

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

The people stayed there before the cross watching Jesus. As for the leaders, they jeered at him. 'He saved others,' they said, 'let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.' The soldiers mocked him too, and when they approached to offer him vinegar they said, 'If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.' Above him there was an inscription: 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals hanging there abused him. 'Are you not the Christ?' he said. 'Save yourself and us as well.' But the other spoke up and rebuked him. 'Have you no fear of God at all?' he said. 'You got the same sentence as he did, but in our case we deserved it: we are paying for what we did. But this man has done nothing wrong. Jesus,' he said,

'remember me when you come into your kingdom.' 'Indeed, I promise you,' he replied, 'today you will be with me in paradise.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

PSALM 28:10-11

The Lord sits as King for ever.

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

ST PATRICKS CHURCH - NICHES AVAILABLE

The Parish Memorial Wall, located at the rear of St Patrick's Church, offers a sacred and peaceful place of remembrance for our dearly departed. The wall contains niches available for purchase for yourself or for loved ones, providing a lasting memorial within the grounds of our parish.

Each year, the Memorial Wall and its niches are Blessed by the Parish Priest during a special ceremony, often attended by family members and parishioners who gather to remember, pray for, and honour those who have passed away.

The surrounding gardens are lovingly maintained by our parish volunteers, creating a tranquil space for quiet reflection and prayer throughout the year.

This area stands as a visible sign of our faith in the Resurrection and our continuing bond with those who now rest in the peace of Christ. For further information about purchasing a niche please contact the Parish Office on 4325 1042 or email patsgos@acs.net.au.
