BECOMING A MORE EUCHARISTIC PARISH COMMUNITY

To become a more Eucharistic parish community is to allow the grace we encounter at the altar to shape everything we do beyond it. The Eucharist is not only a sacrament we receive but a mystery meant to transform us—heart, mind, and action—so that Christ's love becomes visible in our daily lives. When a parish understands this, its worship naturally overflows into service, welcome, and charity.

First, a Eucharistic parish is rooted in thanksgiving and reverence. Regular participation at Mass forms us to recognize God's presence in all circumstances. When our liturgy is celebrated with genuine faith and prayerfulness, it nourishes the community spiritually and reminds us that we are fed in order to feed others. Encouraging more intentional preparation for Sunday worship—through prayer, Scripture reflection, or quiet moments before Mass—helps parishioners arrive ready to encounter Christ and be changed by Him.

Second, Eucharistic faith leads to active service. Jesus, who offers Himself in the Eucharist, calls His disciples to self-giving love. A parish that has truly embraced the Eucharistic mystery will naturally seek out those who are hungry, lonely, or marginalized. This may take the form of supporting food banks, visiting the sick, assisting struggling families, or offering ministries that respond to local needs. Service becomes not a project, but a way of life shaped by the sacrificial love of Christ we celebrate at the altar.

Third, a Eucharistic community is marked by radical hospitality. Just as Christ welcomes all to His table, so the parish must welcome everyone who walks through its doors—regulars, visitors, the disillusioned, and those returning after years away. Hospitality teams, welcoming committee, and everyday parishioners can create an atmosphere

where people feel seen and valued. A simple smile, a warm greeting, or a personal invitation to join parish activities reflects the openness of Christ Himself.

Finally, a Eucharistic parish is committed to love rooted in unity. The Eucharist unites us with Christ and with one another. This unity grows when parishioners listen respectfully, resolve conflicts with charity, and work collaboratively in ministry. Small groups, prayer circles, and parish gatherings strengthen these bonds, fostering a community where members support, encourage, and accompany each other in faith.

Pope Leo XIV - Prayer Intention for December For Christmas in areas of conflict

Let us Pray that Christians living in areas of war and conflict, especially in the Middle East, might be seeds of peace, reconciliation, and hope.

Blessed Francis Jordan

I need to give more before heaven can be mine; not ripe yet am I for that peace sublime. I must follow the Savior still more nearly...

A NOTE FROM THE PARISH FINANCE COMMITTEE

Fr Greg will soon be moving to Currambine in Western Australia as he begins focusing more fully on his recently appointed role as Superior of the Australian Region of the Salvatorians.

As we prepare to say goodbye, we take this opportunity to reflect with gratitude on the many blessings his ministry has brought to our parish community.

We are deeply grateful for his faithful ministry, his generous service, and the many ways he has shared Christ's love with our community. His dedication has strengthened our faith and enriched our life as a parish.

If you would like to express your personal gratitude, you are invited to make a monetary gift of appreciation. Contributions may be placed in the envelopes found in the pews this weekend and again in January and placed in the collection plate, delivered to the parish office or given directly to Fr Greg.

These gifts will help him as he transitions to his new ministry and will serve as a heartfelt reminder of the affection and esteem of our parish community that he has served so faithfully.

Please continue to keep Fr. Greg in your prayers during this time of change. May the Lord reward him abundantly for his ministry among us and bless him with joy, strength, and renewed zeal as he begins this next chapter of his priestly service.

Members of the Parish Finance Committee

NEW PARISH PRIEST IN GOSFORD

Fr Pawel (Paul) Szczur SDS has been appointed the new parish priest of Gosford Parish. Currently serving in Esperance, Western Australia, Fr Paul is known for his enthusiasm, energy, and strong work ethic. He brings with him many years of dedicated priestly ministry and pastoral experience. The Gosford community looks forward to welcoming him as he officially begins his new role on 24 January 2026.

MASS FOR THE CLOSING OF THE JUBILEE YEAR OF HOPE

Bishop Anthony extends a very warm invitation to the clergy and people of God in Broken Bay to join him for Mass and Closing of the Jubilee Year. The Relics from our three Shrines of Hope will also journey to the Cathedral to be present for this Mass.

Date: Sunday 28 December 2025

Time: 9.30am

Location: Our Lady of the Rosary Cathedral, Waitara

JUBILEE YEAR PASSPORTS

If you have completed your Jubilee passport and collected four stamps, please bring it to the Parish office so we can apply for the Bishop's Certificate for the Jubilee year for you and your family.

VOCATION FROM GOSFORD PARISH

Congratulations to our parishioner, Joseph Nicols, who has made the courageous decision to enter the diocesan seminary and begin his formation for the priesthood. We rejoice with him as he takes this important step in responding to God's call. Please keep Joseph in your prayers, asking the Holy Spirit to guide him, strengthen him, and help him discern his vocation with clarity, peace, and faith now and in years ahead.

