year of
PRAYER

Loving and merciful God,
You invite us to ask, to seek, and to knock, trusting that You will always open the door to those who come to You in faith.
As we journey together in this Year of Prayer,
open our hearts to the power of Your Spirit
and help us to grow in trust, gratitude, and love.
Teach us to listen deeply to Your voice—in silence, in Scripture, and in the faces of those around us.
Strengthen our parish family in unity and hope,
so that our prayer may lead us to action
and our faith may shine in all we do.
May this year renew our hearts
and draw us ever closer to You.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen

“Prayer is the greatest strength of the world.”

DO CATHOLICS WORSHIP MARY?

“You Catholics don’t worship God, you worship Mary.” “Why are there more pictures of Mary than there are of Jesus in that church?” “Must be cool being part of a religion with a goddess.” It might surprise some, but these are all comments that I have heard first-hand. Why? Well, it can seem like whenever someone wants to attack Catholicism they attack the role of Mary. Even within Christianity Roman Catholicism often seems to have a different relationship with Mary than other branches. But all of the questions, snide remarks, and open warfare can generally be boiled down to one question: Do Catholics worship Mary? This question has been in the forefront of my mind as I see the various Marian devotions present here in Guadalajara, Mexico, devotions that exist on a scale completely new to me. The celebrations for “La Natividad de Maria” were unlike anything I’d ever seen before and we get a day off from classes to take part in the annual pilgrimage to la Basílica de Nuestra Señora de Zapopan! It can truly be amazing to see the love for Mary that moves people to act for the Greater Glory of God, especially for those of us who come from flavors of Catholicism in which Mary is not as prominent. I have seen reconciliation between enemies and a renewed desire to welcome the outcast grow as the fruits of Marian celebrations here, which seems a strong sign that they are of the Good Spirit as “you will know them by their fruits” (Mt 7:20). However, can you really blame the person who sees someone kneel for hours in front of an image of Our Lady of Guadalupe and then leaves with not even a glance towards the tabernacle for thinking that Mary is the core of their faith? With all of this in mind, the short answer is no, Roman Catholics do not worship Mary. The Catechism teaches us that only God is to be adored and worshiped, but that doesn’t mean that Mary and the saints can’t be venerated (honoured) because of their closeness to God (CC 971) . Even among the saints Mary holds a special place because she is the Mother of God, the woman who chose, by her own free will, to say the great yes that brought Jesus into our world. What other human has ever been as close to God as she? There is also the fact that, as Jesus’s mother, Mary played a massive role in forming Him, teaching him what it meant to live a faith-filled life and to care for other people. She was with Him at both the beginning and end of His life and such closeness to Jesus is something that every Christian should strive for. The fact that she played such an important, and unique, role in human salvation makes it only right that she receives more veneration than the saints. In addition to her physical motherhood of Jesus, when Jesus was dying on the Cross he handed her over to the care of the Apostle John. Within the patriarchal culture of their time a woman without a husband or son to care for her would be cast to the outskirts of society, so Jesus was caring for His mother as best he was able. By becoming the mother of John Mary became the mother of the Church and all her members. Throughout history this has been shown time and again by the ways in which Mary appears to us, her children, in different places and times, but always as a mother. Be it Nuestra Señora del Buen Suceso or Our Lady of Knock Mary appears in a relatable and loving manner, not as an unattainable and inhuman sky-goddess. One amazing revelation from living in Latin America was the realization that nearly every country in this region of the world has a devotion to Mary that is unique to their context, be it Nuestra Señora de Chiquinquirá in Colombia or Nuestra Señora de la Paz in El Salvador. It is undeniable that many people feel a special affinity for Mary, in some cases finding it easier to talk to her than to God. This might be for any variety of reasons, but is not to be condemned. What is important to remember is that Mary is not being prayed to in the sense that the person praying expects her to change things through her own abilities. Instead, what we as Catholics believe is that Mary intercedes for us with her Son, Jesus. As with many terms that Catholics often take for granted, it is worth defining what exactly “intercession” is. According to the dictionary it’s when one person or group goes before an authority to plead for another person or group. To use a contemporary example, think about the role that a lawyer for the defense plays in your crime drama of choice. Whether in Law & Order or NCIS they have the knowledge of the legal system necessary to present their client in the best light and make convincing arguments as to why that same client should be treated with mercy. Similarly, Our Lady takes our petitions before her Son and presents them in the best possible light while asking that we be treated with God’s mercy. We approach Our Lady because she is closer to God than we are and, as our Mother, is always willing to plead our case before God. This is not a sterile legal transaction, rather it is the loving care of a Mother for her children. We do not approach Mary because God is distant, cold, or uncaring, oblivious to our problems. Rather, we approach Mary because part of her mission is to always lead us to God as our spiritual Mother. There is also the reality that we all live in a broken world, filled with human frailties. As a result of this some of us might feel more comfortable approaching a mother figure than a father figure. For many, Mary fills this role, carrying their prayers before God the Father while presenting the loving face of a Mother. Just look at the saints – from St. Ignatius of Loyola to Pope St. John Paul II, many who experienced the loss of their earthly mother, especially early in life, turned with special devotion towards their heavenly Mother. Let their devotion guide us as we seek all the help we can get on this winding path of being a Christian! Maria, Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, ruega por nosotros!

