15TH MARCH 2026

Gosford Parish

year of PRAYER

Loving and merciful God,
You invite us to ask, to seek, and to knock, trusting that You will always open the door to those who come to You in faith.
As we journey together in this Year of Prayer, open our hearts to the power of Your Spirit and help us to grow in trust, gratitude, and love.
Teach us to listen deeply to Your voice—in silence, in Scripture, and in the faces of those around us.
Strengthen our parish family in unity and hope, so that our prayer may lead us to action and our faith may shine in all we do.
May this year renew our hearts and draw us ever closer to You.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen

ST PATRICK: FROM CAPTIVE SLAVE TO MISSIONARY WHO TRANSFORMED IRELAND

In our busy world full of arguments online, broken relationships, and people feeling lost, picture this: a young man gets kidnapped at 16, sold as a slave, and spends six hard years alone in the hills. Instead of giving up, he finds real hope in God. Years later, he goes back—not to get even, but to share love and freedom. This is the real story of St. Patrick. It hits home today because many of us face our own “captivity”—stress, fear, division, or old hurts. Patrick’s life shows how God’s grace can turn pain into purpose, bring people together, and light up dark times. Renewed by the Trinity—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—his work brought dignity, unity, and hope to Ireland, then spread across Europe. Let’s explore how one man’s faith changed history and still inspires us now.

The Life of St. Patrick Patrick was born around AD 387 in Roman Britain. He had a comfortable life as the son of a church deacon. But at 16, Irish raiders attacked. They took him to Ireland and sold him into slavery. For six years, he worked as a shepherd on lonely hills, facing cold, hunger, and no friends nearby. “I am Patrick, a sinner... I was taken into captivity to Ireland with many thousands of people—and deservedly so, because we turned away from God.”—From Patrick’s own writing, the Confessio In that hard time, his faith woke up. He prayed all day—sometimes 100 times. God became real to him. He later wrote, “The Lord opened my heart so I could remember my sins and turn fully to Him.” The Bible says it well: “Consider it pure joy... whenever you face trials... because the testing of your faith produces perseverance” (James 1:2-3). Those years taught Patrick the Irish language and ways. A dream told him to escape: “Your ship is ready.” He walked 200 miles to the coast and found a boat home. This tough start built empathy. It showed him God’s grace can heal loneliness. Today, it speaks to anyone stuck in pain—addiction, loss, or injustice. Grace turns trials into strength and helps us connect with others.

A Voice to the Irish Back home, Patrick studied to become a priest in France. But Ireland stayed in his heart. In a vision, he saw a man from Ireland with a letter called “The Voice of the Irish.” The people cried out, “Come and walk among us again.” Around AD 432, he was made a bishop and sailed back. He landed in a land of kings, fierce tribes, and Druid priests who worshiped nature spirits. Patrick used simple things to share faith. He picked up a shamrock and said, “See? One leaf with three parts—just like one God in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.” This idea clicked. The Bible calls us to “go and make disciples... baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” (Matthew 28:19). He faced danger often. But he trusted God. A prayer linked to him says: “Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ in me...” He baptized thousands and trained local leaders.

A Legacy of Light By his death around AD 461, Patrick had started over 300 churches and monasteries. In one letter, he called out a cruel leader who raided Christians: “They are savage wolves devouring the people of God.” He loved the verse: “For the Lord God is a sun and shield; the Lord bestows favour and honour; no good thing does he withhold from those whose walk is blameless” (Psalm 84:11). Patrick fought slavery, lifted up women and the poor, and helped end tribal fights. He showed the Trinity’s unity in a divided land.

Timeline of St. Patrick’s Life Year (Approx.)

AD 387 Born in Britain. AD 403 Taken captive to Ireland; enslaved 6 years. AD 409 Escapes and returns home. AD 410-430 Studies and becomes a bishop. AD 432 Returns to Ireland to share the gospel. AD 433 Meets the king at Tara; uses shamrock for Trinity. AD 441 Writes against slavery in his letter. AD 450s Builds churches and monasteries. AD 461 Dies in Ireland.

The Shamrock Lesson The shamrock is more than luck. Patrick used it to explain the Trinity: three in one. It reminds us today that real unity comes from God—perfect for our divided times.