VISIT TO THE SICK OF THE PARISH

Please contact the parish office before 16 December if someone in your family is sick and unable to attend Mass for a long time and would like a priest to visit them before Christmas. Priests are available to bring Holy Communion and the Anointing of the Sick. Early notification helps us plan visits and ensure everyone who needs spiritual care is reached in time, with gratitude for your cooperation.

ST PATRICKS PRIMARY SCHOOL BUILDING PROJECT

Dear Parishioners,
Our school is blessed to begin a $15 million building project in the Christmas holidays. The building company takes possession of 60% of the Victoria St Campus (Primary) on 20th December. At the conclusion of the project (May 2027) our whole school, K-6 will be located on the Church side of our school. Regarding the parking available on the school playground for weekend Masses, there will be reduced capacity. The capacity for parking will be approximately 50% of its current volume. We certainly appreciate and value your patience throughout the building project. The project company have stated that the building will be a complex and involved project. We understand it will present some difficulties over the next 18 months but kindly ask for your understanding.

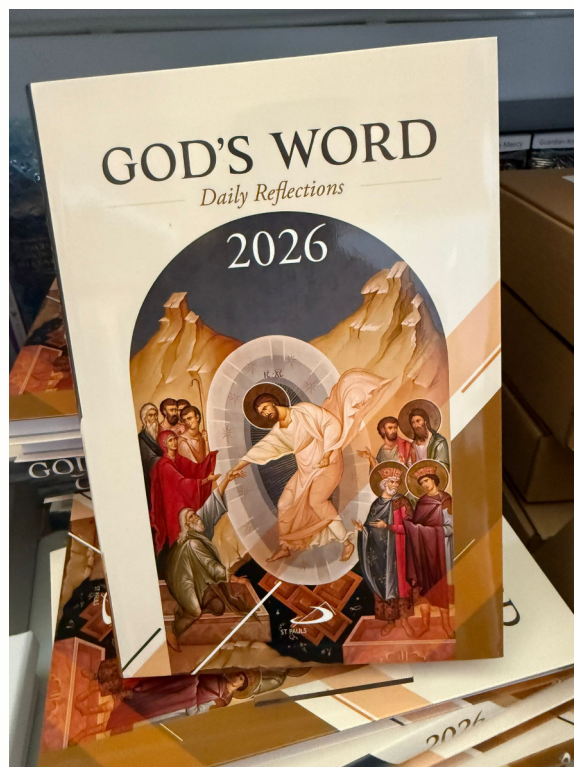

May Our Lord's blessings bring an abundance of gifts to your family during the Christmas season.

Kevin Willams - School Principal

WORD DAILY REFLECTIONS BOOKS

God's Word Daily Reflections books for 2026 are now available in the piety shop. These beautifully prepared guides offer thoughtful reflections, Scripture readings, and inspirational insights to support your spiritual journey throughout the year. Quantities are very limited, so we encourage you to secure your copy as soon as possible to avoid missing out. Pick up a book for yourself, a friend, or a family member, and begin the new year with renewed faith and deeper connection to God's Word.

FAREWELL FOR FATHER GREG - VOLUNTEERS

Parishioners who would like to assist with the committee organising Fr Greg's farewell dinner, to be held on Saturday, 17 January, are warmly invited to volunteer. We will be holding a meeting in the lead up to Christmas, so please contact the parish office so planning can begin smoothly and all preparations can be coordinated effectively for this special event.

FAREWELL TO RAELENE OCONNOR

We warmly invite everyone to join us next Sunday, 21 December, at the 9.30am Mass, as we gather to thank Raelene O'Connor for her wonderful work, dedication, and commitment to our parish over the past few years.

Raelene and her family will soon be relocating to another part of Australia, and her last day in the parish office will be 24 December. Please join us for Mass, followed by morning tea, as we express our gratitude and offer our prayers for Raelene and her family in this new chapter of their lives.

At the same Mass, we will also officially welcome Jennifer Bradstreet as our new parish secretary. We look forward to supporting her as she begins her ministry with us.