FIRST READING

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 6:1-7

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

About this time, when the number of disciples was increasing, the Hellenists made a complaint against the Hebrews: in the daily distribution their own widows were being overlooked. So the Twelve called a full meeting of the disciples and addressed them, 'It would not be right for us to neglect the word of God so as to give out food; you, brothers, must select from among yourselves seven men of good reputation, filled with the Spirit and with wisdom; we will hand over this duty to them, and continue to devote ourselves to prayer and to the service of the word.' The whole assembly approved of this proposal and elected Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, together with Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus of Antioch, a convert to Judaism. They presented these to the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

The word of the Lord continued to spread: the number of disciples in Jerusalem was greatly increased, and a large group of priests made their submission to the faith.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 32:1-2. 4-5. 18-19. R. v.22

(R.) Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

1. Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just; for praise is fitting for loyal hearts. Give thanks to the Lord upon the harp, with a ten-stringed lute sing him songs.

(R.) Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

2. For the word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love.
(R.) Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

3. The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.
(R.) Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

SECOND READING

1 PETER 2:4-9

A reading from the first letter of St Peter

The Lord is the living stone, rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him; set yourselves close to him so that you too, the holy priesthood that offers the spiritual sacrifices which Jesus Christ has made acceptable to God, may be living stones making a spiritual house. As scripture says: See how I lay in Zion a precious cornerstone that I have chosen and the man who rests his trust on it will not be disappointed. That means that for you who are believers, it is precious; but for unbelievers, the stone rejected by the builders has proved to be the keystone, a stone to stumble over, a rock to bring men down. They stumble over it because they do not believe in the word; it was the fate in store for them.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a consecrated nation, a people set apart to sing the praises of God who called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JOHN 14:6

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the way, the truth, and the life,
says the Lord;

no one comes to the Father, except through me.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

JOHN 14:1-12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to his disciples:

'Do not let your hearts be troubled.
Trust in God still, and trust in me.

There are many rooms in my Father's house; if there were not, I should have told you. I am now going to prepare a place for you, and after I have gone and prepared you a place, I shall return to take you with me; so that where I am you may be too. You know the way to the place where I am going.'

Thomas said, 'Lord, we do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way?' Jesus said: 'I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one can come to the Father except through me. If you know me, you know my Father too. From this moment you know him and have seen him.'

Philip said, 'Lord, let us see the Father and then we shall be satisfied.' 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip,' said Jesus to him 'and you still do not know me? 'To have seen me is to have seen the Father, so how can you say, "Let us see the Father"? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words I say to you I do not speak as from myself: it is the Father, living in me, who is doing this work. You must believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; believe it on the evidence of this work, if for no other reason. 'I tell you most solemnly, whoever believes in me will perform the same works as I do myself, he will perform even greater works, because I am going to the Father.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Cf JOHN 15:1,5

I am the true vine and you are the branches, says the Lord.

Whoever remains in me, and I in him, bears fruit in plenty, alleluia.