The Legacy of Patrick. Big Social Changes. Patrick helped stop slave raids. He gave women more respect and peace to fighting clans. He lived out: “There is neither... slave nor free... for you are all one in Christ Jesus” (Galatians 3:28). Saving Knowledge in Dark Times When Rome fell, Ireland stayed safe. Patrick’s monasteries kept books alive. Monks copied the Bible plus old Greek and Roman works. They added spaces between words and beautiful art. Later, Irish missionaries took this light to Europe. Missionary Spark Patrick’s way—using local culture and teams—inspired others like Columba. The Bible says, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!” (Romans 10:15). Lessons from Patrick’s Work in God’s Story of Grace Patrick shows how the Trinity brings freedom and togetherness: Grace in Hard Times — Like Joseph in the Bible, pain prepared him to help others. Building Bridges — He used Irish symbols to share truth, creating unity. “Christ with me, Christ before me...”— From a prayer tied to Patrick Fighting for Freedom — He stood against slavery: “It is for freedom that Christ has set us free” (Galatians 5:1). Spreading Light — His work saved knowledge and faith for generations. In our world of division and hurt, Patrick’s story calls us to live out grace. One faithful step can change lives, families, and even nations—then and now. Anthony Ferriell www.storyofgrace.org

CF ISAIAH 66:10-11

Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exult and be satisfied at her consoling breast.

FIRST READING

1 SAMUEL 16:1. 6-7. 10-13

A reading from the first book of Samuel

The Lord said to Samuel, 'Fill your horn with oil and go. I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem, for I have chosen myself a king among his sons.' When Samuel arrived, he caught sight of Eliab and thought, 'Surely the Lord's anointed one stands there before him,' but the Lord said to Samuel, 'Take no notice of his appearance or his height for I have rejected him; God does not see as man sees; man looks at appearances but the Lord looks at the heart.' Jesse presented his seven sons to Samuel, but Samuel said to Jesse, 'The Lord has not chosen these.' He then asked Jesse, 'Are these all the sons you have?' He answered, 'There is still one left, the youngest; he is out looking after the sheep.' Then Samuel said to Jesse, 'Send for him; we will not sit down to eat until he comes.' Jesse had him sent for, a boy of fresh complexion, with fine eyes and pleasant bearing. The Lord said, 'Come, anoint him, for this is the one.' At this, Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him where he stood with his brothers; and the spirit of the Lord seized on David and stayed with him from that day on.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 22 R. v.1

(R.) The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

1. The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit.

(R.) The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

2. He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name.

If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear.

You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort.

(R.) The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

3. You have prepared a banquet for me. In the sight of my foes.

My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing.

(R.) The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

(R.) The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

SECOND READING

EPHESIANS 5:8-14

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

You were darkness once, but now you are light in the Lord; be like children of light, for the effects of the light are seen in complete goodness and right living and truth. Try to discover what the Lord wants of you, having nothing to do with the futile works of darkness but exposing them by contrast. The things which are done in secret are things that people are ashamed even to speak of; but anything exposed by the light will be illuminated and anything illuminated turns into light. That is why it is said:

Wake up from your sleep,

rise from the dead,

and Christ will shine on you.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JOHN 8:12

Glory to you, Word of God, Lord
Jesus Christ!

I am the light of the world, says the Lord;

whoever follows me will have the light of life.

Glory to you, Word of God, Lord
Jesus Christ!

GOSPEL

JOHN 9:1. 6-9. 13-17. 34-38

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

As Jesus went along, he saw a man who had been blind from birth. He spat on the ground, made a paste with the spittle, put this over the eyes of the blind man and said to him, 'Go and wash in the Pool of Siloam' (a name that means 'sent'). So the blind man went off and washed himself, and came away with his sight restored.

His neighbours and people who earlier had seen him begging said, 'Isn't this the man who used to sit and beg?' Some said, 'Yes, it is the same one.' Others said, 'No, he only looks like him.' The man himself said, 'I am the man.'

They brought the man who had been blind to the Pharisees. It had been a sabbath day when Jesus made the paste and opened the man's eyes, so when the Pharisees asked him how he had come to see, he said, 'He put a paste on my eyes, and I washed, and I can see.' Then some of the Pharisees said, 'This man cannot be from God: he does not keep the sabbath.' Others said, 'How could a sinner produce signs like this?' And there was disagreement among them.
So they spoke to the blind man again,
'What have you to say about him yourself, now that he has opened your eyes?' 'He is a prophet' replied the man.

'Are you trying to teach us,' they replied 'and you a sinner through and through, since you were born!' And they drove him away.

Jesus heard they had driven him away, and when he found him he said to him, 'Do you believe in the Son of Man?' 'Sir,' the man replied 'tell me who he is so that I may believe in him.' Jesus said, 'You are looking at him; he is speaking to you.' The man said, 'Lord, I believe', and worshipped him.