PARISH OFFICE HOURS DURING CHRISTMAS BREAK

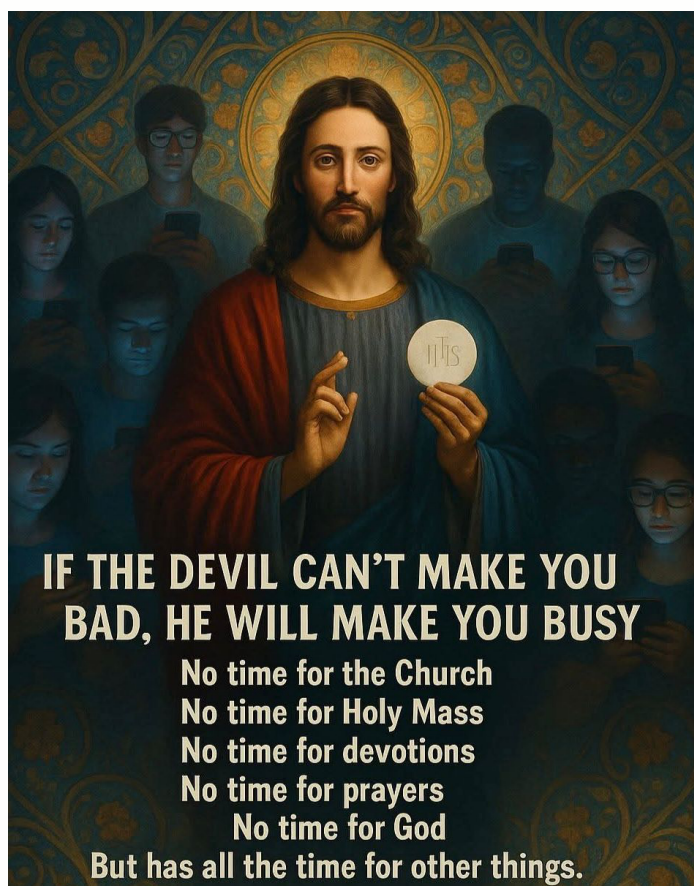

Please note that the parish office will be closed from 25 December 2025 until 5 January 2026.

If you have an emergency and need to speak with a priest during this time, please approach one of our priests after the morning Masses.

From 5 January to 9 January, the office will be open on reduced hours:

9.30am – 1.00pm.

We wish you and your families a blessed and joyful Christmas season.

PHILIPPIANS 4:4-5

Rejoice in the Lord always; again
I say, rejoice.
Indeed, the Lord is near.

FIRST READING

ISAIAH 35:1-6, 10

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Let the wilderness and the drylands exult,
let the wasteland rejoice and
bloom,
let it bring forth flowers like the jonquil,
let it rejoice and sing for joy.
The glory of Lebanon is bestowed
on it,
the splendour of Carmel and Sharon;
they shall see the glory of the Lord,
the splendour of our God.
Strengthen all weary hands, steady all trembling knees
and say to all faint hearts,
'Courage! Do not be afraid.
'Look, your God is coming,
vengeance is coming,
the retribution of God;
he is coming to save you.'
Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
the ears of the deaf unsealed,
then the lame shall leap like a deer,
and the tongues of the dumb
sing for joy,
for those the Lord has ransomed
shall return.
They will come to Zion shouting
for joy,
everlasting joy on their faces;
joy and gladness will go with them,
and sorrow and lament be ended.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 145:6-10. R. SEE Is 35:4

(R.) Lord, come and save us.

1. It is the Lord who keeps faith
for ever,
who is just to those who are oppressed.

It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners
free.

(R.) Lord, come and save us.

2. It is the Lord who gives sight
to the blind,
who raises up those who are
bowed down,
the Lord, who protects the stranger

and upholds the widow and orphan.

(R.) Lord, come and save us.

3. It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked.

The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age.

(R.) Lord, come and save us.

SECOND READING

JAMES 5:7-10

A reading from the letter of St James

Be patient, brothers, until the Lord's coming. Think of a farmer:
how patiently he waits for the precious fruit of the ground until it has had the autumn rains and the spring rains! You too have to be patient; do not lose heart, because the Lord's coming will be soon. Do not make complaints against one another, brothers, so as not to be brought to judgement yourselves; the Judge is already to be seen waiting at the gates. For your example, brothers, in submitting with patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

ISAIAH 61:1 (Lk 4:18)

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me;
he sent me to bring Good News
to the poor.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MATTHEW 11:2-11

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

John in his prison had heard what Christ was doing and he sent his disciples to ask him, 'Are you the one who is to come, or have we got to wait for someone else?' Jesus answered, 'Go back and tell John what you hear and see; the blind see again, and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed,
and the deaf hear, and the dead
are raised to life and the Good News is proclaimed to the poor;
and happy is the man who does not lose faith in me.'

As the messengers were leaving,
Jesus began to talk to the people about John: 'What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swaying in the breeze? No?
Then what did you go out to see?
A man wearing fine clothes? Oh no, those who wear fine clothes are to be found in palaces. Then what did you go out for? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet: he is the one of whom scripture says:
Look, I am going to send my messenger before you; he will prepare your way before you. I tell you solemnly, of all the children born of women, a greater than John the Baptist has never been seen; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he is.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Cf ISAIAH 35:4

Say to the faint of heart: Be strong and do not fear.
Behold, our God will come, and he will save us.
